The Company will consist of one Captain, one First Lieutenant, one Second Lieutenant, four Sergeants, four Corporals, and eighty-nine Privates, to be mustered into the service of the United States for three years, or during the war, unless sooner discharged; and to receive such bounty, pay and emoluments as are allowed to officers and soldiers of the same grade in the army of the United States.

It is expected that the men will be mounted during the marches, and in all cases will have their rifles carried for them from one place of encampment to another. This corps is designed for especial duty, and will be independent in their movements of any body of men attached to the United States Army, and is believed to be the most desirable one in which to enlist for the service of the country.

The subscriber may be addressed at Phenix Hotel, Concord, and will answer all inquiries of those wishing to enlist. A. B. JONES

To Owners and Keepers of Dogs.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Portsmouth, June 14, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance No. 23, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle, well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of this city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

June17 OREN BRAGDON, City Marshal.

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

American Women.

America is justly proud of its beautiful women; but how many die annually, or prematurely lose their health and youth for want of a remedy suitable to their peculiar ailments. That remedy is found in SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS. We know hundreds of cases where they have been used with the greatest success.—In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed,—moderating excesses and removing obstructions, whether from cold or any other cause. Suffer no more anxiety or low spirits, but try them. For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. my28 dawâm

PERSONAL.—Lieut. Spencer of the U. S. Army, visited Dover, in the early part of the week, to procure for the Army "Richards' combined Knife, Fork and Spoon," a patent just issued, and now manufactured there.

Lieut. Spencer, has been for some years, attached to the celebrated Sherman's Battery, now commanded by Capt. Ayer, and was actively engaged all the time in the recent battle at Bull Run. He gives a plain and interesting account of the important part this battery took in the action, correcting many false impressions abroad in relation to it.

His position being taken, the famous 69th N. Y. regiment and the brave Fire Zouaves formed an attacking force while our gallant 2d supported the whole. The Battery consisting of six pieces, was fired eighty two times during the engagement, reserving its fire each time until the enemy were in large force in the attack, when the effect of the discharge was most terrible, cutting, as it were, broad avenues through the dense columns of the enemy in front. It was here, near the close of the battle, that the famous Black Horse Cavalry, composed of the flower of the Southern Chivalry, and from four to six hundred in number, made their desperate but fatal charge. The Battery was charged to its utmost capacity, with grape and cannister, and when discharged, "horses and riders bit the dust." The whole squadron seemed to vanish with the flash—but what did remain, were soon dispatched by the impetuous Zouaves. Lieut. Spencer judges from what he saw, the loss of the rebels was far greater than ever yet reported or estimated. We retreated in good order and remained in a piece of woods through the night, within rifle shot of the battle ground. During the night no enemy were to be seen, and they went upon the ground and recovered many rifles, pistols and other property.—They went into the battle with six pieces, and came out with eight, two fine pieces having been captured from the enemy. These, we learn, are hereafter to be attached to the Battery. They did not leave their ground until 10 o'clock the next day, no enemy anywhere to be seen. They are now stationed at the Washington Navy Yard, preparing for a more vigorous, and we trust a more successful prosecution of the war.—Dover Gazette.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Three companies of Kentucky Cavalry reached here to day, also two applications to raise regiments in that State.

The rebel steamer George Page, attempted to leave Aquia Creek Wednesday night, but was engaged by the ice boat and retreated.

It is reported that batteries are erecting at White House. Five boat loads of armed men were seen to cross from Maryland to that place.

Prince Napoleon returned from Manassas late this evening. He breakfasted with Beauregard and Johnston. He was strongly pressed to visit Jeff. Davis at Richmond. The fortifications at Manassas are formidable. The soldiers were numerous, but poorly dressed.

It is probable that J. Lothrop Motley of Massachusetts will be Minister to Austria.

It is stated that Smith, who was arrested in New York a few days since, is a member of the rebel Congress, and will be held as a hostage for Mr. Ely.

The Tribune's dispatch says that the British Consul at Baltimore is one of the chief aiders and abettors of the rebels.

Col. Davies of the New York 16th, in answer to the numerous complaints of the people of Alexandria about outrages by his troops, advises them to display the stars and stripes, which will be sure protection.

A number of small boats on the Potomac have been destroyed by the gunboat Freeborn.

The names of the petitioners presented from Niagara county, New York, by Breckinridge, are pronounced to be forgeries.

It is reported that the rebels are concentrating at all points from Point of Rocks to Alexandria, but Gen. McClellan is perfectly ready either for offensive or defensive action.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Aug.7.—The Santa Fe mail of the 22d ult., and Carson Valley of the 26th, have arrived. Great anxiety was felt on account of the threats of the Texans to capture Government property. An express from New Mexico overtook 1000 soldiers who were returning to the States at Bent's old fort, with orders for their return to New Mexico, as it was feared the Texans were going to capture the Government forts in that territory.

Two Federal officers, Captain John W. Janes and Lieut. R. G. Garland, of the 7th infantry, had deserted from the Union service at Fort Fillmore and joined the Texans.

By the latest accounts the Texans had assembled at Fort Bliss, about 700 strong, with a number of pieces of artillery. Their pickets had approached within ten miles of Fort Fillmore, at which point there are 13 companies of regulars to meet them. A few days previous three companies left the Fort for Mesilla, to take down any rebel flags that might be found floating. As Texas supports Arizona, this may bring about a collision.

AN IMPORTANT RUMOR.—We were informed yesterday upon the best military authority, that in less than five weeks there will be encamped about our city nearly two hundred thousand soldiers. The object of having this army in our midst, instead of sending it to Washington, is that Baltimore presents better accommodations in every respect than can be found elsewhere. It is also contiguous to the three points of war, viz: Harper's Ferry, Washington, and Fortress Monroe. No better drill ground or better water can be found, while the thousand and one facilities which Baltimore possesses will render it the most desirable place for a grand encampment that can be found.—Baltimore Clipper, 6th.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 7.—Charles H. Tyler, formerly a Captain in the regular army and late a Lieut. Col. in the rebel army, and nephew of ex-President Tyler, having come here for his wife, was arrested to-day, and held for orders from Washington.

It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL: CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL!

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influences and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

There is no mistake about it!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, where it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is all wary vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW!
—AND—
STILL SOMETHING WHICH HAS STOOD
THE TEST OF YEARS,
AND STILL GROWS MORE AND MORE POPULAR EVERY DAY.
—IT IS—
PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects must be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous. —Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't give till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums; but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

THE FIRST REGIMENT.—The First New Hampshire Regiment, having served the time of their enlistment, returned to this city on Monday, arriving at 7 o'clock in the morning. They were received at the depot by a large crowd of people, and the Horse Guards escorted them to the State House Yard. The soldiers looked in good health, generally, but were rough and rusty, and many of them very ragged—showing the shameful neglect and rascality to which they have been subjected by the Government they volunteered to serve and to save. But notwithstanding all this neglect and ill-treatment, we are assured that they have done their duty manfully and promptly, in every respect; and although they have neither won battles nor captured cities, they have done much hard work, have rendered valuable service, and have experienced a large share of the soldier's hardships. For seven weeks they have had no tents to sleep under, and have been compelled, in all sorts of weather, to rest upon the bare ground after long marches and scanty fare. Yet they have generally enjoyed good health, and have returned in good spirits—many of them prepared, after a brief rest, to enter the ranks again, in the hope of rendering efficient aid in "conquering a peace."

The State authorities prepared a very substantial collation for the soldiers, in the State House Yard, consisting of cold beef and tongue, white and brown bread, cheese, crackers, coffee, &c., which they partook of with a hearty relish, after a couple hours of rest. They were then, after a few remarks by the Governor, assembled in the State House, when Lieutenant Colonel Whipple informed them that they were discharged until Wednesday morning, when they are to be paid off and "mustered out."

The baggage train and tents of the Regiment were turned over to the General Government.

We learn that two soldiers of the Regiment were lost on the way home. One, from Manchester, whose name we have not heard, was fatally injured in the cars in Pennsylvania, by striking his head against a bridge as he put his head out of the window; the other named Knox of Dover, was drowned in New York while the Regiment was encamped upon the wharf before embarking upon the steamboat. Seven of them were taken prisoners by the enemy, as we have before stated. With these exceptions, we learn that they all returned, with a few sick or disabled.

The Fisherville Home Guard came down to honor the returning soldiers, but arrived too late to take part in the escort. The company of Zouaves forming in this city also turned out; and the reception of the Regiment was honorable to the citizens and gratifying to the soldiers.—N. H. Patriot.

THE 3RD REGIMENT.—We give below the official report of Lieut. Col. Fiske of the action of our Second Regiment in the battle of Bull Run, as furnished from Regimental Headquarters.

Headquarters 2nd Reg't N. H. Volunteers,
Camp Sullivan, near Washington, July 27.

SIR:—I have the honor to submit the following report of the movements of the 2d Regiment New Hampshire Volunteers, during the march and battle on the 21st inst. I give the time of the different movements as nearly as possible.

The regiment left its camp near Centreville at 2 o'clock A. M., and immediately took its place in the column of the 2d Brigade under Col. Burnside. We continued in the column of the Brigade until near the field of battle. On arriving at the battle field (10 1-2 A. M.) we were ordered up to support the Rhode Island battery. Before arriving at the place indicated, we were ordered to the crest of a hill in a field immediately to the right—exposed to the fire of the enemy's battery. We here fired upon some battalions, said to be Georgia troops, who retired to the shelter of the woods opposite. After they retired, the regiment was withdrawn under the shelter of the brow of the hill. We were then ordered to the left, to support the Rhode Island battery. The men took their position and fired several volleys. Colonel Marston was wounded here and carried to the rear (11.30 A. M.). We were moved from here to a position on the left, and in advance of the Rhode Island battery, where we fired a few shots at the retiring enemy. After remaining here an hour, more or less, we were ordered to report ourselves to Col. Heintzelman (1 o'clock P. M.) The regiment moved to a position near his column, and I sent the Sergeant Major three several times to report the regiment ready to render any succor or support they were able to afford. The Sergeant Major was unable to meet with Col. Heintzelman or staff. After remaining in our position, I received an order to advance to a position indicated, which was to the left, and one-fourth of a mile in advance of the troops in that part of the field. The enemy was screened from our sight. As the men were exposed to fire from a battery and from musketry, I ordered them to lie down, and fire whenever any of the enemy were exposed. After a short time we were ordered to withdraw. The men retired leisurely and in perfect good order, halting once under the shelter of some woods. On our way to join our brigade, we were ordered by an officer of dragoons, whose regiment was in advance in retreat, to make haste or we should be cut off by the enemy's cavalry. Our column was formed again in the brigade, but before the formation was complete, a retreat began and continued, with a short rest at our former camp near Centreville, to Washington.

The men obeyed orders with coolness and precision, during the whole day. They took every position they were ordered to, and never wavered or retired until ordered to do so. They were among the last, if not the last, to leave the field. Their retreat on the whole route to their camp, was unattended by tumult or any disorder further than leaving their ranks. Their conduct throughout the day inspires me with entire confidence in their courage and steadiness, and I hope will meet your commendation. FRANK S. FISKE, Lieut. Col.

Commanding 2d Reg't N. H. Volunteers.

ATWOOD'S

QUININE TONIC BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and enjoyed the patronage of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of Peruvian Bark, carefully combined with various tonics and stomachics, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a valid tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in Dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after protracted diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhea, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

REAL ESTATE IN NEW CASTLE FOR SALE.

The TAVERN STAND in Newcastle near the road leading from Newcastle Bridge to Fort Constitution, is offered for sale or exchange for terms. The house has been recently put in a perfect state of repair, roof shingled, and house painted and papered throughout the interior, and is in every way fit for immediate occupation. It contains fifteen rooms, and is convenient for the business of hotel keeping and boarding. The House is within a few rods of Fort Constitution, and ample opportunities for fishing, bathing, boating, &c., are at hand.

The occupation of the Forts at the mouth of Portsmouth harbor, and the contemplated repairs of Fort Constitution promise here to an active and energetic landlord "who can keep a hotel," a handsome remuneration for a very small outlay.

BININGER'S OLD DOMINION WHEAT-TONIC

—FOR—

FAMILY AND MEDICINAL USE.

This natural product of the most nutritious grain, recommends itself as presenting in a concentrated form the nutritive properties of Wheat, and has received the best encomiums from eminent medicinal authorities, as possessing qualities that are absolutely PATTERNING; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Want of Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, and all diseases which, in their incipient stages, require only a generous diet, and an invigorating, nourishing stimulant.

Put up in quart bottles, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen each, and sold by all prominent Druggists, Grocers and Town Agents.

15 Greatest Medical Circular Ever Published! 15

Fifteen large letter pages for two 3 cent stamps.

DRS. JACKSON, HERBERT & CO. are Associated Proprietors of the National Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, Cincinnati, established Jan. 1, 1859, for the cure of Private Diseases.

Prof Egbert Jackson, Dr. Robert Herbert and M. Velpeau. Thousands cures effected with almost incredible rapidity, of Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Gleet, Nocturnal Emissions or self-abuse, Impotency, Stricture, Female Diseases, Diurnal Emissions, in short, every possible form and variety of Sexular Disease, and at the same time the general health of the patient improved, where any improvement in that respect is needed.

Our Dispensary Circular, of 15 large 8 in. by 11 in. letter pages, with full and special written Reply, sent promptly, well sealed, to any address for the amount of the postage, six cents! Every young man, whether should have one. Also, a Circular intended for ladies only, nine large letter pages, for a 3 ct. stamp. The "Mountain of Light, or Medical Protector," a new book of three hundred pages, one hundred engravings; price, in stamps or money, 50 cts. and one 3 ct. stamp, or 3 for $1 and nine cents in stamps. This book is fully described in our Circular. It is by far the most valuable and deeply interesting book on the subjects treated of, now extant, numbers that in former works were merely hinted at, are here fully explained; it contains a full and explicit key to all the secrets of marriage, love and beauty never before revealed in any book in the English language.

SATISFACTORILY

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson's Female Pills, $1—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson may be seen at the Consulting Rooms of the Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, from 8 A. M. till 1 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 8 P. M.; at other hours either Dr. Herbert or M. Velpeau, or both, will be in attendance.

Male patients, when desired, will be furnished with large, airy, comfortable rooms, suitable board and careful attendance, for the few days ordinarily necessary to effect a cure. Patients do not see each other. The most ample guarantees of our ability and good faith promptly given when desired. Free as reasonable as the very highest modes of treatment known to modern medical science, and a very long and varied experience will admit. P. O. Box 486. Send for Circular, and state your case plainly and fully,—and you will receive the Circular and our written reply by return mail. We will answer no letter unless it contains six cents in stamps. Medicine and instructions sent promptly and carefully to any part of the world.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.
The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well.—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Row, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which effected decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.
The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.
Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 960 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNEQUALLED FOREST BEAUTY.
The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. E. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.
The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains;—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, causing the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will here find the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.
"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.
Sail, yawl and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.
☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern Railroad, via Portland, daily, for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor.
Coaches from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Greenville (foot of the Lake) with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Thos. Lowell, leaving daily, Sundays excepted, for the Mt. Kineo House.
Through tickets from Boston to Mt. Kineo House, via BOSTON and Maine, and Androscoggin and Kennebec Railroads to Newport, thence by stage to Greenville (foot of the Lake,) and thence by steamer "Fairy of the Lake" to the Hotel, are sold at the Boston and Maine Station in Boston and in Lawrence. FARE THROUGH $7.50. Passengers have the privilege of stopping over at Portland, or any place East.
☞ Return tickets can be obtained of Capt. Robinson, on board steamer "Fairy of the Lake."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1861.

THE SLAVE QUESTION,—ANSWERED. In replying to Gen. Butler's question, what he shall do with fugitive negroes, Mr. Cameron, Secretary of War, says, it is the desire of the President that all existing rights in all the States be fully respected and maintained.

The Secretary further states that within the States and Territories in which the authority of the Union is fully acknowledged, the ordinary forms of judicial proceedings must be respected by the military and civil authorities alike. But in the States wholly, or in part controlled by rebels, that legal power to hold slaves becomes subordinate to the military necessity created by the rebellion, and is perhaps wholly forfeited by rebels.

The act of Congress, approved Aug. 6th 1861, declares that if persons held to service shall be employed in hostility to the United States, the right of their services shall be discharged therefrom. It follows of necessity that no claim can be recognized by the military authority of the Union to the services of such persons when fugitives.

As to slaves escaping from loyal masters, the Secretary says, the rights of such masters are still best protected by receiving such fugitives, as well as fugitives from disloyal masters, into the service of the United States, and employing them under such organizations and in such occupations as circumstances may suggest or require. Of course a record should be kept, showing the names and description of the fugitives, the names and characters, as loyal or disloyal, of their masters, and such facts as may be necessary to a correct understanding of the circumstances of each case.

Compensation is to be made loyal masters, when peace and order come again.—[In the mean time, we think, the clerk in the Contraband Bureau will have to write over a large quantity of paper.]

The document closes thus:—

You will, however, neither authorize nor permit any interference by the troops under your command with the servants of peaceable citizens in a house or field, nor will you in any manner encourage such servants to leave the lawful service of their masters; nor will you, except in cases where the public good may seem to require it, prevent the return of any fugitive to the service from which he may have escaped.

☞ We have received files of the New Orleans Picayune up to July 30. They contain a great deal of very natural jubilation over the rebel victory at Bull Run, and some fair and rather hard hits at the crowing in advance of the New York papers and others, before the battle.

A special letter from Manassas, July 24, gives 60,000 as the number of U. S. forces that moved up from Alexandria, with artillery in proportion to that number, principally 18, 24 and 32 pounders,—and says:

"All" of these [cannon] have been brought in, with medical stores sufficient for an army of 80,000 men for a year. We have in fact captured more artillery, more baggage wagons, more medicine stores, and more provisions, than we had in all our army at the beginning of the fight."

In an editorial, it was suggested that the terrible disaster of July 21, would make it difficult for the United States to get men or raise money.

But the editorial does not turn out to be much nearer the truth than the Munchausen correspondence.

One of the papers contains a glowing bogus account of a victory by Ben McCulloch, with 12,000 rebels, over 14,000 Federal forces at Springfield, Mo., in which the Federal loss was 900 killed, and the Southerners' 200 killed; and it is added, "the federal forces surrendered unconditionally." In a paper ten days later, a item says:

"We regret to learn that the report of Gen. McCulloch's victory at Springfield, Mo., was totally unfounded."

☞ N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch says—Prince Napoleon was cordially received at Manassas, and reviewed about 6000 rebel troops. He was pressed by Beauregard and Johnston to visit Richmond, but declined. Some of his suite report that there are about 60,000 troops at Manassas, and that they are dirty and ragged and look half starved. There are five regiments of infantry and two of cavalry at Fairfax. They have but a few pieces of artillery, and there are no signs of an intention to fortify the place.

A daughter of John Pierce, of Solon, Me., aged only 13, eloped on Wednesday night with an Irishman from Canada, who had been for some time in the employ of her father. The unfortunate affair had such an effect on the mother of the girl as to render her insane.

WAR ITEMS.—A dispatch from St. Louis, Aug. 11, states that Jeff. Thompson made a demonstration with his whole force against Cape Girardeau on Friday, but fled precipitately on finding the place in a good state of defence.

The N. Y. Fire Zouaves are to be reorganized. Eight hundred, the original Zoo-Zoos, are ready to shoulder their muskets, and three hundred fresh ones will make the number sufficient.

A regiment of French Zouaves is forming in Tennessee for the Federal army.

A dispatch from Washington states that Gen. Wool has certainly been ordered to take command at Fortress Monroe.

A Washington dispatch says Garibaldi has offered his services to the American Government, through the American Consul at Genoa and Secretary Seward. The offer has been accepted, and the rank of Major General tendered to the noble Italian.

Capt. Collis, of the Zouaves D'Afrique, Philadelphia, is at Sandy Hook, Md., with a tender of his corps, composed entirely of soldiers who served in the Crimean war.—Gen. Banks has promised him a letter to the Secretary of War, requesting their acceptance as an independendent corps.

Advices from Springfield, Mo., to Thursday morning say that no battle has yet been fought, but one is hourly expected. Five hundred cavalry were ready to move on Thursday morning, and the Home Guards were in motion. The regulars remained in position, and the troops lay on their arms Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The rebels were encamped on Wilson Creek, 13 miles from Springfield.

Richmond papers state that the federal government intended to use handcuffs for captured rebels, who were to be made breastworks of!

☞ One John Williams, alias C. Jordan, has been arrested in Boston, as a rebel agent: and he was sent to Fort Lafayette, New York, on Saturday.

A woman was in Boston, last week, buying percussion caps,—and applied to undertaker Peck for a coffin, in which they were probably to be stowed; but his inquires caused her to decamp.

☞ Mr. G. B. Lamar, a well known Georgia secessionist, writes home from Richmond, a letter in which he advocates an embargo on all cotton, and the repeal of all duties on imports, and other projects eminently moonshiney: by these means, he says, and by levying a direct tax on every body, on all property, and upon all incomes, to the amount of twenty-five to thirty millions dollars; and by the issue of Treasury notes, receivable for taxes—the Government will have soldiery enough, money enough, and will soon have open ports and a free commerce to buy cheaper and sell highest with all the world, and enjoy peace and amity with all the world, and the rest of Puritan Pilgrims.

The date of his letter is July 25; in which he says:—

I visited many, yesterday and to day, of the devoted Georgians of the 7th and 8th regiments, and with one exception, who cannot live, I envied them the honor of their wounds.

The battle was most bloody with them, and made much more so by the unfortunate mistake of three other regiments of our own firing into them.

The enemy thought, up to 4 o'clock they had the victory—and so they had; but the opportune arrival of two fresh regiments turned the battle and gave us a glorious victory.

On our retreat previously, our wounded fell into their hands. They treated them kindly, lifting them into the shade and leaving them with canteens full of water, and I am credibly informed that even then they told our men that they did not like to fight them; they had no cause, but were compelled to do it. Hence (I think it was) that they fled so readily when the reverses occurred.

The notice of the humanity of our troops will be observed, and the example may be improved by the rebels. It will be soon that the writer admits the victory to have been ours, up to the arrival of fresh regiments on the other side. Nor is there any of that exultation in the tone of the letter, which might have been expected had they thought they had anything to boast of.

☞ Hon. Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, arrived at Oswego, N. Y., on Saturday evening, and was received by the entire military force, and over 5000 citizens. Hon. Mr. Duer in a short speech welcomed him to the city; and Mr. Holt replied, thanking them not for himself, but because they considered him a loyal man from a loyal State. It is a determination of that old State, he said, to stand unalterably and forever by the stars and stripes. Kentucky never faltered, although her politicians did, but in the depths of her soul she has been determined to stand by the Union.

DEATH OF LEGREE.—Died, on Friday morning July 5, in Mobile, Ala., Col. Shadrach F. Slatter, a native of the State of Georgia, resident in New Orleans for the last twenty-five years. He was a notorious slave-trader, and the "Legree" of Uncle Tom's Cabin. He has died in the midst of a war against the Union, waged by the "peculiar institution" of which he was a peculiar ornament.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

Two Companies from Dover, who formed part of the 1st Regiment, returned home on Saturday, and were enthusiastically received by the citizens, the Portsmouth Cornet Band furnishing the music on the occasion.

The people of Exeter have authorized the Selectmen to pay each dependent of a volunteer from that town $1.50 per week, provided the sum so paid shall not exceed $15 per month for any one volunteer's family.

The Berry Rifle Guards, Capt. Wilbur, enlisted in Exeter, left that town on Thursday last, for Concord, where they are stationed at present.

The new Gas Company in Exeter, is to go into operation soon; the News Letter, says the pipes and brick are already on their way from this city.

On the premises of Timothy Murray, Esq., New Market, is an apple tree, on which at the present time are apples and blossoms.

The Littleton Journal says Col. Cyrus Eastman of that town has a hen whose marvellous capacity for hatching chickens, has recently been manifested. She was set upon eleven eggs—hatched nineteen chickens, and left nine eggs unbroken in the nest. The gentleman has a cow that produced 241 pounds of milk in seven days of the latter part of last month, with no other food than what she obtained in the pasture.

The publication of the Somersworth Advertiser has been discontinued for the present.

☞ Prince Napoleon's experience with the rebels at Manassas does not appear to give him a very exalted opinion of them.—He only, of the entire party, it is stated, could be accommodated with a bed, the suite being compelled to sleep in the carriages, and he had but one good meal while there. He says the rebels have no tents, but sleep anywhere under the hedges and trees, and are miserably fed. He thinks Beauregard very much of a gentleman, but very little of a soldier, while Johnston is both a soldier and a gentleman. His impression of the rebel army on the whole was bad.

☞ Much alarm was created at Springfield, Mo., Aug. 8, by reports that the rebels were flanking the city on the Southwest and East sides. Stores were closed; the citizens gathered all their valuables together, and the Directors of the branch of the State Bank of Missouri placed $250,000, mostly in specie, in the hands of Gen. Lyon for safe keeping. But scouting parties report all roads all clear, and the public mind became more calm.

FROM ST. DOMINGO.—St. Domingo dates of July 25th state that the difficulties with Spain have been amicably arranged. The Dominican army had returned to the frontier. A decree has been issued by the Spanish authorities declaring slavery to be forever abolished there. The Government offers tracts of land to immigrants from the United States. The health of the country was good.

The advices received by our Government from Mexico are most unsatisfactory. Rebellion and anarchy are rampant in nearly every State in that republic. The last advices from our minister, July 14, state that there was little hope of doing anything with the treaty. The Congress in session was opposed to any arrangement which would give right of way across their territory for our troops. This state of things has been brought about by the operations of the agents of the Davis rebel government, who were doing all in their power to prevent any such grant to the United States Government.—Boston Courier.

Democrats have always contended for "free trade," and insisted that the only truly democratic mode of supporting the Government is by direct taxation. Is it graceful, therefore, for party papers to try to make capital out of the proposed direct war tax? We advise our friends to be a little careful, if they would not, in their eagerness to kill the republicans, knock out the last pin which keeps them from sprawling on the ground.—Bath Times.

☞ The rebels on Saturday had not destroyed the few houses remaining in Hampton. They are encamped at Great Bethel. It is reported that a rebel captain, who penetrated within the line of pickets at Newport News, declared the place too strong to be attacked.

☞ The committee on the National Hymn report that they have received 1200 manuscripts, each of which has been read and considered, and are unanimously of the opinion that no one of them is suited for a National hymn.

☞ One thousand rations are now issued to contraband negroes at Old Point.—Their services are invaluable to the Quartermaster, who provides for their various wants. They work with alacrity.

☞ Hon. Joseph Holt of Ky., ex-Secretary of War, Lord Adolphus Vane Tempest, Hon. Daniel Clark, U. S. Senator from this State, Col. Steptoe, U. S. Army, and family, are at Donegana Hotel, Montreal.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 10.—The Quaker City this morning brought up the prize schooner George P. Baker, of Galveston, and her rebel crew (four men,) in irons. She was captured by our fleet off Galveston and sent to New York with a prize crew. She was captured again yesterday off Hatteras by the pirate York, who put four of her own crew on board. Meanwhile the York was seen by the gunboat Union, which gave chase and burnt the pirate, but not until she was beached and her crew had escaped, taking with them the Federal prize crew. The Union then recaptured the Geo. P. Baker, and made prisoners of her pirate crew, transferring them to the Quaker City.

A flag of truce came down this morning from Norfolk to inquire concerning several rebel officers, supposed to be imprisoned here, including Col. Pegram.

Jerry Cowden, alias John Colburn, alias A. P. Miller, the most extensive forger and counterfeiter in the United States, was arrested on Friday night, in New York.—The charge is forgery on banks of Chicago, St. Louis, Pittsburg, Columbus and Detroit, to the extent of between $20,000 and $30,000; also that, Cowden, under the guise of a drover, passed a large amount of the Brighton counterfeits upon Western bankers. He is said to have followed the profession for the past twenty-five years, and although known as a notorious counterfeiter and forger, has so far escaped punishment.

☞ On Sunday evening, Rev. Mr. Hartwell delivered the first of a series of Sabbath evening Temperance lectures, at the Broadhead church. The lecture was a good one, and was well received by an attentive audience.

PERRYSBURG, N.Y., Aug. 12.—The Cascade Mills, with a large amount of grain, were burnt Thursday night. Loss $13,000. Insured $9,000.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 10.—The sales of coffee to day were 235 bags, which were paid for in Confederate treasury notes.

One Hundred Sharp-Shooters Wanted!

A call having been made upon the State of New Hampshire for one Company of one hundred Sharpshooters, to be attached to a Regiment of fourteen hundred such, called for by the War Department, and the undersigned having been appointed Captain, and authorized to recruit said Company, would invite the best Rifle Shots in the State to come forward and enlist, to make up the quota called for by His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

No man will be accepted or mustered into service, who cannot, when firing at a rest, at a distance of two hundred yards, put ten consecutive shots in a target, the average distance not to exceed five inches from the centre of the bull's eye to the centre of the bell; and all candidates will have to pass such examination as to satisfy the recruiting officer of their fitness for enlistment in this corps.

The Company will consist of one Captain, one First Lieutenant, one Second Lieutenant, four Sergeants, four Corporals, and eighty-nine Privates, to be mustered into the service of the United States for three years, or during the war, unless sooner discharged; and to receive such bounty, pay and emoluments as are allowed to officers and soldiers of the same grade in the army of the United States.

It is expected that the men will be mounted during the marches, and in all cases will have their rifles carried for them from one place of encampment to another. This corps is designed for expeditious duty, and will be independent in their movements of any body of men attached to the United States Army, and is believed to be the most desirable one in which to enlist for the service of the country.

The subscriber may be addressed at Phenix Hotel, (Concord,) and will answer all inquiries of those wishing to enlist.

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"
of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ. WHEELER.

American Women.

America is justly proud of its beautiful women; but how many die annually, or prematurely lose their health and youth for want of a remedy suitable to their peculiar ailments. That remedy is found in SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS. We know hundreds of cases where they have been used with the greatest success.—In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disorder of the system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed,—moderating excessive and removing obstructions, which are often cold or any other cause. Suffer no more anxiety or low spirits, but try them. For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. my28 dawSm

SYMPATHY WITH TRAITORS.

Messrs. Editors:—To anonymous advocate of quasi loyalty, but real treason, has improved somewhat, within a week, and makes out as fair a plea for a bad cause as could be expected of such a writer under such circumstances.

He starts off by saying, "to us it is not conceivable, that there is anybody here who has any unlawful sympathy with the South; or who regards its action for the last eight months with any feeling more favorable than sorrow for the evils it has brought upon itself and the whole country."

How much sympathy is lawful, it may not be easy to say, and therefore I shall not meddle with that point. But this much information I get from good sources, that when the defeat of our forces at Bull Run was made known in one nest of secessionists, some voices said they were glad of it,—and others said they wished more of them were killed, &c.

This exhibition of feeling was rather more favorable than sorrow,—and was made in tones so loud and clear as to be understood by persons in a building near at hand.

Since the publication of several little items, "over different signatures," the sympathy with treason and traitors has made no noise of any consequence;—and while "all sorts of opinions may exist,"—the advocates of treason do not flaunt their secession rag in decent peoples' faces.

The pretence that traitors here can do no mischief, and need not be taken care of, is rather shallow:—and the arrest of a traitor in Boston, shows that Union men there and elsewhere have an eye to the North as well as the South. The conduct of the woman in Boston, who bought percussion caps, and tried to get a coffin to carry them in, shows that treason may lurk in petticoats as well as under uniform coats.

It is wise for those men or women who think treason, not to speak it very loudly in these days, and not to act it at all, lest the contempt of the people be changed into indignation. PAX.

☞ We have received an interesting letter from Capt. Wm. O. Sides, and we regret that a want of space compels us to omit all but the following extracts:

CAMP SULLIVAN, Washington, }
August 7, 1861. }

Messrs. Editors:—The long march after the battle at Bull Run about used up a great many who were able-bodied men when they left Washington. Many were left on the road to Washington, unable to go any further; and they continued to arrive in camp for three or four days. When we left Portsmouth, Co. K had 98 rank and file. Of these, we have 69 left. 15 have been discharged for disability, 8 are missing, 5 have deserted since the action, and one man has died since we returned.

Those who have been discharged for disability are:

Sergeants—A. J. Sides and O. F. Maxwell.

Corporals—B. L. Band and D. D. Wendell.

Privates—John R. Brockway, George E. Hill, George W. Trickey, C. S. Gray, D. F. Smith, H. P. Hodgdon, Samuel Taylor, Wm. H. Twilight.

At Hospital—John Haynes, E. H. Leslie, Nath. M. Lear.

All we have, who are fit to do duty, is 44, the remainder being under the Surgeon's care.

In your report of the wounded, you mention James E. Seavey, wounded in the leg. I am happy to say this is incorrect. A ball passed through his boot leg, but all the damage done was to the boot.

In the camp there are 74 sick under the Surgeon's care, and as many more who are unable to do duty, but had rather drill than lie in the hospital. Our camp is on the side of a hill, exposed to the scorching rays of a hot sun, with a few shade trees around the field officers' and hospital tents. The encampment is very unhealthy, on account of the sinks where all the offal accumulating from the whole camp is thrown. They are situated only about six rods from the tents, and the stench arising from them on a hot day is awful, and enough to breed distemper among the men. The Surgeon is endeavoring to have us removed, and my next letter, I hope, will be written from a more healthy locality.

WILLIAM O. SIDES,
Capt. Co. K, 2d Regt. N. H. V.

☞ We learn that the Methodists in this vicinity, will hold their annual Camp meeting on the same ground occupied last year, near New Market Junction—commencing on Monday next, Aug. 19th and continuing through the week.

A. HASELTON, Treas.

Portsmouth, Aug. 12, 1861.

☞ A man named James Fitzgerald was shot on Portsmouth Bridge early on Monday evening by the 1st Assistant Marshal of Portland. The particulars, so far as we have learned them are:—Fitzgerald, recently discharged from jail in Portland, and an accomplice, robbed a returned soldier of $150 in gold on Sunday. On Monday morning they started in the cars for this city; but the Portland officers had got wind of the matter, and had started in pursuit. At Biddeford the 1st Asst. Marshal and a Biddeford officer took passage in the same train; in passing through the cars near Wells, they were recognised by the thieves, and Fitzgerald, running through the car, immediately jumped off, although the train was running at full speed. His accomplice was captured and taken back to Portland by the next train.

On the arrival of the officers in Portland they received a dispatch, stating that Fitzgerald had engaged a man at Wells to bring him to this city. They accordingly came on in the 3 o'clock train.

On reaching this city, they procured the services of Chief Marshal Bragdon and Assistant Conn, and waited at the toll house for the arrival of the criminal. Soon afterwards Fitzgerald appeared, walking on the bridge, having been left on the other side by the man who brought him from Wells. On discovering the officers, he made a desperate rush, and succeeded in passing them; he was hotly pursued, yet as he was a swift runner, and the chase bade fair to be a long one, the Portland officer discharged his revolver at him twice,—the second shot taking effect in the right thigh, and bringing him down. He was captured and brought to the Portsmouth Police Station, where an examination of the wound was made by Dr. Folsom. It was not considered dangerous, and the man was taken back to Portland by the half past 7 train.

☞ The Kittery Artillery, which has been stationed at Fort McClary for several months, was withdrawn, as most of its members were ship-carpenters, whose services were needed on the Navy Yard. The Artillery, however, were not disbanded, as has been stated, and a correspondent states that they will not be. As the Biddeford company were unable to come as soon as expected, Serg't Shapleigh and five privates were left as a guard at the fort till the arrival of that company, which is now stationed there.

☞ The office of the Bangor Democrat, a secession sheet, was visited on Monday at 1 o'clock, by a crowd who entered the office during an alarm of fire, cleaned it out completely, and burnt the contents in the street. The editor escaped unharmed. The paper is more generally known as the Union—the name of its former daily issue.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various other tonic and aromatics, and contains not full to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, giving a healthy good to dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, and kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is not can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

It is Put up in half-pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merit.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

AYER'S
Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OSKLOOSA, Ind., 6th June, 1858.

J. C. AYER & Co. Gentlemen: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sores would break out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my neck and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without material relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was recommended to the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that anything that you made must be good. I began to use it, and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of it scarcely more than a mouth, and used almost three bottles. Now and healthy skin came on in place of the old one, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I can never express, when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED R. VALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1858, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a desperate Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of it; and says he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me of a very large Goitre or swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a valuable alterative in the numerous complaints for which I employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the leucorrhoeal kind. I have cured some dozen cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some others, in which the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured, and the leucorrhœa yielded to the general improvement in health which the knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes: "A long-green scrofulous tumor on one of the females of my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physicians thought nothing but a cutting operation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking two bottles we could see no symptom of the disease remaining."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 7th August, 1858.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I observe that you are in quest of your agent, and report to you some of the cures I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, to my great joy, one of the most obstinate cases of Syphilis that it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Dropsy, Mercurial Disease, One of my patients had a tumor on his throat, which was consuming his palate and the roof of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, should it also cured him in five weeks. Another had secondary symptoms in his nose, and the cartilage had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I had to use a probe and wooden splint to keep his features in place. He yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla, the ulcers healed, and he is well again, and of course without some disfigurement to his face. A third I have cured, treated for the same disease by mercury, was induced from this poison in her bones. They had become sensitive to the weather that on a change of weather would be crucitating pain in her joints and bones. This was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla, in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which I have seen, that it is the Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, I have truly remarkable cures with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARNER, M.D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Fayette Co., Mo., 6th July, 1858.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with the most chronic Rheumatism for a long time, and have tried all the skill of physicians, and stack to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and I have had no return of health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a valuable medicine.—J. FELLS.

Jules Y. Gotchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Page, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, and I did so, and I am well, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make me sound and well. I am a new man. The lost that can be said of you is not half your good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of these we have published in our Annual Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Tic, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Nervous Ills.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this preparation. It stimulates the vital functions of the system, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, which we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and the wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the country. Physicians of the earth, few are the communities, or even families, throughout this and many lands, but some personal experience of its efficacy—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has not all the virtue we strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

FAMILY AND MEDICINAL USE.

This natural product of the most nutritious grain, recommends itself as presenting in a concentrated form the nutritive properties of Wheat, and combining the highest encomiums from eminent medicinal authorities, as possessing qualities that are absolutely PATTERING; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, and all diseases which, in their incipient stages, require only a generous diet, and an invigorating, nourishing stimulant.

Put up in quart bottles, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen each, and sold by all prominent Druggists, Grocers and Town Agents.

PURE LIQUORS AND WINES FOR PRIVATE USE AND MEDICAL PURPOSES.

We offer to the country trade and consumers, a complete assortment of LIQUORS, WINES, &c., and would say that our experience of more than FORTY YEARS as Importers, is not only a sufficient guarantee for the Purity of our Goods, but that it enables us to offer advantages to buyers that cannot be excelled by any house in Boston. Owing to the difficulty of procuring, in many towns, a strictly pure and reliable article of Liquors and Wines for medicinal and other purposes, we have for many years given special attention to filling orders for PRIVATE USE; and consumers will find it greatly to their advantage to send their orders to us direct, as we employ no travelling or other agents whatever. Persons who require Pure Liquors or Wines in large or small quantities, may rest assured that all orders will receive our best personal attention, and that every article sent from our house will be satisfactory in every respect. Communications by mail will receive prompt attention, with full and complete catalogue of goods, prices, &c.

15 Greatest Medical Circular Ever Published! 15

Fifteen large letter pages for two cent stamp.

DRS. JACKSON, HERBERT & CO. are Associated Proprietors of the National Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, Cincinnati, established Jan. 1, 1859, for the cure of Private Diseases.

Prof Egbert Jackson, Dr. Robert Herbert and M. Verpoian. Thousands cures effected with almost incredible rapidity, of Gonorrhœa, Syphilis, Gleet, Nocturnal Emissions or self-abuse, Impotency, Stricture, Female Diseases, Diurnal Derisions, in short, every possible form and variety of Sexular Disease, and at the same time the general health of the patient improved, where any improvement in that respect is needed.

Our Dispensary Circular, of 15 large 8 in. by 11 in. letter-pages, with full and special written Reply, sent promptly, well sealed, to any address for the amount of the postage, six cents! Every young man, whether should have one. Also, a Circular intended for ladies only, nine large letter pages, for a 3 ct. stamp. The "Mountain of Light, or Medical Protector," a new book of three hundred pages, one hundred engravings; price, in stamps or money, 50 cts. and one 3 ct. stamp, or 2 for $1 and nine cents in stamps. This book is fully described in our Circular. It is by far the most valuable and deeply interesting book on the subjects treated of, now extant; matters that in former works were merely hinted at, are here fully explained; it contains a full and explicit key to all the secrets of marriage, love and beauty never before revealed in any book in the English language.

SICK OR WELL,

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson's Female Pills, $1—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson may be seen at the Consulting Rooms of the Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, from 8 A. M. till 11 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 8 P. M.; at other hours either Dr. Herbert or M. Velpeau, or both, will be in attendance.

Male patients, when desired, will be furnished with large, airy, comfortable rooms, suitable board and careful attendance, for the few days ordinarily necessary to effect a cure. Patients do not see each other. The most ample guarantee of our ability and good faith promptly given when desired. Fees as reasonable as the very highest modes of treatment known to modern medical science, and a very long and varied experience will afford. NO. 167 Sycamore street. Send for Circular, and state your case plainly and fully, and you will receive the Circular and our written reply by return mail. We will answer no letter unless it contains six cents in stamps. Medicine and instructions sent promptly and carefully to any part of the world.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,

THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring it, gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or Tic Doloureux. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sciatic pain of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, and covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.
The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.
Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 900 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNRIVALLED FOREST BEAUTY.
The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.
The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains;—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, causing the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will here find the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.
"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.
Sail, yawl and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.
☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern railroad, via Portland, daily, for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor.
Coaches from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Greenville (foot of the Lake) with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Thos. Robinson, which runs daily, Sundays excepted, to the Mt. Kineo House.
Through tickets from Boston to Mt. Kineo House, via Boston and Maine, and Androscoggin and Kennebec Railroads to Newport, thence by stage to Greenville (foot of the Lake), and thence by steamer "Fairy of the Lake" to the House.—are sold at the Boston and Maine Station in Boston and in Lawrence. FARE THROUGH $7.50.
Passengers have the privilege of stopping over at Portland, or any place East.
☞ Return tickets can be obtained of Capt. Robinson, on board steamer "Fairy of the Lake."

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1861.

WAR ITEMS.—A number of most distinguished European officers, particularly from England and France, have tendered their services to the United States, but it is not known that any have been accepted.

The alleged semi-official announcement, in the Richmond papers, that Admiral Dundas intends to take his fleet into Charleston regardless of the blockade, has no practical significance even if true, as war vessels of any nation, at peace with the United States, have a right to enter our ports, notwithstanding the blockade.

When Gen. Scott telegraphed last week to Gen. Wool to know if he was well and able to direct a wing of the army, the gallant hero of Buena Vista replied with soldierlike brevity: "Ready—never better."

La Mountain made two successful ascensions on Saturday. He found the rebel encampment to be three miles beyond Newmarket bridge. There were no traces of troops nearer Hampton. A considerable force is also encamped some eight miles above Newport News. The two cannon mounted at Sewall's Point toward Old Point, he thinks only field pieces. There are perhaps one thousand rebels at Sewall's Point.

The officers of a Government steamer just arrived at Washington from a cruise on the Potomac, report large numbers of Maryland rebels constantly making attempts to cross the river.

Col. Latson, of the New York Horse Artillery, has received an order for the immediate mustering of his regiment into the service, from the War Department.

A Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Post says that two regiments have been raised in New Mexico for its defense. One, if not both, will be mounted troops. The Colonels are St. Vrain and Espine, Lieutenant Colonels Kit Carson and Manuel Chevez. It is intended to raise two more.

Ex-Minister Faulkner, was arrested at Washington, on Monday, by a detachment of the Provost Guard. He was conveyed to the jail, and not permitted to hold correspondence or conversation with any of his friends. It is said that he held a commission of Brigadier General in the rebel army.

The Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Fox, has returned to Washington, from a visit to the North, connected with the business of the Department. Over seventy vessels have been purchased and thirty chartered, generally of light draught, intended rather for coast than sea service, and much attention has been paid to swiftness in their selection.

The schooner Mary & Adeline, at New York, from Maryland, reports being spoken in Tangier Sound, by a privateer. About three hours afterwards a man-of-war passed up the Sound, and subsequently heavy firing was heard. It is supposed that the privateer was captured.

Beauregard's official report states that the rebel loss at Bull Run killed and wounded was 1470.

The President is in excellent health, and will not leave Washington this year.

HAMPTON, VA., which the rebels and Magruder have burnt in such a cruel and barbarous manner, was a place of some two thousand inhabitants, with five churches, several hotels, and numerous stores. After the outbreak of hostilities many of the people left, and a large portion of the five hundred houses set on fire were vacant or tenanted only by deserted slaves.

"OLD ABE" AGAIN WITH AN AXE.—The correspondent of the N. Y. World says the President lately visited our lines across the Potomac, and astonished the soldiers (who were felling the Arlington oaks for the new abattis) by lifting an axe by the helve at arm's length, till the iron was on a level with his shoulder.

☞ The recent order of the Post Office Department, prohibiting the transmission of envelopes containing scandalous matter, is intended to cover such cases as that of a Massachusetts quack, who selected that mode to indecently advertise his business. It has no application to envelopes containing patriotic Union devices.

☞ Dr. Dwight, formerly President of Yale College, has calculated that one hundred million and two hundred thousand tons of water go over Niagara Falls every hour.

PETERBORO, C. W., Aug. 12.—A fire last night destroyed the Post Office, Custom-House, and a large number of buildings. Loss $80,000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

The following army appointments from New Hampshire have been made and confirmed:

Richard N. Batchelder, Manchester, to be Assistant Quartermaster, with the rank of Captain.

Jeremiah C. Tilton, of Sanbornton, Commissary of subsistence, with the rank of Captain.

Geo. P. Folsom of Dover, Geo. Marston and M. K. Hazelton of Bradford, Paymasters.

Wm. F. Greeley of Nashua, 1st Lieutenant in the 11th Infantry.

A. B. Thompson, of Holderness, Captain in the 13th Infantry.

The Mirror states that on Saturday evening half a dozen fellows went to a place kept by a man named Welsh, in Manchester, supposing it to be a bad house.—Only Welsh, his wife, his wife's sister and children were present. Welsh refused them admittance, but in they went, and said they were going to "clean it out." Quite a fracas ensued. Joseph Welsh, teamster, went in to stop the row, and got thrice bad cuts on the head. Mrs. Welsh and her sister also received some ugly blows. Finally the police came and restored peace. As Councilman Todd was endeavoring to get one of the rowdies home, a pistol in the hands of the ringleader went off, accidentally it is said, and Todd received the contents near the groin, where the ball is now lodged.

The Manchester American learns that Col. Eastman is endeavoring to obtain rifles for the entire Third Regiment; and if he is unable to get them from the ordnance department, the Governor and Council will obtain the New Haven rifled gun.

The elegant and costly dwelling house and farm buildings of Mr Nathan W. C. Jameson, of Antrim, together with eighty tons of hay, three very valuable horses, several fine carriages, &c., were totally destroyed by fire on Friday evening. The fire, which caught in the barn from some mysterious and unknown cause, was discovered about 7 o'clock, and spread with fearful rapidity, until all was in flames. The household furniture was mostly saved, in a damaged condition. Partially insured.

Adjutant Langley, of the Second Regiment has been appointed Captain in the regular army.

Lieuts. Greeley of Nashua, Thompson of Holderness, and Prescott of Concord were promoted to first lieutenancies in the regular army for their good conduct at Bull Run.

The Statesman says that the Third Regiment will go into camp on the intervale, east of Merrimack river, and south of the Free Bridge Road. The ground is selected and laid out. It is on the green sward, near a cool spring, which affords abundance of excellent water; and the river is near, so that it can be resorted to for bathing.—The new camp, we trust, will be more agreeable than Camp Union.

Mr. Jeremiah C. Tilton, of Sanbornton, appointed Commissary of subsistence in the regular army, with the rank of Captain, is at present one of the Railroad Commissioners of this State. He was for six years connected with the New Hampshire militia, prior to and during the Mexican war, in which he held the office of Colonel, and commanded for two years the 29th reg't.

There was an extensive fire in the woods on one of the large islands in Lake Winnipiseogee on Friday and Saturday last, and in the night the flames made a splendid appearance. A severe thunder shower extinguished it.

The Mount Washington carriage road was opened to the summit, complete for carriage travel, Aug. 9. Thirteen guns were fired at the summit at 1 1-2 o'clock.—The employees marched up the mountain, bearing a beautiful American ensign, and formed in line, giving three cheers. At the dinner, remarks were made by the directors, and the booming of guns fired at Tuckerman's ravine enchanted the visitors.

☞ Lieut. Frank E. Brownell, the avenger of the death of Ellsworth, has received a splendid present from some of his friends in Boston. It is a dagger with an ivory head carved with great skill by Wm. Lantz of Boston. At the top of the handle is represented the American eagle in the act of killing a rattlesnake, the symbol of the so-called Southern Confederacy. The dagger, as well as the sheath, is mounted with solid silver.

ARREST OF TWO NEW BEDFORD MEN.—Deputy U. S. Marshal Bicknell, of Boston, arrested Albert S. Bigelow, a wholesale liquor dealer, and Andrew H. Potter, of the firm of A. H. Potter & Co, outfitters, both of New Bedford, on charge of fitting out the ship Brutus, of that port, as a slaver. The Brutus left New Bedford August 29th, 1860, cleared by Mr. Bigelow, ostensibly on a whaling voyage.

☞ The New York councilmen have purged themselves from public contempt by passing over Mayor Wood's veto, the resolution taking the corporation advertising from the Daily News, the vilest secession paper in the free states. The vote was 17 to 3.

THE LATEST NEWS.—We are indebted to Mr. Brewster, of the Boston Traveller, for Extras, containing the news received up to 5 P. M., Tuesday evening. From them we glean the following items:—

The President has issued a proclamation designating the last Thursday in September as a day for a National Fast.

A flag of trace from Norfolk with 22 released prisoners of war, arrived at Fortress Monroe, Aug. 12. Among them were several Surgeons, who remained at Sudley Chuch and the stone building after the battle, and were taken prisoners. Finally they were released on parole. They have been courteously and kindly treated, and give the most unqualified denial to the stories of killing or ill-treatment of the wounded.

Maj. Moore with a detachment of the Irish Brigade, arrived from Syracuse, Monday evening, with 22 prisoners captured at Georgetown with arms in their hands, on route to join Magoffin.

Judge Catron of the Supreme Court has been expelled from Nashville by the Vigilance Committee, because of his refusal to resign the Judgeship.

The Treasury Department will soon issue instructions to disbursing officers that no creditor of the Government is to be compelled to take Treasury notes in satisfaction of his claim.

A dispatch, dated Franklin, Mo., Aug. 12th, states that the time of the 1st Iowa Regiment expires on Wednesday, but they are determined to remain with Gen. Lyon, until the issue in that quarter is decided. According to information derived from prisoners, deserters and scouts the rebels number 21,000.

A later dispatch states that Gen. Lyon had been repulsed, and killed.

The report was not credited.

A Washington despatch says, it appears that the President privately offered to Garibaldi the command of a column, learning that he would visit this country. It will be some time before an answer will be received. A letter from Minister Fogg states that Garibaldi said to him—"If your war is for freedom I am with you with 20,000 men."

The rebel depot at Machodock Creek on the Potomac, was broken up Saturday night, by Lieut. Budd of the Resolute. A number of buildings were destroyed, ten contrabands brought away, and a large muffled-oared boat capable of carrying 25 or 30 persons. A subsequent expedition destroyed a number of boats at Herring Creek on the Maryland side.

Ex-Congressman Somes, of Maine, is to be appointed Governor of Utah.

Saturday night Sergt. Tompkins, of Co. A, 2d Cavalry, was sent out from the camp at Sandy Hook, Md., in charge of the picket guard. He took his entire equipments. After stationing his first picket he disappeared, and has not since been heard from. But little doubt is expressed that he cast his lot among the rebels, his father and brothers being officers in the Confederate Army.

NEWS FROM EUROPE to August 2, via Liverpool, is received by the steamer Nova Scotian. Lord Elgin has been appointed Governor General of India. The Du e of Buckingham is dead. The Times and Herald discourage the negotiation of an American loan in England.

The bankers know better than the editors. When they hear of our defeat at Bull Run, they may pause; but they will buy some of our debt, nevertheless, risking a little more discount for our calamity.

The Roman question is again discussed in Paris, and a solution is said to be near at hand. This solution is supposed to be the evacuation of Rome by the French, and its occupation by the Italians. The Italian loan has been very successful, the offers exceeding the requirements. In the English markets cotton is quoted firm at a slight advance. In breadstuffs and provisions, no change of importance. Consols closed on the 2d at 90 a 90 1-4 for money and accounts, an advance of 1-8 a 1-4 on the quotations of the 27th ult. The Bank has reduced its rate of interest to 5 per cent.—The bullion in bank had increased £476,000.

The Paris correspondent of the London Post says the British Government is just now in intimate correspondence with the French Cabinet, in order that united action may be observed towards America by sea and land, as a real conflict is now expected. A perfect understanding is likely to be arrived at.

The Times editorially expresses its satisfaction that the captiousness and irritability exhibited towards England in America had been abandoned.

A Naples dispatch says several superior French officers are in the service of the Pope, and that a priest from Rome had been arrested.

It is reported that Napoleon had assured the Pope that he will defend Rome and the Papacy at any cost.

The weather in England was very fine, and everything that could be desired for harvest operations.

The American horse Starke ran second for the Goodwood stakes. The winner was Elicho.

The American horse Starke won the Goodwood cup. Wizard ran second and Optimist third.

The Commons finally passed the Bankrupt bill as amended by the House of Lords.

WAR.—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

Boonsboro', Md., Mch. 21, '61.

Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir—Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach—he was, after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.

The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all—in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, pronounce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. Yours truly, F. H. IRWIN,

One Hundred Sharp-Shooters Wanted!

A call having been made upon the State of New Hampshire for one Company of one hundred Sharpshooters, to be attached to a Regiment of fourteen hundred such, called for by the War Department, and the undersigned having been appointed Captain, and authorized to recruit said Company, would invite the best Rifle Shots in the State to come forward and enlist, to make up the quota called for by His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

No man will be accepted or mustered into service, who cannot, when firing at a rest, at a distance of two hundred yards, put ten consecutive shots in a target, the average distance not to exceed five inches from the centre of the bull's eye to the centre of the ball; and all candidates will have to pass such examination as to satisfy the recruiting officer of their fitness for enlistment in this corps.

The Company will consist of one Captain, one First Lieutenant, one Second Lieutenant, four Sergeants, four Corporals, and eighty-nine Privates, to be mustered into the service of the United States for three years, or during the war, unless sooner discharged; and to receive such bounty, pay and emoluments as are allowed to officers and soldiers of the same grade in the army of the United States.

It is expected that the men will be mounted during the marches, and in all cases will have their rifles carried for them from one place of encampment to another. This corps is designed for especial duty, and will be independent in their movements of any body of men attached to the United States Army, and is believed to be the most desirable one in which to enlist for the service of the country.

The subscriber may be addressed at Phenix Hotel, Concord, and will answer all inquiries of those wishing to enlist. A. B. JONES.

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston,—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

American Women.

America is justly proud of its beautiful women: but how many die annually, or prematurely lose their health and youth for want of a remedy suitable to their peculiar ailments. That remedy is found in SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, which have cured hundreds of cases where they have been used with the greatest success.—In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed,—moderating excesses and removing obstructions, whether from cold or any other cause. Suffer no more anxiety or low spirits, but try them. For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. my28 dawâm

For the Chronicle.

A VISIT TO FORT MCCLARY AT NIGHT. The summer sun was just setting behind the distant hill tops, as our boat (a fast one) with the Stars and Stripes floating at the bow, shot out into the stream. Swiftly we glided through the water, which gently rippled at our side, and at every dip of the oars sparkled and glistened with phosphoric light. We soon arrived at the Narrows; and now the sun had dropped behind the hills, throwing its last lingering rays on the masses of heavy clouds, which like some rich scenic display, though far more beautiful, changed from purple to crimson, with delicate bands of gold running above and below, making up a lovely picture, such as nature only can paint.

When off Fort Washington, we came up with a pleasure yacht, on board of which were a number of friends from Boston, and this city. They had been three days out, and had all been sea-sick on the passage, and had put into the lower harbor, to recruit previous to sailing for Portland. The wind having died away, they were endeavoring to tow the vessel out to Fort Constitution, to be in readiness to sail early in the morning.

We took up their tow line and assisted them to a safe anchorage, after which we sojourned for a while in their cabin, which was quite roomy and fitted up in fine shape. After a rest of half an hour, we all took boats, and started for Fort McClary. The yacht party had received an invitation in the morning, to make an evening call there, and as soon as we had landed on the wharf, we were received in true military style, by a salute from the guns of the Fort. We charged up to the portcullis, which soon opened, and we were cordially received by the officers, who invited us to the castle, where we passed the evening.

Our Boston friends had brought two Violins and a Flute, and there being an excellent Clarionet player connected with the garrison, we were treated to some fine selections of music, interspersed with songs from all parties.

The Clarionet performer was an old soldier, having seen service in the English army ten years, and having served at the battle of Sebastopol, His account of his hair-breadth escapes at that action, and in India, were listened to with much attention. The Company now stationed at the Fort, are mostly from Biddeford; they are fine appearing men, and are under excellent discipline. Capt. Andrews, Lieut's Edwards and Boothby, are soldiers in every word and motion, and we have no doubt that if they have an opportunity, will prove themselves such in deeds.

The Fort is very much in need of repairs. The brick barracks are not in a condition to live in, and the officers and men quarter in the castle. Four grim looking 32 pounders, and two 6 pound brass field guns, are mounted en barbette on the parapets.

The garrison were in fine spirits, and seemed to enjoy camp life hugely. When we sung the Hallelujah Ellsworth song, every one was inspired with the enthusiasm which this piece usually imparts, and when we finished, the air rang with the loud Hurrah of the privates, who had collected in the yard below. Soon after, when we took our departure, they very courteously formed at right and left near the entrance, and saluted us as we passed through. We reached our boat in safety; and with a long pull and a strong pull against tide, arrived home in the wee small hours. H.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We regret to learn that Mr. George Edward Rice died suddenly on Saturday at his boarding house in Roxbury. Mr. Rice was well known as a graceful poet, and his serious and humorous productions have elicited much praise from competent judges.

He was a nephew of Rev. Dr. Burroughs of this city, and recently paid him a visit, having left here but a short time since. He will be remembered by Lyceum goers for a fine poem recited a few winters ago before the M. L. Association. His wife, who died some time since, was a daughter of G. W. Crockett, Esq., formerly of this city.

☞ The following is the rate of taxation in Portsmouth and towns in this vicinity, the present year. Portsmouth, 95 7-8 cents on every $100 of the valuation; Greenland, 71; Rye, 80; North Hampton, 79 5-100; Hampton, 100; Hampton Falls, 64; Seabrook, 90.

☞ The mob which destroyed the office of the Bangor Democrat on Monday noon, roughly handled Joseph Jones, a barber formerly a resident of this city, who made some demonstration not regarded by the crowd as appropriate to the times and the occasion. He was rescued, however, and placed in jail.

☞ We learn by letter from Washington, that Camp Sullivan, (of the New Hampshire 2d,) was removed on the 9th inst., to a much better location, about five miles from their late site.

☞ We notice that the Boston papers contain Advertisements for proposals from ship builders, to construct the twelve side wheel steamers which were authorized to be built at the recent session of Congress.

We trust our Portsmouth mechanics, who are not to be surpassed by any in the country, will get a share of this work, if our Navy Yard don't.

ANOTHER OLD BREWER:—not so very old, but older than Martin, and not so old as Foster:—has just been brought to mind. A retired grocer tells us, what we never knew before, viz. that Thomas King, who used to keep a Boarding House in Daniel street, was a brewer here for some time,—and that after he left the business, Michael Martin took it up. King made his beer from barley, which our friend the grocer used to sell him, and take in his beer in payment. Thomas King was an Englishman, and a lover of beer, as well as a maker and seller of it.

☞ Among the recent promotions in the Navy, is that of Lieut. William A. Parker, to be a Commander. He has been detached from the Charlestown, Mass., Navy Yard, and ordered to take the command of the U. S. steamer Cambridge, at that Navy Yard.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 12.—A passenger from Richmond, via Knoxville, Friday, reports that Gen. Zollicoffer, at the head of the Tennessee troops there, suppressed Parson Brownlow's Knoxville Whig.

The Richmond Examiner of the 8th says the rebel Congress on Tuesday considered the bill for public defense. The bill authorizes the President to employ the military conformably to the act of March 16th, and to accept 400,000 volunteers.

The Norfolk Herald of the 7th says that the steamer Whitney came to Newport News on Sunday, and proceeded to sea on Monday with her decks filled with troops.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug 13.—The Fire Zouaves left for New York this afternoon, where they will be disbanded preparatory to a reorganization.

A man named Burke was arrested to-day by our pickets six miles out of Alexandria, charged with being a spy.

A party of officers, to-day, visited Mount Vernon, and went three miles South of there. No rebel troops had been seen in that locality for two weeks.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 13.—The Tennessee Banner of the 9th says that Mr. Edwards, who swore to support the rebel constitution, was elected from Bradley county to the House, by 590 majority, and that the members from Lower East Tennessee are Union men.

The Athens, Tenn., Post says it is reported that several companies in that county have been organized to resist the action of Tennessee, in becoming a member of the rebel Confederacy, and hopes the report is without foundation as the county has given a decided rebel majority.

FRANKLIN, Mo., Aug. 12.—A messenger from Springfield, reports that Gen. Lyon's advance guard met the rebel advance guard on Thursday, and an engagement ensued, resulting in the driving of the rebels into the woods. The loss is not stated. Four prisoners, twenty head of cattle, and four horses were seized Thursday night by two companies of cavalry. Gen. Lyon was trying to draw the rebels into battle.

The brig Sea Foam, at New York from Curacoa, reports that the privateer Sumpter arrived there on the 17th, and was allowed by the Governor to coal and refit, against the protest of the U. S. Consul.—She left on the 24th. The crew had their liberty on shore during that time "and raised the devil generally."

ATWOOD'S

QUININE TONIC

BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and unbounded patronage of most of our leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and aromatic, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild cure for the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, performing quick cures in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases, and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhea, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 8th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co.: Gentlemen: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it would burst out in ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was induced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), of which I knew from past experience that any thing you made must be good. I sent it [illegible] and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful at a time, three times a day, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You may well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the benefactors of the age, and remain ever gratefully. Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Solon, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same, and says he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "There has for a year Sarsaparilla cured me from a disease, which was rapidly swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from ever two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. R. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The alteration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Murrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physicians thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One day patients had been taking it above a dozen bottles, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, but of course without some disfigurement in his face. A young man I have also treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a cloudy day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones, she, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from his formula, which I have studied, and from the skill of physicians, and stark to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla, that bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it's wonderful virtues are in it. J. TEAS.

Jules Y. Gotchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me, and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My physical pastor, the Rev. Mr. Guy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to enable a new man to take the place of the old. The last that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

Almost every case of cures have been reported in the whole circle of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this powerful alterative, as the public are aware thereof. Some of these may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the millions of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

Has so generally an universally known its surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the virtues of each bottle. Its wonderful efficacy for coughs and colds, and its truly astonishing cures of pulmonary disease, have made it a household word throughout the entire nations of the earth. Few there are in communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some being living to bear testimony to their relief or even recovery from the dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As a result, the unrivalled healthy of these disorders, and as their cause, has the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues it ever had. Colds have often, making the cause which have led to so many upon the confidence of mankind.

Fifteen large letter pages for two 3 cent stamps.

DRS. JACKSON, HERBERT & CO. are Associated Proprietors of the National Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, Cincinnati, established Jan. 1, 1858, for the cure of Private Diseases.

Prof Egbert Jackson, Dr. Robert Herbert and M. Velpeau. Thorough cures effected with almost incredible rapidity, of Gonorrhea, Syphillis, Gleet, Nocturnal Emissions or self-abuse, Impotency, Stricture, Female Diseases, Diurnal Emissions, in short, every possible form and variety of Sexual Disease, and at the same time the general health of the patient improved, where any improvement in that respect is needed.

Our Dispensary Circular, of 15 large 8 in. by 11 in. letter pages, with full and special written Reply, sent promptly, well sealed, to any address for the amount of the postage, six cents! Every young man, whether should have one. Also, a Circular intended for ladies only, nine large letter pages, for a 3 ct. stamp. The "Mountain of Light, or Medica Protector," a new book of three hundred pages, one hundred engravings; price, in stamps or money, 50 cts. and one 3 ct. stamp, or 3 for $1 and nine cents in stamps. This book is fully described in our Circular. It is by far the most valuable and deeply interesting book on the subjects treated of, now extant; matters that in former works were merely hinted at, are here fully explained; it contains a full and explicit key to all the secrets of marriage, love and beauty never before revealed in any book in the English language.

SICK OR WELL,

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson's Female Pills, $1—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson may be seen at the Consulting Rooms of the Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, from 8 A. M. till 3 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 8 P. M.; at other hours either Dr. Herbert or M. Velpeau, or both, will be in attendance.

Male patients, when desired, will be furnished with large, airy, comfortable rooms, suitable board and careful attendance, for the few days ordinarily necessary to effect a cure. Patients do not see each other. The most ample guarantee of our ability and good faith promptly given when desired. Our fees are reasonable as the very highest modes of treatment known to modern medical science, and a very long and varied experience will admit. P. O. Box 538. Send for Circular, and state your case ☞ plainly and fully,—and you will receive the Circular and our written reply by return mail. ☞ We will answer no letter unless it contains six cents in stamps. Medicine and instructions sent promptly and securely to any part of the world.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,

THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring it, gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am cured—freely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entire ly cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1859.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.

Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the lake; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 960 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNEQUALLED FOREST BEAUTY.

The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc., etc.

The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains;—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, causing the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will here find the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.

"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.

Sail, yawl and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.

☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern Railroad, via Portland, daily, for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor.

Coaches from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Greenville (foot of the Lake) with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Thos. Robinson, which runs daily, Sundays excepted, to the Mt. Kineo House.

Through tickets from Boston to Mt. Kineo House, via Boston and Maine, and Androscoggin and Kennebec Railroads to Newport, thence by stage to Greenville (foot of the Lake,) and thence by steamer "Fairy of the Lake" to the House, are sold at the Boston and Maine Station in Boston and in Lawrence. FARE THROUGH $7.50. Passengers have the privilege of stopping over at Portland, or any place East.

☞ Return tickets can be obtained of Capt. Robinson, on board steamer "Fairy of the Lake."

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 15, 1861.

WHAT ARE WE FIGHTING FOR?—This very important question was put, not not many days ago, to a conservative and mild but decided Union man. His answer is, for substance, embraced in the resolutions offered in the House by Mr. Crittenden of Virginia, and in the Senate by Mr. Johnson of Tennessee.

Mr. Johnson, of Tennessee, offered a resolution that the present civil war was forced on the country by the disunionists of the Southern States, now in rebellion against the Constitutional Government; and that in this emergency Congress, banishing all passion and resentment, will only recollect its duty to the whole country; that the war is not waged in any spirit of suppression or subjugation, or with any purpose of overthrowing the institutions of those States, but to maintain and defend the supremacy of the Constitution and the laws, and that as soon as this is accomplished the war ought to cease.

This passed the Senate with only five negative votes. Mr. Crittenden's was nearly the same, and it passed the House with only two nays.

This must be held conclusive, as to one side of the contest: but there is another side; and how does it stand? What are they fighting for?

They aim to overthrow the Government, and form a new one, whose corner stone shall be negro slavery, whose leading principle shall be aristocracy, built on slavery as its foundation, and whose policy shall be to make that slavery as nearly complete and perpetual as possible.

Language could hardly make the case plainer, on either side.

How long and severe, how costly and bloody the contest will be, no man can tell: but every friend of the country and of humanity must desire to have the day of strife shortened, and every christian will pray that it may be so.

Great principles are involved in the struggle: on the one hand the Government and loyal people of the United States desire to preserve their union unbroken, their constitution entire, their institutions as the fathers left them, without violent or sudden changes, even on the side of improvement.

But on the other hand the rebels aim at the destruction of the first principles of liberty; they put out the lights of the mind as well as those on the coast, they steal the arms, they violate their oaths, disregard all obligations; and because they could no longer rule the nation by fraud, resolve to dash it in pieces by force.

The paralysis and derangement of business, the breaking up of many social and domestic circles, the bereavement and grief of thousands of families, are incidents of this war, as of all wars.

And there are other incidents also, which thrust themselves into this contest in particular, and which cannot be separated from it, by any caution on our part, or by any lack of it on the part of the rebels. Of about four millions of negroes, forming about one sixth of our population, a very large part are in the rebel States, and, disguise it as we may, the rebellion is on their account, and they know it!

Our government and most of our loyal people, fight shy of this point,—for really they know not what to do with it. But the leading rebels, who have ruled the nation through the slave power, are loth to lose it; and so they fight for it, and lie for it, and steal for it,—and they hope to find friends and allies enough at the North, to help them regain and keep it.

They profess, sometimes, to want to be let alone! Yes;—exactly, until they get strength enough to treat us as kindly as they treated Florida, Texas, and Mexico.

They talk of peace, in the tub which they toss to the Northern whale:—but peace on what terms? and how long will they keep it?

Does anybody remember the half dozen compromises, finalities, &c. which the same power has broken? And is any sane man so green as to suppose this power would be any more honest as a neighbor, than it has been as a citizen?

We can easily suppose the country formed into two governments, a Confederacy and a Union; but with any conceivable and practicable boundary, connected as we must be, we can hardly see how the peace could be kept for a single year.

When the slave power shall fall, whoever may live to see that day, may perhaps see peace:—but for the present, this disturbing element is active in producing the irrepressible conflict,—and if it will not peacebly keep within bounds, we must either fight, or submit to be trodden under foot.

BATTLE IN MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—The following is an official report of the fight near Springfield, on Saturday, forwarded by one of Gen. Lyon's aids.

To Major General Fremont.—Gen. Lyon, in three columns, under himself, Gen. Siegel and Major Sturgis, attacked the enemy at 6 1-2 o'clock on the morning of the 10th, 9 miles southeast of Springfield. The engagement was severe. Our loss is about 800 in killed and wounded. Gen. Lyon was killed in a charge at the head of his column. Our force was 8000, including 2000 Home Guards. The muster rolls taken from the enemy give his force as 23,000. Their loss is reported as heavy, including Generals McCulloch and Price. This statement is corroborated by prisoners. Their tents and wagons were destroyed in the action. Gen. Siegel left only one gun on the field. He retreated to Springfield with a large number of prisoners. At 3 o'clock on the morning of the 11th, he continued his retreat on Rolla, bringing off his baggage trains and $25,000 in specie from the Springfield banks.

The special messenger to Gen. Fremont states:

"A severe cannonading was kept up for two hours, when the fire of Totten's artillery becoming too severe for the enemy, they gradually fell back towards their encampment on Wilson's Creek. Gen. Lyon's cavalry on the left flank and Gen. Siegel's artillery on the right then began a terrific attack and spread slaughter and dismay in the ranks of the rebels, pursuing them to their camps. The shells set fire to their tents and baggage wagons which were all destroyed. A Louisiana and a Mississippi regiment seemed to suffer the most, and were almost annihilated.

While Gen. Lyon was leading his column his horse was shot under him. Immediately he mounted another, and as he turned around waving his hat and cheering his men on to victory, he was struck in the back and fell dead to the ground. The command then devolved on Gen. Siegel. The pursuit was continued until night to the enemy's encampment. On Sunday morning Gen. Siegel, fearing the enemy might recover and get between him and Rolla, he concluded to fall back on Rolla with his provision train and meet reenforcements.

When the messenger left, the enemy had not been seen, and it is probable that Gen. Siegel was not disturbed on his march.

Ninety rebels were captured, including a Colonel of distinction. The sword and horse of Gen. McCulloch were among the trophies. Reenforcements were on the way to Rolla, and Gen. Siegel and his army may be considered safe.

A dispatch from Rolla, Mo., Aug. 13, gives the following additional particulars of the battle, furnished by eye-witnesses:

Our army marched out of Springfield, Friday evening, with only 5500 men, the Home Guards being left at Springfield.

The fight raged from sunrise till 1 or 2 o'clock P. M. The rebels, in overwhelming force, charged on Totten's battery three times, but were repulsed with great slaughter. Gen. Lyon fell early in the day; he had previously been wounded in the leg, and had a horse shot under him.

Gen. Siegel had a very severe struggle, and lost three of his four guns. His artillery horses were shot, and his pieces disabled. He endeavored to haul them off with his prisoners, but was finally compelled to abandon them, first, however, spiking the guns and disabling the carriages.

About 1 o'clock the enemy seemed to be in great disorder and retreating, setting fire to their baggage wagons. Our forces were too much cut up and fatigued to pursue, so the battle may be considered a drawn one. Our loss is variously estimated at 150 to 300 killed and several hundred wounded.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—Nothing further from Springfield.

The police office was taken possession of by the federal authorities, and the Home Guards ordered to be prepared for any emergencies.

The city is quiet. Fremont will probably declare martial law to-morrow.

A loan of $250,000 was effected from our banks to-day by Gen. Fremont.

Heavy siege guns are being mounted to command the approaches to the city.

It is stated that Siegel would have lost another gun had he not compelled the prisoners to drag it away.

NEW YORK Aug. 14.—It is reported that the steam tug Yankee was sunk by shot from the rebel steamer Page, at the mouth of Aquia creek.

Two of the twelve new side-wheel gunboats have been ordered to be built at the Portsmouth yard, one each at Charlestown, Brooklyn, and Philadelphia, and the others to be constructed in private yards.

By order of the War Department, the forces from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois are undoubtedly now in Missouri to reinforce Gen. Siegel.

☞ The Breckinridge candidates for Governor and Congress were to address a meeting in San Francisco, July 31st, but were prevented by groans, hisses and cheers for the Union. There is no toleration there for secession sympathizers.

Fifteen of the twenty-one Breckinridge papers in California support the Union Democracy.

☞ A woolen manufacturing firm in Endfield is making knit uniforms for the Connecticut volunteers, of durable material and proper color, represented to be serviceable for summer or winter wear, which can be furnished per uniform—jacket, vest and pantaloons—for three dollars.

☞ Dispatches from Washington state that Gen. Anderson, though advised by physicians to refrain from active duty, is determined to take the field at once.

☞ Returns from the Tenn. election show a majority for the rebel Constitution of 52,000, and for Harris for Governor of about 30,000. In the 1st Dist. Mr Nelson is elected to both the Federal and Rebel Congress by a large majority. In the 2d, Walker received 7062 votes to 5970 for Briggs for the Rebel Congress, and 24 for the Federal Congress.

Gov. Harris has ordered arms belonging to the State of Tenn. to be sent to the military authorities at Nashville, Knoxville and Memphis.

☞ Four refugees from Martinsburg were brought into the camp at Sandy Hook, Md., by Col. Geary's pickets, on Monday. There was a report that the notorious McDonald was in Martinsburg, with 18 rebel cavalry, pressing men into the rebel service. Several men refusing were imprisoned. The refugees left to avoid being impressed.—They have no knowledge of any large body of rebels in that section.

☞ The N. Y. Commercial says the War Department has accepted an independent company of Zouaves from Philadelphia. It is commanded by Capt. Collins, and numbers 100 men. Each man claims that he was in the Crimean war.

A lady from Richmond via Louisville states that workmen were manufacturing tanks for the conveyance of water to Manassas and holding it there.

Several Northern papers have regretted that they were compelled to announce that "Porte Crayon," whose articles in Harper's Magazine have given him a world-wide reputation, was an officer in the rebel army. On the other hand, the Winchester Virginian says he has long been a penny-a-liner for Black Republican journals, and adds:—"All such Southern Black Republicans should be shot down on sight."

THE CAMP MEETING at Hamilton had very unfavorable opening. The drenching rain, on Tuesday, kept all parties in doors; but some of the tents being very large, afford ample accommodations for devotional services. There are about seventy-five tents on the ground, and large provision is made for transient visitors. One boarding tent from Salem will accommodate 800 persons.

☞ A wedding is on the tapis at New York, which excites much gossip. The Nestor of Presbyterian clergymen, an octogenarian in years, but a widower of only a few months, is about to marry a maiden of at least half a century of age, with solid charms amounting to about $200,000.—Taking all circumstances into consideration, one would be tempted to apply to this case the old phrase about "Winter lingering in the lap of Spring."

REBEL REPORTS.—The Richmond Enquirer, 10th, says Gens. Lee and Rosencranz attempted to get the advantage of each other, in an advanced position, and a battle ensued in which 40 Federals were killed. The rebels suffered only a small loss. Lee had two and Rosencranz four regiments.

The Charleston (S. C.) Courier publishes an extract from a private letter from Tampa, stating that the Federal steamer Crusader had been captured by the rebels.

☞ Thomas Francis Meagher was offered a Captaincy in the regular army. He respectfully declined, requesting the Sec. of War to transfer it to some other officer of the N. Y. 69th of more military practice and information. He recommended Capt. James Kelley, senior Captain of the Regiment.

☞ A number of the heaviest business firms in Philadelphia have published a card, declaring that, having seen a statement in a daily paper of the number of regiments in Gen. Banks' command, by which important information was given to the enemy, they will withdraw their advertisements and subscriptions from any newspaper continuing to do so.

☞ The National Intelligencer of Saturday says Major Gen. Wool has been assigned to the command of the Southeastern Military Department of Virginia. Gen. Butler, it is understood, will remain at Fortress Monroe for the present.

☞ J. Lathrop Motley, recently appointed Minister to Austria, will at once repair to Vienna. It is believed that there is now no representative of the Government abroad who is not its loyal and friendly supporter. It is supposed that no more changes will be made.

☞ Gov. Yates of Illinois, says that if he had authority, with prospect of means and good arms, he could raise 100,000 men in Illinois alone, and carry the standard of the Republic in triumph from Cairo to the Belize.

☞ By a land-slide on Sunday night, 17 miles from Richmond, on the Manassas road, eight cars loaded with soldiers, were smashed and shivered in pieces. Two Louisville companies were the principal sufferers.

THE SEWING MACHINE.

Pray, have you seen
The Sewing Machine,
Jogging, and jogging, and jogging all day,
Pecking, and pecking, and pecking away,
Very much like a steam chicken at play?

Oh, if you haven't, just listen to me;
Oh, if you haven't, you've something to see;
Useful, perhaps, but decidedly queer;
Yes, and you'll find that you've something to hear:
Clickety! Clickety! Click! Clickety! Click!
Ever and aye, till you're weary and sick.

Bring your work with you, dear ladies, and come,
Lay over the hem with your finger and thumb;
Don't be afraid, though the needles look spiteful,
And sting it to death with an insolent air.
There! It has finished one side! how delightful!
And now—oh! its pecking away at the air;
It work is all done,
And it's now making fun!
It doesn't care what, and it doesn't care which—
So it's stitching like mad, without ever a stitch!
You may be weary or sick,
But still it goes on with its clickety, click!

No longer "in poverty, hunger and dirt,"
Hood's mournful maiden shall sing of the shirt;
But "wearily O!"
Shall be cheerily O!
For our blithe machine, if you properly watch it,
Will not fall asleep o'er your linen, or botch it.
But O! if you don't,
(And there's many that won't)
Lock-stitch will lock up your waist bands and hemming,
Start off with a fury there's no hope of stemming;
And body and sleeves will be stopped in a minute;
So that when it is done, you can never get in it,
And you'll have to unpick it, and once more begin it.

But there's this to be said;
You have only to find
The end of your thread,
Should you be so inclined,
And pulling it gently, a weavelet will run
Through the length of the seam, till the whole is undone. —Independent.

When the most momentous cause appeals for aid, that has been seen among men for thousands of years, we cannot understand how good and true national citizens can give a hesitating support to the constituted authorities of the country.—Boston Post.

☞ It is stated that by an adroit insertion of three lines in the bill making appropriations for fortifications, flogging as a punishment is abolished in the army.

PERSONAL.—Anthony Burns, the fugitive slave, was a few days ago ordained as pastor of the colored church at St. Catherines, Canada West.

☞ American farmers have already received something like $30,000,000 from England for breadstuffs this year.

☞ The New York dailies are about to relinquish the Sunday issue—dead loss of $200 a week.

A large portion of the American people are wholly unaware of the deleterious effects incident to the use of common Saleratus, thereby producing disease and destroying health. The highest perfection is attained in the manufacture of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Use one paper, and you will never have any other. It is a great way ahead of soda, to use with cream tartar. Try it. For sale by most of the grocers and druggists, and at wholesale by the trade generally. 3t

Caution!—In our changeable climate, coughs, colds, and lung diseases will always prevail. Consumption will claim its victims. These diseases, if taken in time, can be arrested and cured. The remedy is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. 6t

Is convinced of the fact that

It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,

Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

Messrs. W. E. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston,—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with the usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more cheered my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ. WHEELER.

Local.

For the Chronicle.

Editors of Chronicle:—It is often remarked that Portsmouth, is behind other places, and does not keep up with the times. This is true in regard to rents of stores—only we mean, keep down now. In almost every other city, a material reduction has been made in the rents of the places of business of merchants and mechanics, since the present prostration of business, which is confined to no one locality. Notwithstanding almost every store in our city is rented, yet the occupants are doing in many instances less than one half the usual amount of business. Many of our stores, which are the best paying in town, from which the owners receive a regular, fair rent and upon which but little is expended, are owned by non-residents, the heirs of former merchants and wealthy men, who perhaps do not appreciate the present condition of business among their tenants. It is surprising that the merchants and business men do not act as a body in this affair, and insist upon a reduction of rents in conformity with the times.

If we are to continue for any length of time to pay the present rate of store hire, and to experience the reduced state of trade, some, in fact many of us, must fail, and perhaps in the end, the real estate owners will lose more than if they should adopt a liberal policy now, and voluntarily reduce their rents. The present business of the city could doubtless be done better, by one half of those now engaged in it; and without a reduction of rents, we must expect to witness ere long, a diminution of the number of dealers, in the city, and a consequential fall in rents. It would seem that this state of affairs was well worth the consideration of real estate owners, who cannot expect to be excused from the general reduction of income experienced by every one in times like the present. YARDSTICK.

Messrs. Editors:—I notice that by the act making additional appropriations for the naval service for the year ending June 30, 1862, and for arrearages, $154,100 are appropriated for the Navy Yard at Charlestown, for machinery, completing machine shop, &c. For the Yard at this city, only $10,000 are appropriated for repairs of all kinds! Even Philadelphia gets $40,000, and New York has an enormous amount.

It is a good thing to have a military hero in time of war, but then he should show proper fight over the appropriation bills, and see that his constituents get their share. Where was our Representative Colonel when this money was voted, and how long will it take to make Portsmouth Navy Yard a first-class Yard at this rate of appropriation?

Our gallant Senator, the Chairman of the Naval Committee, must have got on the horse with his face the wrong way, to have put his own naval station at so low a figure. Let me remind our Congressional delegation, through your columns, that our Navy Yard is actually suffering for an appropriation for machinists' tools and other implements with which to repair steamers, which are sent to other places because the work cannot be done here. CYCLOPS.

☞ Among the prisoners at Richmond are the following, of the Second N. H. Regiment:

Henry Moore, David D. Jacquith, Geo. H. Whitman, Chas. N. Sebastian, H. Moore, Wm. Holden, not wounded. Nelson Hurd, wounded in the knee; Amos Leastman, in the thigh; Henry L. Emerson, in the hip;—Josiah Bueley, slightly in the arm; Frank Wetherby, in the leg; Wm. H. Walker, in the shoulder; Oliver L. Allen, in the side; John S. Rice, in the left breast; Woodbury Lord, in the arm; Wm. A. Bonham had his arm amputated; Wm. Oxford, in the leg,—died Aug. 5; Andrew H. Oran, in the leg; Wells C. Haynes, in the thigh; Geo. Laughtry and Chas. H. Chase had their legs amputated; S. W. Heath and J. S. Heaton, wounded in the leg; Henry Tibbet, in the hand; Henry West, Clark Stevens, Christopher K. Marshall, Chas. Cooper.

☞ It will be seen by reference to the list of members of the Second Regiment, who are prisoners at Richmond, that Mr. William F. Oxford of this city, who was wounded in the leg, is reported to have died. He early enlisted in the Goodwin Guards, and is the second of their number who has died.

MORE WORK FOR THE NAVY YARD.—The telegraph reports that two of the twelve side-wheel steamers to be built for the navy are to be built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

☞ The people of Bangor have contributed about six tons weight of good things for the Second Maine Regiment—consisting of eatables in an endless variety, wearing apparel, stationery, reading matter, &c. By the generosity of Capt. C. H. Sanford, this generous donation was forwarded to Washington free of expense. The Sixth Regiment was also well remembered.

☞ Mackerel, that were plenty on the New England shore some four weeks ago, are now very scarce. Vessels arriving report that no mackerel have been taken for the last two weeks, from Cape Ann to Mount Desert.

RENTS.—We are glad to learn that there is a very general agreement among landlords in the centre of the city, (Newburyport,) to reduce rents 25 per cent. Some have even gone back, and taken off 25 per cent. of what was due. We think if any bodyhas rent due them for a long term, they may think themselves lucky to obtain three quarters of it. Happy the man in any kind of business, in these days, who can realize 50 per cent. of what may be due him; many would be glad to settle for less than that.—Herald.

☞ The three-months troops, on re-enlisting, receive the following bounties in accordance with an act of Congress passed at the late extra session:—Re enlisting as individuals, thirty dollars; by companies, fifty dollars; by regiments, seventy-five dollars.

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW!

STILL SOMETHING WHICH HAS STOOD

THE TEST OF YEARS,

AND STILL GROWS MORE AND MORE

POPULAR EVERY DAY.

—IT IS—

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of baldness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes, its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attending the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its components elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiments which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Buffalo Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums; but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

SOMETHING MORE VALUABLE

THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

RESTORES

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK,

AND REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY & VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form to go to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL!

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks resulting from miasmatic influence and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

There is no mistake about it!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOODS RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

QUININE TONIC

BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the public.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhea, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was persuaded to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla). For I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Indianapolis and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, but used almost three bottles. Now my healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, etc.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Erysipelas, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a most malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. R. Chaning, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the female plaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female complaints."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes: "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remained."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the cases specified for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were continuing his palate nearly to the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his mouth, and his gums became loosened and eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disease by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Gotchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an enlargement of the spleen, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from an enlargement of the spleen and of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was to be depended on. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Hypochondria, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and then overcomes disorders which cannot be suspended by any cordial. Such a remedy has long been required by the profession of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. We can do no more than assure the public that the preparations from our laboratory are fully equal to our own personal experience of its effects—a statement which we make in the confidence of truth. As the lives of thousands daily fall victims to the insidious and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs, and as there is no other remedy so well adapted to cure them, we feel it our duty to make known the means which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

Also, a Circular intended for ladies only, nine large letter pages, for a 3 ct. stamp: "The "Mountain of Light, or Medical Protector," a new book of three hundred pages, one hundred engravings; price, in stamps or money, 25 cts., and one 3 ct. stamp, or 8 for $1 and nine cents in stamps. This book is fully described in our Circular. It is by far the most valuable and deeply interesting book on the subjects treated of, now extant; matters that in former works were merely hinted at, are here fully explained, it contains full and explicit key to all the secrets of marriage, love and beauty never before revealed in any book in the English language.

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson's Female Pills, $1—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson may be seen at the Consulting Rooms of the Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, from 8 A. M. till 12 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 8 P. M.; at other hours either Dr. Herbert or M. Velpeau, or both, will be in attendance.

Male patients, when desired, will be furnished with large, airy, comfortable rooms, suitable board and careful attendance, for the few days ordinarily necessary to effect a cure. Patients do not see each other. The most ample guaranties of our ability and good faith promptly given when desired. Fees as reasonable as the very highest modes of treatment known to modern medical science, and a very long and varied experience will admit. P. O. Box 496. Send for Circular, and state your case plainly and fully, and you will receive the Circular and our written reply by return mail. We will answer no letter unless it contains six cents in stamps. Medicine and instructions sent promptly and carefully to any part of the world.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,

THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. Tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE.
Moosehead Lake, Maine.
Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 960 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNRIVALLED FOREST BEAUTY.
The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.
The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains;—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, causing the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and render this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will here find the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.
"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.
Sail, yawl and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.
☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern Railroad, via Portland, daily, for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor.
Coaches from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Newport (foot of the Lake) with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Thos. Robinson, which runs daily, Sundays excepted, to the Mt. Kineo House.
Through tickets from Boston to Mt. Kineo House, via Boston and Maine, and Androscoggin and Kennebec Railroads to Newport, thence by stage to Greenville (foot of the Lake,) and thence by steamer "Fairy of the Lake" to the house, are sold at the Boston and Maine Station in Boston and in Lawrence. FARE THROUGH $7.50. Passengers have the privilege of stopping over at Portland, or any place East.
☞ Return tickets can be obtained of Capt. Robinson, on board steamer "Fairy of the Lake."

FINANCE AND BUSINESS.

The New Orleans Delta and the Memphis Bulletin, both secession papers of course, are yet, both business papers. Both of them condemn the great project to sell all the cotton to Jeff. Davis' government, and take the C. S. bonds in pay, in very strong terms; and the Bulletin turns the whole scheme into ridicule, as "a financial impossibility."

The Delta opposes it on various grounds, as the scheme of decaying States, viz. Virginia and the Carolinas, to escape taxation, —and as ruinous to New Orleans.

The Boston Post, in copying some of these commercial items, says:—

These paragraphs are valuable, as coming from, comparatively speaking, sound-minded rebels. As far as they go, they are true as gospel. Had the man carried them much further he would have shown the absurdity of the whole rebellion.

The New York Post shows very clearly that commercial services are real services, and that for want of a market, cotton is just now in rebeldom, worth nothing.

The Boston Post, in its financial article of Tuesday, holds this language:—

With an efficient embargo by land and sea, and even without any fighting of moment, the Southern rebels will, very likely, "cut their own heads off" before long.—The people will suffer, the cities become destitute, the armies be unpaid, the leaders become unpopular, and internal quarrels result in a new order of things, to end in reconciliation with the United States people and government.

The New Orleans Banks, the only monied institutions of weight or strength in the South, declined to cast their lot with the Confederate Government. They hold nearly all the visible specie in rebeldom, and have no notion of beggaring their stockholders, if they can help it, by giving a dollar in gold for a dollar in Confederate bonds, that is not worth the paper it is printed upon. Again, it is undeniable that Southern State Bonds have recently advanced in New York on orders from Southern capitalists who do not believe in the eventual success of "Secession," which would clearly make all such bonds worthless, for an unlimited period.

Now, these facts are more weighty than "straws;" and when they occur, they show that the "wind" is strong. Bull Run was a disgraceful botch on both sides—but its true significance, both North and South, is beginning to be understood. That "famous reconnoissance for McClellan," as our young General is said to have termed it, was a lesson which we needed, both on land and sea. Rebellion gained ground by the fight, and the Federal repulse, in reality, was one of the necessary steps towards the final annihilation of treason. The rebels are, and will be worse off, than if the National army had taken Richmond without a battle. For the fruits of Bull Run will be caution, prudence, efficiency, discipline and superior numbers.

Money is a very important sinew of war, and of Peace also, if any improvement is to be made. The Boston Post remarks:—

"The best proof of our commercial and financial superiority is the fact that we have now fifty millions in specie, when the South has scarcely a dollar—and we can raise a loan to any amount in Europe, when the Confederate States cannot obtain a cent. Though the English papers are striving to depreciate United States Securities, English financiers are very glad to get them—and though they profess to be in favor of Southern independence, they will not lend the bogus Government a guinea to aid in achieving it.

All that is wanted to effectually ruin the rebel chiefs, and to put an end to their operations, is to make the blockade sure. The result being that they cannot sell a pound of cotton or tobacco, the rebellion must die from inanition, and their absurd financial schemes will be blown to the four winds of heaven. Vigor in the Navy Department, energy and wisdom in the War Department, and honesty in all the Departments of the Government, would squelch the insurrection before the first of May, as sure as that tomorrow's sun will rise."

☞ A correspondent at Keene, date of Aug. 13th, writes us:—Business here is not so much depressed as in some sections of the Country. The large new steam mill built the last season, is now occupied for the manufacture of shoe pegs, pails, &c. There is also to be built a large brick building for a machine shop.

Recruiting for the war goes on finely. There have been 40 enlisted at the office of the 3d Regiment, and about 20 at the office of the 2d.

Capt. T. O. Barri, of the 11th Infantry, U. S. Army, (who by the way, is a Portsmouth Boy) has opened an office here for recruits for the regular Army.

We are now having a fine rain which is very much needed in this section of the country. K.

☞ The Mozart Hall Democratic General Committee recently invited Senator Breckinridge to visit New York, but recanted on hearing of the indignation expressed toward him in Baltimore, and so telegraphed their committee. The Kentucky senator charged the committee with deliberately insulting him, and denounced the New York democracy as no better than black republicans—while for the city itself, he declared, a terrible retribution was in store when the people whom she had robbed for so many years would have their armies occupying her marble palaces, and their flag floating over City Hall and Merchants' Exchange! Vallandigham was present all the while, looking "unutterable things."—The committee took the lecture in silence; but left the room before it was concluded.

THE ARMY WORM.—This pest has nearly reached what may be called its breeding season—it being at present in a chrysalis state. This and next week, and probably for a few days afterward, the worms will leave the ground in the moth state, when any precaution that can be taken to destroy them will be available. The schemes propounded are, in the daytime to place dishes of sweetened water in the fields where they have made their appearance, into which the moths will fly to their destruction; and in the evening, to build fires around their haunts into which the moths will fly and be consumed.

☞ The London Times, in a city article, says it is not to be supposed that any houses of influence will be willing to act as agents for the American loan in London, fraught, as it would be, with every element of danger to subscribers, as well as to the friendly relations with the Union whenever it shall be restored by the return, either compulsory or voluntary, of the Southern States.

The London Advertiser professes to have information that the North is going to ignore all blockade, and collect duties by vessels stationed off the blockaded ports.

☞ The government has no official advices other than that the half breeds of the Indian Territory West of Mississippi have entered the Confederate service. The forts there having been abandoned by United States troops, the Indians there supposed to be loyal have been intimidated by disunionists or deceived by promises depending on future fulfilment. Outside of the above named territory the aborigines have not risen against our authority.

THOMAS KING THE BREWER, was not the same person as Thomas King who kept boarders in Daniel street; so we are informed by persons who knew both the men.

King the brewer was the predecessor of Michael Martin in the brewery; and Martin occupied the same building, which stood a little to the eastward from where the Portsmouth Steam Factory is now located.

He also worked with Martin at the time when he left town to resume his old trade of highway robbery; and on the next day after Martin had decamped, a neighbor called in to see King, saying, Mr. Martin has gone, has he? yes, was the answer, and he has carried off my best coat.

King was a jolly, pottled Englishman, with a red bottle nose, making free use of beer, tobacco and rum: on one occasion laying in a small supply of the two latter commodities, he said, "set it all down tobackey, so as to cheat the devil this time." He was a great hater of Andrew Jackson, on account of his hanging Arbuthnot and Ambrister, in Florida,—and used to express his hatred in phrases more forcible than polite.

☞ Spurgeon preached to a congregation of over six thousand people on Sunday, June 9th, and closed with a prayer for the North and the extinction of slavery. The response from that mighty multitude was like the mattering of distant thunder.—That fact tells the feeling which exists among the masses in England, and which no ministry dare resist.

EX-PRESIDENT TYLER TAKES A DRINK.—The Richmond Enquirer has this paragraph:

"Ex-President Tyler (member of Congress) has been detained at his estate in Charles City county by illness. We are glad to hear, however, that he is convalescent, and although in bed when the news was read to him of the glorious victory of Manassas, he called for champagne, and made his family and friends drink the health of our Generals."

HYDROPHOBIA.—A German named Rea, residing at Ekford, Canada, was bitten by a dog, about two weeks since. Ten days after the bite he was attacked by hydrophobia, and died the next day, after twenty-four hours of terrible suffering.

☞ A Washington dispatch reports that Gen. Sickles has been appointed by Gen. Scott to command the Eastern shore of the Potomac, four miles below Washington.

☞ Col. Farnham, of the Fire Zouaves, died at Washington, Wednesday morning, of the wounds received in the late battle.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——John G. Sherburne, who was arrested in Illinois for swindling to the amount of $200,000, was a resident of Manchester some fourteen years since, in the capacity of a teacher, and was at one time employed in the city schools.

—— John H. Thompson, of Holderness, has been appointed Commissary of Subsistence for the Third Regiment, and Mr. Nesmith, of Franklin, Quartermaster. Mr. Nesmith is a son of Judge Nesmith, and was Quartermaster's Sergeant of the First Regiment.

——The Manchester American "learns that efforts are being made to revive the 'Standard,' and with good prospect of success. It may not be located in Concord, but will probably be published and edited at Newport, the home of Mr. Burke. But wherever it plants itself, it cannot be beyond the reach of an outraged public sentiment."

——Capt. Webber, of the Manchester Flying Artillery, has received word from Gen. Abbott, at Washington, that the battery will be accepted. The company now numbers between 80 and 90. The Mirror says much enthusiasm prevails among the members, and there will be no trouble about getting men enough. The battery will require about 125 horses, weighing from 1050 to 1100 pounds each, and about 150 men.

—— The "Yale College Glee Club," which consists of ten students, are now making the tour to the White Mountains, giving concerts at the large hotels.

——Two patches of snow now remain on the north-western side of Mount Madison, at an altitude of about four thousand feet above the level of the sea. The one nearest the dome can be seen fifteen miles by the naked eye. It is estimated by competent judges to be three hundred feet long by one hundred wide, and was thought to be deep enough on the 10th of August, to last till the snow falls in autumn.

——Returns to the Adjutant General from the several recruiting offices, up to Monday, show that 850 men have been enlisted for the Third Regiment. A company of over 50 from Exeter went into camp on Thursday. Dr. A. A. Moulton of Concord has been appointed Surgeon of the Regiment.

—— The soldiers of the First Regiment were mustered out of service, paid off and discharged, on Friday and Saturday last.—Nearly $30,000 in specie were paid out.

——At a meeting of the Rockingham Mutual and the Atlantic Mutual Fire Insurance Companies, in Exeter, on Wednesday last, the following gentlemen were chosen Directors:

Charles Conner, Stephen W. Duarborn, Theo. Goodwin, Geo. W. Kittredge, Joseph S. Pollard, J. T. Gilman, Jeremiah L. Merrill, Amos Tuck.

William P. Moulton, Secretary; J. C. Hilliard, Treasurer; Joseph S. Parsons, Clerk.

—— The American states that in Wilmot the secessionists are getting quite bold. A Mr. Langley raised a secession flag upon his house last week, and dared anybody to take it down. The boys, however, seven of them, (4 dem., 3 rep.) went up and took it down. Before night, up went another in another part of the town, but it was pulled down after some pelting with stones. Old Deacon Tewksbury claims the flag, and says that a larger one shall soon be raised.

——The soldiers of the First Regiment purchased and presented to Col. E. Q. Fellows, of the Third Regiment, who was their Adjutant, the valuable horse which he rode during the three months' campaign. It is a testimonial of the esteem in which Col. Fellows is held by the members of the regiment.

——There was a slight fall of snow, Wednesday morning, on Mt. Washington.

☞ The blackberry crop is of so much importance on the Ohio river that mail-boats recently changed their time of starting from Louisville one hour earlier, to accommodate the shippers of blackberries along the line of the river from Madison to Cincinnati.

A TOUGH FIELD.—A field owned by Wm. Scripter, in Johnsbury, N. Y., near Lake George, has raised corn for fifty years without the aid of manure, ashes or plaster. According to Scripter, the seed has never been changed, and he has a fair crop every year.

☞ Mr. Lucien H. Adams of Derry, a member of the last graduated class at Andover, has received a call from the Congregational church in Dunbarton, to become their pastor.

☞ The Chicago Board of Education have determined to admit negroes into the common schools of the city as teachers and pupils.

Why cannot the Emperor Napolean insure his life? Because no one can be found who can make out his policy.

☞ There is no truth in the rumor about the steamer Yankee.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Washington specials state that the army of the Potomac is almost entirely brigaded, and as far as possible each brigade has been camped separate from the others.

Camps of rendezvous and instruction are to be formed at New York, Harrisburg, Pittsburg, and Cincinnati. Every volunteer is to be mustered into service as soon as enrolled, and immediately to be sent to one of the camps.

The President has not ordered the resumption of the work on the extension of the Capitol.

Eleven launches carrying heavy guns for use on the Potomac have arrived from Boston.

It is reported that Magruder left Yorktown a few days ago with 7000 rebels, in the direction of Richmond. It is supposed that he joined Beauregard. This is construed into preparations to attack our lines.

The Brazilian Minister was assaulted last night, it is supposed by mistake. The assailant was not discovered.

Senator Carlisle has just arrived from Virginia. He states that the rebel forces under Lee crossed Cheat River in two bodies.

They were within 15 miles of Gen. Rosecranz in a position near Cheat Mountain pass, which commands both roads.

LATEST.—From the Traveller Extra, of Thursday evening we take the following items:—

Lieut. Crosby's expedition from Fortress Monroe have nearly broken up the contraband trade between the Eastern and Western shores of the Chesapeake.

Private advices from Texas to the 23d ult. represent the Union sentiment as rather on the increase.

The newspapers of that State have perverted the statements made by Gen. Houston, as it is positively known that he has no sympathy with Secessionism. At last accounts he was in quiet seclusion on his farm awaiting events.

It is stated that Col. Van Dorn and other leaders of the rebel army, have designs on the Northern States of Mexico and lower California, but they depend for fulfilment in the co-operation of Mexican revolutionary chiefs.

So far the rebel filibusters have not met the sympathy anticipated from these sources.

The N. Y. Commercial has information that Gen. Pillow precipitately broke up his Camp at New Madrid, and moved back to Randolph. Seven steamers were seized at Memphis on Thursday and went to New Madrid, bringing Pillow's command back, arriving Friday noon.

The movement is supposed to be on account of the active preparations of Gen. Fremont at Cairo.

A private letter from Kentucky says the new Legislature will consist of 80 Union members in the House out of 100, and 28 Union senators out of 38.

Special dispatches from Washington state that ex-Congressman Boteler, of Va., died of lock-jaw from a wound received at Bull Run.

NATIONAL FAST.

A PROCLAMATION

By the President of the U. S. of America.

Whereas, A Joint Committee of both Houses of Congress has waited on the President of the United States, and requested him to recommend a day of Public Humiliation, Prayer and Fasting, to be observed by the People of the United States with religious solemnities, and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God for the safety and welfare of these States, His blessings upon their arms, and a speedy restoration to peace:

And whereas, It is fit and becoming in all people at all times to acknowledge and revere the Supreme Government of God, to bow in humble submission to His chastisements, to confess and deplore their sins and transgressions, in the full conviction that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and to pray with all fervency and contrition for the pardon of their past offences, and for a blessing upon their present and prospective action:

And whereas, When our beloved country, once, by the blessing of God, united, prosperous and happy, is now afflicted with faction and civil war, it is peculiarly fit for us to recognize the hand of God in this visitation, and in sorrowful remembrance of our own faults and crimes as a nation and as individuals, to humble ourselves before Him, and to pray for His mercy—to pray that we may be spared further punishment, though justly deserved; that our army may be blessed and made effectual for the re-establishment of law, order, and peace through out our country, and that the inestimable boon of civil and religious liberty, earned, under His guidance and blessing, by the labors and sufferings of our fathers, may be restored in all its original excellence:

Therefore, I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, do appoint the last Thursday in September next as a day of Humiliation, Prayer and Fasting for all the people of the Nation, and I do earnestly recommend to all the people and especially to all Ministers and teachers of religion of all denominations, and to all heads of families—to observe and keep that day according to their several creeds and modes of worship, in all humility, and with all religious solemnity, to the end that the United prayer of the Nation may ascend to the Throne of Grace, and bring down plentiful blessings upon our country.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the United States to be affixed, this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-sixth.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WM. H. SEWARD, Sec. of State.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 14.—Gen. Fremont has ordered a reorganization of the Federal reserve in this city. Each regiment is designed to have one company of sharp shooters and pioneers.

The Evening Missourian and Bulletin, two rebel papers, have been suppressed.

The reports of Gen. Hardee marching on Pilot Knob and the destruction of the bridges of the Iron Mountain Railroad, prove to be false.

ROLLA, MO., Aug. 14.—The correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat says that Gen. Siege was passed at Gasconade River, fifty miles west of here, Tuesday evening, where he had encamped for the night.

The Postmaster of Springfield brought the mail matter of that office here.

Over twenty wagons, with fugitives from Springfield, have reached here. Others are en route.

CAIRO, Ill., Aug. 14.—Scouts returned from Charleston, Mo., this morning, report that the rebels, 2000 strong, including infantry, cavalry and artillery, are encamped there.

☞ Among the Lieutenants recently promoted to be Commanders in the Navy, are G. Greenleafe Paraott, of this city, recently in command of U. S. Brig Perry; D. D. Porter, formerly Ordnance Officer at this Navy Yard; and George M. Colvocoresses, who was detached for other duty, a short time since.

A large portion of the American people are wholly unaware of the deleterious effects incident to the use of common Saleratus, thereby producing disease and destroying health. The highest perfection is attained in the manufacture of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Use one paper, and you will never have any other. It is a great way ahead of soda, to use with cream tartar. Try it. For sale by most of the grocers and druggists, and at wholesale by the trade generally. 3t

Caution!—In our changeable climate, coughs, colds, and lung diseases will always prevail. Consumption will claim its victims. These diseases, if taken in time, can be arrested and cured. The remedy is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. 6t

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is unestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

MESSRS. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston,—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

WAR,—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

Boonsboro', Md., Mch. 21, '61.

Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir—Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach—he was after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.

The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all—in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, pronounce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. Yours truly, F. H. IRWIN,

American Women.

America is justly proud of its beautiful women; but how many die annually, or prematurely lose their health and youth for want of a remedy suitable to their peculiar ailments. That remedy is found in SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS. We know hundreds of cases where they have been used with the greatest success.—In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed,—moderating excesses and removing obstructions, whether from cold or any other cause. Suffer no more anxiety or low spirits, but try them. For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. my28 dawâm

"EVERYBODY"

WHO USES

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE

Is convinced of the fact that

It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,

Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

☞ Read this letter:

ST. LOUIS, MO, June 1, 1859.

Messrs. W. E. Hagan & Co.,—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four bit bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. ROSEVEALL.

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW!

—AND—

STILL SOMETHING WHICH HAS STOOD

THE TEST OF YEARS,

AND STILL GROWS MORE AND MORE

POPULAR EVERY DAY.

—IS IT—

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head has become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a material improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous. —Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and received the universal commendation of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative. —Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Sidney Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

BELIEVE

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK,

AND REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY & VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all the original purity, and vigor, and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form, that can be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL!

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaint, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but it will arrest attacks arising from miasmatic influences and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

There is no mistake about it!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will importunately point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

ATWOOD'S

QUININE TONIC

BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

Ask for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Blotches, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all skin Diseases.

OXFORD, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it breaks out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was induced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin would begin to form under the sore, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel thankful for my health when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully,

Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same, and says he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sears of Prospect, Tioga Co., writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I more cheerfully comply with the request of your agent by saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The relief is usually very prompt, and the cure is soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newberry, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting. It proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 20th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it. I believe that the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is now in good health, except some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, I have had truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

LEXINGTON, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAME.

Jules Y. Gelderloff, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, but every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My friends urged me to try your Sarsaparilla, but I could not be induced to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God, it has cured me perfectly, and has enabled me to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The fact that can be sold of you is not half good enough."

Scirrhus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative properties of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach, were it not for the many well authenticated instances of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in Advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of Pulmonary and Throat complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience to relate, or some living trophy to their belief of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when healing the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

REAL ESTATE IN NEW CASTLE FOR SALE.

The TAVERN STAND in Newcastle near the road leading from Newcastle Bridge to Fort Constitution, is offered for sale on reasonable terms. The house has been recently put in a perfect state of repair, roof shingled, and house painted and papered throughout the interior, and is in every way fit for immediate occupation. It contains fifteen rooms, and is convenient for the business of hotel keeping and boarding. The House is within a few rods of Fort Constitution, and affords opportunities for fishing, bathing, boating, &c., &c. at hand.

The occupation of the Forts at the mouth of Portsmouth harbor, and the contemplated repairs of Fort Constitution promise here to an active and energetic landlord "who can keep a hotel," a handsome remuneration for a very small outlay.

Prof Egbert Jackson, Dr. Robert Herbert and M. Velpeau. Thorough cures effected with almost instantaneous relief of Gonorrhœa, Syphilis, Gleet, Nocturnal Emissions or self-abuse, Impotency, Stricture, Female Diseases, Diurnal Emissions, in short, every secret disease in every form and variety of Sexular Disease, and at the same time the general health of the patient improved, where any improvement in that respect is needed.

Our Dispensary Circular, of 15 large 8 in. by 11 in. letter pages, with full and special written Reply, sent promptly, well sealed, to any address for the amount of the postage, six cents! Every young man, whether

SICK OR WELL,

should have one. Also, a Circular intended for ladies only, nine large letter pages, for a 3 ct. stamp. The "Mountain of Light, or Medica Protector," a new book of three hundred pages, one hundred engravings, price, in stamps or money, 50 cts. and one 3 ct. stamp, or 8 for $1 and nine cents in stamps. This book is fully described in our Circular. It is by far the most valuable and deeply interesting book on the subjects treated of, now extant; matters that in former works were merely hinted at, are here fully explained; it contains a full and explicit key to all the secrets of marriage, love and beauty never before revealed in any book in the English language.

SATISFACTORILY

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive—sent for Circular.

Dr. Jackson's Female Pills, $1—sent for Circular.

Dr. Jackson may be seen at the Consulting Rooms of the Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, from 6 A. M. till 1 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 8 P. M.; at other hours either Dr. Herbert or M. Velpeau, or both, will be in attendance.

Male patients, when desired, will be furnished with large, airy, comfortable rooms, suitable board and careful attendance, for the few days ordinarily necessary to effect a cure. Patients do not see each other. The most ample guarantee of our ability and good faith promptly given when desired. Fees as reasonable as the very highest modes of treatment known to modern medical science, and a very long and varied experience will admit. P. O. Box 436. Send for Circular, and state your case fully and plainly—and you will receive the Circular and our written reply by return mail. We will answer no letter unless it contains six cents in stamps. Medicine and instructions sent promptly and carefully to any part of the world.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,

THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound," and I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his which covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 59 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1858, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.:—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.
Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 800 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNEQUALLED SUBLIME BEAUTY.
THE MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.
The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains;—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, causing the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will here find the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.
"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.
Sail, row! and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.
☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern Railroad, via Portland, daily, for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor.
Coaches from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Greenville (foot of the Lake) with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Thos. Robinson, which runs daily, Sundays excepted, to the Mt. Kineo House.
Through tickets from Boston to Mt. Kineo House, via Boston and Maine, and Androscoggin and Kennebec Railroads to Newport, thence by stage to Greenville (foot of the Lake), and thence by steamer "Fairy of the Lake" to the House,—are sold at the Boston and Maine Station in Boston and in Lawrence. FARE THROUGH $7.50.
Passengers have the privilege of stopping over at Portland, or any place East.
☞ Return tickets can be obtained of Capt. Robinson, on board steamer "Fairy of the Lake."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1861.

MAINE.—The Democracy of Maine held a State Convention at Augusta, on Wednesday, Hon. J. S. Little, of Portland, presiding. The York county resolutions, so called, opposing the war, were adopted, whereupon a portion of the Convention withdrew. Those remaining nominated Hon. John W. Dana, of Fryeburg, for Governor. The other portion nominated Col. C. D. Jameson, of Bangon, commander of the 2d Maine regiment of volunteers.

☞ In the State of Maine, the Breckinridge rebel convention proper, which was to have been held at Bangor, could not get any building to hold their meeting in, and so did nothing.

At Augusta, however, where the regular convention of the Democratic party, called by the State Committee, did assemble, on Wednesday, Aug. 14, and had a very warm and excited debate over the resolutions or platform. Two sets were proposed; one was adopted, 248 to 186, by which the rebel sympathy party carried the convention by 54 majority.

Then came a split, after the manner of the Charleston Convention; and then, says the Bath Times,—

"The loyal Democracy of Maine, after cutting adrift the secession, disloyal element, nominated by acclamation, for Governor, Col. Charles D. Jameson, of Orono, the gallant commander of the 2d regiment, who so nobly rescued his flag from the rebels in the late battle. The resolutions are all that they should be. The disunionists, who refused to endorse the war, even for the purpose of suppressing the rebellion and of sustaining the Constitution and laws, nominated J. W. Dana, and passed infamous resolutions."

It is easy to see, now, that Gov. Washburn is as certain to be re-elected, as any man can be, before the actual election takes place.

It is also plain that the national government will be sustained in Maine by the Republican vote entire, and by most of the Douglas Democrats; while the secession and rebel cause is to receive aid and comfort from the late Breckinridge wing and their recruits.

Gov. Washburn was elected in Sept. 1860, by 69,000 votes, when Smart, the democratic candidate, had 51,000: maj. 18,000.

In the presidential election, Maine gave Lincoln 62,800; Douglas 29,700; Bell 2,000, Breckinridge 6,200.

Maine election takes place on Monday, Sept. 9, when Washburn may have 60,000, and the two opposition candidates 36 or 38,000, between them. Supposing half of them be leaning to the rebel side,—the Constitution, and Union, will have four fifths of the votes in Maine.

☞ Mr. John W. Frank was passing along Gough street, Baltimore, recently, when a boy about ten years old met him, and asked for a penny. Mr. Frank handed the boy ten cents, but as he did so, thought he recognized the child. After further conversation Mr. Frank became convinced that the boy was the lost son of a widowed friend of his, and took him to the Eastern Police Station, where he informed the officers of his suspicion. An officer was sent for Mrs. Dehring. On entering and observing the child, she uttered a shriek, sprang towards him and clasped him in her arms, kissing him passionately, while the tears gushed from her eyes.—The mother continued her caresses, and referred to incidents to awaken a remembrance of his home. In a few moments the boy's countenance changed, tears started from his eyes, and throwing his arms around his mother's neck, he exclaimed:—"You are my mother." On the recognition, Mrs. Dehring appeared to be wild with joy. She wept, laughed, clasped her boy to her breast, and then prayed.

When about six years of age, the boy wandered away from home, and after a diligent search, the mother came to the conclusion that he was drowned, and for years mourned his death. The boy states that he has been living with many differerent families, who kept him to run errands and do light work.

☞ The Secretary of State, on receipt of intelligence that the pirate Sumter was permitted to enter the port of Curacoa, ordered the immediate removal of Moses Jesurum, the American Consul there, and appointed Richard E. Morse, of Iowa, in his place.

☞ The rebel Congress has extended its military jurisdiction over Maryland, Delaware and Missouri.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.

Dear Chronicle:—On Saturday afternoon, the Fall Series of weekly promenade concerts at the Central Park, was ushered in with gay festivities.—Thousands flocked to the green lawns, graveled walks and crystal lakes, and children gamboled on the grass, swung under the trees, or tossed tiny pebbles o'er the water; while old men and matrons relieved the happy days of yore, in rambling walks and quiet siestas, or mingled with the joyous company which filled the sylph-like boats propelled by uniformed oarsmen, and carrying mirth and laughter amid the groups of stately swans resting like snow-white lilies on the placid water. The merry shout, the warbling of the birds, and the quacking of the ducks in the rivulets, echoed with the notes of Dodworth's Band, making music, national and otherwise.

The report of the intended visit of Garibaldi, is received here with much satisfaction.—Should he come, he undoubtedly would be able to raise an army of foreigners, numbering 25 to 30,000 men, within one week after his arrival, and in a longer period increase it to double, or even three times that number.

The fall elections are already beginning to occupy the public mind, and many regret the refusal of the democrats to unite with the Republicans, in the State contest.

They will, under a distinct ticket, be defeated, and it is feared that rankling with this defeat, many of them will resolve themselves into a party organization in direct antagonism to the government.

In fact, symptoms of such a movement are at this early date discernible. It is hardly probable, however, that Morgan will be a candidate for re-election, for Governor, or F. Wood Esq. as Mayor, this season.

The marble palaces of our avenues are now closed and deserted; and "gone to the Springs," is as plainly visible on the fronts as if painted there in capitals. Parties are given during the summer months by only the lower grades of "society."—Indeed, few of the bon-ton are "in town," to give them or attend.

From an authentic source we learn that the battle cry of the civilians at the close of the Bull Run engagement was the quotation, "a horse, a horse! my kingdom for a horse!"

The Fire Zouaves returned yesterday, and were received by a vast concourse of people, and the Firemen.—Sadly did we miss from the head of the column, the lithe form of the gallant colonel who led them to the battle field.

Brave Ellsworth! better dead, than living, to witness the curtain fall, and the lights flicker out, at the close of the first act, of this regimental drama. NEWINGTON.

For the Chronicle.

The utterance of truth makes all men themselves in their public acts. Falsehood makes every true man a power of opposition unto him who utters it. The men of greatness are those who have withstood the darts of the fool's weapon to make and unmake our public men. The truly great man is he who makes himself a responsible being to God, leaving the writers of falsehood to carry their own refutation. A poor reward for duties faithfully performed, is now given to some of our best public men, in ungenerous complaints of inefficiency. The insinuations of base men should never be allowed to injure the true interests of the public.

The recent ungenerous reflecting upon the head of the Navy Department, we are fully assured, belong to this class of sophisms.—Impossibilities are sometimes required to prove capabilities in our public men. They must be fancied gods, to answer the ideal issues of what public life requires.

The stupendous increase of business in this branch of government has undoubtedly been the cause of the special attention bestowed upon it by those who find so much fault. The eventful crisis in our national affairs has made our Navy Department a great moving power.

To discipline and bring into requisition its whole available force—to resuscitate, reconstruct, improve, and give renewed energy to the interests of the government, has demanded increased effort and far-seeing business capacities. There was much to be done.

Much has been done; more is doing.—There were many intricate relations of mind with mind, which involved great responsibilities; and these have been judiciously met and faithfully performed. The ends attained are refuting the falsehood that inefficiency retards the progress of naval contributions to sustain the government in the prosecution of the war. Efficiency in this department is now fulfilling the wants of the government, and giving evidence of devotion to duty. Since Congress has enlarged the powers of this department, and provided the means of activity,—the Secretaries and executive officers of the Navy have been as diligent as good and faithful servants can be. A DEMOCRAT.

☞ George N. Saunders, late Navy Agent at New York, is a defaulter to the amount of $21,000.

☞ The New York Breckinridge State Committee met Thursday. Resolutions were passed, deploring what they term Northern sectional aggression on the rights of the South. They deny that the present war is for Union, and insist that those who precipitated hostilities neither care nor desire to restore the Union. They advocate propositions for an armistice and peace convention.

A resolution was adopted, expelling Matthew McMahon from the committee for accepting an office under the present administration.

☞ The gunboat Union arrived at Baltimore, Thursday evening, and reports, off Hatteras she chased a pirate steamer,—supposed to be the Winslow, but she could not overtake her. A very heavy gale came on at the time, causing the Union to return to Baltimore for repairs. If the Winslow did not make harbor before the gale overtook her, she is probably driven ashore or foundered, as the weight of her guns was very great and the steamer is known to be not very staunch.

☞ Thomas S. Serrill, a violent secessionist, was arrested at New York on the arrival of the Persia on Friday, with £40,000 sterling, in Bank of England notes, in his possession the proceeds of a loan for the Confederate States. A number of letters and important papers, the despatch states, were also found upon him. He belongs in New Orleans, is about 50 years old and very wealthy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—It is reported by passengers from the West that Gen. Rosencranz, with a small command, is in a precarious position in a mountain gap near Big Spring, and a rebel force has cut him off from water.

The States of Kentucky and Tennessee are to constitute the Department of Cumberland, Gen. Anderson commanding.

The rebels are said to be erecting a battery at Maryland Point, on the Potomac.—There are 1500 or 2000 armed rebels on the Eastern shore of Virginia.

Gen. Tighlman of Md., who was deposed from military rank by Gov. Hicks, and restored by the Legislature, is organizing the disunionists in the lower counties of Maryland.

Gen. Sumner has been ordered to raise a column of 5000 to 10,000 Californians, and march them into Texas and Arkansas.

It is rumored that a rebel force is moving through Great Savage Mountain, to reinforce Wise. The troops holding the pass are ready for them.

Col. Jameson of the 2d Maine Regiment has resigned.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Yesterday afternoon the steamer Resolute was sent from Aquia Creek to Mathias Point, for the purpose of reconnoitering. Seeing a bateau filled with barrels on the shore, just below the point, a boat was sent with six men to bring it off. No sooner had the boat touched the beach than a volley of musket balls opened on them from rebels concealed in the woods, killing three men instantly, and wounding another in the head, it is feared fatally.

The Resolute fired into the midst of the rebels one shot of cannister and nine of shrapnel, with, it is thought, extensive havoc.

The boat was towed a short distance by one of the crew named Sanderson, who quietly stepped into the water, and thus concealed himself from the enemy.

Another uninjured man, it is said, lay in the boat, stupefied by the scene, while the wounded man helped Sanderson row the boat toward the Resolute.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 15.—Steamers Adelaide and George Peabody have arrived from Baltimore, and will shortly leave on an important expedition.

The rumored privateer in Chesapeake Bay was one of our own vessels belonging to Lieut. Crosby's expedition.

The report that the rebels beyond Fox Hill had connected with a telegraph line from Old Point to Newport News, and thus obtained our despatches, is entirely unfounded.

BANGOR, ME., AUG. 15.—The Convention called by the Breckinridge State Committee, was not held in this city to day, and no meeting of that party either public or private is known to be in session.

A Guard Union meeting has been in session, however, during the day, comprising thousands of persons from this city and the neighboring towns, with patriotic speeches, music and a parade of several companies of the Home Guard. There has been no disturbance of the public peace.

☞ What is thought the most reliable information concerning the rebels, is that they are slowly moving their forces to the line of the Potomac, in prosecution of their programme to enter Maryland and encourage and support revolutionary traitors in that State, with ultimate designs on Washington.

☞ The U. S. Marshals for Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Connecticut, New Jersey, Pennsylvania Eastern District and Delaware are in New York, in consultation with the Marshal of New York, to adopt measures to prevent the fitting out of slavers at Northern ports.

☞ The Post Office Department has substituted stamped envelopes of a new style for those hitherto in use; and on the 19th inst. the old stamped envelopes will cease to be good for the payment of postage.

☞ Sixty-six mutineers of the 2d Maine regiment will, it is said, be sent to Tortugas to serve the remainder of their term.

☞ Judge Jamison, of Brooklyn, has issued a habeas corpus writ, on application of Col. Jack, on behalf of about 150 United States troop at Fort Hamilton, who surrendered by order of Gen. Twiggs to the rebels at Matogorda Bay, and were released on parole not to serve against the South.

Their counsel has written to the Secretary of War, suggesting that the Government allow the execution of the writ, as it will save it the necessity of even indirectly recognizing the loyalty of obligation imposed upon men by the rebels.

☞ It is said that Judge Garrison, of New York, made a formal application to Gen. Duryea to ascertain what force could be obtained from King's county to execute the writ of habeas corpus in the case of the Baltimore Police Commissioners. Gen. Duryea replied about 1400 men, but the county was in possession of no artillery sufficiently powerful to make an impression on Fort Lafayette and it would require between 5000 and 10,000 men to take them. So the matter rests for the present.

TALES OF THE DAY.—The August number of this new monthly contains continuations of "For Better, for Worse," "Can Wrong be Right?" by Mrs. S. C. Hall, and the "Seven Sons of Mammon," by Geo. Augustus Sala; besides ten other tales which are published in full. This periodical is admirably calculated to meet the wants of a large class of readers, as it is made up entirely of tales by some of the most popular authors of the day.

Published by Messrs. Carter & Brother, Boston. Terms, $3.00 per year.

☞ The Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, containing a summary of the news of the week, this day published, and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room: price 3 cents; $1 per year, in advance.

INTERESTING NEWS FROM UTAH.—Mr. A. G. Saxion, who arrived at S. Joseph a few days ago from Fort Bridger, Utah, reports a serious state of affairs in that Territory. The Mormons are delaring their design to separate from the United States, and erect their Territory into an independent province. They had seized a vast amount of Government stores and provisions, and carried them to Salt Lake City. This seizure made provisions so abundant that bacon was worth only half a cent per pound, and flour thirty-five cents a sack. The Mormons further delare that no more Government trains shall pass through their Territory hereafter.—St. Louis News.

A large portion of the American people are wholly unaware of the deleterious effects incident to the use of common Saleratus, thereby producing disease and destroying health. The highest perfection is attained in the manufacture of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Use one paper, and you will never have any other. It is a great way ahead of soda, to use with cream tartar. Try it. For sale by most of the grocers and druggists, and at wholesale by the trade generally. 8t

Caution!—In our changeable climate, coughs, colds, and lung diseases will always prevail. Consumption will claim its victims. These diseases, if taken in time, can be arrested and cured. The remedy is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. 6t

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

For the Chronicle.

CLERICAL REBELLION.—We understand that the Rector of the Episcopal Church in this city has positively refused to allow a collection to be taken up in his congregation for the benefit of the returned sick and wounded of the New Hampshire regiments. He was waited upon by the Wardens of the Church, with the sanction of the Vestry, and requested to announce that such a collection would be made. The reverend gentleman did not deem it proper. Such a lack of common Christian charity is worthy of the spirit that reigns farther South.

"I like a church, I like a cowl,
I like a pastor of the soul;
But not for all his faith can see,
Would I that cowled churchman be."

Since writing the above, we learn that the Universalist Society has also concluded (against the wishes of their pastor) not to assist the loyal souls who have come back to us, after having risked life and limb in defence of all we hold sacred. In one case it is the shepherd that is wanting in charity, and in the other—the sheep. In the name of human progress, gentlemen, what is Christianity after you have taken all the Christian spirit out of it? A. T.

☞ John Casey, a young Irishman from Lowell, was brought before Associate Justice Hoyt, of the Police Court, on Friday, charged with stealing a gold watch from the house of Mrs. E. W. Haven, Friday morning; and bound over for trial.—Miss Haven, having gone up stairs, heard him below, and came down; and at his request, went to get him something to eat.—On her return, missing the watch, she charged the "hungry" fellow with taking it,—which he denied, and was very insolent to the ladies, even striking and scratching them. As he left the house, a servant followed him, demanding the watch; and meeting Mr. Charles Annable, told him of the robbery. He collared the chap, and on his giving up the watch, let him go.—But he was afterwards arrested by the City Marshal, as above.

☞ The Real Estate to be sold at auction to-day, by H. F. Wendell, Esq., deserves the attention of purchasers, on account of the large lot of land, and other advantages. The house has other claims on attention, viz. its history, having been the residence of a distinguished family, and having been honored by the presence and entertainment of Washington. It is still a noble residence, likely to stand another century, if spared from fire.

☞ We are informed that Rev. Dr. Peabody, of Cambridge, is expected to preach at the Unitarian Church the next two Sabbaths.

LOSS.—Rev. Dr. Peabody left Boston on Thursday afternoon to visit his old society in Portsmouth and preach to them on Sunday next. On arriving here, he discovered that his valise, containing three or four sermons laid out for the occasion and his clothing, was missing — stolen in the Boston Depot.

The formation of a German company, to be armed with scythes, was lately advocated in New York. This reminds us of a hero of the "last war" who lived in Portsmouth, N. H. Upon hearing an alarm that the foe were landing, he armed himself with a scythe, and was met early the next morning trudging towards the seaboard, and on being asked the object of his strange conduct, replied, "The British have landed at Portsmouth, and I'm going down there to cut and cripple like be d———d."—Saturday Evening Gazette.

☞ The Methodist Camp Meeting near New Market Junction begins next Monday. Tickets are to be obtained at R. K. Oxford's store; price 35 cts. to go and return.

CAIRO, ILL., Aug. 15.—Since the withdrawal of the 18th Regiment from Charleston, the rebels have torn up the track, and destroyed the culverts on the Cairo & Fulton Railroad.

Nothing has been heard from Pillow's command.

☞ Dispatches from Washington say Gen. Butler has been authorized to raise a division of 5000 in Massachusetts, and is to be granted leave of absence to superintend its organization.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The privateer Jeff. Davis arrived at San Juan, Porto Rico, July 26th, for provisions and water.

Martial law has been proclaimed in Venezuela.

☞ Since the battle of Bull Run no less than one hundred and thirty-seven commissioned officers of volunteers have resigned.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 15.—A dispatch from Hickman says there has been a battle at Charleston, Mo., between Jeff. Thompson's forces and the federal troops.

☞ The Union State Convention of Maryland, have nominated Augustus G. Bradford, for Governor. He is an uncompromising and unconditional Union man.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—The Banks of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, have agreed to take $50,000,000 of the Government loan—they to be sole recipients of treasury notes.

☞ Gen. Wool left Albany, on Thursday, for the seat of war. Quite a number of citizens paid their respects to him at the depot, as the veteran started.

HENRY R. COSTAR:—All the summer I have been troubled with Roaches and Mice. I was actually ashamed of the house, for the Roaches were everywhere. I purchased a box of your Exterminator and tried it, and in one week there was not a Roach or Mouse in the house.
JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94 Elm Street.

HOUSEKEEPERS troubled with vermin, need be so no longer. If they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used them to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but Costar's article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.) Gazette.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are annually destroyed in Grant County, by vermin, than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect Killer.—Lancaster (Wis.) Herald.

HENRY R. COSTAR:—Your Exterminator is received, used, and pronounced a decided success. We used a box of it, and the way the Rats and Mice "raised Nel" that night, was a caution to sleepers. Since then, not a Rat or Mouse has been heard, in kitchen or cellar.—Magregor (Iowa) Times.

PORTSMOUTH SAVINGS BANK.—By the report made at the annual meeting of the corporation held this week, it appears that after deducting all the losses from depression of stocks consequent upon the war, the institution has earned a surplus fund above the usual four per cent. interest, of about $31,000. The state of the Bank gives a promise to depositors that those who remain until July, 1863, will find no falling off in the usual dividend of profits.

A Washington correspondent under date of Aug. 12th, writes:—I was last night at the parade of Gen. Scott's Guards, as fine looking company as ever shouldered musket.

It is about 80 strong, and commanded by a Portsmouth boy, Lt. Sherburne, who was in Texas at the time of the surrender of Gen. Twiggs, but marched out with his company, before the capture of the other troops. He was stationed at Key West, Florida, for several months, where he was promoted and ordered to this city. He looks as though hard service agreed with him.

FORT RUNYON.—In the detail of incidents connected with the return of the troops from Bull Run, it is said that at Fort Runyan Lieut. Charles Burroughs Watson, of the Commissary Department was very active in distributing a large quantity of provisions from the storehouse to the famishing troops through the day.

SOME ON MUSCLE.—A gentleman won a wager of a splendid pitcher at a store on Market Square, on Friday, by holding the pitcher at arm's length for ten minutes,—a feat that several competitors had failed to perform.—Chronicle.

It took, however, a limb of the law to hold out that pitcher. Had the bargain been drawn by a lawyer it doubtless would have specified "without resting,"—but from this omission there was an opportunity to put it down every two minutes,—thus the pith of the joke was in the "rest" of the story.

More careful was the man who offered a dollar to any one who would take two bricks in each hand, walk a quarter of a mile with them, and back to the starting point. A stout Irishman took up the four bricks, marched off, returned, and claimed his prize. But you have not done it. Yes, I have been there and here am I and the bricks. Pat dropped them as though they had been a "thousand, when he was reminded that he was to back to the starting point.

CITY COUNCIL.—On Thursday evening, the request of Capt. J. E. Salter, respecting the location of his house on Court street, was referred.

The petition of the Board of Engineers, for the purchase of 800 feet of new patent hose, referred.

Voted to pay the policy of $150, for the additional insurance on $10,000 of City property.

Proposals for receiving the City deposits will be taken of the several Banks on the 20th inst.

After approving a large number of bills, the Board adjourned two weeks.

NOTED HOUSE.—The house on Hunking street to be sold to-day was formerly owned and occupied by Capt. Tobias Lear, the father of Hon. Tobias Lear, jr., who was for many years Washington's private secretary. Washington visited this house when in Portsmouth, and some very interesting memorials of him are still in the house. The house is still in good preservation, and from it opens a splendid river view.

Col. Gilman Marston arrived home at Exeter on Thursday evening. His arm is still bandaged, but his general health is pretty good.

"EVERYBODY"

WHO USES

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE

Is convinced of the fact that

It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,

Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

Messrs. W. E. Hagan & Co.:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four oz bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. BOSWINALL.

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and universal patronage of most leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of Peruvian Bark, carefully combined with various tonic and *stomachic*s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is not one to any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

AYER'S
Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co. Gentlemen: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Scrofula would burst out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Dublin and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses, and it cured my scalp over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now perfect, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the benefactors of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Erysipelas, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Rheumatic Dropsy by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Eruptions by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured my wife of a Goitre—and also cone swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Disease.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking two or three bottles of your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remained."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 20th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I thought I would comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my private practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disease would soon reach the bone. He took all I had, and it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, and of course without some disfigurement to his face. A young man I had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a change of weather she experienced pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 4th July, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which defied the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and removed my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it the best medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Gotchoff, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a well-known man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Kapp, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because it was my greatest and my thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where internal but formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratuitously to their customers.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions of the diseased organ, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is now its best recommendation. Its extraordinary virtues, its wide and long continued sway over the minds and confidence of the public, its unbroken series of cures, its unrivalled success in curing colds, and its truly astonishing cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known wherever there is a civilized people. Of the great prevalence of these complaints, or even families, among them there is not a single one but has personal experience of its effects—some dying victims to their neglect, and others rejoicing over the speedy and delightful relief from distressing disorders of the throat and lungs. As we know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as we know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need only to assure those who have not tried it, that if they will all the virtues that it can lay claim to, and yet will not hesitate to try it when suffering from the cures which have made it so widely open the confidence and manifested.

NEURALGIA, SORE THROAT, RHEUMATISM, CHILBLAINS, LUMBAGO, HEADACHE,
SCIATICA, SORES,
BRUISES, PILES,
PAIN IN BACK, SIDE, LIMBS & CHEST.

The best evidence of its worth is the testimony of those who have been relieved and cured by its use.

"THE HAMMOND LINIMENT" has been used in our families with the very best results. We therefore recommend its use to all who may be afflicted with either of the above troublesome diseases, as we have found it to be what the proprietors claim.

RETIRED WEST POINT GRADUATES.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal, in speaking of the retired West Point graduates, says:

"N. J. T. Dana is a native of Portsmouth, N. H., (not of Missouri,) and now a resident of St. Paul, Minnesota. He served with distinction in the Mexican War, entering it as a Second Lieutenant of Seventh Infantry, and was promoted to a Captaincy in the Quartermaster's Department at its close. He was in Fort Brown during its memorable bombardment; participated in the attack of Worth's division in Monterey, and afterwards at Vera Cruz; was badly wounded in the storming of Cerro Gordo, under Harney, the effects of his wound preventing his taking further part in the war. He resigned, I believe, about 1852, and has since been a banker in St. Paul—If his wound, which was very severe, does not prevent him from going into service, he will make a valuable officer."

☞ R. Plantagenet Grenville, who died recently in London, was the 13th duke of Buckingham. He was the inheritor of a great title and a great estate, and died in obscurity and need, living of recent years principally by the booksellers, and compiling those historic documents or memoirs which go by his name. His career was chequered, and he lost everything—even his wife, who was divorced from him.

☞ Sylvester Randall, of Douglas, Maine, recently gored by a vicious bull, waited until he felt himself in good condition, and then fought the animal with a cart stake in a close yard. There was but one round, and Sylvester triumphed. The bull's legs were broken, horns disabled, and one eye spoiled.

☞ The Legislature of Kentucky will convene in two weeks—and among its first proceedings may be the passage of resolutions affecting Senators Breckinridge and Powell.

☞ There is no truth in the report that the Department has ordered the discharge of fifty foreigners employed in the Charlestown Navy Yard.

☞ A vessel arrived at Baltimore Thursday, from Newbern, N. C., having on board the officers and crews of several vessels recently capturned by rebel privateers.

☞ London is ecstatic over the discovery of a new vegetable, which seems from a description to be a cross between a potato and an artichoke.

It is reported that evidence has been discovered showing that before Jeff. Davis resigned his seat in the Senate he made out a list of men to be made officers in the rebel army.

When Gov. Jackson, of Missouri passed through Abingdon, Va., recently, some person threw a stone into the car and knocked out three of the gubernatorial teeth.

☞ Gen. Lyon's body has been embalmed for conveyance to friends in Connecticut.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.
The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

City Hotel . . . . Portsmouth, N. H.
MAJ. R. F. GOODWIN, having taken the well known CITY HOTEL, CONGRESS STREET, recently occupied by Mr. J. B. Flagg, invites the patronage of his friends and the travelling public generally.
Extensive improvements have been made, and no effort will be spared to insure the comfort and convenience of his guests, at the most reasonable rates.
An excellent stable is connected with the House, and Carriages and Saddle Horses will be ready at all times to convey guests to any part of the city or vicinity.
Portsmouth, May 14, 1861.

NOW OPEN!
THE SAGAMORE HOUSE,
FROST'S POINT, RYE, N. H.
This beautifully located and spacious House is now open to the public. Many improvements have been made in and about the premises; the rooms have been newly furnished, and every pains will be taken to ensure the comfort and accommodation of visitors.
Here are some excellent opportunities for Sailing, Sea Bathing, and Fishing, and the shores and woods abound in game in the season. Boats, Fishing Tackle and Fowling Pieces may be rented at the House.
CARRIAGES at the Depot in Portsmouth on the arrival of every train.
GEORGE H. MERRILL, PROPRIETOR.
Rye, Aug. 10, 1861.

Ocean House, Rye Beach, N. H.,
Will be opened on the 12th of June, for the accommodation of permanent or transient company. The House has been re-furnished and put in the best of order. The proprietors are determined to meet the views of the public in regard to charges for board. The prices will range from $5 to $14 per week, being governed by the rooms selected.

APPLEDORE HOUSE
ISLES OF SHOALS.
Visitors to this beautiful watering place will take the packet SIBYL, at Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train from Boston. The Sibyl is a superior vessel, with splendid cabin accommodations and careful masters. jy1 2m

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.
Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 960 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of TREMULOUS POMPT BEAUTY.
The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.
The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains;—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, cooling the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will here find the best hunting grounds in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.
"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.
Sail, yawl and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.
☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern Railroad, via Portland, daily for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor.
Coaches from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Greenville (foot of the Lake) with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Thos. Robinson, which runs daily, Sundays excepted, to the Mt. Kineo House.
Through tickets from Boston to Mt. Kineo House, via Boston and Maine, and Androscoggin and Kennebec Railroads to Newport, thence by stage to Greenville (foot of the Lake,) and thence by steamer "Fairy of the Lake" to the House,—are sold at the Boston and Maine Station in Boston and in Lawrence. FARE THROUGH $7.50. Passengers have the privilege of stopping over at Portland, on any place East.
☞ Return tickets can be obtained of Capt. Robinson, on board steamer "Fairy of the Lake." jy20 3aw4w

MONDAY, AUGUST 19, 1861.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——On Monday, it was unanimously voted by the Governor and Council to raise a fourth and fifth regiment, to furnish the third with rifles, to give Capt. Carr's company of the second, improved arms, and to accept and equip the Manchester Flying Artillery.

—— On Thursday night a fire broke out in George W. Thayer's barn, Elm street, Manchester, and spread on each side, north to Kidder & Chandler's store, and south to the "Old Ark," occupied by several tenants, carrying on various kinds of business. The sufferers were George W. Thayer, loss $1000; Kidder & Chandler, loss $100; Miss R. E. Chapman, millinery; Hirschfield & Brothers; Oliver Greely; Heman Smith; E. K. Rowell; Timothy S. Jacobs, and John T. and William Plummer, and John B. Goodwin, owners of the "Ark." Aggregate of loss about $6000, and nearly all insured. The fire was the work of an incendiary, whose attempts at various times within a few years have proved unsuccessful.

—— The Nashua Telegraph says, Joseph B. Walker, Esq., having declined the office of Quarter master General of this State, the appointment has been tendered to Col. John H. Gage of that city. The duties of this office are less than we supposed, as the Governor and Council have the whole fitting out of the new regiments, under the loan act.

—— Intelligence has been received by their friends that Thomas E. Barker, of the Goodwin Rifles of Concord, and L. Eastman of Manchester, soldiers in the New Hampshire Second regiment, and supposed to have been killed at Bull Run, are both alive, though prisoners at Richmond, Va. They were wounded, but have been well taken care of.

—— Three large fire and burglar-proof safes are being manufactured in Boston, for the State of New-Hampshire. They will weigh over seven tons each, and are to be completed and delivered at the State House, before the 10th of September next.

—— John R. Hynes, recently assistant editor of the Manchester Mirror, is Second Lieutenant of Capt. Clark's Abbott Guard, recruited for the Third Regiment.

—— The Statesman says it seems as if New-Hampshire ought to have one of the Brigadier Generals made necessary by the recent increase of the army, and respectfully suggests that Captain John G. Foster, of Nashua, one of the gallant defenders of Fort Sumter, is every way a suitable person, and that his appointment would be gratifying to the citizens of his native State.

—— We learn from the Statesman that the Governor and Council have determined to arm the Third Regiment with Enfield rifles, and a contract has been made for the requisite number at a cost of $23.50 each. They could not be had so cheaply, did not Government remit the duties. The Enfield is the rifle in use in the English army, and is like the government rifle made at the arsenal at Springfield, Mass., but the national work-shops cannot turn them out with sufficient rapidity to supply the demand. It is gratifying to know that the Regiment is to have so efficient a weapon. Their camp is called, in honor of the Governor, Camp Berry.

☞ Gen. Burnside of Rhode Island, who was in the Bull Run battle, has written a letter completely denying and destroying the charge that Senator Wilson urged on the army to that disastrous and bloody fight! At the time when Burnside was making his speech in Rhode Island, which the half rebels of New-England have been using against Wilson,—Wilson was in the Senate successfully moving Burnside's promotion!

Wilson's reply to Burnside is very fine. He says, "anxiety, not idle curiosity," led him to the field; that he gave no advice to advance; and does not believe any civilian was at Centreville who urged a forward movement.

The clerk in the Dead Letter Office who has been detected in pilfering, is Rev. T. Fiske, a Universalist preacher, formerly of Philadelphia.—Exchange.

In the Universalist Register for 1859, Theophilus Fiske of Philadelphia is marked "Not in formal fellowship." He has held no special relation to the Universalist Ministry, for some years, except that of an Ishmaelite.

☞ Mr Joseph A. Titcomb of Newburyport has been appointed Sailing Master in the Navy, and is ordered to the U. S. Steamer Water Witch, now at New York.

CHARGES.—The New Hampshire Patriot has an article of a column, denouncing the mob that destroyed the Standard office in Concord. On this fact, the Newburyport Herald moralizes as follows:—

All right, my christian friends; but won't you turn back a few years and find what your own columns said of the mob that routed the women's anti-slavery prayer meeting, in that same Concord! Oh, how these curses, like chickens, come home to roost! It is a long lane that has no turn: some of the abolitionists are now paying in their own coin those who abused and despitefully used them, twenty and thirty years ago; but let them also learn a lesson, for the wheel will turn over again by and by, and every work good or bad, will be brought into judgment. Justice may be slow and have leaden shoes, but she comes up at last.

This is very well put: but Uncle Toby is rather disposed to doubt the statement that some of the abolitionists of twenty or thirty years ago had any part in this mob. They were very few in number then: and were not the kind of men likely to join in acts of lawless insolence.

A SMART SAILOR.—Walter E. Murray, who was one of the colored sailors seized on the Star of the West at New Orleans, and sold at Montgomery, has made his escape and returned to New York. He says in a letter:—

"I was taken by a man named Pink Williams, and transferred to his plantation; the other colored man was sold to another party in Wetumke. I staid with Williams three weeks. I then made my escape taking with me the slave girl Sarah, placed there to watch me. I went to Mobile city, where I shipped in an English vessel bound for Liverpool, taking the girl with me. The other colored man is held in slavery in Montgomery city. I arrived home on Saturday morning. I am willing to ship again and serve the United States."

SYMPATHY OF OUR BRITISH NEIGHBORS.—We understand, says the Kennebec Journal, that Nathan Dane, State Treasurer, recently received a communication from a number of gentlemen resident in one of the neighboring provinces, proposing to take a considerable portion of the loan lately advertised, and offering a handsome premium therefor. They stated that the offer was made as an expression of sympathy for the great cause in which the loyal States are engaged—a cause which must command the respect and good wishes of all true Britons. The proposition for the loan was not received in season to procure any portion of the scrip, but the fact of the tender and the disposition which it discloses, will be very grateful to our people.

☞ The President has issued a Proclamation, declaring all commercial intercourse between the seceded States and other parts of the United States to be unlawful, and all goods and merchandize passing to or from the said seceded States, with the vessels conveying the same, to be forfeited to the United States. Also, that from and after fifteen days from the date of the Proclamation, all vessels belonging to any inhabitant of the States in rebellion, found at sea or in any part of the United States, will be forfeited.

IRELAND.—The census of Ireland has just been completed. The population now is five million, seven hundred and sixty-four thousand, five hundred and forty-three,—a decrease of seven hundred and eighty-seven thousand, three hundred and forty-two, or twelve per cent., since 1851. Since 1841 the decrease has been thirty-six per cent. Number of Catholics, four million, five hundred thousand; of Protestants, one million, two hundred and seventy-three thousand, nine hundred and sixty.

THE SUMTER AT CURACOA.—Some people are inclined to think that Mr. Jesurum, our commercial agent at Curacoa, was removed without ground, not reflecting that the government doubtless has more knowledge of the facts in his case than the public have. The fact is, that all the coal and ship yards at that port are in the hands of the consul or his family, so that he could have prevented the Sumter from receiving either supplies or repairs.

☞ The President has made the following appointments:—William Wallace, of Washington Territory, as Governor of that Territory; Leander J. S. Turney, of Illinois, as Secretary of Washington Territory; A. S. Paddock, of Nebraska, as Secretary of that Territory; Wm. Walton Murphy, of Michigan, Consul for the Landgravate of Hesse-Homburg, the Duchy of Nassau, Grand Duchy of Hesse-Darmstadt, &c; and Samuel Whiting, of New Jersey, Consul at Nassau, N. P.

☞ Official returns of the rebels show them to be two hundred and ten thousand strong. The recent act of the Congress at Richmond calls for four hundred thousand more, a part of which, it is said, they expect to get from the States of Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri.

There is a smart competition between the two companies of steamboat owners in eastern Maine, and the fare has been so much reduced that it is cheaper to travel than to stay at home.

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK., Aug. 13.—Ben McCulloch sent forces after General Siegel's command, which was about 20 miles from Springfield. Gen. Hardee met and captured the whole Federal force and is now bringing them back.

The above is from a rebel source: according to our previous dispatches Gen. Siegel was 42 miles from Rolla, and nearly 100 from Springfield: and our latest intelligence from Hardee puts him at least 120 miles from Springfield. The story, therefore, seems incredible.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The Herald's Washington special dispatch says that the rebels are probably on the eve of attacking our lines. Ample preparations have been made for a repulse, whenever it shall take place.

A later dispatch says the rebels have nearly all fallen back to Fairfax Court House. The pickets of both armies, however, occupy nearly the same advanced positions as heretofore.

ROLLA, MO., Aug. 15.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat gives the following:—

Mr. Ingraham, a Union clerk in a "secesh" store in Springfield, arrived here this forenoon. He reports that four regiments of rebel cavalry under General Rains entered Springfield Sunday noon, and hoisted a secession flag on the Court House, amidst noisy demonstrations of the troops and a few resident sympathizers. Our wounded soldiers in the hospital had not been molested, and it was announced that only the Home Guards would be subjects of resentment. The rebels purchased everything in the stores, paying any price demanded in rebel scrip.

Wagons with the families of Union men continue to arrive. More than half the population of Springfield have left, and the farmers on the route to this place are abandoning their homes. It is reported that Siegel's command is only 15 miles from here. His arrival is expected to day or to-morrow.

WITHDRAWAL OF A LEGACY TO A SECESSIONIST. Henry King, a wealthy resident of Allentown, Pa., died a few weeks since, leaving an estate valued at $300,000. He died childless. He was a brother of T. Butler King, one of the Commissioners of the Confederate States, now in Europe. Mr. King had made a will, leaving half of his property to his wife and the other half to his brother; but a few weeks before his death, exasperated at the secession sentiment of his brother, he made a new will, leaving most of his property to his wife, and the remainder to charitable purposes.

☞ Major General McClellan has issued an order revoking all passes, heretofore given, to enter or go beyond the lines of the U. S. army, on the Virginia side of the Potomac. A strict surveillance will be exercised within the lines of the army on the northern side of the Potomac, and upon all the avenues leading to and from the city of Washington, as well over persons holding passes as all others.

☞ There have been more lies told of the battle of the 21st of July, in the few days since it was fought, than about the battle of Waterloo in forty-six years. Mr. Jefferson Davis may be allowed the honor of having told the biggest lie of the lot, when he said, in his dispatch to the Confederate Congress, that the forces on his side were but 15,000 strong!

☞ It is rumored in high political circles in Albany, that Mr. Cameron is to be removed from the Cabinet, and that the removal was to have taken place on Monday, but he requested an extension of time. It is also asserted that one of the conditions of the recent loan is that the Cabinet shall be partially reconstructed.

☞ One day last week the lightning struck the dam at Byron Smith's grist mill at South Hadley, and glancing off, was diffused over the pond. Soon after, the fish that had been stunned, rose to the surface of the water, and large pickerel, suckers, shiners and other fish were taken by hand in large quantities.

☞ By way of New Orleans! we have a rumor of a severe engagement on the banks of the Potomac, near Loesburg, in which the Union troops suffered a loss in killed, wounded and prisoners, of 1700 men. Intelligence direct from Gov. Banks' division makes no mention of even a skirmish having taken place in that vicinity.

☞ It appears that Gen. Pillow did really embark his troops on board steamers, at New Madrid, and go down the river, but he returned again on Sunday night. The movement is represented to have been a feint, meant to deceive somebody as to his intention.

☞ A Nashville paper says the Louisiana volunteers, who recently got drunk on whiskey, fought among themselves and created a riot at Grand Junction, were only subjugated by being fired upon by order of their Colonel. Fourteen were killed and several wounded.

LOUISVILLE, Aug 16.—Tennessee passengers report that Representative Nelson has been released, and Parson Brownlow unmolested.

☞ The latest dispatches, Saturday evening, state that Judge Nelson, of Tenn., is in jail at Richmond.

A large force of rebel cavalry and infantry is at Charleston, Mo., under Jeff. Thompson. Hardee is said to be at Greenville, Mo., "dispirited and out of conceit with the war."

A Corporal of a Conn. regiment, released from Richmond, had arrived at Old Point, and reports an intended immediate attack on Fortress Monroe by the rebels. A later dispatch, from Baltimore, styles this report "a perfect absurdity."

SECESSION GOING DOWN.—The election returns from Tennessee show a majority of 52,000 for the rebel Constitution.—This is a falling off in secession votes of 12,000 since the State election in June last. But a curious fact is developed by the choice of Mr. Nelson to both the United States and the Confederate Congress, by a large majority. The sentiments of no man in Tennessee, in favor of Union, are better known than those of Mr. Nelson; and we cannot but infer that those who gave him "a large majority" for the Confederate Congress, cannot be actuated by a very decided secession sentiments.—Bost. Cour.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 16.—A messenger from Gen. Siegel reports that he is 16 miles this side of Lebanon, expecting to reach Rolla to-day. He had not been molested. Gen. Lyon was buried on Col. Phelp's farm near Springfield. The number of killed and wounded on our side in the late battle does not exceed 400, and the messenger states that McCulloch and a number of other traitor officers were killed.

A LOTTERY UNDER WATER.—The effect of the war has been such as to render it impossible for the Delaware Lottery Company to meet its semi-annual payment to the State, of $18,000. This delinquency forfeits its charter.

WAR.—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

Boonsboro', Md., Mch. 21, '61.
Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir— Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach—he was, after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.
The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all—in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, pronounce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. Yours truly, F. H. IRWIN,

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.
Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.
In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.
Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.
Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

COMPANY K.—All the letters we have received from members of the Goodwin Guards, speak in high terms of the conduct of their officers on the field and in the camp. We regret to learn, from the following communication, that the Company will probably lose the services of Capt. Sides. Our citizens already know that Capt. S. was in poor health when he took command of his company: this has been aggravated by the exhaustion and fatigue of camp life, and exertions at Bull Run, until it has become necessary for him to seek here restoratives which he cannot obtain there.

CAMP UNION, }
NEAR BLADENSBUG, MD. }

Messrs. Editors :—You will see by the heading of my letter, that we have changed our camping ground. We are encamped about six miles from Washington, and half a mile from Bladensburg, on the old battle ground of 1812. We have been brigaded since we returned from Virginia. Our brigade consists of the 1st and 11th Massachusetts, 26th Pennsylvania, and 2d New Hampshire Regiments, under the command of Brig. Gen. Hooker.

Our camp ground is an improvement on the old in one respect—the air is better, and we have more of it; but our tents are pitched on a clay soil, and when we have a rain, it makes the ground around the tents very muddy. Our parade ground is uneven, and consequently hard to drill on, but we make the best of it.

When we left Centerville, Capt. Sides was unwell; but in spite of that, he marched his company to the battle field, and commanded it throughout the fight. Being in my company all through the battle, I had a good chance to see if any one showed the white feather, and I can truly say that our officers behaved like soldiers and men. And this is true of their conduct, not only in the battle and on the march, but ever since we left Portsmouth.

I am sorry to say that Capt. Sides' health is very poor, and you will probably see him in Portsmouth soon. I assure you that we very much regret to lose him, for he has taken the greatest interest in the company ever since it was formed. I fear we shall not have his place filled very soon.

If it could be left to the company to choose their commander, the boys would like it better; but I fear it will not be; if it is, our 2d Lieut., John S. Sides, will be elected, I am sure, by the vote of every member of the company. The company regretted to lose our Orderly Sergeant very much, but his health was so poor he had to leave us. Before he left the camp, Lieut. Col. Fiske sent for him and wished him to remain, but he thought that home was a better place to recruit than the camp ground. C. E. P.

☞ Fort McClary, on the Kittery shore of our harbor, besides being one of our defences, also affords capital accommodations, on its lofty and spacious lawns, for pic-nic parties — and numerous are the visitors there, attracted by the courtesy of the officers and soldiers, not less than the natural beauties of the location, and its broad sea view. A large party from this city, enjoyed themselves greatly in and about the Fort, on Friday, to the number of two hundred or more—using for conveyances thither numerous sail boats, row boats, the spacious "Ivanhoe" omnibus, and private teams in good number. Our old correspondent "Islington," went to sea in a tub, (half-a-hogs-head,) with a square sail, a pair of sculls to propel his "bowl," and another skull painted, with the marrow bones, on his flag. He arrived in safety, and also in his tub, at the rendezvous landing—which was more than the ladies of the party thought he would do—but Jeff. Davis or some other imp ought to have taken him, sailing under that banner.

The day passed right pleasantly, in inspecting the Fort, and the soldiers, and the ladies—"go way, John!" in listening to the singing—of the ocean and the club, and the playing of the band at the Fort, and the one which accompanied the party; in dancing, sailing, roving, lounging, and especially—aye, especially, in that bountiful, excellent pic-nic dinner, under the beautiful grove, on that seaward-sloping lawn near the church. What with the hearty meats and sweet meats, (not to mention here the helpmeets, actual and prospective;) the hot coffee to warm you, and the ice cream to keep you cool; the sponge cake and the other sponges—no, the other cake; the fine sail down, and the finer sail back—and the good will, good behavior, and (hence) good looks of everybody: if any missed of a go d time, we hardly see how.

A NEW STATE OF THINGS.—The ship Frank Pierce of this port, which came in for repairs, was sent to Boston for that purpose on Saturday, as she could not be repaired here, for want of hands. Almost all our mechanics are at work on the Navy Yard. Some were brought from Portland to repair this ship; but they found their place on the Navy Yard also.

"My dear lady, your daughter is lovely—a perfect little pearl." "And pray, sir, what am I?" "Oh, you are the mother of pearl."

JUSTICE.—A correspondent, for whom we entertain a kind regard, complains that his communication, in defence of the Navy Department, was not published as written, —but was "altered in meaning, garbled in reading, foolish in its ending, and entirely subversive of all true rules of logic."

To set the matter right, we now publish the ending of the piece as he wrote it:

Garnish our thoughts with the words of condemnation, they will still show their lack of sincerity, by their remonstrating with the wrong intentions of those who seek to injure the true patriot for their own aggrandizement.

The city of Portsmouth should falter under such an accusation. It is due to the friend of her future destiny to refute the wrong impression which everywhere prevails of inefficiency, to make the hearts of her own citizens an exception to the imputation.

This was omitted, because we could not understand it, and the following plain statement inserted:

Efficiency in this department is now fulfilling the wants of government, and giving evidence of devotion to duty. Since Congress has enlarged the powers of this department, and provided the means of activity,—the Secretaries and executive officers of the Navy have been as diligent as good and faithful servants can be. A DEMOCRAT.

The other smaller changes were of the same sort, and made for the same reason.

☞ The Grand Jury of the United States Circuit Court at New York, have presented the Journal of Commerce, News, Day Book, Freeman's Journal, and the Brooklyn Eagle, for expressing sympathy with the rebels, and ask advice of the Court in the matter, saying "they will be glad to learn that their conduct is subject to indictment and condign punishment."

☞ J. A. King, a Catholic priest, has been arrested in New York for abusing the government, and contending that the Southern Confederacy ought to be recognized, and inducing soldiers to desert.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 17.—The Charleston Courier of the 6th announces the arrival there of the officers of barque Rowena of Philadelphia from Laguayra, captured by a privateer. The Jeff Davis captured a large Philadelphia brig from Havana, which was taken into Brunswick, Ga., in the absence of the blockading brig Perry.

☞ The N. Y. Herald reports an attempt to blow up Fort Columbus, on Governor's Island on Monday night, by four men who escaped. The sentry who passed them to the Island is missing.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 16.—The Houston Telegraph reports a fight, July 25th, between Col. Baylor's command and the Federal troops at Fort Fillmore, New Mexico. The Federal troops fled, were pursued, and the whole command, 500 in number, taken prisoners.

A large portion of the American people are wholly unaware of the deleterious effects incident to the use of common Saleratus, thereby producing disease and destroying health. The highest perfection is attained in the manufacture of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Use one paper, and you will never have any other. It is a great way ahead of soda, to use with cream tartar. Try it. For sale by most of the grocers and druggists, and at wholesale by the trade generally. 3t

Caution!—In our changeable climate, coughs, colds, and lung diseases will always prevail. Consumption will claim its victims. These diseases, if taken in time, can be arrested and cured. The remedy is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. 6t

HENRY R. COSTAR:—All the summer I have been troubled with Roaches and Mice. I was actually ashamed of the house, for the Roaches were everywhere. I purchased a box of your Exterminator and tried it, and in one week there was not a Roach or Mouse in the house.
JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94 Elm Street.

HOUSEKEEPERS troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used them to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but Costar's article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.) Gazette.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are annually destroyed in Grant County, by vermin, than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect Killer.—Lancaster (Wis.) Herald.

HENRY R. COSTAR:—Your Exterminator is received, used, and pronounced a decided success. We used a box of it, and the way the Rats and Mice "raised Ned" that night, was a caution to sleepers. Since then, not a Rat or Mouse has been heard in kitchen or cellar.—Margaret (Iowa) Times.

WHO USES
HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE
HAIR RESTORATIVE
Is convinced of the fact that
It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,
Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and, with as much safety—it composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

Messrs. W. E. Hagan & Co.,—I hereby certify that my hair having become grey, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four oz bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. ROSEWALL.

QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhea, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is not can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said: "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may continue themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

MAGNOLIA BALM.

For when the face is covered with unsightly pimples or Blotches, the sufferer cares only to be directed to one simple, safe and reliable remedy.

THE MAGNOLIA BALM WILL CURE
THE WORST CASE OF PIMPLES
IN A SINGLE WEEK.

It is so safe a remedy, that the contents of a bottle might be drank without harm. Physicians look with wonder upon its speedy cures, for it has heretofore been thought absolutely necessary to use preparations of lead or mercury to cure immediately; but the MAGNOLIA BALM contains neither. It is the most elegant and neatly put up article for sale anywhere, and may be obtained of all our Apothecaries and Fancy Goods dealers.

☞ Price 50 cts. a bottle.

REAL ESTATE IN NEW CASTLE
FOR SALE.

The TAVERN STAND in Newcastle near the road leading from Newcastle Bridge to Fort Constitution, is offered for sale on reasonable terms. The house has been recently put in a good state of repair, roof shingled, and house painted and papered throughout the interior, and is in every way fit for immediate occupation. It contains fifteen rooms, and is convenient for the business of hotel keeping and boarding. The House is within a few rods of Fort Constitution, and affords ample opportunities for fishing, bathing, boating, &c., are at hand.

The occupation of the Forts at the mouth of Portsmouth harbor, and the contemplated repairs of Fort Constitution promise here to an active and energetic landlord "who can keep a hotel," a handsome remuneration for a very small outlay.

Apply to THOMAS J. TARLTON, Esq., near the premises, or to WILLIAM H. HACKETT, MARKET SQUARE.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ We hear complaints from volunteers on account of being marched until exhausted. That the blame is sometimes due to themselves, will be seen by the following incident:

A spectator of the battle of Bull Run, during the retreat, picked up a very heavy knapsack, which had been thrown away by an exhausted soldier. When he arrived in Washington he opened the knapsack, and found nothing but two large books and a sheet of letter paper. One of the books was the Message and Documents of Congress for 1858–'59, and the other was the history of Ireland, both together weighing about twelve pounds. A man who would attempt to carry such a load on his back under a hot sun, must have a small amount of brains.

NOT MUCH THE MATTER.—As one of the river steamers was proceeding towards Kew, there was a sudden stoppage of the machinery, and considerable alarm took place, especially among the female passengers. "What is the matter? What is the matter? Tell me the worst!" exclaimed one old lady more anxious than the rest. After a short pause, a hoarse voice from off the paddle-box replied, "Nothing, ma'am, nothing; only the bottom of the boat and the top of the earth are stuck together."

We have found out that "disunion" is a fearful thing, and ought to be strangled in its conception and inception only when favored by the Garrisons, the Phillipses and other radicals of the North; when insisted upon by the Jeff. Davises, the Beauregards and the other patriots of the South it is a glorious idea, and emblazoned all over, with promises of prosperity and salvation. —Bath Times.

It is not good policy in shipmasters whose vessels have been seized in Southern ports, to blow too freely in favor of secession, because it awakens suspicion that they may have been implicated in the seizure, and have shared in the prize money.—Bath Times.

☞ An English shipmaster, with a cargo of coffee, is believed to have purposely wrecked his vessel upon the Southern coast. The coffee was saved and sold to the rebels at a price much above its value.

STARTING UP.—We hear of preparations making to start up several of the mills in this vicinity, which have been standing still for a time past. The manufacture of cloth for the army is to be the immediate business.—Narragansett (R. I.) Weekly.

THE AUGUST TURN-ABOUT.
'Tis now the season when we range,
With watering place infatuation,
To seashore haunts and springs, 'tis strange,
Some go to Dissipate their Change,
And some to Change their Dissipation —Vanity Fair.

We are ashamed of strong affections in presence of the light-minded, and reserved in all feelings that must be explained ere comprehended.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.
The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.
A large lot just received, and for sale by the dozen or single box, by BRACKETT HUTCHINGS, 4 Market street. spr24

IN A SINGLE WEEK.
It is so safe a remedy, that the contents of a bottle might be drawn off without harm. Physicians look with wonder upon its speedy cures, for it has heretofore been thought absolutely necessary to use preparations of lead or mercury to cure immediately; but the MAGNOLIA BALM contains neither. It is the most elegant and neatly put up article for sale anywhere, and may be obtained of all our Apothecaries and Fancy Goods dealers.
☞ Price 50 cts. a bottle.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.
Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from "Public Beach," the "City" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 960 feet its summit, which is easy of Access, reveals a picture of UNRIVALLED SUMMER BEAUTY.
The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.
The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains;—while the mountain breeze pass over the waters of the Lake, ensuring the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will here find the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.
"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.
Sail, yawl and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.
☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern Railroad, via Portland, daily, for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor
Coaches from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Greenville (foot of the Lake) with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Theo. Robinson, which runs daily, Sundays excepted, to the Mt. Kineo House.
Through tickets from Boston to Mt. Kineo House, via Boston and Maine, and Androscoggin and Kennebec Railroads to Newport, thence by stage to Greenville (foot of the Lake,) and thence by steamer "Fairy of the Lake" to the House,—are sold at the Boston and Maine Station in Boston and in Portland. FARE THROUGH $7.50. Passengers have the privilege of stopping over at Portland, or any place East.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1861.

ENGLISH NEWS AND VIEWS.

We have dates from Liverpool to the 8th inst. and Londonderry to the 9th.

The news of the Battle of Bull Run was received Sunday, 4th, and caused a sensation. The Northern Americans were much depressed, and the Southerners elated.—There was almost a collision in the Liverpool News Room.

Russell's letter to the Times is confined to graphic details of the rout of the Northern army. He calls it a cowardly rout, and speaks of the panic as causeless and disgraceful.

The Times editorially says the victory was a complete one. The Union army lost all, even their military honor, and it wishes it could find something in it to congratulate either the victors or the vanquished; but sees nothing but what must stimulate the evil passions of both combatants.

The Daily News denounces the Times' criticism, and says nothing has happened which was not anticipated as possible.

All the journals think the event has closed the door to compromise, and must embitter and prolong the struggle.

A Paris letter says the battle has powerfully operated on Parisian opinion in favor of the secessionists.

The Queen's speech, on the prorogation of Parliament, contains an allusion to American affairs, declaring the intention of the European powers to maintain a strict neutrality in the contest.

The whole blockade question is made very plain in Parliament. On the last day of the session, Lord Palmerston stated his views in regard to it. He said in effect that if the blockading force should allow any one ship to enter a blockaded port by the payment of duties, the blockade from that moment was raised. A belligerent may seal up a port, but if he lets one vessel in, his right is gone. It follows, therefore, that when a Federal cruiser willingly allows a ship to enter a blockaded port upon payment of customs, the blockade is at an end.

[As the U. S. Government has no idea of doing any such thing as letting in one vessel on such terms—the whole tribe of croakers and weepers about the British breaking the blockade, may as well dry up.]

☞ Prominent secessionists in Louisville, Ky., called a peace meeting, to be held in that city on Saturday evening, Aug. 17. As the crowd entered the hall, many were singing the Star Spangled Banner. James Speed, Unionist, was called to the chair, and James Trabue was nominated for the same position by those who called the meeting. A division of the house took place, and Speed was declared elected. The secessionists, numbering about one hundred, then withdrew, shouting for the Southern Confederacy. Speeches were made. Strong Union resolutions, the preamble to which sets forth that there is no mistaking the position of Kentucky in the present civil war,—as she is unalterably for peace,—were adopted.

☞ Gen. Wool, that old democratic veteran, the hero of Buena Vista, in a serenade speech in New York, on his way to Fortress Monroe, said the reason we have not peace to day, and every man is not enjoying unusual prosperity, is "only because the South wants to extend the area of Slavery." "Nothing else but that," repeated the old veteran. He concluded as follows: "I have only to say to you, let us have liberty and Union, the whole Union, and nothing but the Union, now and forever."

☞ The reported capture of a portion of Gen. Banks' division at Lovettsville, which is reiterated in the Southern accounts, probably arose from an incident stated in the dispatches published on Thursday last. A body of rebels approached Milton from the direction of Lovettsville, and fired across the river at the Union troops stationed there; but no one was seriously injured, and no prisoners were taken.

☞ A dispatch from the Nashville Union and American to the Louisville Courier says President Davis has issued a proclamation ordering all residents of the Confederate States who do not recognize the Confederacy, to depart within forty days, under pain of being condemned as aliens and enemies.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer says that the pledges of cotton, rice, grain, money, &c., to the Confederated States, cannot fall short of thirty millions of dollars.

ECONOMY IN PUBLIC AFFAIRS.—Editors of Chronicle:—I notice that the City Council of Nashua, have reduced the salary of the Police Judge, from $300 to $100; and the Statesman asks why not reduce the salary of the Police Justice at Concord, to a war standard?

The salary of the Police Justice, of this city, the best paid officer in the State for the time employed, has been fixed by the Legislature, beyond the control of the City Council; so that our citizens have no voice whatever, in the amount of salary to be paid the Police Justice. But public attention cannot fail to be called to the salaries of public officers, when in addition to our own City County and State taxes, we are called upon to help pay the expenses of the general government, by tax upon our real estate and incomes, (if we have one, to any extent;) and we naturally enquire, cannot the government economize anywhere? Is it absolutely necessary to pay an Exeter lawyer $6000, or more a year, to be in Boston a part of the time, to fill an office, the duties of which could be better performed by twenty men of mercantile experience of our own city, and willingly too in these times, for $1000 per year? Doubtless there can be found scores of men who will give bonds to do all the duties of our Custom Houses, Navy Agencies and other public offices everywhere, at say less than one quarter part of the amount now paid so generously by Uncle Sam. The administration may be, for the present, successful in negotiating its loans, because the patriotism of the Bankers would incline them to support the government at the rate of seven or eight per cent. per annum, while the war causes a prostration in business that makes money worth no more than four per cent; but when the direct tax is to be collected, every one will call upon the government to bring its salaries and expenditures down to a war footing. We cannot afford fat offices for politicians, at the expense of excessive taxation. RUSTICUS.

☞ Nathaniel Faxon, Esq., for so many years a leading member of the shoe and leather trade, at the well known sign of the big shoe, Dock Square, died in Boston Saturday morning at the advanced age of 84 years. Mr. F. went to Boston a poor boy when quite young, learnt the trade of a shoemaker, married, hired two rooms near Fort Hill, which he furnished with only sufficient furniture to accommodate his wants, worked industriously, and rose gradually until he accumulated a very large fortune. He was noted for the rectitude of all his doings, and was a good citizen, a warm friend, and an honest man.

DEA. SAM'L GREELE, a well known Boston citizen, died at Swampscot on Friday, aged seventy-eight years. He was a graduate of Harvard College, of the class of 1802, and has been a member of the Legislature, and also of the Board of Aldermen.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The statement several days ago, that the rebels were slowly moving their forces to the line of the Potomac, with a view of entering Maryland and encouraging and supporting the revolutionary spirits in that State, with an ultimate design on Washington, is now repeated with increasing assurance of its truth and with such evidences as cannot be disregarded. With a view of meeting all possible contingencies which may arise in connection with this subject, the Administration has just issued an order, urgently requesting the Governors of the several loyal States to forward immediately all regiments and parts of regiments, now forming, whether armed, equipped and uniformed or not.

☞ All the military departments composed of the States of Maryland and Delaware and a portion of Virginia, together with the city of Washington, have been united in one grand department under the command of Major Gen. McClellan. As a consequence, Major Generals Banks and Dix are placed in a subordinate military position.

The position of Fortress Monroe is not included in this arrangement.

☞ Gen. McCulloch, the Post says, was married three or four years since, and a characteristic story is told of him when his first child, a boy, was born, that he insisted, to the great horror of his young wife, in having the youngster christened "Buffalo Hump," in honor of a particular friend, an Indian chief of that unique name. The General is a thin, spare man, of great muscle and activity, and is about 47 years of age.

☞ It is understood that the money found on Serrill, the rebel messenger aboard the Persia, is worthless. It consists of post notes of the Bank of England, payable only to his order.

There are very ugly reports afloat about Rev. Tucker, lately our gay and jocund Consul at Liverpool. He has outrun the constable to an alarming extent, and played the mischief with Uncle Sam's exchequer whenever he could get at it. In the Queen's Bench in London, even, they say Rev. was, and we fear altogether he has been a very bad boy and associated with improper people. He is now a bold rebel, and perhaps an incipient brigadier.—Post.

☞ The Congregational Journal of Aug. 15, utterly condemns the mob system of regulating speech and the press; pleads for liberty of both, within the limits of known law; and advises legal powers against traitors, and nothing beyond. It offers the following suggestions, very sound and timely:—

When we say this, we have no respect for the mawkish outcry against mob law at the North, which utters no whisper of condemnation upon it at the South; sometimes even excusing or ignoring entirely those numerous instances of cruelty committed there upon men and women, whose only crime is sympathy for the star spangled banner. How is it that any of our fellow citizens are so sensitive at the least demonstration of public sentiment against treasonable language and deeds at the North, and yet have no words to utter against the almost entire prostration of constitutional liberty at the South!

One word of practical advice. At this awful crisis, when the vital blood of our beloved nation is imperiled, let your language, your actions, your looks, bespeak none other than honest emotions of patriotism, and you will have nothing to fear, or to be the source of future regret and disgrace; your property and your reputation will be safe, and your country will bless you for your sympathy and support in the day of her trial.

It draws this true picture of the Standard:

The character of the Standard is too well known to need much description. For some weeks past it has reflected upon the character and conduct of our soldiers, and in the style and spirit of the Southern press, has published much that was exceedingly offensive to all loyal and patriotic citizens, thus showing itself not only opposed to the war, but in strong sympathy with the rebellion.

The last number of the Standard, issued Aug. 3d, had several editorial paragraphs which were evidently intended to stigmatize the soldiers of the 1st regiment. The following is a specimen:—

"Our Southern papers are filled with heart sickening accounts of the murders and robberies which individuals in Old Abe's Mob are perpetrating on the Southern people. Innocent women and children are shot on their own doors steps, for wearing what is called 'secession bonnets.' No wonder that the Northern people run, when the honest men of the South march toward them."

☞ That mysterious telegraph wire, under water and under ground, which was discovered lately, leading from Fortress Monroe toward Fox Hill, a rebel post,—turns out to be a wire laid by Gen. Butler's men, leading to Newport News.—It was broken by the anchor of a fisherman; and a new line now passes over the bridge.—Somebody found a part of this old line, and made a mare's nest of it—in the newspapers.

There was another story, of a U. S. gunboat in the Chesapeake letting a pirate go by her without asking her name, &c. It now turns out that the gunboat was in command of Lieut. Crosby. The "pirate schooner" was his tender. The "motley crew of of the pirate schooner" were twenty-five men of one of the Massachusetts regiments.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Ex-Minister Faulkner is not, as has been stated, merely detained as a hostage for the return of Messrs Harris and Magraw, who went to the Confederate Camp for the purpose of recovering the body of the late Col. Cameron; but for good and satisfactory reasons to the Government, apart from any such considerations.

The reporter of the Associated Press at Washington learns that a statement is published, as coming from him, that Secretary Cameron is to be removed. Nothing whatever of this kind was transmitted by the reporter.

☞ Intelligence has been received from Rolla, Mo., to Saturday last. Gen. Siegel's brave little army was encamped at a place 8 miles from the city, under command of Major Sturgis. A flag of truce had arrived from the enemy's camp to procure medicines for the wounded, and to propose an exchange of prisoners. The sensation dispatch published on Saturday in relation to the capture of these troops, is thus conclusively refuted.

AN IRISHMAN'S DISCOURSE ON INDIA. "India, my dear boy," said an Irishman to a friend, on his arrival at Calcutta, "is jist the finest place under the sun; but a lot of young fellows come out here, and they dhrink and ate, and they ate and dhrink, and they die, and then they write home to their friends a pack o' lies, and say it's the climate has killed 'em."

☞ The Richmond papers have been forced to acknowledge that Hampton was burned by General Magruder,—an act of vandalism they now justify as being a case of military necessity and strictly "constitutional."

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Agents of the French government have been engaged for weeks in purchasing breadstuffs at the West and East.

Ex-Minister Faulkner is to be sent to Fort Hamilton, New York.

The city is full of rumors that the rebels, with a force of 150,000 or 200,000, are approaching Washington. Military officials doubt the rumors.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 18.—Gen. Wool assumed command to-day.

The Volunteers are receiving their new uniforms, and their condition is improving.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 19.—A committee of the citizens of Harrison county notified the owners of the Covington & Lexington Railroad that if they continued the transportation of merchandise the road would be destroyed. The owners promised obedience, and returned six cannon and thirteen car loads of small arms to Covington.

☞ The steam-tug R. B. Forbes has been purchased by the government, and will be sent off immediately to join the blockading squadron.

☞ A New York dispatch says Commander Potter, of the St. Mary's, Pacific Squadron, is on his way home in irons.

A large portion of the American people are wholly unaware of the deleterious effects incident to the use of common Saleratus, thereby producing disease and destroying health. The highest perfection is attained in the manufacture of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Use one paper, and you will never have any other. It is a great way ahead of soda, to use with cream tartar. Try it. For sale by most of the grocers and druggists, and at wholesale by the trade generally. 3t

Caution!—In our changeable climate, coughs, colds, and lung diseases will always prevail. Consumption will claim its victims. These diseases, if taken in time, can be arrested and cured. The remedy is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. 6t

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

FROM BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston,—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

ANOTHER VIEW. — A correspondent, part of whose article is printed herewith, takes exceptions to the tone of A. T.'s communication, and denies the justice of his strictures on the Universalist Society. He says:

"There never was any proposition to benefit the returned sick and wounded, before the Universalist society; but undoubtedly the writer refers to the action of that society in declining to raise money by passing round the contribution box, for the purpose of contributing to the Ladies' Volunteer Aid Society, the object of which is to supply hospital stores to the sick and wounded United States soldiers. The writer gives the impression that the members of this Society had no sympathy for these objects, and refused to contribute. This is unjust to them. On the contrary, they manifested a deep feeling and sympathy with the object, but they thought it best to contribute for this purpose in a different way: and I am informed that the members of that Society are preparing to assist the Ladies' Volunteer Aid Society, with a larger sum than would probably have been taken up by the contribution box."

The article closes in the following patriotic and conciliatory language:

"I may be allowed, and hope I shall be allowed to say, that the proper way in this trial hour of our beloved country, is, not to have any division into churches or cliques, but for all action to be by the people in their capacity as citizens,—and that we should act as one people, and by voice, by contribution, by loyal and patriotic action, do all we can to sustain the government in preserving our glorious Constitution. But if others can do more by acting as a church, by all means let them so act, but not grumble at everything not done in their way.—Confidence, sympathy, courage and action are what we want.

"The American Government is in great peril; and it requires the earnest and loyal efforts of the whole people of the loyal States, to preserve our Government. Men of all churches, of all parties, of all nationalities, who love free government, must work together, in union and harmony, to save the nation and preserve our Constitution.

E PLURIBUS UNUM."

Messrs. Editors:—Allow me to suggest to your correspondent "A. T.," that the charity of which he writes so eloquently, consists not in the application of abusive remarks to a gentleman whose principles and patriotism are undisputed. And I would most respectfully advise that his pen may be laid aside, and with it, the rancor that has corroded its point, until such time as he may understand fully the matter he undertakes to correct. He may one asked "A. T." to become a "cowled churchman?" I believe it is according to parliamentary usage, to wait for a nomination to office, before declining. I hope the verse of poetry is not indispensable to the receipt of this communication, and trust the omission will be excused. A. T. E.

MONDAY, Aug. 19, 1861.

To the Editors of the Chronicle:—I have been favored with the following elegant epistle, which I beg leave to answer through your columns, my correspondent having neglected to give me his private address.

Yours, respectfully, A. T.

MONDAY MORNING.

To A. T.—SIR: — The Rector of St. John's Church announced from the pulpit last Sunday, that a contribution would be taken up the following Sabbath for the benefit of the "Ladies' Volunteer Aid Society."

After your insulting paragraph in Saturday's Chronicle, reflecting severely on Rev. Mr. Hitchcock, it is your duty to state this fact over your anonymous signature.

Yours, without respect, F. O.

To F. O.—SIR: The discourtesy of your note shall not hold me from granting your desire. It affords me pleasure to say that the Rev. Mr. Hitchcock has at last done what he should have done at first. I will add, moreover, that I now think he did not deserve censure so much for declining to perform an act of humanity, as for being weak enough to listen, for a moment, to the idle words of injudicious advisers.

And now, sir, having acceded gracefully to your dreary request, (shades of canonized lexicographers, assist me! what do you mean by an "anonymous signature!") I beg leave to give you a bit of advice: Never, by any chance, sign yourself F. O. in future. The trick, sir, is transparent:—anybody would see that you had dropped an o and an i,—at least it seems so to

A. T.

☞ We gave lately an account of the shooting of Joseph Park, cook of the Boston ship Orion, by Capt. Henry Libbey, at Whampoa, May 23d. A coroner's inquest was held the next day; and on the 30th of May, at Canton, Capt. Libbey had a regular trial on a charge of murder before Oliver H. Perry, U. S. Consul. The testimony on the part of the defence having been closed, the prisoner read a written defence, in which he claimed that the act was entirely in self-defence, the cook being infuriated by intoxicating liquors. The Consul adjudged him not guilty, and the jury concurring, he was honorably acquitted of the charge.

☞ Uncle Toby thinks the whole matter, of contributions in Churches to relieve the suffering sick and wounded of our own volunteers,—has been sufficiently discussed, in the way of crimination and recrimination, squib and counter squib, by correspondents.

The important facts in the case are very few, viz. that, by the action of a pastor in one case and of a parish in another, a collection was not taken.

There is no doubt that the pastor or rector, who declined, had the power to do so, by the canons of his church—and no doubt the parish, in the other case, had the same power to withhold.

The question of duty, patriotism, humanity, christianity, is another question, which has to be settled in another place, viz. in the court of conscience, for each man, and in the court of public opinion for a public body or public dignitary.

We have no doubt as to the call of humanity and duty in this day, to take care of the sick and wounded whom we sent out to make a wall of their bodies, to keep desolation and ruin away from our capital, our liberties and our homes.

The events of the day, our disasters and distresses, as a nation, give traitors as well as patriots, a chance to show themselves,—and they are doing it.

The exigency of the country calls on every man to do his duty; but it is not every man's duty to do exactly the same thing.—He who has nothing to give but a good word, a dollar or a cent, a good wish, a prayer, for his country,—and does not give that, is guilty before God, however he may stand before men. But he who does what he can, as a man, as a christian, in aid of the right, shall never fail of his reward.

☞ On Monday afternoon a barn, situated in rear of House No. 19 North street, North Portsmouth, owned by Mrs. Mooney, a widow, was burnt, with its contents, twelve or fifteen tons of hay. There was small insurance on the barn. We are informed that an attempt to burn the building was made some time ago.

There was another alarm in the evening, occasioned by the flames breaking out anew.

☞ The Winnicumet Guards, Capt. Dunbar, of Hampton, who have been stationed at Fort Constitution for the past three months, have been ordered to Camp Berry, Concord, and the volunteers enlisted by Capt. Gillis of Milford and those enlisted by Lieut. Brown, of Great Falls, were ordered to report to the Commanding officer of this post on Monday the 19th. The Winnicumet Guards left this city, on Monday morning.

☞ A man named Hall, from Wells, Me., on Sunday fell from the starboard rail of the U. S. ship Sabine, striking on a staging below, fracturing his ankle and injuring his spine. It is feared he cannot recover.

☞ Among the recent promotions in the U. S. Marine corps, confirmed by the Senate, were Philip H. W. Fontane and Philip R. Fendall, to be First Lieutenants.

☞ An early train on the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, leaves this city, at 8 o'clock, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings, this week, for the accommodation of persons wishing to attend the Camp Meeting, near New Market Junction.

NOTICE.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL of the Universalist Society are notified that arrangements have been made to hold their Pic-Nic in "Beck's Woods," near "The Sagamore," on Wednesday Afternoon next, if the weather should be suitable. THE CONSTRUCTION OF GUNBOATS.—The Secretary of the Navy has issued orders for the construction of five of the new side-wheel gunboats authorized by Congress. They are to be constructed at the following yards: Portsmouth, N. H., two; Charlestown, Brooklyn and Philadelphia, one each. The other seven steamers are to be constructed by contract. Two of the seven steam sloops authorized by Congress, now in course of construction at the Portsmouth yard, are being rapidly completed. One will be launched in three weeks, if the engines are ready, and the other in about five weeks. The Portsmouth yard obtains, seemingly, more than its proportionate share of work, from the fact—outside of special reasons satisfactory to the Secretary of the Navy—that the best workmen in the world reside near and are employed at that yard. There are no workmen like them anywhere else. Besides it possesses the material and other facilities for building vessels sooner and better than they could be constructed at any other yard in the world.—New York Herald.

WAR.—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

BOONSBORO', Md., Mch. 21, '61.

Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir— Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach—he was, after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.

The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all—in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, pronounce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. Yours truly, F. H. IRWIN,

JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94 Elm Street.

HOUSEKEEPERS troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used them to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but COSTAR'S article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.) Gazette.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are annually destroyed in Grant County, by vermin, than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect Killer.—Lancaster (Wis.) Herald.

HENRY R. COSTAR:—Your Exterminator is received, used, and pronounced a decided success. We used a box of it, and the way the Rats and Mice "raised Ned" that night, was a caution to sleepers. Since then, not a Rat or Mouse has been heard in kitchen or cellar.—Macgregor (Iowa) Times.

WHO USES

HEIMSTREET'S UNIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE

Is convinced of the fact that

It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair.

Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

☞ Read this letter:

ST. LOUIS, MO., June 1, 1859.

Messrs. W. E. Hagan & Co.,—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four bit bottle of HEIMSTREET'S UNIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statement. WM. BOSWYALL.

To Owners and Keepers of Dogs.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Portsmouth, June 24, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance No. 49, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle, well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshal, to kill, or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of this city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

JOSEPH R. FOSTER.

Are you sick, bilious, and complaining? Have you the blues, with your system disordered, your feelings uncomfortable? Do you need a cathartic? Then take the period for what it is worth. Some fit of sickness brooding over you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, especially by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the healthy feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the disguised and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. Those who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Partnership Merchant of St. Louis, Mo. 4, 1858.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the champion of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and to her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Gatwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and efficacious. Their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Thomas Bell, of Baltimore.

DEAR SIR, AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

Yours, Truly, Philadelphia, Pa., May 7, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PRESBLE, Clerk of Steamer Chesapeake.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1859.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you first made them known to the profession, and they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable purgative in the derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease in which they did not eventually prove effective. Professionally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I add them to others as one of the best specimens I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, in chronic dysentery and diarrhoea. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. A. V. Wells, Pastor of Adams Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit as a clergyman. They regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best family physic I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HINES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1857.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Rev. J. P. Temple, Hartford, Conn.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as effectual as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the sick. I nevertheless have some fear that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the prerogative of others that are worse. I believe on account of its origin in the liver, but your Pills effect that as you know and are thankful.

From Hon. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the commencement, an excellent preventive of the natural sequelæ when whole or partially suppressed, and also very efficacious to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hewitt, of the Methodist Fifth Church

PITTSBURGH, Allegheny City, Jan. 6, 1858.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and occasioned an extreme racking neuralgic pain, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Nothing could be more painful and distressing. The disease grew worse and worse, until by the use of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. McKenzie, I tried your Pills. They have cured me, and, what is more, by preventing in the use of them, I can now entirely walk.

SIMON CAMERON, Dallas Bough, La., 8 Br. 1858.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of rheumatic gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous to a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

☞ 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

Being out of health, and having no family, I offer for sale my FARM in Kittery, known as the "CUTTS FARM," consisting of about 125 acres of meadow, pasture and pasture land, with a two-story DWELLING HOUSE and BARN, SHEDS and other out-buildings, all in good repair.

The land is excellent, and has a good orchard of 200 grafted fruit trees. The situation is very pleasant, on the road from York to Portsmouth, about three miles from the latter place,—and would furnish to the purchaser not only an excellent farm, but a very desirable residence.

Terms of sale easy, and immediate possession given. For further information, call on the subscriber, on the premises.

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W HAMMOND, 99 Milk Street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, he aid is invaluable.

For diarrhea, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.
The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.
Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 900 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNEQUALLED FOREST BEAUTY.
The Mt. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.
The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains;—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, causing the air to be delightfully cool and invigorating, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will here find the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.
"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.
Sail, yawl and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 21, 1861.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The accoutrements of the 1st Regiment will be used for the Third as far as they are suitable; the deficiency will be made up from the new lots which are being rapidly manufactured. The tents are being made at Manchester; 100 have already arrived, and 150 are expected. The horses have not yet been purchased. It seems to be the determination on all sides that this regiment shall be better equipped than any which have preceded it.

——It is said three guns belonging to the State have recently come to the light of day, which have not been known as State property for several years.

—— The Manchester American says there is a great desire manifested among their people to raise a regiment in Manchester, to be accompanied by the Flying Artillery. They have already enlisted in' that city, nearly men enough for a regiment having had two companies in the first, two in the second and will have four in the third regiment.

—— The Candia Branch has finally got a start. The grading contract is taken by Pierce, Jewett, & Co., of Dover, and they have already begun operations at the Candia end.

—— The Hillsborough County Agricultural and Mechanical Society have voted unanimously to rebuild their exhibition building, and the committee was authorized to proceed at once to do it. It was also voted that when the committee have procurred the lumber and materials, an invitation be given to the friends of the enterprize in Milford and adjoining towns to volunteer labor and assistance in the erection of the building. The society voted to hold another meeting at the Town Hall, Milford, Sept. 12, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to arrange and stimulate for the fair, and to discuss subjects of interest to farmers.

—— The Supreme Judicial Court of New Hampshire held an adjourned term for the decision of questions of law at Manchester, last week, and decided the case of Martha A. Wyatt, against James M. Williams, in favor of said Williams. This was an action to recover damages for the loss of her support and maintenance, comfort and society of her late husband, Vanness Wyatt, alleged to have been wickedly and unjustly killed by said Williams. The Court decided that the action could not be sustained.

—— A Concord correspondent of the Boston Journal states that Gen. Sherman, recently of the well known "Sherman's battery," was in Concord, on Thursday, on business connected with the recruiting service, and stated that New Hampshire would be called upon for nine regiments, inclusive of that now at the seat of war, and the Third, now organizing. As soon as the haying season is over and farmers' work completed, it is thought there will be an abundance of men ready, willing and anxious to enlist and serve their country in this, its hour of peril.

—— Stephen Lovejoy, of Laconia, a member of the Third Regiment, having been put on a short allowance of spirituous liquors, was badly affected by the change, and attempted suicide, by cutting his throat with a razor, on Thursday night at the camp in Concord. He succeed in making a deep gash, but very singularly did not strike the right veins to end his existence as he desired. The wound was sewed up and it is hoped he will recover, although he threatens to make another trial of the same kind.

☞ Official information has been received at Washington, that a vessel from the South with confederate ship papers only, had entered Newport, R. I, under stress of weather, and that on the person of a French passenger was found a letter authorizing him to purchase blankets, coffee, iron, &c. It is supposed his intention was to ship these articles to some port in North Carolina, either in a French or English vessel, as it is claimed that foreigners may rightfully take advantage of an ineffective blockade.

A MIRACLE WORKER MADE TO SMART.—A Dr. T. E. Jones, who pretends to cure all diseases by divine power, was arrested at Brooklyn, N. Y., a few days since, and compelled to refund $75 which he had taken from a cripple, under pretence of making him a sound man.

☞ New Orleans is so desperately healthy that nearly all the physicians and surgeons have gone to Richmond.

THE TRIAL OF CAPT. LIBBEY.—The Friend of China, a newspaper published at Canton, gives a very full report of the trial of Capt. Henry Libbey, of the ship Orion, charged with the murder of Joseph Park, cook of said ship, on the 23d of last May, from which charge he was honorably acquitted. The editors state frankly that "owing to having read so many accounts of wantonness on the part of masters and mates in the American mercantile marine, they in common with a large section of the British Public, always feel disposed, when deadly weapons have been resorted to to keep seamen in order on ship board, to conclude our cousins in the wrong:" but finding such suspicion in this case unjust, they publish the depositions in full. They preface the account of the trial with the following statements:—

An inspection of the record of trial, coupled with a visit to the ship, has altogether satisfied us that a reproof to Capt. Libbey would have been senselessly cruel,—and that in giving the finding they did, the Associate Judges only peformed an act of imperative justice. It has always been our opinion that in cases where it is possible for jurors to visit the locale of any deed on which they are called to adjudicate, they should do so. Had they in the present instance, the effect on their minds must have been instantaneous. Here was a vessel over two hundred feet long, the poop occupying over a fourth of it. Ten feet or so before this poop is a boat gallows on a level with the uppermost deck. Forty feet or so beyond this is the cook's galley. Well, those, almost close under the boat gallows, is the hole made in the deck by the missing shot, and there the cook received his death wound.

The unfortunate man (spoken of as a perfect artist in his profession) had actually traversed the distance of forty to fifty feet from his galley, knife in hand, for the purpose of stabbing Captain Libbey on his own quarter deck—only twelve feet intervening between the parties when the shot were fired;—Capt. Libbey being so close to the cabin door that those on the poop above could not see him.

Twelve feet from the knife that is to take your life is but a short space, and only those that have been similarly face to face with extreme danger can realize the coolness which Capt. Libbey possessed when able to restrain his fingers from giving his assailant barrel after barrel of his revolver till all were discharged.

He did not so. One, and one miss—then Stop!—the hit was of no avail,—one more!—Stop.

No, Capt. Libbey could do no less than he did, and not one man in a thousand could have done so well.

There were remarkably few discrepancies in the evidence of the several witnesses, fifteen in number. The principal points brought out by the trial are well summed up in Captain Libbey's defence, printed below.

Park was an Englishman, about 28 years of age, very powerful and active. The witnesses testified that he was a desperate character; at this time he "was very furious—appeared to be perfectly mad." The chief mate testified, that when Park was so her, he was "good with him, but contrary with others; and when in liquor was hard to manage, and also contrary with every other officer but himself." The steward testified, that he had known him to put a knife in his breast, for the purpose of using it against the first officer of the ship, in case he was attacked by him.

The testimony being closed, the consul asked the prisoner if he had any defence to make; when he read the following:—

Your Honor and Gentlemen of the Jury: I stand at the bar of this Consular Court charged with the highest crime known to enlightened nations; to that charge, I have pleaded "Not guilty."

In submitting my case to you, I resolved to rest it entirely upon the evidence, rather than avail myself of the quirks of the law. That the deceased Joseph Park came to his death by my hand, I have never for a moment denied: It has been shown by the testimony of unimpeachable witnesses, that, on the twenty third day of this present month, the deceased Joseph Park, was more or less under the influence of intoxicating liquor; that he was maddened by its effect upon his brain, and while in this state of partial intoxication, he was reported to me as "noisy and quarrelsome;" that I went towards the galley for the purpose of speaking to him about his conduct, which it was my duty to do. Meeting him at the main-mast, I told him to keep quiet and attend to his duties. That I spoke to him in a low voice, and spoke to him kindly, has been fully shown; that the the deceased Joseph Park immediately concentrated all his passion upon me, using threatening and insulting language, and saying "I will strike or knock you down" at the same time placing himself in various positions which the world calls scientific to do so; that I ordered the chief mate to bring a pair of irons, for the purpose of securing him; that the deceased Joseph Park on hearing that order, ran to the galley to get a knife; and that with a knife in one hand and steel in the other, he rushed upon me, whetting his knife on the steel in a murderous style; that he distinctly told me "he would have my heart's blood;" that I had no reason to doubt his word; his every act and movement carried conviction to my mind, and to the mind of the witnesses present that such was his intention.

That "he crouched like a tiger to spring upon me," and when he was about to spring upon me, to save my own life I fired at him; that by my first shot he was not discouraged in his purpose, but told me to fire straight or he would have my heart's blood, at the same time making a movement to carry out his intentions.

My life is precious to me, not for my own sake, but for the sake of a wife and child, and father, and mother, who are more or less dependent upon me for their maintenance and support. As there was no chance to save my own life, but by taking his, I fired the fatal shot. I have proved to you that if I had not taken his life, he would have taken mine, and on this simple fact the case must be decided; for there is implanted in the bosom of every man a trong principle of self-preservation which will not permit him to fall the victim of an assassin when he holds in his right hand a weapon with which to defend his life; and there is written on the statute books of each and ever nation, a law which justifies him in so doing.

The evidence before you shows that before I fired on the deceased Joseph Park, I made a strong effort to save his life by calling on the crew to take him away, and that my efforts were of no avail; but that effort shows to you that I had no bad feeling toward him, but a strong wish to save his life, and it also shows that I was perfectly cool and collected, and free from passion. I have proved to you that in the whole affair I made use of no expressions having a tendency to inflame his passions; that I spoke to him in a very quiet manner, as I always do, under any circumstances, to those placed under my command.

The deceased Joseph Park was a butcher by trade; the knife and steel were those he used when working at his trade. I know, and had an instinctive feeling, that he would have inflicted upon me a mortal wound, and there was no help for me but in self-defence. I have shown you that in the five and a half years I have commanded the Orion, I have maintained a good discipline on ship board, without disgracing myself before the world, or with my employers, by any acts of cruelty to those placed under my command;—that from the smallest boy to the oldest man, all have been treated well; that I have never shown passion, or a vindictive spirit towards my crews; and in the ten years of my life as shipmaster, have been but once before a court of law for my conduct on ship board, and then was acquitted on evidence entirely ex parte.

Gentlemen of the Jury, I not only ask at your hands an acquittal from the crime charged against me, but I ask an honorable acquittal, which shall place me before the world free from all stain. But if this cannot be, I have within my bosom a spirit which can endure and suffer any penalty which the majesty of the law may inflict. Man punishes the body, God alone punishes the soul.

Gentlemen, I leave the case in your hands; I ask no favors—render a just decision upon your oaths, and may God defend the right.

[Signed] HENRY LIBBEY.

☞ The Union resolutions adopted at the meeting called by secessionists in Louisville, Ky., are as follows:

Resolved, That while this State desires to be true to the Union, she also desires to have peace with all the States.

Resolved, That we earnestly desire the restoration of peace to every part of our beloved country, and as the speediest and surest mode of effecting that result, we appeal for a cessation of the war now being made on the Union.

Resolved, That in the dissolution of the Union, we behold a remedy for no evils, but an aggravation of all.

Resolved, That we do not see how a peace, enduring and substantial, is to be obtained by the establishment of two independent Governments within the present Union.

Resolved, That we deprecate the attempt being made to produce, by force, a disruption of the Union.

Resolved, That for the purpose of restoring peace, all patriotic men should abandon sectional parties at the North and the South, and that the rights of the Government should not be abandoned while it dictates to an armed rebellion.

Resolved, That the neutrality of Kentucky but foreshadowed her love for peace, and that all negotiations looking to a Constitutional settlement of sectional differences, and the preservation of the Union, shall have her hearty co-operation.

Resolved, That we are unwilling that any foreign power shall hold the mouth of the Mississippi river, or any ports of the Union, and therefore are unalterably opposed to a dis olution of the Union.

Resolved, That we are for our country, now and forever, whether assailed by foreign or domestic enemies.

ROLLA, MO., Aug. 18.— Capt. Emmet McDonald reports that Capt. Chas. C. Rogers, Aid to Governor Jackson, and Capt. Stephen A. Coleman, both of St. Louis, were killed in the battle of the 10th. Also that McCulloch's force was 22,000 strong before the battle, and their killed and wounded numbered from 2500 to 3000.

He reports Gens. Price and Clark slightly, and Brig. Gen. Slack severely wounded; also Capt. Bay, formerly of Capt. Jackson's body guard. He was very anxious to go to St. Louis, but his application was refused. He asked many questions as to the troops, &c., there, and what preparations are making to resist an attack. Yesterday he was escorted beyond our lines, and sent on his way to Springfield.

Gen. Siegel, having received his commission as Brigadier General on Saturday, assumed command of the Federal forces yesterday.

☞ Commander Livingston, of the steamer Penguin, writing to the Navy Department under date of the 15th inst., states that off Cape Fear, chasing the Louisa, of Wilmington, N. C., he brought her within reach of his guns, when she ran ashore, keeled over, filled with water and became a wreck. She intended going to the West Indies with a cargo of lumber and to return with coffee.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for September, is a bouquet of good and pretty things: engravings, fashion plates, patterns for embroidery and crochet work, tales, poetry and anecdote. The frontispiece is called the Widow's Mite; the figures are a very handsome young woman and three pretty children.

FROM THE SOUTH.—The Texas Ranger records great havoc by the ball worm on the cotton crop in the vicinity of Brentain.

The Indianola Courier says salt enough can be gathered on the Texas coast marshes to supply the whole Confederacy.

The Houston Telegraph says Texas has grown wheat and corn enough this year for two years, and enough wool to clothe half the Confederacy, and will make 500,000 bales of cotton.

The Attakapas Register says the sugar crop is better than ever before.

The Charleston Courier asks the rebel Commisariat to recognize officially and practically rice and corn for making bread. It also urges the establishment of a locomotive factory. The same paper says the Confederate Congress in secret session appropriated one million of dollars for supplying clothing, subsistence, arms and ammunition to the Missouri troops, subject to the discretion of Jeff. Davis.

The British steamer Eastern State, of Yarmouth, N. S., has arrived at Boston, bringing four hogsheads and ninety-two barrels of spirits of turpentine, and thirty one bales of North Carolina cotton. This freight has been derived from some vessel that has run the blockade.— N. Y. News.

It has not been derived from any such thing: but it was legally and properly shipped just at the time rebellion was creeping along towards Virginia,—and after a curious train of detentions between the Confederate States and the States of Virginia and North Carolina, it got safe to Yarmouth, N. S., and finally to Boston.

☞ General James Shields, of California, has been appointed a Brigadier General of volunteers.

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing what a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

Local.

☞ A fire in the swamps in the vicinity of Stratham, on Tuesday morning, gave rise to a report in this city, that the residence of Col. J. W. Peirce, in Greenland, was in flames. Many of our citizens rode out, and not a few importuned the Chief Engineer to send forward the city engines; but he very wisely waited for more reliable information, in regard to the locality of the fire, before doing so.

☞ Hon. Frank Fuller, recently appointed Secretary of Utah Territory, left this city on Tuesday morning, en route for Great Salt Lake City, where he will enter at once upon the discharge of the duties of his office.

☞ Capt. Wm. O. Sides, late of Company K, 2d Regiment N. H. V., arrived in this city on Monday evening, having resigned his command on account of ill health.

☞ The Ladies' Soldiers' Aid Society have received from the State street M. E. Society, through Rev. R. W. Humphriss, $36.05. M. ABBIE HASELTON, Treas.

Portsmouth, Aug. 20.

CARD.

The officers and members of ATLANTIC ENGINE CO., No. 6, would return their thanks to those Volunteers who so kindly aided us at the fire on the afternoon of the 19th inst. Rest assured, gentlemen, that if ever opportunity offers, this "Atlantic" won't be last to lend a hand.

Per order. JAS. F. JENNESS, Clerk.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Aug. 20.—Steamship Canada, from Liverpool 10th, and Queenstown 11th, was intercepted by the news yacht off Cape Race at 4:30 P. M. yesterday.

American affairs claim undivided attention.

Mr. Russell, in another letter to the Times on the battle of Bull Run, asserts that there were no daring deeds on either side, and no desperate struggle, except by those who wanted to get away.

The Daily News defends the Northern army.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.—Gen. Siegel, Maj. Conant and several other officers arrived from Rolla in to-night's train, which also brought a large number of the wounded of different regiments, who were taken to the hospitals or to their friends.

Capt. Maurice was detailed this morning to proceed to Springfield under a flag of truce, with a guard and ambulances, to bring in Capt. Cavender, Corporal Conant, and the body of Gen. Lyon.

IRONTON, Mo., Aug. 17.—Messengers bring information that Col. Hecker, who left here on Thursday evening with his regiment, had dispersed a body of 400 reb ls near Fredericksburg early yesterday morning, captured all their camp equipage, and ate the breakfast they had just prepared. Twelve prisoners were also taken. Gen. Prentiss has arrived and taken command of all the forces in this section.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—The arrest of Pierce Butler was followed by that of Wm. B. Reed, ex-Minister to China, George M. Wharton, late U. S. District Attorney, Chas. Brown, late Collector at this port, and David Solomon.

It is stated that Pierce Butler's arrest was caused by intercepted letters giving information to the enemy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The Commercial special Washington dispatch says—There is considerable unnecessary excitement to-day respecting alleged movements of the rebels on the city. Washington is safe now, but if offensive operations are ever to be resumed, more soldiers are necessary.

EASTON, PA., Aug. 19.—The office of the Sentinel newspaper, which has been advocating peace and compromise, was gutted to-night by a mob. Col. Johnson, Congressman elect, was burned in effigy, and made to show his colors. Intense excitement prevails.

☞ A despatch from Washington says:—"As it is known the members of the Cabinet are a unit on the measures for the prosecuting of hostilities, the attacks on members of the Administration are regarded as intended to thwart its policy of effective operation."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The oath of fidelity was administered yesterday to all in the lower room of Treasury building. There were no refusals.

Col. Jameson of the 2d Maine regiment resigned lately in consequence of the pressure of private affairs.

A foundling was discovered at the City Hall on Friday. The stranger appears to be about two months old, is of the female persuasion, and is pronounced by those who have seen it, to be a very fine specimen. It was at once mustered into service at the Alms House, where it is enrolled as a member of the City Infantry.—Salem Register.

☞ An old nautical friend thinks our blockade is a remarkably good one, considering the condition of the Navy three months ago:—and wishes we were as strong on the land as on the sea.

☞ J. D. B. DeBow, Esq., has accepted the office of Superintendent-in-chief of the cotton, provision and mineral supply loan of the Confederate States.

☞ The stock of coffee in New Orleans is reduced to about 1900 bags, which is sold in small lots at 30c. At Memphis 35c. is asked. Sales in Nashville are made at 30c

☞ Gen. Fremont has offered Thomas F. Meagher a position as Aid de Camp, with the rank of Colonel.

☞ The New York News is as distinctly and decidedly a rebel paper, as the Charleston Mercury; it is edited by Benj. Wood, the Congressman who paid the fare of the deserters of the Fire Zouaves who fled from Washington to New York: and the paper of Aug. 17 contains the editor's platform, which amounts exactly to saying the rebels are all right, and our government all wrong.

If Andrew Jackson were now alive and commanding the U. S. troops at New York, he would suppress the News to-day, and hang the editor to-morrow morning.

☞ A Haverhill, Mass., correspondent of the Boston Journal, states that on Monday evening, Mr. Ambrose L. Kimball, nominal editor and proprietor of the Essex County Democrat, was taken from his house by a mob of several hundred citizens, led down to the centre of the town, made to strip himself of his clothing, and then liberally coated with tar, and afterward covered with feathers. He was then placed astride a rail, ridden around town and over to Bradford, then brought back and made to kneel before the crowd and promise that he would print no more articles "against the North—so help me God." He was then escorted home, and the crowd giving him three cheers, quietly dispersed.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—The Jeffersonian office in West Chester was cleaned out last night by a crowd. There was no disturbance, most of the residents being ignorant of the movement until the work was done.

Pierce Butler is now believed to be the only one of our citizens that has as yet been arrested.

☞ The secesh convention of Maine was held at the Bangor House, Aug. 15; Virgil D. Parris was President. They endorsed the nomination of John W. Dana, and approved the resolutions of the regular convention. The Boston Post says, "The Democracy of Maine is in confusion,"—and verily it is so.

☞ Mr. George E. Burcham, of East Boston, has been appointed Carpenter in the Navy and ordered to the Sabine, now fitting out at this Navy Yard.

☞ Capt. Cornelius, with thirty-five men, enlisted in this city and in Newmarket, arrived at Camp Berry, Concord, on Friday last.

☞ A vessel which arrived at New York Monday, from St. Thomas, brings a report that the rebel privateer Sumter had been captured by a U. S. cruiser. It is greatly to be desired that the report may be confirmed.

☞ The War Department has received from the Governors addressed in the late general order, the most enthusiastic and patriotic responses to the call for additional troops.

JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94 Elm Street.

HOUSEKEEPERS troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used them to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but COSTAR'S article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.) Gazette.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are annually destroyed in Great County, by vermin, than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect Killer.—Lancaster (Wis.) Herald.

WHO USES

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE

Is convinced of the fact that

It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,

Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 1, 1859.

Messrs. W. E. Hagan & Co.,—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four bit bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. BOSBYHALL.

To Owners and Keepers of Dogs.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Portsmouth, June 14, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance No. 29, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle, well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence. To the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of this city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

Are you sick, feble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to severer illness. Soon fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors so quickly that the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how speedily they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in the trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cutterright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

TITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of Bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DISPENSARY OF THE LEVERAGE, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their decisive action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with marked efficacy in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MCMILLAN, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. A. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the propenity of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. R. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural action when whole or partial obstruction from costiveness is effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hendee, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my left shoulder, on exercising causing complete pain, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were magical in the cure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

PRICE, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

REAL ESTATE IN NEW CASTLE FOR SALE.

The TAVERN STAND in Newcastle near the road leading from Newcastle Bridge to Fort Constitution, is offered for sale on reasonable terms. The house has been recently put in a perfect state of repair, roof shingled, and house painted and papered throughout the interior, and is in every way fit for immediate occupation. It contains fifteen rooms, and is convenient for the business of hotel keeping and boarding. The House is within a few rods of Fort Constitution, and ample opportunities for fishing, bathing, boating, &c., are at hand.

The occupation of the Forts at the mouth of Portsmouth harbor, and the contemplated repairs of Fort Constitution promise here to an active and energetic landlord "who can keep a hotel," a handsome remuneration for a very small outlay.

15 Greatest Medical Circular Ever Published! 15

☞ Fifteen cts large letter paper for two 3 cent stamps.

DRS. JACKSON, HERBERT & CO. are Associated Proprietors of the National Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, Cincinnati, established Jan. 1, 1859, for the cure of Private Diseases.

Prof. Egbert Jackson, Dr. Robert Herbert and M. Velpeau. Thorough cures effected with almost incredible rapidity, of Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Gleet, Nocturnal Emissions or self-abuse, Impotency, Stricture, Female Diseases, Diurnal Emissions, in short, every possible form and variety of Sexual Disease, and at the same time the general health of the patient improved, where any improvement in that respect is needed.

Our Dispensary Circular, of 15 large 8 in. by 11 in. letter pages, with full and special written Reply, sent promptly, well sealed, to any address for the amount of the postage, six cents! Every young man, whether

SICK OR WELL,

should have one. Also, a Circular intended for ladies only, nine large letter pages, for a 3 ct. stamp. The "A Adam of Light, or Medica Protector," a new book of three hundred pages, one hundred engravings; price, in stamps or money, 50 cts. and one 3 ct. stamp, or 25 cts. and nine cents in stamps. This book is fully described in our Circular. It is by far the most valuable and deeply interesting book on the subjects treated of, now extant; matters that in former works were merely hinted at, are here fully explained; it contains a full and explicit key to all the secrets of marriage, love and beauty never before revealed in any book in the English language.

SATISFACTORILY

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson's Female Pills, $1—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson may be seen at the Consulting Rooms, at the Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, from 8 A. M. till 1 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 8½ P. M.; at other hours either Dr. Herbert or M. Velpeau, or both, will be in attendance.

Male patients, when desired, will be furnished with large, airy, comfortable rooms, suitable board and attendance, for the few days ordinarily necessary to effect a cure. Patients do not see each other. The most ample guarantees of our ability and good faith promptly given when desired. Fees as reasonable as the very highest modes of treatment known to modern medical science, and a very long and varied experience will admit. P. O. Box 436. Send for Circular, and state your case ☞ plainly and fully,—and you will receive the Circular and our written reply by return mail. ☞ We will answer no letter unless it contains six cents in stamps. CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5, Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. B. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonics and stomachics, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.
The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.
Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the lake; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 950 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNEQUALLED FOREST BEAUTY.
The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.
The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains;—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, cooling the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England. THURSDAY, AUGUST 22, 1861.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A man by the name of Wells, residing in the surburbs of Manchester, attempted suicide on Sunday morning by taking strychnine. The only effect was to throw him into spasms, and he is in a fair way to recover. It is alleged that domestic troubles, imaginary rather than real, led him to the act.

—— The organization of the Third Regiment is approaching completion. Companies and portions of companies are continually arriving, and about 1100 men are said to be enlisted already. The larger portion of the regiment is on the ground, requiring the Commissary to furnish 750 rations at each meal, and the tented field makes a warlike appearance. A correspondent of the American says Col. Fellows and Lt. Colonel Jackson have won the friendship of every man; and the matters in the Quartermaster and Commissary Departments are arranged for the comfort and satisfaction of all.

—— The stock of Moses Bates & Son, and of R. W. Stevens & Co., in the Central Building, Great Falls, was damaged by fire and water to the amount of $4000 or $5000, Monday evening. Insured.

One hundred army wagons are now on their way to Washington, from Kingston, N. H. They were built in eighteen days, by Albert Brown, out of thorough seasoned stock.

The travel to the White Mountains is stimulated as the season draws to a close. The weather in that region the past two weeks has been very fine, and tourists in the whole mountain districts agree in declaring that the views obtained have never been surpassed.

—— Rev. Mr. Hill of Manchester has been appointed Chaplain of the Third Regiment. Mr. Hill was formerly pastor of the Elm street Methodist Church in Manchester.

NEWS ITEMS.—The telegraph from San Francisco, has been extended 140 miles east of Churchill. All the wire required to complete it to Salt Lake has gone over the road.

The New York Volunteers' Relief Committee is now paying out about one thousand dollars per day.

The Providence Journal says business in Rhode Island is assuming a more cheerful aspect. The woolen manufacture is now pretty fully occupied. There has been a rise in cotton goods, and many of the cotton mills are also starting up.

Dan Rice's rhinoceros fell into the Ohio river a short time since, and, regardless of his value,—$20,000,—drowned himself.

PASSPORTS.—A notice is published by the State Department that hereafter persons going to foreign ports will be required to procure passports before leaving the country. Heretofore persons bearing evidence of citizenship have been allowed to take passports from our ministers and consuls in other countries. Passports are now to be procured at the State Department in Washington. After a reasonable time for notice shall have elapsed, no person will be allowed to land in the United States without a passport from a U. S. minister or consul; or, if a foreigner, from his own government, countersigned by such minister or consul.

H. J. Jewett has accepted the Democratic nomination as Governor of Ohio. He declares himself in favor of supporting the war until it results in the unconditional submission of the rebels, and would invite the loyal citizens of the South to a National Convention.

This differs very widely from the secesh platform of Maine,—but agrees very well with the ideas of the loyal democrats there, who have nominated Mr. Jameson.

☞ The story about French agents being in the South purchasing large quantities of tobacco, and paying gold therefor, is too absurd to gain credence. French agents are not so blind to their interests as to pay for a commodity double the price it will be worth when producers are able to deliver it.

☞ Miss Anna Laura Clarke, of Northampton, Mass., the first woman lecturer in this country, died Thursday, Aug. 14, at the age of 73. From 1810 to 1818 she gave public lectures on historical subjects throughout the free States, and met with good pecuniary success. She was unostentatious in dress and manners, and was a great lover of republican simplicity.

THE REBELLION.—A special inquiry at the State Department authorizes the Washington reporter of the Associated Press to state that, in the instance when the Niagara was off the station at Charleston for twenty-four hours, Lord Lyons brought the subject to the notice of our Government. With that exception, which happened twelve weeks ago, no foreign government has expressed a word of discontent to this Government concerning this blockade.

There are five places in San Francisco where recruiting is going on for the Plains. Three hundred are booked for infantry regiments and two hundred for cavalry. Official orders from Washington have not yet been received.

Spofford, Tileston & Co., who have two steamers running from New York to Key West and Havana, have proposed to subsist one officer and fifteen men on board each vessel, to capture privateers. The Secretary of the Navy has acceded to the proposition.

Mayor Berret, of Baltimore, has refused to take the oath of allegiance as a member of the Board of Police Commissioners.

It is ascertained at the Navy Department that good classes of men are offering at New York and Boston, to command the purchased vessels. They are undergoing examination.

The Frankfort, Ky., Yeoman says Gov. Magoffin has deputed Commissioners to President Lincoln to request the withdrawal of troops from Kentucky, and to Jeff. Davis to request him to respect Kentucky's neutrality.

The Wheeling convention has passed an ordinance creating a new State, "Kanawha," out of the western counties of Virginia.—The ordinance is to be submitted to the people, and a convention held to form a Constitution.

All accounts agree in representing that sickness is very prevalent in the rebel army, and Mr. Barnwell writes to Charleston that there is a great scarcity of under-clothing.

An Illinois regiment met a superior force of Missouri rebels near Charleston, Mo., at midnight on Monday, and routed them, killing 40 and taking 17 prisoners, with a loss of only one man. A force of 50 mounted men who left Bird's Point, to aid our men at Charleston, met another rebel force, which they routed, killing 2 and taking 33 prisoners. The town of Commerce has been retaken from the rebels, by 500 troops sent down by Gen. Fremont.

Regiments and parts of Regiments are being sent on to Washington from all portions of the North.

The N. Y. Times asserts that George B. Crittenden, said to be in the rebel army, was twice broken for drunkenness, while in the U. S. army, and restored to his rank by his father's influence.

Illinois is ablaze. Over 500 separate companies of all arms have reported themselves to Governor Yates. An order from the Sec. of War desires them all to be accepted.

The N. Y. Post says within a few days we shall have ready and at sea nearly, if not quite, four hundred and fifty armed vessels.

St. Louis letters do not hesitate to characterize the recent battle in Missouri, as "the sacrifice of Gen. Lyon to red tape."

It is stated, on doubtful authority, that the State of Georgia has recalled her forces from Virginia to suppress an insurrection at home.

The rebel Gen. Price has issued a neat proclamation to the people of Missouri, pledging his army to protect their homes and firesides and to maintain the right, dignity and honor of Missouri. And, as if that were not a good joke enough, says "our gallant Southern brethren have come into our State to aid us," and with these "we have just achieved a glorious victory over the foe, and scattered far and wide the appointed army which the usurper at Washington has been more than six months (!) gathering for your subjugation and enslavement."

According to telegraphic dispatches in secession papers, dated New Orleans, Aug. 13th, the steamer South Carolina made her appearance off Galveston a few days previously, and attacked the batteries upon Galveston Island, without serious effect on either side. During the engagement the South Carolinian sent several shells over the city, one of which falling in the midst of a crowd of spectators, killed one and wounded several others.

The latest dispatches Wednesday evening state that the continued alarms about the designs of the rebels against the capital are declared on high authority to be fabrications of secession emissaries. The administration, however, wants to reinforce, and be ready for active operations.

Gen. Sandford has issued orders to the Colonel of the 1st Division of the N. Y. militia to report immediately the condition of the respective regiments.

It is reported that Beauregard has been reinforced by 15,000 or 20,000 men from Yorktown, Norfolk and Richmond.

The Potomac fleet now consists of eleven well armed steamers and eleven launches, each carrying Dahlgreen 12-pounders.

CONEY ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 18.

Dear Chronicle:—The extreme heat rendering a single interval in our church attendance admissible, early morn to-day, found your correspondent steaming toward the Narrows, on the "Nausbon," bound for Coney Island, bearing southerly ten miles.

The trip down the Bay was delightful.—At the Battery lay the Imperial Yacht, the "Prince Jerome," a long trim looking propeller, black with a gilt stripe round the side, with the "Tri-color" and the "Stars and Stripes," entwining their folds at the peak.

At the Narrows we glided close to Fort Lafayette where are confined government prisoners, and then touched at Fort Hamilton, where a few of our fellow-passengers, went ashore, while we journeyed on, to this spot, known by the euphonious name which heads our letter.

The inland scenery here is fine,—consisting principally of two hotels, four trees, one cow, (back view) and innumerable sand banks, but these all eclipsed by the ocean, o'er which the eye ranges for miles and miles, and catches sight of craft of every description, from every clime,—the black hulls of steamers close at hand, and the smoke cloud of others far away.

We attempted a walk round the island, but finding that each point, left still another beyond, we concluded a farther advance seaward would bring us in too close proximity to the cruising ground of the southern privateers, and so we retreated.

The beach, extending five or six miles on the sea side of the island, is a very fine one at low water.

In front of us, hundreds are bathing in the waves, and one man with "six children and a family," is initiating them all, in the art of swimming.

We have not many city items;—orders were received yesterday, to send forward every regiment whether equipped, officered, or not, which will keep our streets in commotion for the coming weeks.—On the way down we met a Mass., regiment, who cheered lustily, while the band played "America."

Uncouth urchins indicate the value of patriotism in announcing, "Life of Jeff. Davis, two cents, Life of 'Abe Linkum' only one cent!" while newsboys cry "Second edition, Gen'l Lyon!" with so little pause between the words, that one is apt to take them in connection!

Mrs. Lincoln left on Saturday for Long Branch where she will remain about ten days. Prince Napoleon started on his western tour yesterday, leaving the Princess, at the "New York" till his return when they will sail for France.

Thus far we have written on a piece of plank, the remnant of some stranded bark; the waves laving the sand at our feet and the sun scorching our back terrifically and have concluded, that "Be it ever so lovely there is no place like,"—Coney Island.

NEWINGTON.

☞ The New Orleans Picayune and Delta make a loud outcry for gunboats, and can scarcely find words to express their disgust at the "federal marauders," who have been landing from the gunboat South Carolina on the remoter parts of the coast, and placing the inhabitants there under contribution.

☞ The Washington Star denies in toto the story that fifteen Republican Senators voted in caucus in favor of the adoption of a resolution demanding the immediate march to Richmond.

☞ The Southern papers are publishing the canard that President Lincoln's son "Bob" is clearing twenty-four thousand dollars a week from a contract under his father's government.

☞ M. Bonelli of Milan has invented and patented a new mode of transmitting telegraphic messages, which is stated to be far superior to any at present in use, and which possesses the great advantage of being so inexpensive that messages can be sent and printed for sixpence.

The Charleston Mercury says that the pockets of Northern soldiers left dead on the field of Manassas, were filled with U. S. shinplasters of denominations as low as five cents. No specie.

[A poor lie, invented to deceive the poor whites.]

☞ It has been esimated that the State of Virginia has already lost, under the contraband rule of the government and by the slave stealers of the South, more than five thousand of her beloved bondmen.

☞ The bark Lady Suffolk, lying at Lewis Wharf, Boston, suspected of having been fitted up for the slave trade, was seized by the U. S. Marshal on Saturday last.

☞ It was the son of Hon. A. H. Boteler, of Virginia, who died of his wounds received at Bull Run. Mr. Boteler, senior, is a prisoner, under the charge of treason.

☞ The illness of Ex-President Buchanan is said to have been caused by sheer exhaustion. He daily receives letters by the bushel, full of bitter denunciations.

HOW FORT PICKENS WAS TO BE TAKEN.—The N. Y. Herald's Washington correspondent tells the following:—

In a conversation had with a gentleman who left New Orleans, I learn an important incident in the rebellion at its commencement. When the Star of the West was seized at that port, there were 850 regular United States uniforms at the Baton Rouge arsenal. A plan was devised to put those uniforms on that number of men, put them on the Star of the West and sail for Fort Pickens, for the apparent object of reinforcing the fort. Gaining admittance under that idea, they were at once to kill or make way in some manner with the garrison there, and hold possession of it. The leader of this movement immediately telegraphed to Jeff. Davis, asking his sanction of the project. Davis, it seems, had some doubt about the success of the expedition, and telegraphed in reply, that although they might be successful, there was danger of being overhauled by the Pensacola squadron, and losing not only the vessel, but the men, and therefore advised them to abandon it, which it seems they did.

Washington special dispatches state that Gen. McClellan has ordered all women away from the camps across the Potomac, except the nurses.

It is believed that the new Legislature of Kentucky will depose Gov. Magoffin and request Senators Breckinridge and Powell to resign.

☞ It is said the crops in Ireland are better than in any previous year during this century.

What relation is a Dutchman to an American? His cousin German, of course.

Special Notices.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ. WHEELER.

References can now be given to some of the principal Physicians and numerous individuals in this vicinity, who have used the above remedy with the fullest success in various cases of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Sore Throat, Influenza, Irritation of the Uvula, &c., &c. The success of this remedy has been fully tested in various parts, where the moisture of the climate induces great prevalence of Colds, &c., and a certainty of the efficiency of a remedy is required to avoid Consumption and ultimate death. This remedy, although only recently introduced in this vicinity has met with a great demand, and every confidence is placed in its merits by those who have given it a fair and impartial trial.

A SEA RIDE TO BOSTON.

BOSTON, Aug. 18, 1861.

Dear Chronicle:—You are familiar with the beauties of the river scenery of the Piscataqua, and are doubtless more than over sensible to its picturesque attractions since our memorable aquatic festival of Friday. But have you ever sat in the foretop of a noble ship as she glided down to the sea on the moon-lit surface of the full flood tide, propelled by a powerful little tug clinging close to her side, like an ant bearing off a chip many times larger than itself?

The clear tones of the nine o'clock bell of Saturday night were ringing, as the Frank Pierce swung out from the Pier, with cheers from on board and sweet music from the little fleet of boats around us. The panorama of the broad river and its borders, the white buildings of the quiet town, and the stately houses of the Navy Yard, the dark battlements of the earth forts, the shadowy lines of the bridges, the tiny islands dotting the shining expanse of Little Harbor, and, farther off, the silvery windings of Sagamore through the pine woods,—all combined to make the view from our select perch aloft a scene of enchanting loveliness.

In half an hour we passed the lighthouses, standing like sentinels keeping guard over the diamonds that sparkle on the surface of the sea; while, far away from the shore, the Shoals light flashed its alternate crimson, white and orange. On the deck below we could hear the songs and laughter of the passengers and crew, and the voices of our tall, stout captain, and our short stout ditto,—all of whom we found together, when the cool air sent us down among them.

Soon followed a search for sleeping accommodations, (for berths there were none); and none of our number being too fastidious to make a virtue of necessity, soft planks, coils of rope, cabin floors and tables were soon occupied by recumbent mortality. But the spirit of revelry triumphed over that of sleep, and the cabin, to whose tempting retirement the captain had kindly recommended his friends, was soon a pandemonium. A medley of hideous noises, speaking trumpet solos and boot heel choruses, with snatches of melodious discords from Glory Hallelujah and Dixie filled the air, with the exception of a small space occupied by migratory chunks of cheese and ship bread flying at random through the darkness.

Long after midnight, however, a party went on deck to anchor the cat, (our friend says "cat the anchor," but I have no faith in his nautical experience,)—and we sank into piece-ful slumber, to be disturbed by the heavy fall of a portly gentleman, around whose limbs unseen hands had wound a rope, which was pulled by some invisible power at the other end; and finally a noisy chorus of "The morning light is breaking,

The darkness disappears," called us on deck to view the glorious sight of sunrise at sea.

Many were the ludicrous and pleasing incidents of the night's voyage, of which vivid recollections will exist in the minds of the passenger who sought repose in a quiet state-room,—the sailor who was so long as to be adapted to the uses of a hawser,—the youth who was convinced that on Sunday mornings the sun rises in the west,—and the ill-used but patient "Tappy," who only escaped a half-completed execution at the yard-arm to be posted when off Cape Ann with instructions to watch for the receiving ship at Charlestown Navy Yard, to which duty he faithfully adhered.

In passing up Boston harbor, one cannot help remarking its inferiority in many respects to that of the Piscataqua; and wishing that our city had possessed the proper elements of commercial prosperity, enterprise and liberality.

For the pleasure of this trip the invited guests are indebted to the politeness of the owners. T. U. B.

☞ The Great Falls Company, which was ordered to report at Fort Constitution on Monday evening last, did not remain long as a garrison at that post; they being on Wednesday morning dispatched to Camp Berry, Concord, where they will join the Third Regiment. They number nearly seventy men.

Capt. Towle's company, enlisted in this city, and numbering about thirty men, also went to Concord on Wednesday morning, in the same train over the C. & P. Railroad.

Fort Constitution is now garrisoned by a company from Milford.

☞ Tuesday afternoon, one hundred and twenty-five seamen, one hundred and fifteen ordinary seamen, and eighty-five landsmen were drafted from the U. S. receiving ship Ohio, at Charlestown, Mass., for the Sabine, which is expected to leave early next week. The Sabine had already a part of her complement of men on board.

SALE OF SHELLS.—Marine Shells, obtained from all parts of the globe, will be sold at public auction at J. B. Adams' store, where further notice will be given. The Shells are the balance of the stock of Mr. Felesemen's Shell Bazaar, New York city.

The man who sits early in the morning on his neighbor's door-step and reads his newspaper, needs information—he is in sad want of the instruction which a well conducted newspaper imparts—and it is a violation of Christian principle to interfere with his morning lessons! It is a hard case if the seeker after knowledge be troubled with impecuniosity—it is a worse case still, if he be afflicted with meanness.

☞ We are informed that the canons o the Protestant Episcopal Church do not give a rector or pastor the power to veto the action of the Wardens and Vestry, in regard to any matter so secular as a collection.

☞ The fire engines were brought out last evening by a false alarm.

☞ An early train on the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, leaves this city, at 8 o'clock, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings, this week, for the accommodation of persons wishing to attend the Camp Meeting, near New Market Junction.

☞ An extra train will leave Portsmouth for Newmarket Junction Thursday evening, Aug. 22, at 6 1-2 o'clock. Leave Newmarket for Portsmouth, at 9 o'clock P. M. Fare, up and return, 35 cts., if tickets are procured before starting; if not, full fare will be charged.

"Thou shalt not steal," is an axiom which no one disputes, but which very many evade, and seem quite willing to forget its teachings. Unscrupulous persons have, and are still, imitating Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. We make mention of this fact to put all persons who want the best article on their guard, and our advice is to buy no other, as that, in our judgment, is the only article that should enter the stomach of any one who cares for health and good Bread or Biscuit. Most of our Grocers have it for sale. The depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

Dyspepsia is one of the prevailing diseases of this country. This is owing both to climatic influence and the habit of eating our meals too rapidly. In spite of these adverse circumstances, this disease rapidly disappears by the use of the Oxygenated Bitters.

With the gravity befitting the subject, the report of the Confederate navy department asserts that "the Confederate navy, at present, is doing but little on the water." WAR.—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

BOONSBORO', Md., Mch. 21, '61.

Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir.—Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach—he was, after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.

The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all—in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, pronounce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. Yours truly, E. H. LEWIN,

HENRY R. COSTAR:—All the summer I have been troubled with Roaches and Mice. I was actually ashamed of the house, for the Roaches were everywhere. I purchased a box of your Exterminator and tried it, and in one week there was not a Roach or Mouse in the house.

JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94 Elm Street.

HOUSEKEEPERS troubled with vermin, need be no longer, if they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used them to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but COSTAR'S article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.) Gazette.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are annually destroyed in Grant County, by vermin, than would pay for loss of the Rat and Insect Killer. —Lancaster (Wis.) Herald.

HENRY R. COSTAR:—Your Exterminator is record, used, and pronounced a decided success. We used a box of it, and the way the Rats and Mice "raised Ned" that night, was a caution to sleepers. Since then, not a Rat or Mouse has been heard in kitchen or cellar.—Magregor (Iowa) Times.

I HAVE BEEN SELLING your Exterminator for the last year, and have found it a sure shot every time. I have not known it to fail in a single instance.

GEO. ROSS, Druggist, Cardington, O.

WE ARE SELLING your preparations rapidly. Wherever they are used, Rats, Mice, Roaches, and Vermin, disappear instantly.

"EVERYBODY"

WHO USES

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE

Is convinced of the fact that

It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,

Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—it composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

MESSRS. W. E. HAGAN & CO.,—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four bit bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. BOSWYNALL.

To Owners and Keepers of Dogs.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
Portsmouth, June 14, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance No. 26, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle, well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of this city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system disarranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is coming upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. John Ayer's Pills, by their power over the diseased humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles on the skin, or lurks in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, resist upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general derangement, sufferings and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how speedily they remove the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the desperate and dangerous diseases. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are and many of them speedily cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of a disease seven years long, which had baffled the skill of the best physicians, and had been pronounced incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an efficacious cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the most headache any human being ever had, by one of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more efficient for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I am acquainted with. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., Feb. 10, 1859.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their vegetating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Many of my patients have found a cure of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician to the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses to bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating renders them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those who I visit in sickness. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever found, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of your preparations have proved as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although not enough to kill, by the proprietor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

Ton Mrs. E. Sweet, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are equivalent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very efficacious to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hosking, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PITKIN HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1855.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my joints and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which defied all the skill of our ablest physicians. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Jones, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

RUFUS CHANDLER, Rutes Roger, La., 4 Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years.

VINCENT BLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

BININGER'S OLD DOMINION WHEAT-TONIC

—FOR—

FAMILY AND MEDICINAL USE.

This natural product of the most nutritious grain, recommends itself as presenting in a concentrated form, the nutritive properties of Wheat, and has received the highest encomiums from eminent medical authorities, as possessing qualities that no other preparation PARTAKES; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, and all diseases which, in their incipient stages, require only a generous diet, and an invigorating, nourishing stimulant.

Put up in quart bottles, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen each, and sold by all prominent Druggists, Grocers and Town Agents.

PURE LIQUORS AND WINES FOR PRIVATE USE AND MEDICAL PURPOSES.

We offer to the country trade and consumers, a complete assortment of LIQUORS, WINES, &c., and would say that our experience of more than FORTY YEARS as Importers, is not only a sufficient guarantee for the Purity of our Goods, but that it enables us to offer advantages to buyers that cannot be excelled by any house in Boston. Owing to the difficulty of procuring, in many towns, a strictly pure and reliable article of Liquors and Wines for medicinal and other purposes, we have for many years given special attention to filling orders for PRIVATE USE; and consumers will find it greatly to their advantage to send their orders to us direct, as we employ no travelling or other agents whatever. Persons who require Pure Liquors or Wines in large or small quantities, may rest assured that all orders will receive our best personal attention, and that every article sent from our house will be satisfactory in every respect. Communications by mail will receive prompt attention, with full and complete catalogue of goods, prices, &c.

(15) Greatest Medical Circular Ever Published. Fifteen large letter pages for two 3 cent stamps. (15)

DRS. JACKSON, HERBERT & CO. are Associated Proprietors of the National Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, Cincinnati, established Jan. 1, 1859, for the cure of Private Diseases.

Dr. Egbert Jackson, Dr. Robert Herbert and M. Velpeau. Thorough cures effected with almost incredible rapidity, of Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Gleet, Gonorrhœal Rheumatism, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, Stricture, Female Diseases, Diurnal Obstructions, in short, every possible form and variety of Sexual Diseases, and at the same time the general health of the patient improved, where any improvement in that respect is needed.

Our Dispensary Circular, of 15 large 8 in. by 11 in. letter pages, with full and special written Reply, sent promptly, well sealed, to any address for the amount of the postage, six cents! Every young man, whether

SICK OR WELL,

should have one. Also, a Circular intended for ladies only, nine large letter pages, for a 3 ct. stamp. The 167 Sycamore street, "Medical Protector," a new book of three hundred pages, one hundred engravings, price, in stamps or money, 50 cts. and one 3 ct. stamp, or for $1 and nine cents in stamps. This book is fully described in our Circular. It is by far the most valuable and deeply interesting book on the subjects treated of, now extant; matters that in former works were merely hinted at, are here fully explained; it contains the full and explicit key to all the secrets of marriage, love and beauty never before revealed in any book in the English language.

SATISFACTORILY

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive—Send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson's Female Pills, $1—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson may be seen at the Consulting Rooms of the Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, from 8 A. M. till 1 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 9 P. M.; at other hours either Dr. Herbert or M. Velpeau, or both, will be in attendance.

Male patients, when desired, will be furnished with large, airy, comfortable rooms, suitable board, and delicate and instructions sent promptly and carefully to any part of the world.

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,
—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well."—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

"I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by numerals of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the invalid.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in Dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.
The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring it, gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.
Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 960 feet. Beneath, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNEQUALLED FOREST BEAUTY.
The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.
The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains;—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, causing the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will there find the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.
"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.
Sail, yawl and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.
☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern Railroad, via Portland, daily, for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor
Coaches from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Greenville (foot of the Lake) with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Thos. Richardson, which runs daily, Sundays excepted, to the Mt. Kineo House.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 23, 1861.

GENERAL NEWS.—A special dispatch from Washington to the N. Y. Evening Post says that it is reported that Mr. Russell, the correspondent of the London Times, will not be permitted to cross the Potomac again, on the ground that his letters do not fairly represent the condition of affairs here, and have a tendency to create injurious impressions abroad.

The Vermont Union Convention, called to nominate candidates for State officers, met at Montpelier on Wednesday. The ticket placed in nomination is a very strong one. The resolutions were in substance the Crittenden and Johnson resolutions adopted at the late extra session of Congress. The Convention was large, harmonious and enthusiastic.

News from St. Domingo is to the 3d inst. On that day the Governor General of Cuba arrived in the Bay of Samana. He was received with the usual ceremonies, and the people are represented to have manifested "the greatest demonstrations of joy." The health of the troops at Samana was not good. Everything was quiet.

The news from Mexico is as bad as can well be. Murder, rapine and desolation reign with full sway. To make bad worse, while the distracted government is doing all in its power against its enemies at home, the French and English Ministers have taken umbrage at the two years' day law—and have suspended diplomatic relations with Juarez. Mr. Corwin, U. S. Minister, refrained from joining in the measure adopted by the other ministers.

There was a very heavy fall of rain in Cincinnati on Wednesday afternoon. It flooded the streets, filled cellars and washed roads away.

A body was found Wednesday, on Norwalk Island. It is supposed to be that of the Guilford captain whom Jackalow killed.

Schooner T. Northrop, at Philadelphia, from Port au Prince, reports on the 12th. off Miragoane, saw a British war steamer driven ashore. The vessel was probably a total wreck. Materials saved.

For the Chronicle.

A TERRIBLE WAR.—I was at a place of business in our village, and a man was lamenting in consequence of the war in our country. It was terrible, he said, to have war, and especially war among ourselves!

This man was for a long time a liquor dealer; he trained his son to be one, and is one now. This man drinks liquor, and I thought there was good evidence that he was under the excitement of it when he was lamenting the war. So I would not talk with him on that subject. The mock abhorrence of war begotten by inebriating liquor is beneath my contempt. It is about as mean as the mock sympathy, humanity and religion, which is generated in some by rum.

But I may say war is bad, even horrible; civil war often worse than any, and yet this man has long been making the worst kind of war. He made war in the community by liquor selling; he sent the streams of woe and death into the community all around him; he made war on innocent females and helpless children. O! what fighting, what "wounds without a cause," he was the means of! And the number of the slain, brought down to a drunkard's grave, were many.

And now by the use of liquor, he makes war upon himself;—upon his health; upon the powers of his mind; upon his conscience; upon all the good feelings of his heart. This is a terrible war. How I wish he had some horror to express for this desolating war. I wish he would lament it, and cause it to cease. I feel more troubled about the war intemperance is making, than the present war in the nation. Rouse, ye Philanthropists and Christians, or soon awful ruin will be all around us. J. F.

☞ The Charleston Mercury and Courier, with several other Southern papers are complaining because no officiat rebel report has been made of the battle of Bull Run. They say the people want the truth and there must be no suppression.

They will never get the truth from that quarter. It will have to leak out by drops.

A SOUTHERN MONARCHY.—Gov. Brown, of Georgia, who has recently disbanded a Georgia Brigade, warns the people of his State to look out for "a Southern Monarchy or a consolidated Aristocracy," if the rebel leaders are not watched. This is the beginning of the end.

THE REBELLION.—We have additional particulars of the battle at Springfield, Mo., Gen. Price having made the official report to the rebels. He says:

The Missouri forces numbered 5221, of which 156 were killed and 517 wounded. Among the killed are Col Wright man, Col. Brown, Adj. Bennett, Capt. Blackwell, Lt. Col. Austin, Capt. Engart, Lt. Hughes, Capt. Farris, Capt. Hallock, Lt. Hoskings, Capt. Coleman, Maj. Rogers and Col. Allen. Among the wounded are Brig. Gen. Clarke, Col. Burbridge, Col. Foster, Capts. Nichols, Dougherty, Armstrong, Mingo and McCarty, Cols. Kelly and Hawthorne.

Many of the wounds of both officers and men are reported to be mortal. Gen. Price makes no mention of McCulloch's forces in the battle. The entire rebel army had been ordered to move on Gen. Lyon in four columns at nine o'clock the night previous to the battle, so as to surround Springfield, and begin a simultaneous attack at daybreak; but the order was countermanded in consequence of the darkness of the night and a threatened storm.

A sergeant belonging to a company of U. S. Dragoons made his escape from the rebels, by whom he was captured at the battle near Springfield. He reports that McCulloch was mortally wounded and died in Springfield the morning after the battle. His body was placed in a tin-lined coffin filled with whiskey, closely sealed, and sent Southward. He thinks two more regiments would have driven the rebels into Arkansas. The terrible havoc made by Totten's and Dubois's batteries filled them with dismay. He thinks 6000 a low estimate of their killed and wounded. He also says that Gen. Price was badly wounded. The rebels were reinforced after the battle by 9000 men under McBride, many of whom had no arms.

The schooner Pharoon, from Curacoa 6th, says the reported capture of the Sumter is untrue. Nothing has been heard of her since she left there on the 24th ult. It is rumored that the Governor has been recalled for allowing her to enter that port.

In relation to Gen. Fremont's offer to Meagher, it is said the latter will share the fortunes of the New York Sixty-ninth, and will join them if they decide again to take the field. If not, he will probably accept this offer.

The Memphis Avalanche of the 20th says Gen. Crowell, returned from a visit to East Tennessee, reports that Parson Brownlow addressed the Bradley county volunteers at Knoxville, saying that he would enlist and fight against Lincoln's hordes. Also that Mr. Nelson would shortly issue an address advising acquiescence in the will of a majority of the people of the State. He also says that Brownlow will soon issue the Whig, and advocate the cause of the South against her oppressors. Doubtful.

John Clark, a Northerner and a resident of Tenn., now a captain of a Federal company, in Cumberland County, has been arrested for treason and carried to Nashville for trial.

Thirteen vessels, seven of them steamers, are expected home within 40 or 50 days and will be added to the blockading force. The Brazil squadron, the frigate Congress and another, is expected daily. The African squadron, three vessels, one the Mohican, equal to the Iroquois, should be here early in September. The China squadron a month later.

The President and Cabinet, with Gen. McClellan, visited various camps on the Potomac, Wednesday. The appearance and movements of the several brigades were highly creditable. The young General was everywhere greeted with unbounded enthusiasm. The customary salutes were fired for him and the President.

The Navy Department entertains no doubt of its ability to keep the navigation of the Potomac open.

All is quiet in Virginia. The largest rebel force between Manassas and our lines is in the vicinity of Fairfax Court House.

The Correspondent of the Baltimore Exchange says that there are now about one hundred thousand Government troops in and about Washington.

The Postmaster General, in response to an inquiry, says he has not the power to intercict nor to suspend intercourse between loyal and rebellious States by private expresses or otherwise. This power rests with the War and Treasury Department; and it extends only to protection of the revenues of the department from fraud by the conveyance of this circuitous correspondence over the post routes of the United States, partly in mails and partly by private unlawful expresses. This he believes to have been effectually done. He says that under the recent proclamation of the President it is presumed that instructions by the Treasury and War Departments will effectually suppress the abuse complained of.

☞ As one of the good influences of placing St. Louis under martial law, it is mentioned that two gamblers, who fired five rounds at each other from revolvers recently, have been ordered to work upon the fortifications at Cairo.

The rebels assassinated Democracy at the late Convention, and then held a wake over the mangled remains.—Bath Times.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—The lads and lasses of the Exeter High School, accompanied by their teachers, had their annual excursion to Hampton Beach on Tuesday. The day was beautiful, and the party a happy one.

—The Water street Baptist Church and Society of Exeter have extended a unanimous call to Rev. Noah Hooper of Newburyport, to become their pastor.

—The Ballot learns that one night last week Mr. Gilman Barker of Exeter, living on the Brentwood road, lost fifteen sheep, nearly his whole flock, which were killed by a dog whose owner is unknown.

—An order was received last Saturday to have the brass six pounders in the Lancaster Arsenal forwarded to Manchester. They are to be rifled, and form a portion of the New Hampshire Battery. The order has been complied with and the can non forwarded.

—The Third Regiment will leave for Washington next Tuesday, armed and equipped with everything but overcoats, which will be sent on to them in a few days after they leave. The regiment is full, and more too.

—The Governor and Council have decided to encamp the Fourth Regiment in Manchester, under the name of Camp Sullivan.

—Amasa Dame and an Irish volunteer named James Collins, who lived neighbor in Rochester, had considerable trouble and several squabbles during the past week.—On Saturday morning Dame loaded a gun, for the purpose of shooting Collins. In the evening the quarrel was renewed, when Dame fired at Collins—the charge taking effect in his hand and right breast. The hand was badly mutilated, and one finger shot away. Forty shot were taken from his body. Collins is now considered out of danger. Dame is under bonds of $1000 for his appearance at court. Rum caused the trouble.

—An incendiary, on Monday night, set fire to the building in Concord formerly occupied by the Democratic Standard.—Failing in this, as the fire was discovered, he set fire to the plow manufactory of Robinson & Sons, rear of the Eagle Hotel. The damage in both cases was trifling.

——Edmund Griffin, of Concord, charged with the murder of Ezra A. Niles, at Haverhill, July 27th, has been examined, and, in consideration of the evidence presented, admitted to bail in the sum of $1000.

GENERAL ASSOCIATION.

The annual convocation of the trinitarian congregational churches of New Hampshire will be held in this city next week, drawing together a good representation of their clergy and laity.

The Trustees of the New Hampshire Missionary Society will meet at the Vestry in Fleet street, Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock.

The public meetings will be, of course, in the North Church, beginning on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, by the General Association of Presbyterian and Congregational ministers in New Hampshire, supported by a lay delegation. The morning discourse is called a "concio ad clerum,"—and to the common hearer will appear very like a sermon.

Tuesday afternoon is usually devoted to the narratives of the local associations, given in public.

On Wednesday morning, the sabbath schools connected with the Association, will meet in Jefferson Hall at 10, and have a public service in the Church at 11.

At 2 o'clock, in the Church, the New Hampshire Bible Society will hold their 50th anniversary, when the report of the doings of the Directors for the past year, and a brief view of the work of the Society for the past fifty years, will be given. A discourse will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Lord, President of Dartmouth College.

The 60th annual meeting of the N. H. Missionary Society, will be holden in the Church on Thursday, at 10 o'clock A. M. A business meeting of the Society will be held at 9 o'clock A. M., in the Vestry, for the choice of officers, &c.

On Thursday afternoon there will be a sermon, and the communion.

Besides these services, there will be public morning and evening meetings, for prayer, conference and association business. And doubtless the "state of the country" will be largely remembered and considered.

☞ The Rockingham Association of Universalists will hold their annual meeting at Atkinson, next Wednesday and Thursday, August 28 and 29.

☞ All who send letters to the soldiers of the Third N. H. Regiment, should direct them to Camp Berry, Concord, N. H. In this way the soldiers will get their letters without delay.

☞ Farmers report the appearance of frost in the vicinity of New Bedford, Tuesday night, in sufficient quantities to be scraped by the hand.

☞ We are glad to learn that the friends in this city of Lieut. Col. John H. Jackson, of the Third Regiment, N. H. V., intend to present him with a fine horse.

I. O. O. F.—The Right Worthy Grand Lodge of the State of New Hampshire, held its regular annual session in Concord on Tuesday last. It was a pleasant and harmonious session. The following officers were elected and duly installed for the ensuing year:

Edwin C. Stone of Franklin, Most Worthy Grand Master.
Benj. M. Parker of Portsmouth, Right Worthy Deputy Grand Master.
Wm. P. Buel of Nashua, Right Worthy Grand Warden.
Mitchell Gilmore of Concord, Right Worthy Grand Secretary.
Albert G. Folsom of Laconia, Right Worthy Grand Treasurer.
James Ashton of Dover, Right Worthy Grand Chaplain.
George W. Weeks of Manchester, Joseph B. Smart of Concord, Representatives to the Grand Lodge of the U. S.
John S. McFarland of Concord, Grand Marshal.
Ira Doe of Rochester, Grand Guardian.
Henry Steel of Peterboro', Grand Conductor.
William C. Hatch of Portsmouth, District Deputy for Portsmouth District.

☞ The Baltimore Exchange publishes a sneering and disgraceful paragraph on the death of Gen. Lyon: on which the Boston Post remarks:—

The Exchange should be published in Concord, Bangor or Haverhill.

These are the places where the secesh editors or their offices were mobbed.

The Post's item intimates that the Exchange should go their way and share their fate.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY for September is issued. The publishers announce that being "sensible that, in the presence of the great events now agitating the country and the world, something more than a literary character, is demanded of a journal like the Atlantic, they will in future devote much of its space to the discussion of important aspects of the great questions of the day." The articles already published in relation to the nation's great struggle guarantee that the expectations of the public will not be disappointed.

THE KNICKERBOCKER for September, among many fine articles, contains one,—"Before and After the Battle,"—by G. P. Putnam, the well-known publisher, who, as a spectator of the battle at Bull Run, is well qualified to speak in regard to the matter. Somehow, both the Atlantic and the Knickerbocker increase in interest as the rebellion progresses (or, as we should say, retrogresses.) Probably, because they now treat of essentially popular themes.

WAKED UP THE WRONG PASSENGER. A purchaser of boots and shoes, from Lexington, Ky., who is now in Boston, reports that in one store here, a doughfaced salesman, not knowing the strong Union sentiments of his customer, remarked that "he had rather be under the rule of Jeff. Davis than Abe Lincoln." This sentiment elicited a scorching rebuke from the Southern merchant, who left the establishment in disgust, saying he had fought disunionists in Kentucky, and should not patronize them in Massachusetts.—Transcript.

The Argus has jumped off the fence, and will support John W. Dana for Governor. While the Argus accommodatingly accepts him, and pretends to be acting consistently as a friend of the war, the Bangor rebels, presided over by Virgil D. Parris, cordially accept him as an opponent "of this unholy war." Is anybody cheated, or do both parties propose to cheat the people?—Bath Times.

☞ An article in the London Review maintains that the late gigantic fire at London bridge, tested and has found wanting the present system of fire-proof warehouses. The conflagration made its meal of no mere piles of wooden houses, but of piles of buildings in which science has exhausted her resources in attempting to fortify them against him. Party walls of immense thickness, stone staircases, iron beams and pillars, were of no avail against the spontaneous combustion of a little heap of hemp. Poor Braidwood, who lost his life at this great fire, always protested against the use of cast iron for warehouses; pillars made of it become red hot, the water contracts and maps them, and away go the floors at once. Then there is another danger outside: the girders supporting the flooring expand, no walls can resist their lateral thrust, and down they fall, to the destruction of those near at hand.—Braidwood's death was caused by such an effect. It was proved at the inquest held on his body that the iron girders heated to a white heat, as they were elongated nearly half a foot, pressing before them the solid wall which proved his tomb.

A pedler called on an old lady to dispose of some goods, and inquired of her if she could tell him of a road which no pedlar had traveled. "Yes," said she, "I know one, and only one, and that is the road to heaven."

GRAY UNIFORMS PROHIBITED.—Gen. McClellan forbids the purchase of gray uniforms—the rebels' color—and it is desired the States should no longer furnish them.

A friend writes us from York County that Col. Jameson will get a handsome vote in that county—that the democrats there are not all secessionists.—Bath Times.

☞ The old stamped envelopes must be changed to-day. The postage stamps are good until Tuesday next.

Gen. Wool held a grand review and inspection at Fortress Monroe, on Thursday morning; he took in his hands and examined every musket belonging to the garrison.

Senator Wilson, several days ago, was pressingly tendered by Gen. McClellan a position on his staff. On Thursday, by the advice of Secretary Cameron, he accepted the appointment.

The feints of the rebels on the line of the Potomac are now better understood at Washington, and military men, whose opinions are entitled to respect, say that even with the ordinary dependences of raw troops, they would desire nothing better than for Johnston and Beauregard to attempt an advance towards Washington; and it is reasonably suspected that this rallying cry is adopted to sustain the flagging spirits of the rebel troops, whose members, it is positively known, are fast thinning by small pox, measles, pneumonia, and other diseases. The latest absurd story is that Johnston had crossed the Potomac, and that other important movements were being made by the rebels, but special inquiry at the proper source, on Thursday, warranted a positive contradiction.

Washington special dispatches say it is reported that the rebels have withdrawn precipitately a mile beyond Fairfax Court House, leaving only the pickets in the village; also that the rebels are being increased at Leesburg, where they have already several thousand, supported by artillery.

Private advices from Kentucky state that the Union men are rapidly receiving arms, and organizing. Four or five regiments are ready.

General Fremont is authorized to take possession of the Illinois Central Railroad, for military purposes.

The Union men in Maryland are actively engaged in raising Home Brigades. The Government has issued orders for supplying them with additional howitzers and rifled cannon.

The famous 69th N. Y. Regiment has decided to volunteer for the war, under command of Lieutenant Colonel Nugent.

The streets of Washington are in a shocking condition, Mayor Berrett taking but little interest in the city. He still refuses to take the oath of allegiance.

The U. S. frigate Congress, from Brazil, arrived at Boston on Thursday.

SALE OF SHELLS.—Marine Shells, obtained from all parts of the globe, will be sold at public auction at J. B. Adams' store, where further notice will be given. The Shells are the balance of the stock of Mr. Felcemon's Shell Bazaar, New York city.

"Thou shalt not steal," is an axiom which no one disputes, but which very many evade, and seem quite willing to forget its teachings. Unscrupulous persons have, and are still, imitating Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. We make mention of this fact to put all persons who want the best article on their guard, and our advice is to buy no other, as that, in our judgment, is the only article that should enter the stomach of any one who cares for health and good Bread or Biscuit. Most of our Grocers have it for sale. The depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

Dyspepsia is one of the prevailing diseases of this country. This is owing both to climatic influence and the habit of eating our meals too rapidly. In spite of these adverse circumstances, this disease rapidly disappears by the use of the Oxygenated Bitters.

J. P. MORSE, Postmaster.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with the usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ. WHEELER.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its ingredients are perfectly innocuous. —Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case where a merited result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative. —Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skilfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influences, and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

There is no mistake about it!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the ill use or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

"EVERYBODY"

WHO USES

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE

Is convinced of the fact that

It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,

Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

ST. LOUIS, MO., June 1, 1859.

Messrs. W. R. Hagan & Co.,—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four bit bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. BOBBYKALL.

To Owners and Keepers of Dogs.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Portsmouth, June 14, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance No. 29, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of this city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to more serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely dose of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors which are in the blood, and let the functions move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, grow more inflamed and the surrounding organs producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the desperate and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the bowels, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1858.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of clamorous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After one bottle of your Pills was used, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cornwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that is over treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any human being can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse so effectually.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. Habitually rejected that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D.C., Feb. 18, 1861.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we know of. Their prompt acting action on the liver is quick and decided. Consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have always found a dose of your Pills the surest remedy that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of Washington City Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I add my testimony to that of the best aperients I have ever found. Their extensive effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhoea. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I visit in sickness. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

You much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. Hundreds of my patients have testified to their efficacy as I have, they should join me in proclaiming to the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although being a disease in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe sincerely it originates in the liver, but your Pills effect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural area for when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hooper, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be unpardonable for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my thighs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which called in the aid of more than one physician. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SEVIER CRUMBER, Dalton Rouge, La., Jan. 1, 1856.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years.

VINCENT GILLIELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

PRICE, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

BININGER'S OLD DOMINION WHEAT-TONIC

—FOR—

FAMILY AND MEDICINAL USE.

This natural product of the most nutritious grain, recommends itself as presenting in a concentrated form the nutritious properties of Wheat, and has received the highest encomiums from eminent medicinal authorities, as possessing qualities that are absolutely astonishing; this condensation renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy; and all diseases which, in their incipient stages, require only a generous diet, and an invigorating, nourishing stimulant.

Put up in quart bottles, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen each, and sold by all prominent Druggists, Grocers and Town Agents.

15 Greatest Medical Circular Ever Published! Sent free, in large letter pages for two 3 cent stamps. 15

DRS. JACKSON, HERBERT & CO. are Associate Members of the National Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, Cincinnati, established Jan. 1, 1859, for the cure of Private Diseases.

Prof Egbert Jackson, Dr. Robert Herbert and M. Velpeau. Thorough cures effected with almost incredible dispatch of Gonorrhœa, Syphilis, Gleet, Nocturnal Emissions or self-abuse, Impotency, Stricture, Female Diseases, Diurnal Emissions, in short, every possible form and variety of Sexual Disease, and at the same time the general health of the patient improved, where any improvement in the general health is needed.

Our Dispensary Circular, of 15 large 8 in. by 11 in. letter pages, with full and special written Reply, sent promptly, well sealed, to any address for the amount of the postage, six cents! Every young man, whether should have one. Also, a Circular intended for ladies only, 8 large letter pages, for a 3 ct. stamp. The "Mountain of Light, or Medica Protector," a new book of three hundred pages, one hundred engravings; price, in stamps or money, 50 cts. and one 3 ct. stamp, or 3 for $1 and nine cents in stamps. This book is fully described in our Circular. It is by far the most valuable and deeply interesting book on the subjects treated of, now extant; matters that in former works were merely hinted at, are here fully explained; it contains a full and explicit key to all the secrets of marriage, love and beauty never before revealed in any book in the English language.

SICK OR WELL, MARRIED OR SINGLE,

SATISFACTORILY

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson's Female Pills, $1—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson may be seen at the Consulting Rooms of the Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, from 8 A. M. till 1 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 9 P. M., at which hours either Dr. Herbert or M. Velpeau, or both, will be in attendance.

Male patients, when desired, will be furnished with large, airy, comfortable rooms, suitable board and careful attendance, for the few days ordinarily necessary to effect a cure. Patients do not see each other, unless it contains six cents in stamps. Medicine and instructions sent promptly and carefully to any part of the world.

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have but one bottle, and can entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1855, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound:"—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by thousands of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, is an invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "Atwood's is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,

THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it well testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.

Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake at a perpendicular height of 960 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNEQUALLED FOREST BEAUTY.

The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.

The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, causing the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will here find the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.

"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.

Sail, yawl and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.

☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern Railroad, via Portland, daily, for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor.

Coaches from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Greenville (foot of the Lake), with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Thos. Robinson, which runs daily, Sundays excepted, to the Mt. Kineo House.

Through tickets from Boston to Mt. Kineo House, via Boston and Maine and Androscoggin and Kennebec Railroads to Newport, thence by stage to Greenville (foot of the Lake,) and thence by steamer "Fairy of the Lake" to the House,—are sold at the Boston and Maine Station in Boston and in Lawrence. FARE THROUGH $7.50. Passengers have the privilege of stopping over at Portland, or any place East.

☞ Return tickets can be obtained of Capt. Robinson, on board steamer "Fairy of the Lake." jy30 2aw4w

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1861.

PLAIN TALK.

Almost everybody knows that Hon. D. S. Dickinson, is one of the most noted veterans of the Democratic party in the United States. He has just been making a powerful speech in Wyoming county, Penn.—Speaking of the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, he said:—"If I had possession of a traitor, and no other remedy would arrest treachery, I would suspend the writ, and the individual too."

"But what is the true way of putting down what I shall term a rebellion? And we can all agree in one thing: that that rebellion is either right or wrong, justifiable or unjustifiable—to be approved or condemned, as a whole. If it is right for a portion of this country to take up arms against this Government, it is right to sustain such action; and if they are wrong they should be put down by the power of the people. [Applause.] There is no half-way house in this matter—no tarrying place between sustaining the Government and attempting its overthrow. There is no peace proposition that will suit the case until the rebellion is first put down. [Applause.] And were I in favor, or disposed to tamper with this rebellion, or aid or countenance it, I would go and take up arms with them. Because, if it is right for them to take up arms, it is right for them to have armed assistance. If they are wrong, if they are guilty of treason, and murder, and arson, then they should be overthown by the whole power of the Government; [Applause, and cries of 'good.'] and put down so that no resurrection day will find rebellion again. [Renewed applause.]

"When my Democratic or Republican friends, 'or any other men,' are disposed to call the President to account, and I am not his defender, I merely beg when they get through with him they will merely inquire whether Mr. Jefferson Davis & Co. have gone strictly according to the Constitution of the United States? [Cheers and laughter.] I have the impression that instituting a pretended government within the boundaries of the United States; that stealing the treasures of our Government, its ships; betraying its commands; firing upon its fortifications; organizing piracy upon the high seas, and a long list of other and kindred acts—I have the impression, I say, that these are slight infringements upon the Constitution, and may require examination. [Laughter.] But I want to have my Constitution friends come along with me, and when they get the Administration all regulated and on the constitutional track, to look at this matter a little; for it seems to me that it requires attention. I know not whether Mr. Lincoln has observed the Constitution; indeed, for all the purposes of resisting the rebellion, I care not. It is due to him to say, however, that he has seemed to be in good faith, attempting to put down rebellion. He has not done all things as I would have done them, because I would have multiplied himon by about four, and where he has struck one blow I would have struck a dozen. [Laughter and cheering.] Therefore I do not agree with him in that respect. When the day comes we can have a settlement with him, for he is be held, with all other officers, to a strict account. But I would not do even that under the smoke of an enemy's guns."

☞ A vast amount of croaking in the newspapers, for the last three weeks, has been designed to affect the government loan, if possible to prevent it, and thus cut off the sinews of war. Now that the loan is made, some other string will be pulled, perhaps that of economy, possibly that of humanity.

We have some recollection of a famous committee on retrenchment and reform, got up in Congress during John Quincy Adams' administration; the committee was afflicted with the extravagance of the times, and after a long and costly session, the retrenchment made—the only one—was to leave off the title pages of the public documents.

The real design of the committee was to aid in overthrowing the Adams and Clay administration. This was accomplished,—and instead of retrenchment, our expenses were increased and very soon doubled!

☞ A Louisville correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, writing under date of Aug. 16, says:—

John C. Breckinridge arrived in loyal Lexington to-day. His reception was not of a very enthusiastic character. The military turned out to the number of thirty-one, as counted by an aye witness; and the crowd of citizens, composed of negroes and children, amounted to fully one hundred. The honorable John betook himself to an omnibus, and shading his handsome features by lowering the front of his beaver, passed unknown and unhonored to his own dwelling, by a back street.

PAUPERISM IN ENGLAND.—At the end of June, 1861, there were eight hundred and sixteen thousand paupers in England and Wales, an increase of four per cent. upon the same period in 1860.

THE REBELLION.—Washington dispatches say there are fears of fever and ague among our troops unless their quarters are shifted. The matter will be at once attended to. A more rigid system of responsibility in subordinate military departments is insisted upon by Gen. McClellan. Much property has been dishonestly appropriated heretofore, provisions, horses and forage not being accounted for.

The Government is satisfied that Gen. Fremont could not have sent re-enforcements to General Lyon previous to the battle near Springfield, without endangering the safety of Southeastern Missouri.

Gen. Anderson on Thursday, left for Kentucky, to take command of the Union forces.

Under a new order of the War Department the army will soon be completely uniformed in blue.

The prisoners released on Thursday were taken at Phillippi. They profess Union sentiments. They were 23 in number.

Ben McCulloch has issued a proclamation to the rebels of Missouri; also a general order to his "victorious army." Both documents show that he is alive.

Two members of the 1st Kansas Regiment who were taken prisoners, but released by Price, report that Thursday following the retreat from Springfield, McCulloch started in pursuit of Gen. Siegel with 8000 cavalry and nine pieces of artillery; but after a day's march, learning that Siegel had been re-enforced, gave up the pursuit, and marched toward Jefferson City.

Official reports foot up the Federal loss at the battle of Wilson Creek as follows:—Killed 223, wounded 721, missing 291. A large number of the missing men were taken prisoners by the rebels, and since then have been released.

The enemy is reported to be on the St. Francis river, and to have been re-enforced by General Hardee with artillery. They are said to be two thousand strong. Harlee's command is still at Greenville.

Private information from Gen. Banks' column says he had advanced to Winchester and taken possession, notwithstanding the opposition of 4000 rebels. This needs corroboration.

It is stated that the rebels are preparing to attempt an invasion into Maryland and intend an offensive movement in the Cheat Mountain Pass.

Deserters from the rebel army state that all the enemy's troops have been moved up from Richmond to Manassas. There is much sickness and discontent among the men.

Dispatches to the Louisville, Ky., Courier, dated Paducah, say that the gunboat Ancestaga came there with 250 men, and captured the steamer W. B. Terry and took her to Cairo. She had been used for conveying contraband goods to the rebels up the Tennessee River, and had on board 30 Minie rifles and field pieces. A rebel flag was found in her. U. S. troops had been to Blandville, Ky., captured two citizens of that place and took them to Cairo as prisoners. The excitement at Lexington, was very great on the arrival of guns sent by the Federal Government, and it was increased by the turning out of the Home Guards and the arrival of cavalry. The Courier says difficulties would have been inaugurated but for the persuasion of Breckinridge, who addressed the crowd, urging no violence.

The Marshal at Philadelphia on Thursday seized all the bundles of the N. Y. Daily News, at the express office, for the West and South. He also took possession of the office of the Christian Observer, in consequence of a late violent article on the "Unholy War."

Thos. J. Carson, Walter W. Kelly and Wm. M. Pegram were arrested at Harrisburg, Penn., on Thursday. A number of letters and about $100,000 in drafts, dated Richmond, upon New York firms, were found secreted on their persons.

It is reported that O. Jennings Wise was taken prisoner, at a skirmish on the 20th, in Kanawha Valley, between 4000 rebels and an Ohio Regiment.

The New Orleans Crescent says the great "diamond battery," which is to destroy the blockading squadron, is now nearly ready for active service. Of its entire success mankind are told to have no doubts.

BOSTON AND MAINE RAILROAD.—The total receipts of the B. & M. Railroad for the year ending May 31, 1861, have been $980,151 31, of which $548,730 51 was from passengers, and $341,781 46 from freight. The gain upon the total receipts of last year is $15,151 21. The expenses during the year ending May 31, 1861, were $512,239 98 against $465,229 77 in 1860.—During the year the road has earned $88,745 36 over dividends, expenses and depreciation. Total amount of undivided earnings $587,862 10.—Courier.

☞ The Board of Brokers of Boston have presented Lieut. Col. Fiske, of the New Hampshire 2d Regiment, with a splendid pair of epaulettes.

☞ The Fortress Monroe correspondent of the New York Tribune writes that Gen. Butler will leave there this week. His destination is not known.

☞ Baron Munchausen and Major Long bow must look to their laurels,—for the war correspondents for the Southern papers can beat those of the North, and also rather beat Russell of the London Times. A correspondent of the Memphis Appeal says—

"Parson Rippetoe, a Methodist preacher, and Captain of a Virginia company, performed prodigies of valor at the first taking of Sherman's battery (for it was taken, then lost, and then taken again.) He cut the throats of the horses, and then engaged Lieut. Sherman in a hand-to-hand conflict with sabres. After a ten minutes' fight—both being accomplished swordsmen—he severed Sherman's head from his body at one blow."

This is very rich, considering the facts that Sherman's battery is safe in the U. S. Army, and that Lieut. Sherman, now a General, is in New Hampshire, or was, a few days ago, arranging matters for more batteries and regiments.

☞ A heroic exploit is told of a beautiful young woman in the village of Spinelli, Italy. The house of her uncle, a Liberal priest, was invaded by some twenty brigand ruffians. One of the leaders was amusing himself by stabbing the poor priest, who was old, when the girl rushed in, flung herself on him, snatched in an instant the brace of revolvers he had in his breast, and shot him dead. She then shot down four others of them. Alarmed at this unexpected attack, the ruffians in the other rooms ran out. She still pursued them, and before they saw the enemy they had to encounter, closed the front door against them. The brigands attempted to set fire to the house. From the balcony she put out an old musket and fired again, and then displaying from the window a tri-colored flag, cried "Viva Garibaldi," with all her strength. The miscreants fired an ineffectual shot or two and fairly ran for it. A few moments after, a captain of Bersaglieri found the exhausted girl in a faint upon the dead body of her uncle.

☞ The Pacific Commercial Advertiser, published at Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, states that one of the most gratifying outbursts of patriotism witnessed there for many a day, occurred recently. A flagstaff had been erected, and a beautiful new American flag was unfolded, amid the cheers of a crowd of spectators. The crowd called for a speech, which the Advertiser states, "C. C. Harris, Esq., responded to in his usual felicitous style, in which the flag, the constitution, and the country were held up as more worthy of defence now than when our fathers fought in 1776." He was followed by Col. Dryer, the U. S. Commissioner, and others. After the speeches were concluded, the auditors were invited to a liberal lunch. The whole affair was impromptu, and showed that Americans in Honolulu are true to their country and their country's flag in this hour of its peril.

☞ A Chicago paper says Gen. Beauregard was, a few years since, an active filli buster, and possessed influence in the piratical councils concerning Central America. He was confident that Walker was not fitted to command the expedition, and requested Gen. McClellan, with whom he held friendly correspondence, to take his place, offering him the military dictatorship of the to-be conquered provinces, if he would engage in the enterprise. This offer was summarily rejected, but was renewed again and again, with new temptations, until McClellan peremptorily forbade any further reference to it.

LAST WORDS OF GEN. LYON.—A correspondent of the Missouri Democrat states, on the authority of Dr. H. Riechenbach, a surgeon of the First Iowa Regiment, the last words which fell from the lips of Gen. Lyon. The doctor was within a few feet of him when he fell, and was instantly at his side. The general was reclining in the arms of his body servant, when, turning partially round, he said: "Lehmann, I am going up."

☞ Capt. Stetson, of ship B. D. Metcalf, from Liverpool, arrived below New York Thursday, reports "fall in with bark Czarina, of Boston, on the 3d of August, with ensign Union down. Reported that the captain, second mate, one seaman and the mate, were all murdered at sea three days before. The first three were murdered by the mate, and the latter by the steward.—I sent my mate, Mr. Senit, on board to take her to Boston."

SHARKS AT A CAMP MEETING.—Quite a number of sharks have been caught near the Vineyard camp meeting. They approached the beach, and were easily taken. We don't mention this visit of sharks as extraordinary at a camp meeting, as it has been a common practice for sharks to attend such gatherings, but they generally come from inland.

☞ It is stated that the mother of Jackson, the murderer of Ellsworth, received one of our soldiers, who was wounded at Bull Run, dressed his wounds, and hastened him on his way, to prevent his being captured by the Southern army. It was an act of self abnegation and heroism which honors the sex, and is as worthy of imitation as the deeds of the Spartan mothers.

☞ The case of the Baltimore Police Commissioners, was disposed of in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Thursday, Judge Garrison submitting to the inevitable necessity, and dismissing the proceedings. This leaves the prisoners in the custody of the U. S. government, which seized them for traitors and rebels, as they undoubtedly are, as they aided and abetted in the destruction of the railroad through Baltimore, and the murder of the Massachusetts volunteers in their streets.

Mr. Dickinson would suspend them, as well as the habeas,—and so would Jackson.

Napoleon III was nearly a year and a half in preparing his grand army for Italy. Yet our military censors wish Scott to be ready to accomplish as great a result in three months. Great results are to be accomplished only by adequate preparation, and the use of means in proportion to the magnitude of the task to be accomplished. This is a steam age, and we are a very impatient people; but wars are much the same kind of thing they were hundreds of years ago,—greatly shortened, it is true, by greatly improved means, but correspondingly slow in the preparation of the vast means required for a short war.

GENERAL NEWS.—The richest lead mine in Missouri is now in the hands of the insurgents. The mine is situated near the village of Granby, Newton County, within twenty five miles of the Southwestern border of Missouri. Last year it yielded about seventy-five thousand pigs, or six millions of pounds. The supply of ore has been pronounced inexhaustible by the State geologist, and the quality is considered the best on the globe.

In Manchester, a little fellow, just passed his first decade, stepped into his father's office a few days ago, and said to one of the clerks, "I shall get my company full pretty soon; I have sworn in three to-day."—"Sworn in!" said the clerk, "how did you do it?" "I made them hold up their hands, and say 'Glory to God,' said the incipient captain.

GOOD FIRE DOCTRINE.

Our Fire Zouaves, homeward returning from Bull Run,
Deny that they came from the field at a full run;
But the boys should admit that, when once they set foot out,
Not a man ought to back till the fire was quite put out.

N. Y. Sunday Times.

"I don't miss my church so much as you may suppose," said a lady to her minister, who called on her during her illness; "for I make Betsy sit at the window as soon as the bells begin to chime, and she tells me who are going to church, and whether they have got on anything new."

"Boys," said Uncle Peter, as he examined the points of the animal, "I see but one reason why that mare can't trot her mile in three minutes." They gathered round to hear this oracular opinion; and one inquired, "What is it?" "Why," he replied, "the distance is too great for so hort a time."

Nothing more quickly betrays character than the laugh. "Let me hear a man laugh," said Democritus, "and I will tell you his history."

How is it possible to proceed in two opposite directions at the same time? By walking from the forward to the aft part of a vessel while sailing.

Poverty humbles pride. A man, when he is short, can hardly carry a high head.

The man who carries all before him—"The wheelbarrow man."

J. P. MORSE, Postmaster.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston,—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no faith could ever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

American Women.

America is justly proud of its beautiful women: but how many die annually, or prematurely lose their health and youth for want of a remedy suitable to their peculiar ailments. That remedy is found in SIR JAMES CLARKES FEMALE PILLS. We know hundreds of cases where they have been used with the greatest success.—In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, invigorating excesses and removing obstructions, whether from cold or any other cause. Suffer no more anxiety or low spirits, but try them. For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. my28 dawôm

Local.

☞ A letter has been received, by friends in this city, from Christopher J. Marshall, of Co. K, 2d Regiment, N. H. V., who is now a prisoner at Richmond; and from it we make the following extracts:—

RICHMOND, VA., Aug. 3, 1861.

Dear ——:—I write you a few lines to let you know where I am, and how I am getting along. I was wounded in the battle of Bull Run, in the foot;—the ball entered the side of my foot, near the instep; it did not pass through. They helped me off of the field, and I found the hospital wagon just as it started, at the retreat. I rode in that until we came to a bridge which it was impossible to pass over, it being blocked up with baggage wagons and horses. We waded through the creek, and I was then taken on horseback, and left at Centerville, in the hospital there.

The bullet was extracted the next day. We were surprised on that morning to find that we were prisoners of war. Our troops continued to retreat, and everything was left in the hands of the confederates.

We remained at Centerville five days, during which time we had the very best of attendance, under the circumstances. The next Saturday we were taken to the general hospital in Richmond, where we have the best of care taken of us by the Sisters of Charity.

There are a great many wounded men in this building. They are from almost every Northern State, as well as some from the South. There is one man here, along side of me, that belongs to our regiment. I do not know whether there are any more in this building or not. C. J. MARSHALL.

☞ The Unitarian Society, of this city held a social picnic at Sagamore Creek, on Friday afternoon. Such gatherings almost always afford much pleasure to the participants, but the presence of their former pastor, Rev. Dr. Peabody, rendered this occasion one of unusual interest and gratification to the members of the Society.

The Universalist Society held a picnic in the same beautiful locality on Wednesday afternoon, and, of course, all attained the result desired,—the hearty enjoyment of a pleasant afternoon.

On Friday evening the Oratorio of Esther was repeated at the Stone Church, and "the children" sang patriotic pieces,—all the more pleasing to the somewhat select audience from our recent woful lack of musical entertainments.

☞ James Fitz, alias James Fitzpatrick, charged with the larceny of $75 worth of gold coin from the person of John B. Pike, was examined before the municipal court in Portland, Me., on Thursday, and being adjudged not guilty, was discharged. It will be recollected that Fitz was arrested in this city, somewhat over a week ago, after being wounded by a shot from a revolver discharged at him by a Portland officer.

☞ All friends of humanity will be glad to learn that man and beast may now "get a drink" of water in Portsmouth, without trouble to anybody—good substantial pumps and troughs being completed and placed at the Creek and behind Jefferson Market. The posts and hooks have been removed from about the Market, and no teams are to be allowed to stand there and obstruct the passage.

☞ Some of the men belonging to Capt. Towle's company, which went to Concord on Thursday, were not needed for the Third Regiment, and were ordered back to this city. On that day, it is stated, there were three hundred more men enlisted for the regiment than were needed to fill it.—They will of course be transferred to the Fourth Regiment, at Manchester.

Mr. Chronicle,—Can you tell why it is, that our bell, down this way, sometimes rings at 5 in the morning, and then again why it don't? OLD SOUTH.

☞ Rev. E. True, formerly preacher at the Old South meeting-house, will speak at the Pearl st. Church to-morrow.

☞ The Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, containing a summary of the news of the week, this day published, and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room: price 3 cents $1 per year, in advance.

SALE OF SHELLS.—Marine Shells, obtained from all parts of the globe, will be sold at public auction at J. B. Adams' store, where further notice will be given. The Shells are the balance of the stock of Mr. Felesmen's Shell Bazaar, New York city.

"Thou shalt not steal," is an axiom which no one disputes, but which very many evade, and seem quite willing to forget its teachings. Unscrupulous persons have, and are still, imitating Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. We make mention of this fact to put all persons who want the best article on their guard, and our advice is to buy no other, as that, in our judgment, is the only article that should enter the stomach of any one who cares for health and good Bread or Biscuit. Most of our Grocers have it for sale. The depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

LATEST ITEMS.—A letter from on board the U. S. steamer Crusader announces that the Mississippi had captured two small privateers and driven back two steamers to Mobile.

Russell, of the London Times, applied on Thursday for a pass to cross the Potomac. It was flatly refused.

Gen. Butler is detailed by Gen. Wool to the command of the volunteer forces at Fortress Monroe.

Intelligence from Western Virginia says Gen. Rosencranz is securely entrenched, and with sufficient force to ensure his safety. The rebels are entrenching themselves 15 or 20 miles distant, with a force variously estimated at from 9000 to 20,000.

The rumor of Major Lynde's surrender to the Texans is contradicted. It is said that his position is impregnable to any force of the enemy. He is known as one of the most loyal men in the country.

An Irish brigade, 5000 strong, is to be immediately raised in New York, to be commanded by Gen. Shields.

The stage coach to Leonardstown from Washington was intercepted by order of Gen. Porter. A quantity of correspondence designed for the rebels was seized.

Congressman Potter's committee reported to the Secretary of War the names of 12 disloyal clerks; to the Secretary of the Treasury 51 disloyal and 10 suspected; to the Secretary of the Interior, 20 disloyal, and 7 suspected.

The latest accounts from Springfield, Mo., state that from 6000 to 10,000 of McCulloch's army had left for the North. This passage, it is said, will enable our forces, when they move back to Springfield, to cut off its communication with Arkansas.

The Federal baggage train, brought off from Springfield by Major Sturgis, is said to be worth a million and a half.

Mr. Boteler, recently arrested, has been released by order of Gen. Banks.

Experiments with the Union gun at Fortress Monroe have been made, with the extreme range of between four and five miles. One shot penetrated a sand bank 12 feet. Gen. Butler was by no means satisfied.

A schooner, formerly owned in Portland, but recently sold to parties in Wilmington, N. C., and registered with the British Consul as of Liverpool, was seized in Portland harbor on Friday, by the Collector, and surrendered to the U. S. Marshal. She was loaded with fish, grindstones, beef, bread, pork, &c., and cleared for St. Thomas; but information was received that her destination was Wilmington.

Steamer North Star, from Aspinwall, arrived at New York on Friday.

By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statement. WM. BOSWHALL.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

DEATH OF DR. TREAT, OF BUFFALO.

When we last week closed an account of Doctor WILLIAM TREAT's adventure in Pennsylvania, with the remark that the remembrance of it "will occupy a pleasant niche in his memory through life," we little thought that only three days of that life then remained to him. On Monday last, Aug. 19th, he died, of the cholera, at Buffalo, N. Y., at the age of 47 years and 6 months. He was the son of Mr. Samuel Treat of this city. After passing his youth in the Portsmouth schools he continued his course of education in the printing office, passed through that college, and graduated with honor, having been a close student as well as an operative. He afterwards studied medicine with the late Dr. C. A. Cheever, in this city, and took his degree from the Medical College of Philadelphia. His able lecture before the Portsmouth Lyceum is well remembered, as exhibiting a strong and well balanced mind. He many years since located in Buffalo, New York, where he has left a widow and three children. He enjoyed a high reputation there for skill in his profession, for sterling integrity, purity of character, and uprightness of life. He was a man of genius as well as of industry, and delighted in roving in the fields of literature. He has left one gem of his gleaning in his "Angel-Voices," a book which is highly prized by all who have read it. His life was in correspondence with that expressive quotation from Bryant with which, after bidding his reader farewell, he closes his volume:—

"So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, that moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

WATER PARTY.—On Monday of last week a party of about twenty young ladies and gentlemen sailed from Newburyport in an open boat for an excursion on Plum Island river. As the tide lowered in early evening, they found the boat aground in the sand in mid river, and all efforts to gain the shore, except by deep wading, and perhaps swimming, unavailing. So to make the best of a bad fix, they sang many a merry song, in spite of the dark clouds gathering thick around them.—At about ten, the rain began to patter down, and in spite of their sun shades, which were to afford protection, their clothes became damp, then wet, then dripping, then as the rain poured down in torrents—they could not find a dry thread about them. About midnight one of the company managed to reach the shore, and allay the anxiety of their friends by the assurance that all were safe and in good spirits, but the fates had declared that they should not "go home till morning."

That night the rain was incessant—one entire inch having fallen. At day light, the boat afloat, they went on shore, kindled a fire, and prepared a good breakfast from what was intended to have been an evening repast. This being dispatched and well relished, as well as the brilliant jokes of the occasion, made sparkling by the diamond drops—they took the boat for home—arriving at ten in the morning at the wharf, where a coach was in readiness to bear the well soaked party to their homes. We are gratified to learn that the excitement kept them from taking colds, and that no bad result occurred to the party to mar the remembrance of the occasion.

OUR OLDEST CITIZEN.—Some circumstances of the early recollection of Capt. Daniel Fernald have led to the belief that he is over a century in years. Recently the family record has been found, where his parents record his birth as taking place Nov. 19, 1767. He is therefore now in the 94th year of his age.

It is a curious fact, but one on which sufficient inquiry has not been made to estimate the chance of long life from being born in the cold months, that in a list of forty-nine of the individuals in this town over 70 years of age, but seventeen were born between the months of May and November inclusive, while thirty-two were born in the other six colder months. In January, 5 were born; in February, 7; March, 8; April, 9; May, 3; June, 3; July, 1; August, 2; September, 4; October, 2; November, 2; December, 5.

A large number of Baptist and Methodist missionaries, male and female, embarked on Saturday last for Burmah and upper India. Mr. Gangooly writes that his mother had been persecuted for permitting her Christian son to eat with her in her own house. She still, however, retains her heathen religion; and had provided a wife for her son, twelve or fourteen years of age. To her grief he could not consent to her wishes. He is meeting with success in his school and teaching.

Rev. Dr. Burroughs, by invitation, will, we understand, officiate through the day at the North Church on Sunday next. Rev. Mr. Gage, the pastor, who has been sick for a month past, is yet confined to his bed.

THE PORTSMOUTH STEAM FACTORY, it is said, will again go into operation on the first week in September.

Volunteers Wanted!

IN pursuance of a Proclamation by the President of the United States, and by order of the Governor of New Hampshire, the within the State of New-Hampshire, will be enlisted for three years, unless sooner discharged by proper authority, to be held in readiness for service whenever called for.

In accordance with the above, and acting under the orders of the Governor of this State,

A RECRUITING OFFICE
Has been opened at
At Jefferson Hall, on Market Square,
Portsmouth, N. H.

for the enlistment for three years, of able-bodied men. None will be received who are under the age of eighteen, or over the age of forty-five. All under 21 will be required to bring a written consent from their Parents or Guardians.

Volunteers who shall be accepted will be uniformed, armed and equipped, when mustered into the service, at the expense of the State, and their pay will be the same as that of the corresponding rank in the Army of the United States, to commence at the date of enlistment.

$10 Bounty will be paid to each Recruit as soon as mustered into service.

Morning Chronicle.

FROM MEXICO.—The N. Y. Times' Mexican correspondent reports a suspension of diplomatic relations between England and France and that country, the reason assigned being the passage of an act, by the Mexican Congress, suspending for a time the payment of instalments due on bonds held by creditors abroad. But it is believed that this is a mere cloak to the design for the destruction of the constitutional government and the establishment of a protectorate. It is supposed that the present condition of the United States has given boldness to these proceedings.

The American Minister, Mr. Corwin, is growing in favor there. The right of way, the correspondent again states, has been granted for the passage of U. S. soldiers over Mexican territory. It is pretty well understood that whatever he may ask in reference to our Southern rebellion, will be granted.

Much indignation is manifested at the release of the rebel prisoners, who were to go to Norfolk, Thursday, under a flag of truce. One Colonel and one Captain are among them.

On the arrival of the New York train at Philadelphia, on Thursday, Marshal Millward's officers examined all the bundles of papers and seized every copy of the New York Daily News. Its sale is totally suppressed in that city.

A formidable slave insurrection occurred last week in Orange county, Va., incited by a negro preacher. Several negroes were hung.

The Tribune has intelligence of the election to the National Congress of Representatives from four Congressional districts in North Carolina.

Messrs. Dudley and Hunt, commissioners to the President from Gov. Magoffin of Kentucky, have arrived. Their object is to dissuade the Government from forming camps of Union soldiers in Kentucky. A commissioner with a similar request has been sent to Richmond.

☞ The best instance on record of taking the capital, the New York Leader suggests, was afforded last Friday evening, when, thanks to our "solid men," the government took a hundred and fifty millions of dollars!"

One thousand additional horses are called for, by the Quartermaster, from New England.

Some of us fret inwardly, and some fret outwardly. The latter is the better plan for our friends, but worse for ourselves.

The contented man is never poor; the discontented never rich.

To Owners and Keepers of Dogs.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Portsmouth, June 14, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance No. 39, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle, well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of this city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

REAL ESTATE IN NEW CASTLE FOR SALE.

The TAVERN STAND in Newcastle near the road leading from Newcastle Bridge to Fort Constitution, is offered for sale on reasonable terms. The house has been recently put in a perfect state of repair, roof shingled, and house painted and papered throughout the interior, and is in every way fit for immediate occupation. It contains fifteen rooms, and is convenient for the business of hotel keeping and boarding. The House is within a few rods of Fort Constitution, and ample opportunities for fishing, bathing, boating, &c., are at hand.

The occupation of the Forts at the mouth of Portsmouth harbor, and the contemplated repairs of Fort Constitution promise here to an active and energetic landlord "who can keep a hotel," a handsome remuneration for a very small outlay.

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or habits, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been accoutered sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound. I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well.—W. D. HATTEN, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 4 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entire ly cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely cured me from suffering of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1858, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 14, 1859.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY.
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, promoting good sleep, in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "this is the best preparation of Quinine that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that it may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,

THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also combines twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

NOW OPEN,
THE SAGAMORE HOUSE,
FROST'S POINT, RYE, N. H.

This beautifully located and spacious House is now open to the public. Many improvements have been made in and about the premises; the rooms have been newly furnished, and every pains will be taken to ensure the comfort and accommodation of visitors.

There are excellent opportunities for Sailing, Sea Bathing, and Fishing, and the shores and woods abound in game in the season. Boats, Fishing Tackle and Rowing Pieces may be rented at the House.

CARRIAGES at the Depot in Portsmouth on the arrival of every train.

GEORGE H. MERRILL, PROPRIETOR.
Rye, Aug. 10, 1861.

Ocean House, Rye Beach, N. H.,

Will be opened on the 12th of June, for the accommodation of permanent or transient company. The House has been thoroughly refurnished and put in the best of order, and the proprietors are determined to meet the views of the public in regard to charges for board. The prices will range from $5 to $14 per week, according to the rooms selected.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.

Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2700 feet above the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from "Pebble Beach," the "Cliff" overlooking Lake 40 a perpendicular height of 250 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNEQUALLED FOREST BEAUTY.

The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. Adams, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and has within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.

The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains, while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, causing the air to be delightfully cool and bracing; and renders this house one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure.—Sportsmen will find on hand the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.

"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.

Sail, yawl and sat boats, and birch canoes furnished at short notice.

☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern Railroad, via Portland, daily, for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor.

Stages from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Greenville (foot of the Lake) with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Thos. Robinson, leaving daily, Sundays excepted, to the Mt. Kineo House.

Through tickets from Boston to Mt. Kineo House, via Boston and Maine and Androscoggin and Kennebec Railroads to Newport, thence by stage to Greenville (foot of the Lake), and thence by steamer "Fairy of the Lake," to the House, are sold at the Boston and Maine Station in Boston and in Lawrence. FARE THROUGH $7.50. Passengers have the privilege of stopping over at Portland, or any place East.

☞ Return tickets can be obtained of Capt. Robinson, on board steamer "Fairy of the Lake." jy30 3awlw

MONDAY, AUGUST 26, 1861.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——Although the 3d regiment is encamped in Concord, few soldiers are seen in the streets. So soon as the men arrive there, they are received into Camp, whence they are not permitted to go except for very good reasons.

——The Statesman is informed that a gentleman, formerly of Newmarket, a Whig in Whig times, and a member of our Legislature, was in the famous Black Horse Cavalry at the battle of Bull Run. He removed to Virginia several years ago.

——A rattlesnake was killed one day last week, in South Wolfborough, which measured over three feet in length, and had seven rattles.

——A Hungarian officer, one of Gen. Fremont's aids, was in Concord last week. The object of his visit is understood to have been to provide for the construction of a large lot of wagons, arranged for cooking the food for an army on the march. These wagons are like those used in the French service. Each has two boilers, of such capacity that at halting places each man in a regiment can be provided with a quart of soup and a pint of coffee, which, with the ration of bread, will constitute a meal.—Several of these wagons have been constructed—the locomotive portions in Concord, and the cooking apparatus at the Amoskeag Machine Shop, of Manchester—and it is presumed contracts will shortly be concluded for a larger number.

——One of the heaviest auction sales which has taken place in Manchester for years, occurred on Thursday. The property of the Blodgett Edge Tool Company, real and personal, was put up at sale under the hammer, in order to close up the affairs of the concern. Nearly three thousand dozen axes were sold, at from $7.50 to $9.00 per dozen. There were also some two thousand dozen hatchets, &c., sold. The real estate brought $10,000. The purchasers were Moody Currier, Joseph A. Haines, T. W. Little, and Mr. Shattuck, of Boston. Mr. Currier bought the real estate, notes and accounts receivable; Mr. Haines purchased the coal, iron and steel; Mr. Little, all the unfinished stock, safes, grindstones, &c.; and Mr. Shattuck, all the manufactured tools finished. The purchasers will probably form a new company, and continue the business as before.

——Rev. D. P. Cilley, of Farming'on, Me., has tendered his services as Chaplain of one of our regiments. His son, a recent graduate of Harvard, is in the Colonel's staff in the 2d Minnesota Regiment. Rev. Mr. Cilley is grandson to Gen. Jos. Cilley of revolutionary memory, and cousin to Col. Jos. Cilley, who was at the battle of Lundy's Lane.

——It is thought that Walter Norris, son of the late Senator Norris of this State, who was reported as killed at Bull Run, is still living.

——The town of Barnstead has been incorporated something over one hundred years, and there has never been a murder, or an attempt at assassination in the place, until the 14th of this month. A man by the name of Geo. Varney, alias "one-eyed Riley," formerly of Alton, took the life of Hiram Leathers, (his father-in-law) by stabbing him with a large pocket knife seven times, one wound penetrating the heart. It is not known that the parties had any difficulty prior to this affair, other than that a week before the murder, Varney sharpened the knife, and stated that he had done so to "cut Leathers' heart out." No one supposed him in earnest. Leathers survived until the 19th. Varney now lies in the Laconia jail. There is another man missing from the town, and there are circumstances leading to the supposition that Varney knows something of that matter.

——Wm. Garland, son of Thos. B. Garland, Esq., of Dover, has been appointed a Cadet at West Point, and was ordered to report himself at West Point 24th inst.

——A young man named Kendall, member of the 3d Regiment, was drowned in the Merrimac River Friday afternoon, while bathing near the camp. He was a son of Alvah Kendall, of Dublin.

——Messrs. J. S. & E. A. Abbott, of Concord, are constructing, under order from the government, a large lot of limbers and battery wagons for field artillery. These carriages have to be built with the utmost care, of the best materials, and great strength. The specifications are followed with extreme nicety, for there are many peculiarities of construction, which are designed to give freedom of motion to the horses and convenience to artillery men when moving rapidly in battle over uneven ground. The whole contract is to be completed in sixty days from the date of the order, or about the last of September.—The same builders have an order for fifty army and ambulance wagons, from the State of Rhode Island. Messrs. L. Downing & Sons, also of Concord, are building the wagons for the 3d N. H. Regiment.

THE THIRD N. H. REGIMENT.

The following is the list of the company officers so far as they are appointed.

Company A—Capt., Josiah J. Plympton; 1st Lt., Rich. N. Ela; 2d, Geo. W. Jackson.
Co. B—Capt., Rufus F. Clark; 1st Lt., Alvan H. Libby; 2d, J. R. Hynes.
Co. C—Capt., Rob't C. Dow; 1st Lt., W. H. Maxwell; 2d, J. F. Langley.
Co. D—Capt., John E. Wilbur; 1st Lt., Henry H. Ayer; 2d, And. J. Fogg.
Co. E—Capt., Michael T. Donohoe; 1st Lt., Walter Coly; 2d, Rob't H. Allen.
Co. F—Capt.—Ralph Carlton; 1st Lt., J. H. Thompson; 2d, S. M. Smith.
Co. G—Capt., Chas. F. Dunbar; 1st Lt., W. H. Cornelius; 2d, O. M. Dearborn.
Co. H—Capt., Pierce L. Wiggin; 1st Lt., And. J. Hill; 2d, Geo. W. Emmons.
Co. I—Capt., Israel B. Littlefield; 1st Lt., W. J. Butterfield; 2d, W. H. Miles.
Co. K—Capt., Jas. F. Randlett; 1st Lt., C. E. Burnham; 2d, H. A. Marsh.

The labor of mustering the men into the service of the United States, and uniforming them, was commenced on Thursday. The rifles were expected on Saturday, and the day fixed for departure for the seat of war is Tuesday, the 27th inst.

There were in camp on Thursday, 1219 men. It was supposed some of these might not pass examination by the surgeon, and whatever excess of enlistments exists, after the regiment is mustered in on the maximum standard prescribed by the War Department, will be transferred to Col. Whipple's regiment.

In equipment the Third will not be surpassed, if indeed it is equalled, by any regiment of volunteers in the service. The arms are Enfield rifles. Each man is to be furnished with overcoat, frock coat and pants, of gray doeskin; one blue flannel blouse; two pairs of woolen socks; one pair stout shoes; a cap, designed by Mr. Brooks, of the Governor's Council, very graceful and serviceable; also two flannel shirts, two pairs drawers, one towel and one handkerchief, manufactured by the Soldiers' Aid Society. The knapsacks are of improved pattern; the canteens are like those of the Second Regiment, but are said to be of better workmanship. The haversacks are of white canvass, as those hitherto in use are found to impart a taste of rubber to their contents. Then each soldier is to have a poncho rubber blanket, which has an opening in the centre, through which a man may put his head and use the garment for a rainy day cloak; in addition to its usefulness when placed on the ground beneath a tent, to keep dampness from the couch of the soldier.

An excellent band accompanies the regiment, under the leadership of Mr. Gustavus W. Ingalls. The same outfit of horses and wagons, shovels, pick-axes, stoves and cooking furniture as has been furnished the other regiments is provided for this.

The reputation of its officers, the character and condition of the men, and the completeness of the outfit, lead to the belief that this regiment will win renown for itself and the State.

For the Chronicle.

Capt. Whiting of the barque Alvarado, of Boston—which, it will be remembered, was recently captured by the privateer Jeff. Davis, on the coast of Florida—states that on their arrival at Baltimore, the negro cook, who had passed safely through the hands of the secessionists, was arrested and detained so that Captain Whiting was forced to leave without him.

We copy the above from the Evening Traveller; and, in the name of justice, we ask why was the cook, who passed so securely from Florida to Baltimore, retained there? Are we still bound down by the strong arm of slavery? Does our Government set a double watch for that institution under the stars and stripes, so as to compel Capt. Whiting to go to Massachusetts to get evidence that the cook is not contraband? How long must we pay tribute to slavery, and do nothing for liberty? Cannot Capt. Whiting's word be taken under such circumstances? If not, how much do we gain by going "through Baltimore?" I hope the time may soon come, when slavery shall not be both judge and confessor in our land. *

PASSPORTS.—The State Department has issued the following explanatory notice:—

"The regulations of this Department of the 19th inst., on the subject of passports were principally intended to check communication of disloyal persons with Europe.—Consequently passports will not be required by ordinary travellers on lines of railroad from the United States which enter the British possessions. If, however, in any special case the transit of a person should be objected to by an agent of this Government on the border, the agent will cause such person to be detained until communication can be had with this Department in regard to the case.

(Signed) W. H. SEWARD."

☞ During a recent thunder shower in Glasgow, the Nelson monument was struck and badly shattered.

THE REBELLION.—Two Virginians, agents of tobacco houses, who have been on a collection tour and obtained about $170,000 in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, were arrested in the latter city on Friday. Letters, addressed to friends in the South, were found upon them.

On the person of W. J. Kelly, recently arrested at Harrisburg, were found $100,000 in notes of the Confederate States banks. Various bills of sale dated at Richmond, for pork and other articles, were concealed in pockets inside of his shirt.

Hon. J. S. Phelps, of Springfield, Mo., has been authorized by the President, to raise five regiments of infantry and one of cavalry, to serve for six months. Orders have also gone authorizing fifteen regiments to be raised in Missouri, for the war.

The division under the command of Gen. Banks has left Sandy Hook, and is encamped a few miles farther down the Potomac, at the mouth of the Monocacy, and nearly opposite Leesburg, Va., where the enemy are said to have a large force.

According to official intelligence received at Washington, many of the rebel troops have withdrawn further into Virginia.—Their object in thus retiring is a matter of mere speculation. It is certain however, that, as during this week our troops have been reinforced, theirs have receded.

The Governor at Curacoa, has told the U. S. Consul that the privateer Sumter would not again be permitted to enter that port, as she has, since she left there, been capturing vessels on the main, and he desired to occupy a strict neutrality. With regard to other privateers he "would act according to circumstances."

The rebel Congress has approved an act appointing to other Commissioners to Europe. It is reported that they have received dispatches by telegraph stating that the English Government had sent orders to Admiral Milne, of the Gulf Squadron, to see that British merchant vessels be properly protected in their ingress to and egress from ports of the South.

Dispatches from Washington say that the Daily News and the Day Book of New York, are to be suppressed immediately, by order of the Government.

It is intimated that the Government will no longer allow Kentucky to hold a neutral position.

The Baltimore papers have agreed to refrain from publishing news which will aid the enemy.

The steamer Samuel Orr, an Evansville and Paducah mail packet, was seized by the rebels at Paducah, on Thursday, and taken up the Tennessee river. Her cargo is valued at $20,000.

A New Orleans paper publishes a statement that Ben McCulloch, disguised, sold chickens in our camps in Missouri just before the battle there. There is no doubt but he is a famous spy.

☞ The bark Czarina, on board of which the terrible tragedy took place, arrived at Boston, Friday. The first mate, named John Crotter, who appears to have been a perfect fiend, killed Capt. John H. Dwyer in his berth on the morning of the 30th of July, and then went on deck and killed the second mate, Richard Hammett, and a seamen named John Lindstorm. On the next day the crew attacked Crotter, when he drew a revolver and shot the carpenter (whose name is not known) and threw him overboard. Hendrick L. Blumarl succeeded, soon after, in striking Crotter with an adze, and inflicting a dangerous wound, from which he died in an hour. Capt. Dwyer and Mr. Hammett belonged in Boston. Crotter was a native of Queenstown, Ireland. The crew have been placed in the custody of the U. S. Marshal, to undergo an examination.

☞ It is reported that an unsuccessful attempt was made to rob Hon. Mr. Shute, of the Mass. Executive Council, and Mr. Smith, who has been acting as Assistant State Paymaster, on the road leading from Lynnfield to Charlestown, Thursday evening. They had been to Lynnfield to pay the 17th Regiment, and were returning with perhaps a thousand dollars of the State's money in their possession. The horse knocked down one of the highwaymen who seized his bridle, whereupon the Councilor and Paymaster escaped.

☞ Steamer North Star, which arrived at New York from Aspinwall Friday, with nearly twelve hundred thousand dollars in gold from California, brings intelligence of a revolution in the Government of New Granada, Gen. Mergueza having taken Bogota and proclaimed himself Provisional President.

☞ From a record of captures by rebel privateers, carefully kept, the Journal of Commerce finds that sixty-nine vessels, of all descriptions, have been taken, the value of which cannot fall short of $1,500,000. In the same time the cruisers employed by the United States have taken less than fifty prizes.

WHAT are the "Fortunes" of War? Ask the gentlemen who furnish our soldiers with bad beef at high prices.

☞ Georgia is about to secede from the Southern Confederacy. Governor Brown has recalled all the troops of that State from Virginia, and in a proclamation says he fears that at the end of the present war the battle of State sovereignty would have to be fought over again.

☞ The branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, at Yarmouth, N. S., was robbed on Monday, 17th inst., while the clerk was absent at dinner, and £1500, chiefly of the Bank of Nova Scotia, stolen. The robbery was effected by means of a false key.

☞ A Washington correspondent of the Newburyport Herald writes: "I hear that Gen. Butler is not particularly well pleased to be pent up in Fortress Monroe—says he has been keeping a 'nigger boarding house for the Government.'"

☞ Six thousand pounds of butter for rebellious bread, was seized at Duquoin, Ill., on Saturday, and held by order of Gen. Fremont. The butter was ingeniously disguised as timothy seed.

☞ The celebrated Enfield (Eng.) rifle, which to a superficial observer, appears a simple affair, requires no fewer than 61 component parts, and 769 operations to perfect it.

☞ By order of the government, the British steamers arriving at Boston will hereafter be met at the Narrows, by the revenue cutter, and officers placed on board to look after "secesh" passengers or documents.

☞ The cost of conveying a regiment, with all its appurtenances, horses, wagons, and baggage, from Boston to Washington, is about $10,000.

☞ The Cologne Cathedral, the foreign papers say, will soon be finished. Some little time has been occupied in its construction—about 613 years.

WAR.—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

Boonsboro', Md., Mch. 21, '61.

Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir — Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach—he was, after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.

The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all—in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, pronounce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. J. P. MORSE, Postmaster.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more stayed my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

☞ Efforts were made by some of the enterprizing citizens of Manchester a few days ago, and the Governor and Council have ordered the Fourth New Hampshire Regiment, Col. Whipple, to be encamped in that city. The N. H. Battery is also quartered there. The business of recruiting for the Fourth is going forward briskly, and it is thought that within a fortnight its ranks will be full. The men who served in the First, particularly, are begining to feel the want of the excitement of the camp, and are ready to enlist; their three m nths experience, without having a fair chance for a fight, does not quite satisfy them.

As soon as the Fourth is organized, it will be hastened forward to Washington, and another regiment will be raised in this State, to be succeeded, probably, by one or two others.

We see no good reason why at least one of these new regiments should not be encamped in this city. Were the times far better than they now are, it would still be quite an object, to some branches of trade, to have a thousand men added to our population, even for a short time. The humbug of having the men quartered "away from cities and towns" seems now to be pretty well exploded, and apparently the "temptations" incident to such localities are not considered as counterbalancing the advantages otherwise derived.

Concord has had two regiments encamped there, and Manchester one, besides the battery. Besides the advantages which Concord has thus derived, she has enjoyed many others,—her citizens constructing all the wagons, &c., and supplying a large proportion of the other articles needed by the regiments. Manchester also has not been entirely neglected in this respect.

We do not complain that our sister cities have been thus favored, but would suggest that they would not complain greatly should we receive our fair share. Portsmouth can, and will, furnish the best of camping ground: our city is easy of access by land and by water; and it affords opportunity for drill and practice, not attainable elsewhere in the State. No more healthy locality could be chosen, and it would be no very easy task to ascertain what reasonable objections there are to one or more of the regiments being qaurtered here.

Can not some of our enterprising citizens make a move in this matter before it is too late?

☞ The roof of a new wooden addition to the brass foundry at the Navy Yard, accidentally caught fire near a chimney, about 9 o'clock, Saturday evening. The Yard bell, which was rung to call the people on the Yard together, was heard here, and occasioned a general alarm and ringing of bells in the city also. The Navy Yard people, however, succeeded in extinguishing the flames, before the arrival of the two engines which went over on the "double quick." But little damage was done to the building.

We learn that the understanding with the Officers of the Yard is, that when assistance in cases of fire, is really needed from this side the river, three guns are to be discharged. It might be well to keep this in mind, particularly in the present excited state of the public.

☞ It will be seen by their advertisement, that Capt. George W. Towle and Lieut George F. Towle have been appointed recruiting officers for this city, for the Fourth Regiment, and have opened an office at Jefferson Hall.

We trust that the services of the latter gentleman, at least, will not be confined to enlisting men for the war, but that he will be retained in such a position in this regiment as his military education, experience, and abilities, as well as tried devotion to the Union, abundantly fit and entitle him to hold. These officers are both excellent drill-masters, and recruits in their charge will be instructed as fast and as well as anywhere else.

☞ A letter received in this city, from Washington, states that Charles Ridge, a member of Company K, Second N. H. Regiment, is a prisoner at Richmond. He was wounded in the battle at Bull Run, and since that time has been missing. There are twenty-eight members of the Second Regiment prisoners in Richmond.

CAMP MEETING.—The Methodist Camp Meeting in the pleasant grove near the junction depot in South Newmarket, last week, was well attended. There were thirty-four Society tents on the ground, besides many belonging to families. It was estimated that there were from 1500 to 3000 persons present per day. The exercises were brought to a close with a prayer meeting on Saturday morning. The weather, generally, has been favorable; good order and quiet have prevailed, and the services have been very interesting.

☞ A correspondent wishes "Old South" to inform him how many times during the past week the bell down that way has not been rung at 5 in the morning. The reasons will be given when he ascertains the number of times. He hints that somebody may have slept late and "been dreaming."

LATEST.—Generals Wool and Butler experimented with the Union gun at the Rip Raps again on Saturday. The second shell burst in the rebels' camp at Sewall's Point, breaking down the flagstaff and scattering the rebels like chaff. A propellor, about landing troops at the Point, put back towards Norfolk. The whole affair was witnessed from the Newport News steamer.

Mayor Berrett, of Washington, passed through Baltimore, Saturday morning, as a prisoner for Fort Lafayette, New York.

The Postmaster General has directed that none of the N. Y. papers, recently presented by the Grand Jury for disloyalty, shall be forwarded in the mails. These are the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, News, and Day Book, and the Brooklyn Eagle.

A dispatch from Frederick, Md., Aug. 23, states that the advance guard of the enemy is not far from that locality. Their ultimate destination was unknown.

The retrograde movement at Fairfax was a real night stampede. Two large rebel scouting parties having mistaken and attacked each other, after a sharp conflict both retreated, spreading the report that Gen. McClellan was coming in full force. The main body fled so rapidly that they dropped their sick along the road.

The Brooklyn, N. Y., Eagle has abandoned the secession cause.

A Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post says that the government is in possession of evidence which shows that two secessionist journals in N. Y. city are supported by the rebel leaders. Private advices from Norfolk, Va., state that nearly all the rebel troops have left that place, and that ten thousand federal troops could take Norfolk and Portsmouth with ease—rebel tricks and masked batteries excepted.

HENRY R. COSTAR:—All the summer I have been troubled with Roaches and Mice. I was actually ashamed of the house, for the Roaches were everywhere. I purchased a box of your Exterminator and tried it, and in one week there was not a Roach or Mouse in the house.—JOHN B. GREENE, No. 94 Elm Street.

HOUSEKEEPERS troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used them to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried almost all else, and found it nothing; but Costar's article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.) Gazette.

"EVERYBODY"
WHO USES
HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE
HAIR RESTORATIVE

Is convinced of the fact that

It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,

Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and then restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

ST. LOUIS, MO., June 1, 1859.

Messrs. W. E. Hagan & Co.,—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four bit bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. BOSWYRALL.

A MISTAKE.—The statement that Commander Wm. D. Porter, U. S. N., is on his way home (from the Pacific side) in irons is untrue. On the publication of his late letter, encouraging his sons to fight in the oligarch's army, orders were sent to the Commander of the Pacific Squadron to take from him the command of the sloop-of-war, and to hand him his dismissal from the service. When those papers were received, Commander Porter was at San Francisco, and was telegraphed for to return to his ship. But he failed to obey the order, and had not been heard of by the Commodore up to the latest advices received from him at the Department. Another officer has been put in charge of the sloop-of-war.

WAITING.—It will be well if the public ever learns the truth of the following words from Mr. Parton's Life of Jackson:—

"The chief employment of a soldier's life is waiting. He waits half a life-time for the breaking out of war. He waits for months after the campaign opens, for the day to arrive which decides its fate and his own. Through the long hours of the day of battle, he waits, compelled to nothing of the hurly-burly around him, till it comes his turn to advance and be shot. He is a man whose lifetime's work is done in a few thrilling hours or minutes, and the rest of his life is a waiting for those hours or minutes to come round."

It is reported that the Grand Jury, at the holding of the U. S. Circuit Court in Trenton, N. J., in September next, will present the Trenton American, Newark Journal, Patterson Register, and two or three other papers, for treason.—N. Y. Herald.

THE MAGNOLIA BALM WILL CURE THE WORST CASE OF PIMPLES IN A SINGLE WEEK.

It is so safe a remedy, that the contents of a bottle might be drank without harm. Physicians look with wonder upon its speedy cures, for it has heretofore been thought absolutely necessary to use preparations of lead or mercury to cure immediately, but the MAGNOLIA BALM contains neither. It is the most elegant and neatly put up article for sale anywhere, and may be obtained of all our Apothecaries and Fancy Goods dealers.

☞ Price 50 cts. a bottle.

REAL ESTATE IN NEW CASTLE FOR SALE.

The TAVERN STAND in Newcastle near the road leading from Newcastle Bridge to Fort Constitution, is offered for sale on reasonable terms. The house has been recently put in a perfect state of repair, roof shingled, and house painted and papered throughout the interior, and is in every way fit for immediate occupation. It contains fifteen rooms, and is convenient for the business of hotel keeping and boarding. The House is within a few rods of Fort Constitution, and affords opportunities for fishing, bathing, boating, &c., as a hand.

The occupation of the Forts at the mouth of Portsmouth harbor, and the contemplated repairs of Fort Constitution promise here to an active and energetic landlord "who can keep a hotel," a handsome remuneration for a very small outlay.

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions, with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies with out obtaining relief, I was induced by Mr. Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound," I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well.—HENRY BAKER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in the worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from the sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum. His hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. E. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec 16, 1858.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY.
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various other medicinal bearers, and not fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases, and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus the public may rest assured there is not another so good a remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "Ague is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may conveniently themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.
The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and is sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered, and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

MOUNT KINEO HOUSE,
Moosehead Lake, Maine.
Mt. Kineo, "the Monarch of the East," is situated near the centre of Moosehead Lake, and towers upward to the height of 2,700 feet over the level of the sea; on the easterly side, and in view from Greenville Beach, the "Cliff" overhangs the Lake in a perpendicular height of 900 feet. Its summit, which is easy of access, reveals a picture of UNRIVALLED FOREST BEAUTY.
The MT. KINEO HOUSE, J. R. CROCKER, Superintendent, is located at the base of Mt. Kineo, and within the last two months been enlarged, refitted, and furnished throughout with entirely new furniture. In the addition, just finished, is a large billiard hall; and on the premises is a bowling alley, together with new and beautiful sail and fishing boats, etc.
The house commands a magnificent view of the Lake, and the adjacent forests and mountains—while the mountain breezes pass over the waters of the Lake, causing the air to be delightfully cool and bracing, and renders this place one of the most delightful summer resorts in New England for parties seeking health or pleasure. Sportsmen will here find the best trout fishing in the country, while the surrounding forests abound with the stately moose and other varieties of game.
"Capt. Joe Barrows," and other popular and experienced guides, are engaged at the Mt. Kineo House, and will at all times be at the service of its guests.
Row, yawl and flat boats and birch canoes furnished with guides.
☞ Parties wishing to visit the Mt. Kineo House, will take the early morning trains per Boston and Maine or Eastern Railroad, via Portland, daily, for Newport; or on Monday, Wednesday, Friday, for Skowhegan and Bangor; or on Tuesday and Friday, per steamer M. Sanford, for Bangor.
Tickets from either of the above places pass through a country of picturesque beauty, and connect at Greenville (foot of the Lake) with the elegant steamer "Fairy of the Lake," Capt. Thos. Robinson, which runs daily, Sundays excepted, to the Mt. Kineo House.
Fare for the trip from Boston to Mt. Kineo House, via Boston and Maine, and Androscoggin and Kennebec Railroads to Newport, thence by stages to Greenville, and thence by steamer "Fairy of the Lake," and thence to Mt. Kineo House, $7.50.
Fare from Portland, $3.50.
Passengers have the privilege of stopping over at Portland, or any place East.
☞ Rooms should be obtained of Capt. Robinson, on board steamer "Fairy of the Lake." jy30 3eodw

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 27, 1861.

THE QUESTION.—The question involved in this war, immediately, is not the abolition of slavery, but the abolition of freedom. On our part it is a war of defence: slavery is the aggressor; if perils now threaten the existence of slavery, those perils are her own handiwork; she has of her own will cut the thread which held the sword suspended over her head, and if, in its falling, it proves her destruction, every man who loves his fellows, will rejoice that another nuisance has been abated.

The contest is far from being equal.—The rebels strike at the U. S. government as at the guardian of some degree of freedom—but the government does not strike back directly at slavery, but only at the rebellion.

We do not know, however, how soon the progress of rebellion may compel changes of operation.

The Government we are striving to uphold represents progression; the usurpation of Jeff. Davis & Co. represents a retrogression. The one symbolizes Freedom; the other symbolizes Slavery. The one asserts that man is progressive; the other asserts that progress is a lie. The one assumes that the people are the supreme sources of power; the other would restore the most repulsive features of the Feudal system.

Which of these two warring elements shall prevail? Which of these two systems shall become supreme on this Continent?

A crisis in the war may come, when either the Union or Slavery must fall to the ground;—and our government and army must choose between them. And it is within the range of things possible, tho' perhaps not probable, that as the Union falls, if fall it must, — it will grind "the institution" to powder.

NORTHERN SECESSION PAPERS.—Within the last few weeks, sixteen Northern papers have been suppressed, or have suffered from mobs. On Saturday, the offices of the Farmer, at Bridgeport, Conn., and the Alleghanian, at Cumberland, Md., were destroyed by mobs. At Wilmington, Del., the office of the Gazette was threatened with a similar fate. In the Farmer office a U. S. mail bag, filled with papers addressed to leading secessionists in Alabama, Georgia and other So. States, was found; also 200 billies. Letters were also discovered exposing the treason of politicians in Hartford and elsewhere.

The Bangor Democrat Extra, a Secession paper, was deposited in the Post Office, in that city, on Friday night. The Postmaster notified the Department, and retains the papers until he receives orders.

The True American, the Democratic organ in New Jersey, has suspended, giving as a reason that the Government has virtually interdicted the publication of every paper th t does not favor the administration. The paper is one of the oldest and most prosperous in the State.

☞ The Secession Press in the Northern States, is rapidly suspending and being suspended,—as may be seen in another item.

The Newark, N. J., Evening Journal of August 24, says of itself—

The course of this journal will hereafter be governed by circumstances. We desire to know how we can print a free, independent newspaper, within the guarantees of the Constitution, and be protected from the mob, as well as the United States Marshal, and keep out of the political Bastile. This information we hope the authorities will furnish us. What kind of a free paper will the mob tolerate? What shall we say to satisfy the Government? * * * The free press stands a very poor chance for life when the Government and the mob are united to suppress its legitimate utterances.

Something has been said about the free press of the American Revolution:—but we think there was nothing of the kind.

Previous to the Revolutionary War, the colonies' papers had exercised what freedom they enjoyed, pretty largely:—but when the war broke out, no revolutionary paper was suffered to be published, where the royal troops bore sway; neither were tory papers tolerated in places where the American force prevailed.

The papers were very free and fierce in their talk,—but they took heed to the times, the place, and the audience to whom they were talking.

They kept generally within the limits of prudence, and thus outlived the war. But it was only because they were generally prudent and cautious.

☞ At a recent sale of Southdown sheep in England, one ram brought 260 guineas, or a little more than $1300.

A TALE OF TERROR.

If any of our readers are disposed to sympathize with the rebellion or the rebels, we commend to their attention the fact that we now have in this city a widow with two children, who have fled from murderous incendiary robbers in Missouri, and have recently come, penniless, among us, for refuge.

They are now under the hospitable roof of a worthy family here, with whom the woman formerly boarded, and who are sufficient vouchers for the truthfulness of her statements.

With her father, who was a man of some pecuniary means, and with her two children, she left Hartford, Conn., in February 1854; and after experiences and changes of no importance in this relation, the father bought a farm in Boonville, Missouri, where he erected several houses and a store, and traded in goods, lands and tenements.

On the night of the 9th of June last, there were rebellious riots, and sufficient cause of alarm for every loyal citizen of the United States living there. The father had previously lost some property by rebel doings at St. Louis; and on the morning of June 10 he remarked to his daughter that he had about $3600 due him, and he was going out to see if he could collect some, though he feared he might not, as the rebellion and treason rendered it difficult and dangerous.

She rather advised to take what money they had, with their teams and a few effects, by night, leaving their crops and everything else, and try to escape with their lives to some free State.

He went out, however, and while riding in his wagon was shot through the head by some rebels, perhaps by his debtors; but at any rate his face was completely blown to pieces and his horses killed or disabled.

The lifeless body of the father was hro't back to the house,—into which the rebel murderers rushed, telling the daughter, as they pointed to the father, "That's what we will do to you, if you do not leave the place in three hours."

Resolving to leave, she wished to bury her father first: a coffin not big enough was hastily procured, and with the blood still streaming from the wagon, the daughter rode with the father's corpse to the rude and hurried burial.

Returning, the children were thought of:—and where are they? In the schoolhouse. Going to get them, the rebels had set it on fire; but the children were rescued, the girl's dress being burnt as they got out.

Coming back to the dwelling and store—the rebels had rifled them of goods and of $1500 in cash, and set them on fire. They fired pistols at the woman, wounding her with a ball, and burning her clothes, telling her if she had any more people she wanted killed, to bring them on.

She was then put, in an insensible condition, on board a steamer for St. Louis, without clothes, without money, and without any earthly protector or guide.

When she recovered her consciousness, she was aware that she and her children were penniless and without a home, in the midst of scenes where enemies were many and dangers great.

Her aim was to reach Burlington, Vt., where she had once lived, and where she hoped to find friends. She found the place; but in the lapse of years, some friends were dead, and the rest removed.

Coming here, she found one family who knew her well—and through them one child has already found a home; and the other and their mother will doubtless find friends, help, and employment in due time.

For the present, the mother needs rest, from fatigue, excitement and horrors enough to shatter the nerves of a strong man; and at the same time the public mind here may be profitably aroused to consider the enormous crimes of the slave power, and the weakness of those craven souls who make apologies for it, and wish it to rule the country.

George Hudson, Justice of the San Francisco Peace, who in 1859 fined the proprietors of the Bulletin newspaper $100 for publishing the confession of Mrs Sickles, on the ground that it was not fit for publication; has obtained a verdict in Judge Hagus' Court of $150 damages against the Bulletin proprietor, because they called him a "Dogberry."

☞ A Portland stable keeper missed one of his horses. Supposing it had been stolen, information was given to the police, and every effort made to find the missing animal. After two days, the horse was found in the cellar under the stable! He probably got loose in the night, and fell through a trap door which had been accidentally left open.

The Baptist Church, Plymouth, Ms, was totally destroyed by fire about 11 o'clock, Saturday night. Loss about $6000; no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been caused by an incendiary.

Richard Scofield, an Englishman 29 years of age, fell from the foretop of the frigate Congress, at Boston, on Saturday, and was instantly killed.

THE REBELLION.—Recently a gentleman wrote to the Navy Department, inquiring whether a bounty would be given for the capture of privateers, and it is understood that other parties would, for a similar consideration, engage in the same business, but the Government has no power to agree to the terms proposed, under the present law. Half the value of all prizes goes to the Government, and the remainder to the captor. From what has transpired, it is highly probable that Government would relinquish its share to those who would successfully engage in such speculations; and while granting commissions for these purposes, afford whatever aid it could in the matter of armament.

Four of the officers attached to the frigate Congress resigned their commissions on the arrival of the ship at Boston. It appears that the Government have changed their policy in regard to cases of this kind. Capt. Robert Tansill and Lieut. Thomas S. Wilson, of the Marine Corps, and Henry B. Claiborne and Hilary Cenas, both midshipmen, have been sent to Fort Hamilton, New York. They had tendered to the Secretary of the Navy their resignations, which were rejected. Their names have been stricken from the roll.

Minister Pike, in dispatch from the Hague, referring to the Bull Run affair, says that in his judgment this reverse will not specially prejudice our cause or lead to adverse action in Europe. A public sentiment has gradually been developed on that side of the water in regard to our affairs, which is inclined to await a fair trial of the strength of the Government without prejudging its ability to overcome its misfortunes.

The President, with the Secretary of State, attended Gen. McClellan's review of several brigades, on the south side of the Potomac, Saturday. The perfection of the discipline of the troops surpassed anything that has been seen in the military line in this country since the war of 1812. The volunteers have already become soldiers. Gen. McClellan declares his perfect satisfaction with his army; and his army, the greatest ever seen on this Continent, is equally satisfied with him.

All written correspondence, carried by express companies to the seceded States, is prohibited.

The question of the terms of enlistment, which has been the source of the recent disturbances in several regiments, has been judicially and finally settled. The Government's right to hold the soldiers is conclusively sustained by the decision of Associate Justice Wayne.

Several ladies of the capital, who are known or suspected to have aided and comforted the rebels, are placed under the strict surveillance of the police.

Gen. McDowell has been assigned to the command of a division.

The Washington Police Board has unanimously expelled Mayor Berrett for refusing to take the oath of allegiance. His arrest was not for the reason merely that he refused to take the oath of loyalty as an ex-officio member of the Board of Police, but there were other grounds good and sufficient to the Government for this proceeding. A guard has been temporarily placed over his house, where his family still remain.

The Potter Investigating Committee have reported to the several departments about 200 employees who cannot be depended upon as loyal to the Government.

Gentlemen from Harper's Ferry state that our troops under Col. Gordon have secured large quantities of flour and new ground wheat, including 500 bushels belonging to the rebel army, at a mill owned by Herr A. Welsh. They also disabled the mill from grinding for several months to come. There were no rebel troops at the Ferry, but their pickets frequently came in sight.

Intelligence from Gen. Banks' division shows that the rebels have withdrawn all their regular forces from Charlestown, Winchester and other points above, and concentrated them at Leesburg, where they number from 11,000 to 12,000 men. Capt. Henderson's Home Guard alone remain in Jefferson county.

The rebels have taken to pieces at Martinsburg five locomotives belonging to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and were to make the attempt to transport them to some point on the Manassas road.

The gunboat Seminole has brought up to Fortress Monroe, the prize schooner Albion, (formerly a pilot boat,) from Cardenas, with a cargo of coffee, fruits and cigars. When taken, the Albion was under British colors. The captain and nearly all the crew were drunk. The Albion run the blockade off Wilmington.

The rebels, in Missouri, now seem to be more anxious to obtain subsistence than to make offensive movements.

Gen. Raines issued an order soon after his arrival at Springfield, Mo., to seize all medicines and hospital stores in the Federal hospital, thus depriving about 400 of our wounded troops of medical treatment. A part of the medicine was subsequently restored by order of Gen. Price. All our wounded could not be brought off the field, in consequence of the scarcity of wagons, but they were treated where they lay.—Many of them were stripped of all clothing by the enemy and sent to town naked, and every man lying on the field had his pocket picked.

The entire blame of the recent emeute at Lexington, Ky., is charged upon Senator Breckinridge, who incited the assault upon the Union troops. A collision was averted by others.

Daniel C. Lowber, of New Orleans, was arrested at Crestarine, Ohio, Friday evening. Lowber acknowledged himself bearer of dispatches from England to Jeff. Davis, but professed ignorance of their contents. His trunks containing the dispatches, were seized in New York some days since.

A lady in this vicinity lately received a letter from her daughter, now living in Virginia, inquiring if her brother, who is on a voyage, had yet returned; and adding in good faith, that she presumed not, as the Northern ports were so strongly blockaded by the southern war vessels, that it would be impossible for his ship to get into port!"—Boston Journal.

The London Mechanic's Magazine learns that Capt. de Groot is building two new steamers for the United States Government, which are to be plated with steel of four inches thickness, rendering the vessels shot and bomb proof, and protecting the boilers.

WAR.—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

Boonsboro', Md., Mch. 21, '61.

Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir—Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach—he was, after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.

The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all—in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, pronounce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. Yours truly, F. H. IRWIN,

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is unestimable.

Strong Testimony

FROM BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 8, 1860.

MESSRS. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston;—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from giving my testimony in favor of a remedy already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ. WHEELER.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Manchester American says:—Nathaniel B. Baker, Ex Governor of New Hampshire, now Adjutant General of Iowa, is doing great service in behalf of the Union cause in that State. A correspondent says that he is tasking his energies to the utmost to get the troops ready under the call of Gen. Fremont. He shows himself an experienced and efficient officer, and brings great ability and industry into his important department.

—— To-day, (Tuesday) Aug. 27, is the thirty-fifth anniversary of the most melancholy occurrence that ever took place in New Hampshire—the destruction of the Willey family in the Notch of the White Hills. There have been other instances of the death of several people at once by what are called casualities, but the disaster by which nine human beings—father, mother, five children and two men servants—were hurried from the slumber of midnight to the slumber of death, with no one left to bear testimony to the horror of the scene; to the awful roar of the elements, and the mortal agony of those who were overwhelmed in an avalanche of earth, stones, water and mountain rubbish, makes this the most sad of all ocurrences within the State.

—— E. S. Barrett, of Concord, Mass., recently succeeded in reaching the almost inaccessible home of the "Old Man of the Mountain," and planted a flag-staff on the very crest of the rock which forms the cap. But one person, it is believed, has ever before been able to accomplish the feat.

—— The Boston Advertiser publishes in full the opinion of the Supreme Court, asserting the constitutionality of the act of the legislature authorizing the appointment of commissioners to take down and remove a certain dam to a level thirty- three inches below the top thereof, and providing for compensation, the object being to benefit a large tract of meadow lands lying above the dam upon the falls of the Concord river. This subject has long been in controversy both before the legislature and in the courts, and the interests of a large number of owners of estates in the valley of Concord and Sudbury rivers are supposed to be more or less involved in the decision now reached.

—— The departure of the Third Regiment from Concord is postponed until Thursday.

—— Dr. Dwight, the eminent divine of Portland, was very badly injured Saturday afternoon, by the upsetting of his carriage, about a mile from the summit of Mt. Washington. The carriage in which he was riding was driven by an artist stopping at the Glen House, and the accident was the result of carelessness.

—— A large number of musicians of this State, Vermont and Massachusetts, last week attended the Ninth Annual Convention of the Cheshire County Musical Institute, at Keene, under the direction of Geo. F. Root, Esq., of South Reading, Mass., On Thursday and Friday evenings they gave public concerts, where select choirs, assisted by a chorus of over three hundred voices, entertained large audiences.

It is a matter of regret that our city cannot be favored with such pleasant and profitable gatherings occasionally.

☞ The Rockingham Association of Universalists, will meet at Atkinson on Wednesday, and continue two days.

☞ The annual convocation of the trinitarian Congregational churches of New Hampshire commences at the North Church in this city this morning, continuing three days. To-day at ten o'clock the discourse, called "concio ad clerum," will be delivered by a preacher from the Lancaster Association.

At two P. M. will be heard the Narratives of the state of religion; and at four o'clock, the delegates from corresponding bodies will be heard.

A meeting for discussion and devotional services will be held this evening, commencing at half past seven.

Prayer meetings will be held each morning at half past five o'clock.

A guard of 25 U. S. Infantry and a Lieut. went down in the last Panama steamer and escorted the treasure as far as Aspinwall.

The N. Y. Herald's correspondent says that Messrs. J. Willey Edmonds, John C. Gray and Wm. T. Andrews, representing the capitalists of Boston, have been endeavoring to persuade the President to dismiss the Secretaries of War and Navy.

Orders have been issued for the arrest of Mrs. Senator Gwin, now at West Point. Drawings of the federal fortifications on the Potomac, traced from the original maps in the War Department, were found in her trunk.

It is reported that Lieut. Kimmel of the 2d Cavalry, who, with a part of his regiment was at Bull Run, has resigned and accepted a captaincy in the rebel army. He had the commission before the battle.

Intelligence from Manassas states that since the battle at Bull Run, the rebels have drawn large forces from Tennessee, which had been held there for defensive operations on the Mississippi.

The State Department has advices from all our foreign ministers. They state confidently that there will be no movement among the European governments to recognize the rebels so long as the Federal government keeps forces in the rebel States and holds Washington.

The government is considering the propriety of organizing a national detective police force, to be distributed in the principle cities throughout the country.

Formidable preparations for a naval expedition from Fortress Monroe are about completed: its destination is a profound secret.

The government has seized all large craft, schooners and sloops, small row boats and skiffs on the Potomac.

The typhoid fever has appeared in the government hospitals.

A battle is impending in Missouri, as the rebels are approaching Athens. The Union pickets have been driven in.

☞ The examination, in Boston, of the crew of the barque Czarina, charged with murdering the mate, who so inhumanly butchered the captain, 2d mate and carpenter, has resulted in their acquittal. Mr. Dana, the U. S. District Attorney, stated his conviction, from the testimony, to be that there was no evidence of the commission of a crime. The mate seemed little else than a wild beast, and the men only desired to secure him; the Attorney would be content if they were discharged as persons who had done the best they could.

"EVERYBODY"
Who has
HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE
HAIR RESTORATIVE
Is convinced of the fact that
It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,
Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.
"ANYBODY"
Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.
☞ Read this letter:
St. Louis, Mo., June 1, 1859.
Messrs. W. E. Hagan & Co.,—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four bit bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the Inimitable as being the very best, and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. W. BOSWORTH.

☞ There was a great mass meeting at Camden, Maine, on Friday, in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war. Dr. J. H. Esterbrook presided. Speeches were made by Major F. A. Nickerson of the 4th regiment, Hon. E. K. Smart, Democratic candidate for Governor last year, A. P. Gould and D. A. Boody, Democrats, and by Hon. N. A. Farewell, Gen. Davis, Tilson, T. R. Simonton and C. A. Miller, Republicans. About 3000 people were in attendance. Great enthusiasm prevailed.

☞ A singular plant, the drosera, has just come to notice. It kills instantly all the flies that settle on it, and is so exceedingly sensitive that the hairs with which it is furnished will converge on the application of one six-thousandth of a grain of Ammonia, while a single hair is affected by one 64 thousandth.

To Owners and Keepers of Dogs.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Portsmouth, June 14, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance No. 38, which is as follows:

An Ordinance, 38. Sec. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall so far such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle, well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

Sec. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of the city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

Sec. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog found within the limits of the city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

Being out of health, and having no family, I offer for sale my FARM in Kittery, known as the "CUTTS FARM," consisting of about 125 acres of mowing, tillage, and pasture land, with a two-story DWELLING HOUSE and BARN, SHEDS and other out-buildings, all in good repair.

The orchard is excellent, and has a good orchard of 200 grafted fruit trees. The situation is very pleasant, on the road from York to Portsmouth, about three miles from the latter place,—and would furnish to the purchaser not only an excellent farm, but a very desirable residence.

Will sell cheap for cash and immediate possession given. For further information, call on the subscriber, on the premises.

PURE LIQUORS AND WINES FOR PRIVATE USE AND MEDICAL PURPOSES.

We offer to the country trade and consumers, a complete assortment of LIQUORS, WINES, &c., and would say that our experience of more than FORTY YEARS as Importers, is not only a sufficient guarantee for the Purity of our Goods, but that it enables us to offer advantages to buyers that cannot be excelled by any house in Boston. Owing to the difficulty of procuring, in many towns, a strictly pure and reliable article of Liquors and Wines for medicinal and other purposes, we have for many years given special attention to filling orders for PRIVATE USE; and consumers will find it greatly to their advantage to send their orders to us direct, as we employ no travelling or other agents whatever. Persons who require Pure Liquors or Wines in large or small quantities, may rest assured that all orders will receive our best personal attention, and that every article sent from our house will be satisfactory in every respect. Communications by mail will receive prompt attention, with full and complete catalogue of goods, prices, &c.

About four hundred were present at the raising of a "peace" flag at New Fairfield, Conn. An attempt to run up the stars and stripes was successfully resisted and resulted in a fight. Two peace men were seriously wounded, one it is thought, fatally. Shovels, pick-axes, clubs and stones were freely used, but no fire-arms. There were but 70 Unionists present. The flag is flying.

A Secession flag, called a peace flag, was hoisted at Stepney, Conn., Saturday afternoon. A Secession meeting was held, at which addresses were made. Union men took the flag down and tore it in pieces, and held a Union meeting on the ground.

IS THE WORLD GOVERNED TOO MUCH?—The Commons' Select Committee on the local taxation and government of London have to deal with an area of 78,029 acres, on which stand 360,237 inhabited houses, with a population of 2,803,034 souls. The assessment is over sixty millions of dollars annually, and 7000 persons are employed entirely in the government of this vast body of people.

It is suggested that the hostile financial tone of the London Times towards this country is instigated by the Rothschilds, who desire to get the loan exclusively into their own hands. They own largely in the Times.

HORSE FAIR.—The second annual Convention, or "family meeting," of the celebrated Black Hawk race of horses, will be held at Elm Vale Park, North Andover, Mass., on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 3 and 4.

INTEMPERANCE IN ENGLAND.—The London correspondent of the Sunday School Union gives a long array of statistics which show the prevalence of the most appalling intemperance in England.

CHLOROFORM IN NEURALGIA. The Edinburgh Medical Journal contains an account, by Dr. Little, of his successful mode of applying chloroform locally in neuralgia, &c.

☞ The expenses of the government of Great Britain in time of profound peace are $330,000,000,—and those of France are $325,000,000.

To Owners and Keepers of Dogs.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
Portsmouth, June 14, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance NO. 3, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle, well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of this city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.
GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well.—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W HAMMOND, 90 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.
☞ Price 50 cts. a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1861.

IS IT A NEW THING?—Some people about us, seem to think that the troubles of the country,—secession, rebellion, the Southern Confederacy, the financial crisis, and the war, have all come upon us suddenly. They are sudden and unexpected to all who do not look beneath the surface of things. Perhaps no one, either North or South, expected to see quite so many of them all in one heap, as we see them now.

But there are men who were forewarned. A gentleman from the Middle States, who was largely concerned in business with the South, and who is well acquainted with Toombs, Cobb, and Stephens, was in company with Toombs in the summer of 1850, with a number of other politicians, all Southern,—in which company Toombs deliberately and plainly exhibited his plan for breaking up the Union, forming a new Confederacy at the South on the basis of slavery; and then extending North, State by State, till everything was absorbed but New England, of which he had no hopes.

Toombs said he and the others had the of making the move then,—but on counting noses in Congress, he found the Union too strong, as the Tennessee delegation would not go with the party, who even then, eleven years ago, were plotting this rebellion, which has now ripened into a wasting, destructive civil war.

The same gentleman, with his knowledge of the South, concluded, a year and a half ago, that as the Cotton States were vesting all their money in negroes, they would not be able to pay their debts at the North,—and accordingly drew in his dues at the south, by shortening his credits, so that when the guns were fired at Charleston, his funds were at home.

To such men, the war, though a sore evil, is no surprise: nor do the enormities of the slave power, or the hard fight it makes, surprize them in the least.

NEWS ITEMS.—The steamship Etna, for whose safety some anxiety has been felt, as she had not arrived, though she left Queenstown on the 1st inst.,—broke her crank shaft, and was compelled to put back under sail.

A Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Post says that new treasury notes are circulating and are eagerly taken by Western men for home circulation.

Rev. James M. Green, Chaplain of the 10th Pennsylvania Regiment, has been arrested and lodged in jail, charged with tampering with the soldiers' letters.

The flour merchants in New York have each contributed 2000 bags of flour, containing twenty-eight pounds, for the benefit of the families of volunteers.

Orders have been forwarded to the U. S. Pension Agents to administer to all persons drawing pensions the oath of allegiance to the United States, as directed by the late law of Congress.

Richard Wallack, Esq., was elected Mayor of Washington on Monday, by the City Council, to supply the vacancy occasioned by Mr. Berrett's involuntary absence. He was forthwith installed.

Several soldiers claiming to be British subjects, and so represented through Lord Lyons, have been dismissed from the army.

A sweet singer, "the Swan of Erin," Catherine Hayes, is dead.

The rage in Paris is for golden collars, in form and size like the present tiny appendages to a lady's toilette, of linen or needle work. They are only about $250 each.

A Washington despatch says it is needless to crowd the Secretary of War by further applications for military appointments, as there are no vacancies but such as have been reserved for meritorious non-commissioned officers and privates.

Mrs. Sue A. Carter Foster, of Murfreesboro', N. C., has applied for a divorce on the ground that her husband is an Abolitionist.

A Boston merchant on his way to New York, last week, cultivated the acquaintance of an agreeable sharper on the route, and was relieved of his watch and well-filled pocket-book in consequence.

A family, name not learned, ten miles north of Horicon, Wis., were murdered by some Indians of that vicinity, on Monday. This act was in retaliation for shooting a pony belonging to the Indians.

☞ The dullness of ship building in Essex, Mass., caused many of the ship carpenters to leave for other places. Thirty-seven of them are now at work at our Navy Yard and at Charlestown, Mass., and it is a somewhat singular circumstance that eighteen of these are named Burnham.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The band enlisted for the 3d regiment numbers 23 or 24 members, and it is composed not of 'green 'uns,' but of experienced and skilled musicians. G. V. Ingal's is to be the leader; Carl Krebs, the well known clarionetist, is among those who have enlisted.

—— While two young ladies from Great Falls were driving down Lisbon street, Lewiston, Me., last Wednesday, engaged in a race with another carriage, their own carriage struck a stone post, throwing both the occupants to the ground. Both may thank fortune for their lives and stop racing horses hereafter.

—— Lieut. J. F. McQuesten, of Litchfield, has been appointed aid de-camp to Brig. Gen. Sherman. He graduated recently at West Point.

—— The Manchester Printworks are starting up work gradually. Last week the machinery was in operation four days—this week it is to run the whole time.

—— A drunken man struck Senator Hale in the face, in Dover, one day last week, calling him at the same time an Abolitionist and one of the authors of our national trouble. Mr. Hale treated him with silent contempt and walked away.

—— The Manchester Light Battery has now 130 men. Who is to be selected for commander is not yet known. The Co. is now waiting for tents and will go into camp on the Fair Field the last of this week. The following officers have been elected: 1st Lieutenant, F. M. Edgell; 2d Lieut., E. H. Hobbs; 3d Lieut., John Wadleigh; 4th Lieut., H. F. Condict.

—— Several young men have left this State to join the U. S. Cavalry, now recruiting at Carlisle Barracks, Pa. Among them are five from Laconia.

—— Thousands upon thousands of yards of cloth, it is stated, are annually stolen from the Manchester Mills. Lately quite a number of thieves have been brought upon a short turn.

—— Some young men were practicing with a rifle at Manchester, in the rear of the Amoskeag machine shop, using the old toll-house across the river, as a target, supposing no one to be about. It appears that some one was about, for a horse suddenly put his head in the range of the bullet, those practicing stopping just along enough to see him drop, and then concluding it was about time to stop.

—— The Manchester Mirror tells the following tale of a row about a dog. One of the privates in Capt. Donohoe's Co. got into trouble with a man by the name of Adams, in Manchester, Saturday, in which Adams was understood to have the best of it. The soldier did not like to have the matter end in that way, as it would not be a credit to one who was "going for to be a soldier." So, on Sunday morning he visited the premises of Adams and was greeted by a ferocious bull-dog that showed his teeth and used them a little too freely. About 6 o'clock Sunday evening, the soldier, with a few friends, visited the premises again, determined to end the life of the dog. Adams was aroused and came out with his revolver and shot the soldier, the ball passing into the outside of his left hand and skinning up the arm a little ways and "then passing into a house." Of course that was the signal for a great row, but through the vigilance of the police it was prevented. Adams and his son were arrested, and, his house being guarded all night, no disturbance followed after.

☞ The San Francisco Evening Bulletin, of Aug. 1, says that on that day "the Sons of New Hampshire resident in San Francisco, forwarded to the 1st N. H. Regiment as splendid a flag as ever was made for any organization. It is of full size and of the best silk. The stars are embroidered in solid gold bullion. The battle axe and all the mountings of the staff are of solid silver. The painting of the real of New Hampshire and that of California, is executed by Nahl. The cost was $800. As a whole, the flag is unsurpassed and unsurpassable."

Accompanying the flag was an appropriate and patriotic address, on parchment, which was signed by one hundred of the Sons. Among them we notice the following from this city:—

Messrs. S. H. Parker, A. F. Brown, W. G. Wendell, I. H. Ham, J. T. Wheeler, R. B. Gray, Horace Morrison, S. O. Putnam, P. W. Penballow, Chas. C. P. Parker, Robert L. Harris, and Albert Rand.

☞ The untiring Perham, the great pioneer Excursionist, has completed arrangements to accommodate the people with one more excursion, at very reduced rates, to Montreal, Quebec, the wild Saguenay River with its thousand isles and bays, together with a ride through Canada and a visit to the Falls of Niagara. Those who joined the first excursion were much pleased with the fair prices at the hotels along the route, as well as with the sublime scenery of the Saguenay. A reduction in the Hotel prices, which is to be made in favor of those who go on Perham's Excursion, makes this the cheapest afforded. The details of the route and prices are particularized in the advertisement in our columns this morning.

THE REBELLION.—Wm. S. Johnston, son of the rebel general, was arrested at Philadelphia on Monday.

The N. Y. Post says a large quantity of provisions, including 9000 barrels of flour, went last week to Curacoa and St. Thomas, and hints that they have gone to ports in the seceded States.

Gen. Banks is not blameable for the release of Hon. Mr. Boteler. He ordered Col. Leonard of the Mass. 13th, to hold him, but the latter discharged him on his own responsibility.

Commander W. D. Porter, late in command of U. S. ship St. Mary's, is out in a card, pronouncing a letter recently going the rounds of the newspapers, purporting to have been written by him to his son, adverse to the government, a fabrication and a forgery,—as he promises to prove in due time.

The Philadelphia Press says that a number of secessionists were found in ambush, late Friday afternoon, on the road over which Gen. McClellan passed to review Gen. Hooker's brigade. It is thought their object was his assassination. They were placed under a strong guard.

All the mutineers at Washington, including the 2d Maine regiment, embarked Monday afternoon for Dry Tortugas.

Ship Universe at New York, from Liverpool, reports that on Aug. 16th, lat. 48 20 lon. 55 30, was chased by a low, rakish, full rigged brig, evidently a brig of war. She finally passed a quarter of a mile ahead, running off to the southeast.

A Union man named Moore was killed and another named Neill was mortally wounded on Sunday afternoon by a gang of five Secessionists, at Shotwell Tollgate, Ky., seven miles from Covington. A party of Union men pursued the murderers, who fled towards the Tennessee line.

The Boston Traveller publishes a letter from a correspondent at Salisbury, N. C., which furnishes glorious news from the old North State. The Union of that region, undismayed by the threats of the rebels, are organizing, and will soon be in a condition to take the field and fling to the breeze the glorious Stars and Stripes, risking life and property in defence of the banner of the Union.

Hardee's forces are withdrawing from Greenville, Mo., towards Reeve's Ferry, which they are fortifying, also to Peyton's station near the Arkansas line. This seems to confirm previous reports that the Eastern division of the rebels is hastening to join Gen. Pillow.

A strong body of Jeff. Thompson's force is represented to have occupied Benton, Mo., eight miles back of Commerce, where they are throwing up fortifications.

On Friday last, $14,300 in gold, belonging to banks in Kansas City, Mo., was seized by order of Major Van Horn, commanding the reserve corps.

The Government has refunded to Illinois 40 per cent. of the expenditure of the State in fitting out volunteers, which gives the State $1,100,000.

Advices from Eastern Tennessee state that the Knights of the Golden Circle at Camp Boone, near Clarksville, are preparing an expedition with 10,000 men, to lay waste the country from Cumberland Gap, through East Tennessee and Kentucky to the Ohio river, and along that river to Pennsylvania.

Fort Pickens has just been supplied with thirty heavy guns, munitions, and 3000 shells.

Through the agency of traitors, it is said, Gen. McClellan's plan for making a reconnoissance in force, which might have resulted in cutting off the rebels this side of Fairfax, was betrayed to the enemy; hence their recent stampede.

On Sunday a rebel battery fired fifteen shells into the new camp, near Ball's Cross Road, of the 25th New York Regiment. Reinforcements were sent for, when the enemy retired.

F. G. Seybold and F. W. Walker, newspaper correspondents, were arrested yesterday, at Washington, charged with treasonable correspondence.

SHOCKING DEATH.—About 4 o'clock Sunday morning, the Portland Police discovered smoke issuing from a window in the fourth story of a building, and on going in, found the room to be on fire. After extinguishing the flames with a few buckets of water, they discovered a woman lying on the floor dead. It was an old lady of some seventy years of age, named Cobb, who had been round the streets begging. From appearances in the room it was evident that in attempting to reach some medicine that was in a chair beside the bed—the bed being on the floor—she set fire to her clothing from a light, also in the chair. The fire communicated to the bedclothes and suffocated the woman, who had thrown herself upon the floor. Nearly all her clothing was burned, and the floor all around the bed, but the woman appeared to be but little scorched.

☞ There is a great rush for the Nova Scotia gold diggings—principally from the other British provinces, and from the easterly portions of Maine.

FOREIGN NEWS.—The steamer Hibernian brings European advices to Aug. 16th. The English papers are still engrossed with the American question. The Times expresses the wish that the financial difficulties in this country may be increased to such an extent, as to bring both North and South to reason. The Globe denies by authority, the statement that Admiral Milne had reported the blockade of the Southern ports ineffective.

The marriage contract between the Princess Alice and Prince Louis of Hesse, was signed at Osborne on the 14th.

The special agents of the Cotton Supply Association had reached Egypt.—They were to have an interview with the Viceroy on the subject of cotton cultivation.

There is a vague report of a growing coolness between France and Austria, bearing an ominous resemblance to that which preceded the late war.

There are again indications of an approaching solution of the Roman question. It is reported that a mixed Italian and French garrison will soon occupy Rome.

The relations between Austria and Hungary are daily more alarming.

There had been disturbances in Portugal, which were suppressed by the troops.

There had been renewed trouble at Warsaw, and affairs were in a threatening condition. Strong military precautions had been taken.

The Independence Belge says, the first act of the new Prussian Ministry will be the recognition of the Kingdom of Italy.

The India and China mail, with dates from Bombay to July 12, and Shanghae to June 19th, had arrived in England. At Calcutta the cotton question excited much interest, and great efforts were making to encourage an increased production. The rates for new teas at Shanghae were extreme. The import to America had fallen off 5,000,000, lbs., this year. In the English markets cotton is reported quiet, without change in prices. Flour dull — Wheat declined. In other articles no change of importance.

The Bank of England has reduced its rate of interest from 5 to 4 1-2 per cent.

WAR.—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

Boonsboro', Md., Mch. 21, '61.

Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir—Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach—he was, after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.

The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all—in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, pronounce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. Yours truly, F. H. IRWIN,

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is unsurpassable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and sold by Preston, Kimball, Hutchings, J. H. Thacher, N. P. Thacher, Portsmouth; James P. Packer, Greenland; S. Hanson, Jr., New Market; Porter & Thyng, and Wm. B. Safford, Exeter; F. W. Green, Hampton Falls; and by dealers everywhere.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

References can now be given to some of the principal Physicians and numerous individuals in this vicinity, who have used the above remedy with the fullest success in various cases of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Sore Throat, Influenza, Irritation of the Uvula, &c., &c. The success of this remedy has been fully tested in various parts, where the moisture of the climate induces great prevalence of Colds, &c., and a certainty of the efficiency of a remedy is required to avoid Consumption and ultimate death. This remedy, although only recently introduced in this vicinity has met with a great demand, and every confidence is placed in its merits by those who have given it a fair and impartial trial.

American Women.

America is justly proud of its beautiful women: but how many die annually, or prematurely lose their health and youth for want of a remedy suitable to their peculiar ailments. That remedy is found in SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS. We know hundreds of cases where they have been used with the greatest success.—In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed,—moderating excesses and removing obstructions, whether from cold or any other cause. Suffer no more anxiety or low spirits, but try them. For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. my28 dawlm

Local.

☞ The General Association of Presbyterian and Congregational Ministers in New Hampshire, with a lay delegation, met in the North Church, in Portsmouth, on Tuesday morning. About sixty ministers and twenty delegates were present.

Rev. Dr. Boston, of Concord, offered the opening prayer, and the Concio was read by Rev. Mr. Hill, of Stewartstown, founded on the text, "Watchman, what of the night?"

The singing was congregational; the audience, including the Association, and two former pastors, Dr. Putnam and Mr. Whiting—making a good choir and a pleasant assembly.

At the close of the morning service a collection was taken for the Widows' Charitable Fund,—and the Association was organized by choosing Hon. Thomas J. Melvin of Chester, Moderator, and Rev. Samuel Riddel, and Rev. Henry C. Fay, Scribes.

☞ The exercises to-day at the North Church will be as follows:—at 9 o'clock, A. M., Reports from delegates to foreign bodies; 10, Addresses on benevolent institutions; 11, Anniversary of N. H. Sabbath School Union. At 2 o'clock, P. M., will be held the Semi-Centennial meeting of the N. H. Bible Society,—the address to be delivered by Rev. Nathan Lord, D. D., President of Dartmouth College. This evening, a meeting will be held, commencing at half past seven, for the discussion of the following questions:—

Is the prevailing method of employing stated supplies instead of pastors, compatible with the highest prosperity of our churches?

By what means shall we bring into service the unimproved talents of our churches? Speakers from Belknap, Derry, and Harmony Associations are expected to take part in the discussions.

DISASTER.—Ship Eagle Speed, Pickering, from Bassien for Falmouth, Eng. was totally wrecked on a shoal near Bassien June 17; crew saved. The Eagle Speed was rated A1, was 1118 tons, and owned by Messrs. William Jones & Son, and Richard Jenness, of this city. She was built by Mr. John Yeaton, in 1856.

☞ "John Halifax" states, in the Boston Journal, that the contractors for building the Candia Branch Railroad, commenced operations at Candia on Tuesday. Notwithstanding the war, land has risen very much in value on the line of this road since it was wanted for railroad purposes. Such was the high price of land between Hooksett and Suncook village, that the route between these stations had to be changed by the corporation or the enterprise abandoned.

☞ JUDGE NICHOLAS EMERY died at his residence, in Portland, on Saturday morning, aged 84. He was born in Exeter, N. H., Sept. 4, 1776, graduated from Dartmouth College, 1795, and then commenced the study of law under Judge Livermore of Portsmouth, N. H. He was admitted to the bar in 1779, and went to Parsonfield, Me., where he practised until 1807, when he went to Portland. In 1834 he was appointed an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Maine.

HARBOR DEFENCE.—Through the exertions of Mayor Wightman, the harbor of Boston is at once to be placed in a state of thorough defence. One hundred and sixty guns, many of them of very heavy calibre, are to be added forthwith to the armaments of the forts. The officer who is to superintend the work has permission to employ all the help necessary to complete it in the most thorough and expeditious manner. This is a good move, and one that ought to be followed at every harbor on the coast.

BRIDGE BURNED.—On Friday night last, the bridge across the river at Sprague's Falls, Me., on the Baring & Princetown Railroad, was burned, supposed by an incendiary. Persons living in the vicinity took no measures to stop the train which they knew would be along in the morning, but on the contrary looked calmly on to witness the train come round a curve within a few rods of the bridge, and pitch into the stream. Fortunately the conductor was able to check the speed sufficiently to allow the passengers and employees to jump off in safety.—Calais Advertiser.

☞ A southern paper says of the crop in Texas: "We regret to hear of the sad havoc the boll worm is making on the cotton crop. We hear of similar complaints from planters in the neighborhood of Chapel Hill. The cotton farms around Brenham are also showing that the boll worm has commenced the work of destruction."

A SINGULAR FACT.—On Monday we saw a Chinaman, a native of Hong Kong, though some years a resident of this country, and a well known tea merchant, purchasing tea at our stores to sell again. We understand that tea has advanced some 20 per cent. within a few months, and is likely to rise as much more before winter.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. A. G. Furber, Cape Cottage, Portland, for late Montreal papers.

LATEST.—It is stated 25,000 rebels are under arms in the Lagrange district, Tenn., all but 24 of the inhabitants having enlisted in the rebel army.

The pickets of Beauregard's army are nearer Arlington Heights than ever, but this is not believed to indicate an attack.

It is reported the English and French fleets on our coast are intended to serve at Vera Cruz.

An infernal machine, placed on Adams' express car exploded on its arrival at the Pittsburg, Penn., depot, Tuesday noon, killing two employees, and wounding a third.

A private letter, received in Boston from Gen. Banks' division, states that his army has left Sandy Hook, near Harper's Ferry, and is apparently moving in the direction of Washington.

SHELLS.—Not for cannon—we don't mean the dangerous sort; nor yet "shell out," on y a trifle; but the large variety of beautiful marine Shells, to be sold at Adams' auction store, for nothing—almost, compared to their real value and usual price. Such an opportunity to "gather shells" was never before offered here; and we believe to-day is the last chance.

Whatever doubts may be entertained as regards the Union, there is one thing that there can be no doubt about, and that is (for we speak from experience) that Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is the best and most perfectly healthy dough expander in existence. It is so far ahead of any other saleratus or soda, that all who use it, can see at a glance or a taste, that what we say is true. Go to your Grocer and get a paper of it, you will never use any other. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.—Most Merchants sell it. 6t

"Time tries all things," and has proven that Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is the remedy par excellence, for the cure of coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, asthma, phthisic, sore throat, influenza, and "last not least," Consumption. 6t

HENRY R. COSTAR:—All the summer I have been troubled with Roaches and Mice. I was actually ashamed of the house for the Roaches were everywhere. I purchased a box of your Exterminator and tried it, and in one week there was not a Roach or Mouse in the house.
JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94 Elm Street.

HOUSEKEEPERS troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used them to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but Costar's article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.) Gazette.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are annually destroyed in Grant County, by vermin, than would pay for tons of the Rat and Insect Killer.—Lancaster (Wis.) Herald.

HENRY R. COSTAR:—Your Exterminator is received, used, and pronounced a decided success. We used a box of it, and the way the Rats and Mice "raised Nell" that night, was a caution to sleepers. Satisfaction, and a Rat or Mouse has been heard in kitchen or cellar.—Magregor (Iowa) Time.

I HAVE BEEN SELLING your Exterminator for the last year, and have found it a sure shot every time. I have not known it to fail in a single instance.

"EVERYBODY"

WHO USES

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE

Is convinced of the fact that

It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,

Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

ST. LOUIS, MO., June 1, 1859.

Messrs. W. E. Hagan & Co.,—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four bit bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. BOSWYNALL.

Morning Chronicle.

The Boston Courier knows a man who purchased a horse last spring that was so throughly emaciated as to leave little hopes of prolonged life. He placed the animal in a yard behind the barn, where several cows failed to procure sustenance, and left him. At the end of a week he was surprised to find the horse very much improved in appearance. Watching the animal, he discovered that he sought for a fly, and "when found made 'an out' of it." The flies being plenty, the horse grew fat.

Over fifteen hundred United States sailors, stationed in men of war abroad, have sent to their flag ships a request to be drafted "in some ships serving against the rebels." One corvette, having only 330 men all told, records the names of 310 who want to fight. A petition from one vessel's crew ends thus; "Surely among the ten thousand blue jackets serving on the coast, there must be a few hundred that cannot burn for the fray as we do."

Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts. If any one speaks evil of you, let your life be so that no one will believe him.

Are you sick, feble and languishing? Are you costive, dull, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These are symptoms which often precede serious Illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you and should be warded off by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed to health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, neglect to use the proper remedies, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured me little despite of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her face and in her body. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Carbwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purgs. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR DOC. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an efficient cathartic in my daily course of medical disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1854.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Sheriff Clarion

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people. ay

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, cause speedily they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, LEONIDAS DALE, M. D.
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. C. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I add them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhoea. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the foundation of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have been as fortunate as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although not dangerous in itself, is the propagator of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills effect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very efficacious to discuss the catharsis and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawker, of the Methodist Episc. Church

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Meredith, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely cured.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 3 M. 1856.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has long afflicted me. JOS. PARSONS.

ay Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. They contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Also, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

PURE LIQUORS AND WINES FOR PRIVATE USE AND MEDICAL PURPOSES.

We offer to the country trade and consumers, a complete assortment of LIQUORS, WINES, &c., and would say that our experience of more than FORTY YEARS as Importers, is not only a sufficient guarantee for the Purity of our Goods, but that it enables us to offer advantages to buyers that cannot be exceeded by any house in Boston. Owing to the difficulty of procuring many towns, a strictly pure and reliable article of Liquors and Wines for medicinal and other purposes, we have for many years given special attention to filling orders for PRIVATE USE; and consumers will find it greatly to their advantage to send their orders to us direct, as we employ no travelling or other agents whatever. Persons who require Pure Liquors or Wines in large or small quantities, may rest assured that all orders will receive our best personal attention, and that every article sent from our house will be satisfactory in every respect. Communications by mail will receive prompt attention, with full and complete catalogue of goods, prices, &c.

Drs. Jackson, Herbert & Co.'s
15 Greatest Medical Circular Ever Published! 15
Fifteen large letter pages for two 3 cent stamps.

DRS. JACKSON, HERBERT & CO. are Associated Proprietors of the National Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, Cincinnati, established Jan. 1, 1859, for the cure of Private Diseases.

Prof Robert Jackson, Dr. Robert Herbert and M. Velpeau. Thorough cures effected with almost incredible rapidity, of Gonorrhea, Syphillis, Gleet, Nocturnal Emissions or self-abuse, Impotency, Stricture, Female Diseases, Diseased Emissions, in short, every possible form and variety of Secret Disease, and at the same time the general health of the patient improved, where any improvement in that respect is needed.

Our Dispensary Circular, of 15 large 8 in. by 11 in. letter pages, with full and special written Reply, sent promptly, well sealed, to any address for the amount of the postage, six cents! Every young man, whether

SICK OR WELL,

should have one. Also, a Circular intended for ladies only, nine large letter pages, for a 3 ct. stamp. The "Mountain of Light, or Medical Protector," a new book of three hundred pages, one hundred engravings; price, in stamps or money, 25 cts; and one of 84 pages, for 6 or $1 and nine cents in stamps. This book is fully described in our Circular. It is by far the most valuable and deeply interesting book on the subjects treated of, now extant; matters that in former works were merely hinted at, are here fully explained; it contains a full and explicit key to all the secrets of marriage, love and beauty never before revealed in any book in the English language.

SATISFACTORILY

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson's Female Pills, $1—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson may be seen at the Consulting Rooms of the Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, from 8 A. M. till 1 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 8 P. M.; at other hours either Dr. Herbert or M. Velpeau, or both, will be in attendance.

Male patients, when desired, will be furnished with large, airy, comfortable rooms, suitable board and careful attendance, for the few days ordinarily necessary to effect a cure. Patients do not see each other. The most ample guaranties of our ability and good faith promptly given when desired. Fees as reasonable as the very highest modes of treatment known to modern medical science, and a very long and varied experience will admit. P. O. Box 486. Send for Circular, and state your case plainly and fully,—and you will receive Circular and our written reply by return mail. We will answer no letter unless it contains six cents in stamps. Medicine and instructions sent promptly and carefully to any part of the world.

A new form of ship's hulls is coming into notice and practical use in England. The bow shaped like a salmon's head, the stern like the hind part of a swan. This is said to have great advantages. The vessel sails better when heavily laden than light, sends or lies to steadily, and is cheaper to build.—The "Laughing Water," constructed on this plan, according to her captain's account, "can do everything but speak."

A Scotch paper speaks of a fox having been seen trying to spring a trap by means of a stick that he carried in his mouth. We knew a fox once that took a well pole from the well and pushed a turkey off the lower limb of a tree with it, and put the pole back in its place. At least he got the turkey, and the well pole was found all right in the morning.

An idler boasted to a farmer of his ancient family, laying much stress upon his having descended from an illustrious man who lived several generations ago. "So much the worse for you," replied the farmer, "for we find the older the seed, the poorer the crop."

Taylor, in his discription of Greece, says: "Sardinia is free from all poisonous and deadly herbs, excepting one herb, which resembles parsley, and which, they say, causes those who eat it to die laughing!"

To Owners and Keepers of Dogs.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Portsmouth, June 24, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance NO. 39, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle, well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of this city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

For when the face is covered with unsightly pimples or Blotches, the sufferer cares only to be directed to use some safe and reliable remedy.
THE MAGNOLIA BALM WILL CURE
THE WORST CASE OF PIMPLES
IN A SINGLE WEEK.
It is so safe a remedy, that the contents of a bottle might be drank without harm. Physicians dose with wood-ver pills, and spoil cures, for it has heretofore been thought absolutely necessary to use preparations of lead or mercury to cure immediately, but the MAGNOLIA BALM contains neither. It is the most elegant and neatly put up article for sale anywhere, and may be obtained of all our Apothecaries and Fancy Goods dealers.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.
The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases, and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is not can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "as a bitter stomachic preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.
GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an invariant remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgic Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well.—DAVID BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgic Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 90 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism and that I proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgic Compound." After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 16, 1858.
—The Rheumatic and Neuralgic Compound has been taken by thousands of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1861.

THE REBELLION.—An important but mysterious naval expedition left Fortress Monroe on Monday, under command of Gen. Butler. It consists of the frigate Minnesota, Wabash, and sloop-of-war Pawnee, gunboats Monticello, and Harriet Lane, steamers Adelaide and George Peabody, and propellers Fanny and Adriatic, with a large number of schooners, barges, etc. The Quaker City was to follow in a few hours. The vessels carried over 400 guns and about 4000 men. Several powerful gunboats remain at Old Point and Newport News.—A brilliant achievement is expected from Gen. Butler; Commodore Stringham, and Cols. Weber and Hawkins take part in the expedition.

A flag of truce from Norfolk, arrived at Fortress Monroe with three ladies, and a number of prisoners captured by privateers. As the object of sending the flag was deemed rather inquisitive, Gen. Wool decided to detain it until the next day.

Seven spies have been arrested at Fortress Monroe and placed in confinement.

From Gen. Banks' division we learn the surgeon of Col. Geary's Regiment on Saturday took his sick to the general depot at Fredrick, Md. It is stated that Col. Geary anticipated an attack from the rebels.—The surgeon reported that he heard heavy firing near Poolesville, supposed to have been between Gen. Stone's advance guard and some of Gen. Johnston's force. He fell in with Gen. Stone, who, with a full battery and the Tammany Regiment, had started for the scene of action.

The mail messenger from Poolesville also reported having heard heavy firing in the same direction, and believed that a fight was going on near Edward's Ferry.

A dispatch from Cincinnati, Aug. 27th, says information had been received from the Kanawha river that Col. Tyler's forces at Summersville, were surrounded and badly defeated by the rebels under Gen. Floyd, early Monday morning.

There is a rumor in Baltimore that the four secession papers in that city are to be suppressed.

Recently in Missouri, one of our officers, a Lieutenant of the army, ventured into Gen. Price's camp to examine his location and forces. He was no sooner recognized than he fell, pierced by seven bullets.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular cautioning collectors to enforce the Act prohibiting commercial intercourse with the seceded States.

The Navy Department is satisfied with the abundant proof which Commander Porter has presented in refutation of the charges against his loyalty, his own affidavit showing the alleged Secession letter to his son to be a forgery.

In reference to the movement of Gen. Johnston, late in command of the Pacific division, the San Francisco Morning Call says that Johnston started from Los Angeles with a company, ostensibly for Texas. After leaving, a disagreement occured and they divided. Johnston returned to San Francisco and took passage for the East on a steamer. A portion of the original party proceeded into New Mexico. The reports that Johnston had arrived in Virginia are incorrect.

From Missouri we learn that Gen. Pope has information that Martin Greene, instead of threatening an attack on Athens, as heretofore reported, is fast moving towards the Missouri river. Gen. Hurlbut is pursuing him from Kirkville and Col. Moore from Athens. Green's force is estimated at 1200.

A deserter from New Madrid says that the forces under Gen. Pillow, except, perhaps, the Tennesseeans and Alabamians, are much demoralized, and are mainly held together by the belief that St. Louis will soon fall into their hands. The rebel force at New Madrid, under Gen. Pillow, is about 20,000; at Benton, Scott County, under Jeff. Thompson, 8000; and at Charleston, under Gen. Hunter, 800. He says that two masked batteries, not before heard of, are on the Mississippi, one five miles above New Madrid, and the other about the same distance below.

Tea, sugar, etc., were reaching New Madrid in large quantities by way of Paducah and Columbus, Ky.

☞ Mr. H. Chamberlin, of Ellsworth, Me., advertises through the columns of the Bangor Courier that he will serve the voters of Hancock County as Treasurer for one year, and pay his whole salary for the benefit of the families of volunteers! Let us pray for more such office seekers.

N. H. SECOND REGIMENT.

HOOKER'S BRIGADE, Camp Union, August 24th.

Dear Chronicle:—Wednesday evening at parade the 2d New Hampshire Regiment was presented with a splendid silk American Flag by the Boys of New Hampshire, residing in Philadelphia. It is a beautiful thing, elegantly mounted, and towers far above any other flag in the Brigade. It was presented by our Chaplain, Mr. Parker, who read a beautiful and appropriate letter from the donors. It was received in behalf of the Regiment, by Lt. Col. Fiske, who made a very neat speech in reply; after which we were addressed by Gen. James Wilson, of New Hampshire. The Regiment was thrown into a hollow square for the purpose, and he spoke very interestingly for half an hour, during which time he was often interrupted by the cheering of the Boys. He is a great favorite with the Second. He has taken great interest in the Regiment ever since we have been in Washington, and wherever we go he is sure to follow, to see the Boys and see how they are getting along, as he says. When we marched into Virginia he was with us most of the way, and when we were encamped at Centerville he came out to see us, accompanied by his daughter.

Friday evening the Brigade was reviewed by Major General McClellan and Staff. The Brigade was drawn up on a line in open order. The General, with his Staff and body guard of Cavalry, arrived about half past six o'clock. After receiving the salute, he passed to the head of the column and commenced the review, the several bands playing national airs, as he passed by the respective Regiments. After passing down the front, he returned between the front and rear ranks, the music playing as before. He is a fine looking man, and I don't think there was a man in the Brigade that escaped his notice.

He looks as if, when he said a thing, he meant it. The men behaved finely, and he was heard to compliment Brig. Gen. Hooker very highly on his command.

After he passed down the lines and returned, the Brigade was wheeled by companies into open columns, and marched by the Gen. and Staff in review. He also remarked, as the 2d, New Hampshire Regiment passed by, that it was a splendid regiment, and he told our Col. to make out a requisition for the Enfield Rifles, if he wanted them, for the whole Regiment.

The review ended about half past seven o'clock, and I can assure you it was a splendid sight, to see the bayonets of about 3500 men glistening in the rays of the setting sun, with the several bands playing, drums beating, fifes playing and the commanders of Regiments giving the necessary orders to their commands. It looked as if something was being done to support the Stars and Stripes and maintain the Union. Yours,

C. E. P., Co. K., 2d N. H.

Near Washington, D. C.

☞ Dr. Wm. B. Fletcher, a younger brother of Rev. J. C. Fletcher, was the first to enlist in one of the Indiana regiments. He was the one sent on the perilous duty of making the reconnoissance before the battle of Laurel Hill. He was absent four days, penetrated within the enemy's lines, and returned with the well drawn plans of the enemy's camp and position. A few weeks ago he was sent on a very dangerous scouting expedition, accompanied only by Clark of Western Virginia (upon whose head a reward of $1000 had been set.) It was in the vicinity of Cheat Mountain pass. Since that time nothing has been heard of them, and it is feared that they have been waylaid by the rebel mountain guerillas. His family was not aware of the fact that he was missing until a gentleman was sent to Dr. Fletcher, bearing for him a commission as Major.

FROM THE SOUTH.—Gov. Moore, in the New Orleans Picayune, calls on each family to contribute blankets for soldiers.

The Savannah Republican says the Confederate authorities within a week would complete the defences, so that no Federal fleet can enter a harbor or inlet, or land troops on the coast of Georgia.

The Vicksburg Whig advocates the manufacture of cotton seed oil for burning, the blockade having deprived them of material for light.

The Charleston Courier says an iron clad steamer, named the Rodolph, of 155 tons, has been purchased at Savannah for the coast of South Carolina; it makes 13 or 14 knots an hour.

The Fort Smith Times says an abundance of military stores are being conveyed to McCulloch's army in Missouri.

The Memphis Appeal's Richmond correspondent says there is much sickness among the Confederate troops in the neighborhood of Manassas—that the water is full of red mud, and ice extremely scarce at 10 cents a pound.

The Lynchburg papers say it is impossible to forward all the freight passing to Virginia from the West and South; a large portion thereof is daily shipped by the James River and Kanawha Canal.

NEW YORK CORRESPONDENCE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.

Dear Chronicle:—We have quite a distinguished visitor, this week, in the person of Mayor Berrett of Washington, who "put up" at the St. Nicholas on Sunday, with four aids-de-camp armed with 'six-shooters.' Perhaps we ought to add, that these aids belong to the police force. This boarding of "vile traitors" at the fashionable hotels is one of the many interesting developments of the age. Possibly our officials forgot the existence of an institution called the 'Tombs' in Centre street. Berrett proposes, or rather the government proposes to Berrett, that he make a sojourn at Fort Lafayette in our harbor during the warm season.

The 21st Mass. Volunteers, a solid looking regiment, passed down Broadway, Saturday afternoon. They rested at the Park, refreshed the inner man, and then proceeded on their journey.

Barnum, not to be eclipsed by his Boston friends, exhibits a live hippopotamus, "obtained from the river Nile by special permission of the Viceroy"—and has removed from the front of his building the motto "God bless our volunteers," and substituted one bearing the words "Living hippopotamus to be seen at all hours!"

Two New York regiments have gone to the war this week,—the Cameron Rifles, (who marched to the Battery, and before embarking raised a disturbance with the Fire Zouaves, in endeavoring to quell which a policeman was twice stabbed,) and the Lincoln Cavalry Regiment, which left to-day—making, in round numbers, a force of 115,000 men, which has passed down Broadway in the last four months, from this and contiguous States.

There was every symptom of a riot at the News Office last evening—an extra police force was detailed, and twelve strokes on the fire bells would have called out the military at any hour of the night. Wood, in his issue this morning, says he shall "continue to disseminate the principles of his paper even at the risks of property, personal liberty and life."

The next patriotic movement on the part of the liberal public will probably be the demolition of the building and the hanging of the editor. We think it a better plan, however, to hang first the 15,000 or 20,000 city subscribers, one by one, or by some patent machine swing several of them at once! The increasing demand for a machine of this kind opens a new field for the inventive genius of the country!

NEWINGTON.

A NEW CODFISH BANK.—A curious discovery has been lately made in the North Atlantic by some Scotch fishermen—nothing less than a rock in mid ocean, whose base is the home of innumerable codfish, which being unacquainted with the appearance of hook and line bite sharply, and fall an easy prey to eager fishermen. The bank was discovered by Capt. Rhodes, a master of the Resolution of London, who had a hint of its existence thirteen years ago from the mate of an Irish vessel. He sailed with two vessels July 2d, and returned on the 13th of the same month with twenty-seven tons of the largest cod. This solitary rock, which will for a time become the El dorado of cod smacks, rises about the height of a ship above the sea.

☞ An enthusiastic crowd welcomed Hon. Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, to Boston on Tuesday evening. There was a serenade, an eloquent address of welcome from Hon. Edward Everett, and a reply from Mr. Holt, which was received with the most flattering demonstrations by the thousands present.

☞ The "Alleghanians," Vocalists and Swiss Bell Ringers, of which Mr. Waldron, a resident of this city, is Manager, commenced an engagement on Monday evening, 26th, for one week, at the Howard Athenaeum in Boston. They of course have full houses.

☞ One day last week Mr. Oliver Como of St. Mary's Bay, N. S., having been informed by one of his children that a hawk was killing young robins in a willow tree near his house, went beneath the tree and fired up in order to shoot the hawk. On climbing to the nest he was horrified to find that he had shot his own son through the heart!

☞ A convict named William Coombs, who entered the Charlestown, Mass., Prison in 1858, under a sentence of five years, for having five wives, committed suicide Monday by hanging himself in his cell.—He was a native of Maine, and aged 28 years.

☞ THE EXPLOSION AT PITTSBURG was not caused by an infernal machine, as at first reported, but by a box of cannon priming for John C. Fremont. No one was killed, but two men were seriously, if not fatally, injured.

THE CONFISCATION BILL, by which vessels and other property belonging to the rebel states will be seized by the Government, will become operative on Sunday next, fifteen days from the date of the President's proclamation.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The different manufacturing companies of Manchester lose annually cotton cloths, delaines, bags, stockings, yarns and other articles of their make to the value of many thousand dollars. The operatives steal them,—some taking but little, thinking it no crime to take a small quantity. Recently, the Mills have employed detective officers, and four of the offenders have already been brought before the Police Court. They searched one house, and found a large quantity of cotton goods, drillings, yarn, etc., buried in the cellar. Within a few days, it has been ascertained that boxes containing these goods have been sent out of town and other goods burnt, the offenders fearing the officers were close upon their heels. The agent of one of the mills thinks the full amount annually stolen from the mills cannot be less than $20,000, and the agents are resolved to prosecute the matter, and arrest, punish and expose every person guilty of such acts.

—— The following are the staff officers of the Third Regiment:

Enoch Q. Fellows, of Sandwich, Colonel; John H. Jackson, Portsmouth, Lt. Colonel; John Bedell, Bath, Major; Alfred J. Hill, Portsmouth, Adjutant; Arthur L. Nesmith, Franklin, Quartermaster; John H. Thompson, Holderness, Commissary; Dr. A. A. Moulton, Concord, Surgeon; Dr. B. F. Eaton, Hanover, Assistant Surgeon; H. H. Hills, Manchester, Chaplain; Thomas M. Jackson, Portsmouth, Sergeant Major.

—— The Governor and Council appointed a special examining committee on the making of the uniforms for the Third Regiment. So far as they have inspected those which are finished, the work has been done in a durable and most satisfactory manner.

—— The uniforms of the Fourth Regiment will be dark blue coat and light blue pants—and blue blouse, as formerly.

—— A small boy named William Wells, who has worked for a man named Moore of Sanbornton Bridge, was arrested in Manchester, on Tuesday, and sent back.—He had stolen of his employer a silver watch, gold chain, gold boson shirts, and other gold articles. While being taken to station-house he threw the watch away, but it was found and returned with him.

—— The returns thus far made, show that 800 men have already enlisted for the Fourth Regiment.

—— The lowest bid for furnishing rations for the Fourth Regiment, while encamped at Manchester, was 16 cents per man.

One of the neatest replies ever given in a legislative body, or anywhere else, was made by Mr. Tilson of Rockland, Me. A member had replied to something Mr. Tilson had said, and pausing a moment, he inquired if he saw the line of argument. "Mr. Speaker,' said he, 'in answer to the gentleman, I would say, I hear the humming of the wheel, but I don't see any thread.'

A lazy fellow begging, said he could not find any bread for his family. "Nor I," replied an industrious mechanic, "I am obliged to work for it."

VOLUNTEERS WANTED!

In pursuance of a Proclamation by the President of the United States, and by order of the Governor of New Hampshire, the

FOURTH REGIMENT OF VOLUNTEERS

within the State of New Hampshire, will be enlisted for three years, unless sooner discharged by proper authority, to be held in readiness for service whenever called for.

In accordance with the above, and acting under the orders of the Governor of this State,

A RECRUITING OFFICE

Has been opened

At Jefferson Hall, on Market Square,

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.,

for the enlistment for three years, of able-bodied men. None will be received who are under the age of eighteen, or over the age of forty-five. All under 21, will be required to bring a written consent from their Parents or Guardians.

Volunteers who shall be accepted will be uniformed, armed and equipped, when mustered into the service, at the expense of the State; and their pay will be the same as that of the corresponding rank in the Army of the United States, to commence at the date of enlistment.

$10 Bounty will be paid to each Recruit as soon as mustered into service.

WAR.—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

Boonsboro', Md., Mch. 21, '61.

Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir—Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach—he was, after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.

The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all—in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, pronounce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. Yours truly, F. H. IRWIN,

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its Wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ WHEELER.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

References can now be given to some of the principal Physicians and numerous individuals in this vicinity, who have used the above remedy with the fullest success in various cases of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Sore Throat, Influenza, Irritation of the Uvula, &c., &c. The success of this remedy has been fully tested in various parts, where the moisture of the climate induces great prevalence of Colds, &c., and a certainty of the efficiency of a remedy is required to avoid Consumption and ultimate death. This remedy, although only recently introduced in this vicinity has met with a great demand, and every confidence is placed in its merits by those who have given it a fair and impartial trial.

American Women.

America is justly proud of its beautiful women; but how many die annually, or prematurely lose their health and youth for want of a remedy suitable to their peculiar ailments. That remedy is found in SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS. We know hundreds of cases where they have been used with the greatest success.—In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed,—moderating excesses and removing obstructions, whether from cold or any other cause. Suffer no more anxiety or low spirits, but try them. For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail. my28 daw3m

READING FOR THE ARMY.—The Rev. Mr. Rockwood stated, at the meeting of the N. H. General Association, on Wednesday, that the American Tract Society of New York, has furnished for our army, since last April, 2,000,000 pages of religious tracts.

The Society has published two excellent libraries; one of 25 vols., 18 mo., in a neat paper case, at a cost of $3, and containing such works as the lives of Gen. Havelock, Capt. Hedley Vicars, and Capt. Hammond—all works of the deepest interest. The other library of 25 vols., of pocket size, and flexible covers, containing "The Soldier's Text Book," "Col. Gardiner," "Soldiers' Hymns," and similar works, is published at $2. So great has been the demand for these libraries, that 700 sets have already been furnished, comprising 17,500 volumes and about two million pages.

Ten libraries were furnished to each of the two N. H. Regiments. About one hundred regiments have been supplied. This is a benevolent work. Contributions in aid of this work will be gratefully acknowledged, if sent to C. E. Conyers, 78 Washington st., Boston.

Mr. Rockwood, on Wednesday, sent a supply of these books to the Navy Yard, for the use of the sailors manning vessels fitted out here.

☞ The exercises to-day at the North Church will be as follows:—At 9 A. M., Business Meeting of the N. H. Missionary Society; and at 10 o'clock the anniversary exercises of the Society will be held, the address to be delivered by Rev. H. Q. Butterfield, of Somersworth. At two o'clock this afternoon, a sermon will be delivered by Rev. R. F. Lawrence, of Claremont, and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

The public exercises of the Association will be closed this evening, with preaching, commencing at half past seven.

☞ A sail boat, containing a man and two women, capsized in our river, on Tuesday afternoon, and three boats from the Navy Yard pushed out to their relief, and succeeded in bringing the occupants safely to the shore.

☞ Alonzo Fernald, of Kittery, a joiner, had his foot badly crushed at the Navy Yard, on Tuesday, by a heavy stick of timber. He was taken to the Hospital.

☞ A little son of Mr. John T. French, about six or seven years of age, fell from a window in the second story of his residence on Wednesday afternoon, and fractured his thigh.

☞ The City Government with invited guests, to the number of about thirty, went on an excursion down river on Wednesday in the yacht Florence, and had a good time generally. We regret that we were unable to accept an invitation to accompany them.

A Washington dispatch to the Tribune says that advices from Mr. Adams indicate a speedy recognition of the Southern Confederacy by the British Government.

A dispatch from Quebec says that the ship Simonds, of St. John, N. B., flies a secession flag at that port.

Anderson, who was arrested at Washington on Tuesday, confesses to having contributed editorials to the Day Book, News and Journal of Commerce. He also implicates Ben Wood and Isaiah Rynders in correspondence with the rebels.

The evening mail and express train leaving New York on Wednesday were to carry detective officers to seize all secession newspapers, and to arrest all persons having them.

Another flag of truce from Norfolk arrived at Fortress Monroe, Tuesday morning, to inquire after that which was detained. Our naval expedition having doubtless reached its destination, no further detention was deemed necessary.

Two ladies from Norfolk say that the rebels have lately assembled in large force near Sewell's Point, in anticipation of an attack from Old Point.

—A very serious accident occurred at New Durham, Tuesday afternoon about 2 1-2 o'clock. From some cause—probably friction of the machinery—the Powder Mills in that town, which were under the management of Mr. John E. Bickford of Dover, were blown up and entirely destroyed, and five of the men employed in the mills were killed instantly. One of the men was named Dow, and formerly resided in Newmarket. He went to work in the mills but a day or two since. The shock of the explosion it is stated jarred the tools on the benches in the machine shop of the Cocheco Railroad at Alton Bay, a distance of eight miles. The operators of the mill were employed in filling a large contract for powder for the Government. Loss about $12,000 or $15,000.

A young Englishman, while ascending Mount Blanc, slipped, fell on his back, and at a velocity of sixty miles an hour, slid over the frozen snow 1500 feet, finally bringing up at a crevasse, his rapid flight being terminated by an accumulation of snow on his clothes. He was conveyed to Saint Gervaise in a state of collapse, and a physician sent for, who treated him to restoratives until reaction was restored.

Whatever doubts may be entertained as regards the Union, there is one thing that there can be no doubt about, and that is (for we speak from experience) that Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is the best and most perfectly healthy dough expander in existence. It is so far ahead of any other saleratus or soda, that all who use it, can see at a glance or a taste, that what we say is true. Go to your Grocer and get a paper of it, you will never use any other. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.—Most Merchants sell it. 6t

"Time tries all things," and has proven that Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is the remedy par excellence, for the cure of coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, asthma, phthisic, sore throat, influenza, and "last not least," Consumption. 6t

HAIR RESTORATIVE

Is convinced of the fact that

It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,

Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.

"ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

ST. LOUIS, MO., June 1, 1859.

Messrs. W. R. Hagan & Co.,—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one four bit bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. BOSWYNALL.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are now offered to the public as the best purgative pill we can make, with the utmost confidence in their virtues we have ever employed, and your dealings in confidence tell us they have ever proved worthy your confidence. Those who have once taken them, know that we do not claim too much for them, when we say they are the perfection of purgative pills. Some of their virtues are their certainty, their gentleness, and their power to overcome obstructions in the bowels, stomach, liver, lungs, skin, and other organs, when they first begin to show themselves, and thus arrest disease in its early stage. Some of their qualities are their sugar coating, their preservation in any climate, their freshness in keeping, their purity, and their power to act upon the blood, and be assimilated by it, when they reach the stomach, and be carried by it to every part of the system, to cure the sick, and to leave the well and healthy. Take Ayer's Pills, and you will find they will cure the diseases you have, and save you from many others. Your friends will see the change they make in your health, and be glad to see you free from the pain, suffering, and danger, which disease in your system makes them feel will be the result to them if they take the disease you have. Your neighbors will see the good they do you, and be glad to have you free from the annoyance and danger you have been in from your disease, and be glad to know the way to health, by the use of Ayer's Pills. Your physician will see their effect upon his patients, and be glad to find a cathartic he can use with the certainty that it will do just what he wants done, when he prescribes it. Your druggist will be glad to have a cathartic that he can recommend to his customers, with the certainty that it will do what they want, and what he says it will do, when they call upon him for a cathartic. Your minister will be glad to see you free from the disease that has been weighing you down, and making you a burden to your friends, and yourself, and will be glad to know that you have found a cathartic that will do you the most good he knows of, when you need one. Your friends will be glad to see you free from the disease that has been making you so much trouble, and they will be glad to know that you have found a cathartic that will do you more good than any other they know of, when you need one. Your children will be glad to have you free from the disease that has been making you so unhappy, and they will be glad to know that you have found a cathartic that will do you more good than any other they know of, when you need one. Your servant will be glad to see you free from the disease that has been making you so cross, and they will be glad to know that you have found a cathartic that will do you more good than any other they know of, when you need one. Your friends will be glad to see you free from the disease that has been making you so much trouble

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Portsmouth, June 14, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance NO. 29, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle, well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of the city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.

The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.
GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 3 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles P. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, partially bed, I last year with a very severe attack. I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.
The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, 1861.

THE REBELLION.—The battle at Cross Lanes, near Summerville, Va., on the 26th, appears to have been a bloody affair. The 7th Ohio Regiment, Col. Tyler, was surrounded while at breakfast, and attacked on both flanks and in front simultaneously. Our men immediately prepared for battle, and fought bravely, while they saw but little chance for success. The enemy proving too powerful, Col. Tyler sent forward to the baggage train which was coming up, three miles distant, and turned it back towards Ganley, which place it reached in safety. Companies B, C and I, particularly, were in the hottest part of the fight, and fought their way through fearful odds making great havoc in the enemy's ranks. The enemy's force is estimated at 3,000 infantry, and four hundred cavalry, and 10 guns.

The federal forces scattered, after cutting their way through, but soon formed again, and retired, but received no pursuit from the enemy. Our loss is not yet definitely ascertained, but not over two hundred are missing from the nine hundred engaged. The rebel loss was fearful. Lieut. Col. Creighton captured the enemy's colors and two prisoners.

A dispatch from Memphis says, a battle is reported to have taken place at Cape Girardeau, Mo., Tuesday, in which the Confederates were victorious, creating a commotion at Cairo.

Secession in Connecticut is to be "squelched." A sheriff, on Wedesday went to Chester, 5 miles north of Bridgeport, and there took down a Secession flag. The new State law authorizes sheriffs and constables to take down treasonable flags; and the owners of them are liable to not less than 30 days' imprisonment or a fine of not less than $100. Prudential Committees are forming throughout the State.

The revenue steamer Corwin, which sailed from New York on Tuesday, is believed to have gone to co-operate with the expedition from Fortress Monroe.

A Washington dispatch says "the main object of the fleet which lately left Fortress Monroe, is, to blockade the Southern coast, and to obstruct certain inlets. No invasion is contemplated." It is not easy to understand how Gen. Butler and his 4000 men can be employed in enforcing the blockade.

Information has reached Gen. Banks' Division at Hyattstown, Md., that there has been much firing across the river by the rebels, at our pickets, at various points between Conrad's and Harper's Ferries since Saturday last, and it is reported an attack was threatened on Saturday at Point of Rocks.

Over 100 of the recusant members of the 19th N.Y. Regiment, voluntarily returned to duty. It was thought more would do so.

John B. Upson, late Paymaster's Clerk on board the steamer Pensacola, has deserted, after drawing three months pay.

Oscar Irving and Jonathan Amory, U. S. Despatch Agents, one at New York and the other at Boston, are authorized to issue passports to citizens of the United States going abroad, and to countersign those in the hands of foreigners.

FROM THE SOUTH.—A dispatch from Louisville, Ky., says that the railroad travel to and from the South is immense.

The Tennessee authorities took possession of the contents of Adams & Co.'s Express safe on Wednesday.

The Memphis Avalanche of the 27th says Gen. Polk's agent announces that no more impressments will be made for transports.

The Confederate Congress has passed resolutions approving of the course of the planters and factors in the interior in keeping their cotton at home, and the determination of the insurance companies not to insure the crop when it is not retained on the plantation.

The Charleston Mercury's correspondent says—"We are without the sympathy and friendship of say nation, and the only argument by which we can influence them is their necessities and fears." This correspondent also says the Confederates suffered more in killed and wounded than the Federals at Bull Run, and complains that no advantage was taken of the Federal flight from Manassas.

☞ A convict named William Coombs, who entered the Charlestown, Mass., Prison in 1828, under a sentence of five years, for having five wives, committed suicide, Monday, by hanging himself in his cell. He was a native of Maine, and aged 28 years.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A house in Epping, occupied by Mr. James Thurston, was destroyed by fire on Friday, the 16th inst., about 6 o'clock P. M. None of the family except small children were at home. The fire was probably caused by the children playing with matches.

—— The Dover Enquirer says the buildings destroyed by the explosion of the powder mills at New Durham on Tuesday, were the Kerneling Mill, the Drying Mill, the Press Mill, and an old Magazine. How the accident occurred is not known, as all who were at work about the buildings destroyed, were instantly killed. There were about three tons of Powder in process of manufacture at the time, and although the buildings destroyed were situated some 200 feet apart, it is supposed that the concussion caused by the explosion in one, was the cause of the destruction of all, as there were four distinct reports immediately following each other. The men killed were Henry S. Doe of Newmarket, Moores Moody, Francis Duffey, Patrick Driscoll, and Charles A. Jenkins, of Dover. The two principal Mills, and the large Magazine containing 500 barrels of Powder just manufactured for the Government, were uninjured. The buildings destroyed were of little value, and aside from the sad destruction of life, the damage can be quickly repaired.

—— Rev. Edward M. Gushee of Taunton, Mass., and recently graduated from the Theological School at Middletown, Ct., has accepted the Rectorship of St. Thomas (Episcopal) Church in Dover.

—— Since the call upon our State for troops, over one hundred enlistments have been made in Coos county.

—— Mrs. Edmund Blanchard of Cambridge, N. H., was caught in a bear trap last week while out blueberrying. The trap was set by her husband to destroy an immense black bear that had been troubling him this season.

—— The Coos Republican says nineteen deaths have taken place in the Magalloway settlements, from diphtheria, during the last two weeks. There are now so many ill with this terrible malady, that there are not enough persons in all these settlements to take care of the sick. One man in Wentworth's Location lost five children and two grand-children in one week—another near by, lost five children and his wife in a few days, leaving a young babe as the sole survivor of his happy family. This painful calamity will nearly depopulate those enterprising pioneer settlements.

—— Capt. Louis Bell, of Farmington, has been nominated for the position of Lieut. Col. of the Fourth Regiment, and Capt. Jerry D. Drew, of Salem, Major. Both served in the 1st Regiment.

—— Edward E. Cross, of Lancaster, has been nominated for Colonel of the Fifth Regiment of N. H. Volunteers. He has lived the past five years in Arizona, has been in the regular army, and has led a life of war and adventure.

☞ Letters have been received in this city from Charles Ridge, a member of Co. K, Second N. H. Regiment, who was supposed to have been killed at the battle of Bull Run. He writes as follows, from Richmond, Va.,—under date of Aug. 10th:—"I am well and a prisoner of war at Richmond. I am used well and in the hands of gentlemen. I never expected to leave the battle-field alive. I think there must be over one thousand, wounded and all, here. A good many have died, and more will,—but not from the want of care, for the doctors here use them kindly and do all they can for them." He states that letters to members of Co. K, 2d Regiment, who are prisoners, should be directed as follows.—"———, Co. K, Second Regiment, N. H.V., prisoner at Richmond, Va."

☞ One day last week Mr. Oliver Commo, of St. Mary's Bay, N. J., having been informed by one of his children that a hawk was killing young robins in a willow tree near his house, went beneath the tree and fired up in order to shoot the hawk. On climbing to the nest he was horrified to find that he had shot his own son through the heart!

☞ A rumor is prevalent that there are organized secession companies, fully armed and equipped from some unknown source, in the towns of Bethel and Stetson, Maine. That at Bethel is said to have hoisted a secession flag, and dared any one to take it down. Improbable as the rumor is, it is so far believed by the people in that section as to cause no little uneasiness.

☞ An unoccupied cottage house belonging to Mr. Harris, the accused cattle-starver at Newtonville, Mass., was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning—the work of an incendiary. Loss $2,000.

☞ The Exchange Bank of St. Louis has taken a loan of $16,000 required by Gen. Fremont.

☞ The funeral ceremonies over Gen. Lyon at St. Louis were celebrated on Wednesday with great solemnity.

REBELLION OR REVOLUTION.—The Boston Traveller suggests that we could manage the war more efficiently, more easily, and better every way, by accepting the consideration that the rebellion of the slave power has risen to the size and condition of a revolution, having for its object the destruction of our Government, and the conquest of our country.

The Boston Post also has an article of two columns signed H., taking similar ground, and discussing it very ably. It shows that up to the day of rebellion, the "South in co-operation with the Democratic party at the North," held and might have held the power in the nation.

"All this they threw away in their recklessness, and left Congress and the Democratic party of the North—who had sacrificed everything at home for Southern rights—in the hands of their opponents.—This justifies the position of the Northern Democracy in maintaining the Union, at all hazards, against this causeless and ungrateful secession and they no longer recognize a party at the South, which seeks, not for equal rights in the Union, but for the forcible overthrow and subversion of the Union. They go for the South in the Union, but for the flag and country, and not for the South in revolution against the Union.

"But groundless as is this attempted revolution, which, we all admit, carries with it the right of those who begin it as rebels, to judge of the necessity, and if the rebels gain strength enough from the people in revolt to maintain revolution, then their right is self-established, by force of arm, no matter whether they had cause or not. * * * And on this trial of our institutions of Government rests our great right in carrying on the war, viz: that while the South has only the extreme right of revolution, we hold the great right and the absolute necessity of maintaining Government. And, therefore, we have the supreme right of subduing this revolution by all external force we can apply, aided by the loyal people in the revolted States; for every Union man in such a State has a right to demand of the Government its full protection that he may not be expatriated and driven out of the Union against his will. * * * * And we have the right to exercise this necessity to the utmost limit of all our strength and resources, in order to make the Government of these United States just what the Constitution declares it to be, the supreme law and government of the land, in to every State that has entered into this Union.

Taking this grand position under the Constitution, is it it not a larger grasp of statesmanship to abandon the narrow view of mere rebellion, insurrection and personal treason—and at once raise the issue to the dignity of a war of necessity on one side, for the existence of Government, and on the other, for needless revolution? Let us accept the fact that Congress has declared war to exist and that the President is exercising the war-making power. Do this and the conflicts between the Military and Judicial powers need not intervene. The laws of civilized warfare will govern the contest, with all its incidents, exchange of prisoners, forbearance to the lives and property of non combatants, no massacres and no bloody executions; with martial law under military commanders whenever necessary in localities, and blockade and embargo of all Southern ports and places under national law, which must be respected by all civilized Governments.

TIMES CHANGE AND MEN CHANGE TO SUIT THE TIMES.—This is life-long experience; it is the testimony of every day. We go upon the street and find a half dozen democrats collected and hear them fiercely denounce the action of the government in refusing to convey certain newspapers by mail. They may be right or wrong; but let these men think a moment. Who first set this example? Who has robbed the mails for thirty years of newspapers of a certain class, and been sustained in their action? If we look back to 1835 we shall find Amos Kendall, then democratic Postmaster under President Jackson, claiming the right to exclude anti-slavery papers from the mail; and that has been done by every democratic administration from that day to this. Now, gentlemen, you have your own conduct returned upon you. You crushed the anti-slavery men when they were few and you were many, and now they trample upon you when they are many and you are the few. If they are ever so much in the wrong, you have no right to complain, for such measure as you gave that is meted out to you again.

THE NEW YORK PAPERS.—The Boston Traveller says:

The New York Tribune last week contained a communication denouncing the government and calling for a change in the administration, which is calculated to do more injury to the government, and is, we think, every way more objectionable, than any article we have ever seen in the Journal of Commerce.

We fully agree with this statement; and after a careful reading of the Tribune and Journal of Commerce, every day, we do not hesitate the opinion that in the last six months the Tribune has had twenty times the amount of matter against the Union and against the government, that the Journal of Commerce has. Indeed, of all the papers there has been none more reckless and extravagant, that we have thought worth reading.

☞ A prize fight took place on Saturday at Troy between two women. It lasted three quarters of an hour, and is said to have been a bloody affair.

A FALSE SPURGEON.—A fellow who passed himself off as Spurgeon, the famous preacher, has been deluding the Irish at Limerick. He stated to the hotel keeper that he was specially engaged to preach before the Queen during the royal visit to the romantic lakes, but that it was to be kept a perfect secret until the Queen's arrival. Of course, every attention was paid him. A suit of clothes was made to his order, by a fashionable tailor. The reverend gentleman put them on, and asked the messenger who brought the bill, to wait until he returned from the bank. The innocent messenger promised to do so. The reverend gentleman proceeded to the bank—that is to the bank of the Shannon, where he took steamer down river, leaving his carpet-bag, which was filled with hay, for the tailor and hotel keeper to nibble.

GREAT RAIN STORM. On Wednesday, a storm of rain fell at Cincinnati, Ohio which in the short space of two hours caused damage to property to the amount of $200,000. The quantity of water which fell was 3-35 inches. Before the storm the heat of the sun's rays was oppressive, and two cases of sun stroke occured in the city. Bridges were torn away, cellars filled by the flood, and in many instances the water rose to a considerable height on the first floors of houses. A German woman occupying a cellar was drowned, not having been able to escape in time. Another German woman was drowned while endeavoring to save her hogs. James O'Brien, a newsboy, in his desire to make sport out of the anger of the element, finding himself completely soaked by the first dash of rain, resolved to weather the entire storm, and attempted to stand in the rapid current that swept through a gutter. He was unequal to the task, however, and in less than two minutes was carried off his feet, and with great force hurled toward the sewer. A hackman, observing the distress of the little fellow, ran to his assistance and lifted him from his unpleasant position. A German woman, in her anxiety to save her children from drowning by the flood, placed them in a tub, in which they floated safely amid the general destruction which surrounded them.

☞ Peter Smith, of Brooklyn, N. Y., whose fortune appears to be as hard as that of old King Lear, had his three daughters arrested last week for assaulting him, and for inhuman treatment. Mary had hit him on the head with a club, Ann had kicked him down stairs and "battered" him out in the yard, while Sarah, more cruel and sanguinary than her sisters, threatened to cut his throat with a butcher knife. The interesting daughters were required to give heavy bonds to keep the peace.

☞ Blondin, who is now in England, has got a female rival, who is hardly so successful as the little Frenchman. One night lately she was to cross the Thames at Cremorne, London. She went half way, then remained stationary, and was unable to proceed, and dropped astride the rope. Attempts to throw lines up to her failed, the height being sixty feet. At length she flung away her pole, threw herself upon the guy rope, and hanging down into the water, gradually lowered herself into a boat.

SILVER BARS.—The Charlestown, Mass., Advertiser states that a few days since, several scow-loads of mud were dredged from Tea Wharf in Boston. A boy rummaging in the mud for hidden treasure, found an old Spanish quarter, and a silver bar two or three inches long, and about an inch wide. His success induced others to search, and about thirty bars, similar to the first, were found.

The statement that news had been received at Washington, indicating the speedy and certain recognition of the Confederates by England, is unfounded. On the contrary, the indications are that all the European Governments intend to continue to respect the blockade and await the result of the contest.

☞ Some of the Portsmouth friends of Adjt. Alfred J. Hill, of the Third Regiment have presented him with an elegant sword: We received the correspondence too late for insertion in this morning's Chronicle.

☞ Some unknown Greenland friends of Private Jeremiah K. Mahoney, of Co. K., 2d Regt. N. H. V., now at Camp Union, near Washington, have presented him with an elegant Revolver—for which he wishes to return his thanks through the Chronicle.

One boy in a shop is as good as a man. Two boys, however, are worse than none at all. If there be but one youngster in a room, he is as quiet and sedate as a Quaker. Introduce another, and ground and lofty tumbling and somersets over the stove are the order from sunrise till dark.

☞ "A small boy with a big heart on a bit of a pony," recently ascended Mount Washington. So says a correspondent of the Portland Advertiser.

☞ The powers that be did not send off the Third Regiment on Thursday.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—At eleven o'clock this morning the rebels advanced two regiments of infantry with artillery toward Arlington Mills. After a slight skirmish our pickets fell back.

This afternoon the rebels again appeared in force near Ball's Roads and opened a fire with shell on our pickets. Sherman's Battery was in position but made no reply.—The Massachusetts Ninth and Maine Second Regiments were thrown forward, and after a few shots the enemy stopped firing. They are in force near Chain Bridge. A large body of rebels is known to be at Falls Church. Their entire line of pickets is within three miles of our defenses. We suffered no loss to day.

Later.—Firing is going on at intervals in the direction of Ball's Roads. It can be distinctly heard here in the city.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—A messenger from the Virginia side this morning states that our picket forces have advanced to Bailey's Cross Roads and driven those of the rebels a mile and a half beyond, where it is said the latter are throwing up strong entrenchments, on a commanding eminence.

Most of our regiments were under arms Tuesday night, from Alexandria to Chain Bridge. The enemy advanced along the whole line, driving in several pickets, and then retiring. The rebels approached within two miles of Fort Corcoran. It is reported that they have a number of pieces of artillery near Falls Church.

The rebels on Tuesday shelled two houses occupied by Unionists, near Hunter's Chapel. Many Unionists from the vicinity of Alexandria are fleeing to Washington.

Major Slemmer, the defender of Fort Pickens, has been ordered to report to Gen. Rosencrans.

It is reported that Brigham Young has declared himself independent.

LATEST.—The rebels, encouraged by reports of the Springfield battle, are congregating in large numbers near Lexington, Mo., and committing outrages upon Union men and their property. Prominent Union men are daily threatened with death. Ex.-Gov. King has frequently been warned, but remains unshaken in his devotion to the Union. Assistance has been asked from Gen. Fremont.

"The messenger from the other side of the Potomac," states, at Washington, that a dash of rebel cavalry was made at what they supposed to be a deserted cannon; they fired a dozen rounds from their howitzers, and then discovered that some of the Union forces had mounted a stove-pipe on an old pair of wheels.

There was much firing between the pickets, on Wednesday, but without fatal result.

The enemy apparently are striving to provoke our army to come out and attack them.

Whatever doubts may be entertained as regards the Union, there is one thing that there can be no doubt about, and that is (for we speak from experience) that Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is the best and most perfectly healthy dough expander in existence. It is so far ahead of any other saleratus or soda, that all who use it, can see at a glance or a taste, that what we say is true. Go to your Grocer and get a paper of it, you will never use any other. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.—Most Merchants sell it. 6t

"Time tries all things," and has proven that Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is the remedy par excellence, for the cure of coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, asthma, phthisic, sore throat, influenza, and "last not least," Consumption. 6t

Special Notices.

DR. J. W. CHANNING,

(FORMERLY OF BOSTON, NOW OF NEW BEDFORD,)

The Great Cancer and Humor Doctor,

Has taken rooms at the

CITY HOTEL, PORTSMOUTH,

Where he will remain a short time.

DR. CHANNING gives particular attention to the cure of CANCERS, which he cures without pain. Do not say you cannot get any relief, until you have tried his Medicines, which will remove humors, such as Cancers, Scrofula, Abscesses, White Swelling, Affections, Erysipelas, Tetter Rash, Salt Rheum; Inflammatory, Chronic, Mercurial, Syphilitic Rheumatism; Fever Sores, Old and Stubborn Ulcers, and all Impurities of the Blood, which flesh is heir to.

DR. C. will give examinations and advice free on all diseases, and tell you what kind of humor or disease you have.

STUTTERING AND STAMMERING CURED in from two to six hours, so that his patient can read and talk with facility and ease.

PASSPORTS.

No Person Allowed to Go Abroad Without a Passport!

Persons going abroad can obtain Passports on application to WILLIAM H. HACKETT.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1860.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston,—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ. WHEELER.

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and sold by Preston, Kimball, Hutchings, J. H. Thacher, N. P. Thacher, Portsmouth; James P. Packer, Greenland; S. Hanson, Jr., New Market; Porter & Thyng, and Wm. B. Safford, Exeter; J. W. Green, Hampton Falls; and by dealers everywhere.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

References can now be given to some of the principal Physicians and numerous individuals in this vicinity, who have used the above remedy with the fullest success in various cases of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Sore Throat, Influenza, Irritation of the Uvula, &c., &c. The success of this remedy has been fully tested in various parts, where the moisture of the climate induces great prevalence of Colds, &c., and a certainty of the efficiency of a remedy is required to avoid Consumption and ultimate death. This remedy, although only recently introduced in this vicinity, has met with a great demand, and every confidence is placed in its merits by those who have given it a fair and impartial trial.

WAR.—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

BOOMBOOM, Md., Mch. 21, '61.

Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir,—Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach, he, after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.

The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all, in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, pronounce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. Yours truly, F. H. IRWIN.

American Women.

America is justly proud of its beautiful women: but how many die annually, or prematurely lose their health and youth for want of a remedy suitable to their peculiar ailments. That remedy is found in SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS. We know hundreds of cases where they have been used with the greatest success.—In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, and all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed,—moderating excesses and removing obstructions, whether from cold or any other cause. Suffer no more anxiety or low spirits, but try them. For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 Pills, by return mail: my28w2dawm

CERTAIN CURE, CERTAIN CURE,

—FOR—

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA

COMPOUND

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children, and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pains to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken three bottles, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from suffering of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W HAMMOND, 38 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir.—I long leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

ATWOOD'S

QUININE TONIC BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of the most leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of QUININE, skilfully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the system, promoting the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems, and overcoming disease; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

"One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system disranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding parts, inducing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, exposed to every deleterious influence, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Cleansed by timely obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by these means. Hence, if you have confidence in Ayer's Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with dropsy, and your Pills have given her relief in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORORIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR DOC. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Dalt, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people. ☞

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1855.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Grace, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in sickness. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co. N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify its fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Tenney, Cincinnati.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the prolific source of others far more serious. I believe our disease to originate in the liver, but your Pills effect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hooker, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1855.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me by the use of your Pills, if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and bowels, which not only caused racking neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Nevertheless, I tried the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were decidedly favorable. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These Pills do not contain mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

PURE LIQUORS AND WINES FOR PRIVATE USE AND MEDICAL PURPOSES.

We offer to the country trade and consumers, a complete assortment of LIQUORS, WINES, &c., and would say that our experience of more than FORTY YEARS as Importers, is not only a sufficient guarantee for the Purity of our Goods, but that it enables us to offer advantages to buyers that cannot be excelled by any house in Boston. Owing to the difficulty of procuring, in many towns, a strictly pure and reliable article of Liquors and Wines for medicinal and other purposes, we have for many years given special attention to filling orders for PRIVATE USE; and consumers will find it greatly to their advantage to send their orders to us direct, as we employ no runners or other agents whatever. Persons who require Pure Liquors or Wines in large or small quantities, may rest assured that all orders will receive our best personal attention, and that every article sent from our house will be satisfactory in every respect. Communications by mail promptly attended to, and all orders will receive prompt attention, with full and complete catalogue of goods, prices, &c.

15 Greatest Medical Circular Ever Published! 15

☞ Fifteen large letter pages for two 3 cent stamps.

DRS. JACKSON, HERBERT & CO. are Associated Proprietors of the National Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, Cincinnati, established Jan. 1, 1853, for the cure of Private Diseases.

Prof. Egbert Jackson, Dr. Robert Herbert and M. Velpeau. Thorough cures effected with almost incredible rapidity, of Gonorrhœa, Syphillis, Gleet, Seminal Emissions or self-abuse, Impotency, Stricture, Female Diseases, Diurnal Emissions, in short, every possible form and variety of Sexual Disease, and at the same time the general health of the patient improved, where any improvement in that respect is needed.

One Dispensary Circular, of 15 large 8 in. by 11 in. letter pages, with full and special written Reply, sent promptly, well sealed, to any address for the amount of the postage, six cents! Every young man, whether

SICK OR WELL,

should have one. Also, a Circular intended for ladies only, nine large letter pages, for a 3 ct. stamp. The "Mountain of Light, or Medical Protector," a new book of three hundred pages, one hundred engravings; price, in stamps or money, cents and one dollar, or 25 cts. stamp, or $1 and nine cents in stamps. This book is fully described in our Circular. It is by far the most valuable and deeply interesting book on the subjects treated of, now extant; matters that in former works were merely hinted at, are here fully explained; it contains a full and perfect key to all the secrets of marriage, love and beauty never before

SATISFACTORILY

revealed in any book in the English language.

Dr. Jackson's Perpetual Preventive—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson's Female Pills, $1—send for Circular.

Dr. Jackson may be seen at the Consulting Rooms of the Dispensary, No. 167 Sycamore street, from 8 A. M. till 1 P. M., and from 4 P. M. till 8 P. M.; at other hours either Dr. Herbert or M. Velpeau, or both, will be in attendance.

Male patients, when desired, will be furnished with large, airy, comfortable rooms, entitled board and careful attendance, for the few days ordinarily necessary to effect a cure. Patients do not see each other. The most ample guarantees of honor, secrecy and good faith promptly given when desired. Fees as reasonable as the very highest modes of treatment known to modern medical science, and a very full and varied experience will admit. P. O. Box 436. Send for Circular, and state your case ☞ plainly and fully,—and you will receive the Circular and our written reply by return mail. ☞ We will answer no letter unless it contains six cents in stamps. CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE. }
Portsmouth, June 14, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance NO. 39, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle, well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence. To the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of this city, and not on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

GEO. W. HERRICK, City Marshal.

MAGNOLIA BALM.
For when the face is covered with unsightly pimples or Blotches, the sufferer cares only to be directed to use some safe and reliable remedy.
THE MAGNOLIA BALM WILL CURE
THE WORST CASE OF PIMPLES
IN A SINGLE WEEK.
It is so safe a remedy, that the contents of a bottle might be drank without harm. Physicians look with wonder upon its speedy cures, for it has heretofore been thought absolutely necessary to use preparations of lead or mercury to cure immediately; but the MAGNOLIA BALM contains neither. It is the most elegant and meritorious article for sale anywhere, and may be obtained of all our Apothecaries and Fancy Goods dealers.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.
The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

"EVERYBODY"
WHO USES
HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE
HAIR RESTORATIVE
Is convinced of the fact that
It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,
Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.
"ANYBODY"
Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and is as safe—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

MESSRS. W. E. HAGAN & CO.:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one half bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "Inimitable" as being the very best and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. BOSDYALL.

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. F. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 18, 1860.
The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1861.

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE.

ATKINSON, N. H., Aug. 29.

The day is lovely, with the splendor of a summer sun, and the balm of a summer breeze; and the landscape, viewed from the elevated spot whereon I stand, is grand and beautiful. On the border of Massachusetts, I see not the imaginary line between the States; but I do see and admire the village of Haverhill, as it lies before and below me, like a pleasant picture.

I see the large farm houses posted round me on the many hills in this grand old farming town,—and more farm houses in perhaps a dozen towns in New Hampshire and Massachusetts. The evidences of thrift and comfort are about me on every hand; and "I rejoice in these habitable parts of the earth, and my delights are with these sons of men who" dig their living out of the ground, and with their daughters who light the household and make it truly a home.

Atkinson is a good sized township of first rate farming land, in rolling hills, affording hundreds of admirable building sites, but has only six or seven hundred people; 600 by the census of 1850;—and there is but a small collection of houses in the spot which might, by a figure of speech, be called the village.

There is an academy here,—once famous, now respectable. The building looks exactly like that in Exeter, except that the latter has wings, which the former has not.

The other public buildings are two meeting houses; the orthodox, of wood, and the universalist, of brick.

Our visit was to the latter, in which the Rockingham Association of Universalists have held their annual meeting, which began yesterday, and which was largely attended.

The exterior of the house is that of a plain, substantial brick building, with a steeple equally plain. A line, passing from the steeple to a house on the other side of the road, bears up the Flag of our Union. Entering, we perceive evidence of good taste and liberal appropriations, in the convenient and faultless pulpit, the elegantly frescoed walls and ceiling, carpeted aisles and pews, well painted wood work, and good organ.

The exercises were all devotional and religious, with the exception of a few items of business; and of course no detail of them would be expected here.

Votes were passed unanimously, expressive of sympathy, action and prayer for the country in its present day of trial;—and of respect for Rev. Drs. Whittemore and Horea Ballou 2d, who have deceased since the previous meeting.

In the course of the two days, sermons were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Hanson, Spaulding, Chambre, Twiss, Steere, and L. J. Fletcher.

There were thirteen ministers present, and a very large audience, crowding the house in every part, and filling several carriages drawn up outside the house, with hearers who listened to the sound of the gospel as it came through the open windows on this fine summer day.

A prompt and substantial choir was in constant readiness, and added much to the interest and pleasantness of the occasion.

☞ The latest foreign news is by the steamship Asia, from Liverpool 17th, and Queenstown 18th. She brings £4743 in specie.

The sales of Cotton for the week were 46,000 bales. The market closed quiet at a decline of 1-8d. Breadstuffs still declining. Provisions dull.

The King of Sweden continued in London, sight seeing.

A letter from an agent of the Cotton Supply Association, reporting the result of his visit to Egypt, gives an encouraging prospect of the productive capacity of Egypt for cotton. The Viceroy expressed great interest in its extension.

It is reported that the French government has instructed Goyon not to oppose the entrance of Cialdini into the papal territory, should the necessity of war require it.

The Italian soldiers had taken more insurgent positions.

It is asserted that the Austrian government intends calling on the population of Hungary to elect deputies to the Reichsrath.

☞ An Englishman has invented a covering of shell, ivory, gutta percha, or other suitable material, to be worn on the moustache, to prevent its being soiled with food during meals.

THE REBELLION.—The city of Washington has been full of reports of a fight on the other side of the Potomac, and the information about it is conflicting. Certain it is that the enemy in considerable force—infantry, cavalry and some artillery—have been hovering in the vicinity of Ball's Cross Roads, and some sharp skirmishing has taken place between the opposing forces—with what result, the accounts do not clearly indicate.

The Secretary of War has ordered the stoppage of all telegraphic dispatches for points south of Kentucky.

No tidings have yet been received from the expedition under Gen. Butler. The ships of war took with them in tow several hulks for the purpose of sinking them in the entrances to the inlets on the coast of North Carolina.

We have reports from St. Louis that Ben. McCulloch is marching on Jefferson City, the capital of the State, with a force of 10,000 men. It is stated that the Union forces are well disposed to repel such an attack as this is reported to be. There are 12,000 of our forces at Cairo and Bird's Point, 4000 at Cape Girardeau, 8000 near Ironton, 5000 at Sulphur Spring, 5000 at Jefferson City, Lexington, and Kansas City, 7000 at Rolla, and 20,000 to 30,000 at St. Louis.

Dispatches from Washington positively report that there is no truth in the statement that Mr. Adams represents the possibility of England's recognizing the independence of the the Southern Confederacy.

Later advices from New Mexico, confirm the report that Major Lynde had surrendered the troops comprising the garrison of Fort Fillmore, to the Texans. There were about 750 men who were disarmed, and released on parole.

A dispatch to the N. Y. Commercial says that a captain of a Maine vessel who, was taken by a privateer in May, and who was allowed the largest liberty by the rebels, is aboard of the Minnesota. He obtained valuable information in regard to the fortifications at Hatteras Inlet, and doubtless ere this has guided the naval expedition there, where it will operate in the reduction of the batteries.

The National Intelligencer is inclined to the opinion that so far from our military men dreading the approach of Lee or Johnston by way of the Upper Potomac, it is one of the very experiments which they would like to see attempted.

The "privateer" seen off Cape Ann proves to have been the well known yacht Wild Pigeon, on a summer excursion.

Col. Canby has by proclamation suspended the writ of habeas corpus in New Mexico. Fort Staunton has been abandoned by the U. S. forces. It has also been fired by order of Col. Canby.

The public will breath easier when they learn that Russell of the London Times has returned from an expedition among the camps, and reports our troops wonderfully improved.

The Government has strictly prohibited all correspondence and communication, respecting the operations of the army or military movements on land or water, or respecting the troops, camps, arsenals, entrenchments or military affairs within the several military districts, by which intelligence shall be directly or indirectly given to the enemy, without the authority and sanction of the General in command. Persons violating the same will be proceeded against under the 57th article of war, by which giving intelligence to the enemy is made punishable by death. All enlisted men in the volunteer service who have been taken prisoners by the enemy and released on parole, will be discharged from the service.

Another requisition has been made on Massachusetts for five additional regiments for special service. The nature of the service is kept secret, but the regiments are to be raised forthwith. Gen. Wilson's Regiment will constitute one of the five.

Many Union families not far from Alexandria are fleeing in haste to Washington, bringing with them all the household goods their haste would permit them to put in a wagon. They must fight for the rebels or leave Virginia.

☞ The working of martial law in St. Louis, has been rather amusing in one instance at least. An order was issued forbidding the carrying of concealed weapons. Two gamblers quarreled in the street, drew pistols and fired some five or six shots at each other. Both were arrested and brought before the recorder. One was fined five hundred dollars for discharging firearms within city limits and fifty dollars for carrying concealed weapons,—the other five dollars for unlawfully discharging firearms and fifty dollars for carrying concealed weapons. Both were then handed over to the military authorities, who condemned them each to ninety days work in the trenches at Cairo, for carrying concealed weapons. They are now doing their country some service.

☞ The wife of Mr. John Ducy, of Brooklyn, N. Y., committed suicide by drowning, last week, from grief at the loss of five out of six children.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— It is said Lieut. Col. Fiske, of the 2d Regiment, is to be Colonel, vice Col. Marston, wounded and resigned. In this event Maj. Stevens will be Lieut. Colonel, Capt. Barker, Co. A, becomes Major, and Lieut. Titus, Captain of said company.

—— Dr. J. C. Eastman of Hampstead, has been appointed Surgeon, Dr. Greeley of Nashua, Assistant Surgeon, and Rev. Mr. Willis of Nashua, Chaplain of the Fourth Regiment.

—— Rev. Mr. Church, late chaplain of the 3d Maine Regiment, has declined the invitation of the Methodist church in Augusta, Me., to resume his position as pastor, and has accepted the unanimous invitation extended to him to assume the pastorate of the Methodist church at Great Falls.

—— Rev. Mr. Wilkins, of Lisbon, has been appointed Chaplain of the Fifth Regiment. The Lieut. Colonel will be a West Point Cadet.

—— Mrs. Lee of Bedford, has contributed to the Soldiers' Aid Society half a dozen shirts of home-made linen, which served in the last war. They are in perfect preservation, and will do good service in the hospitals of our second revolution.

—— The citizens of Manchester held another large and enthusiastic meeting on Wednesday evening to give expression to their sentiments in regard to the war.—Speeches were made by Senator Clark, Hon. Frederick Smyth, and others.

—— The Boston Saturday Evening Gazette says Elder Samuel G. Wilson, of Lee, has a cat twenty-four years old, and the elder thinks she must have at least 300 children in that vicinity;—how many she had elsewhere, the Gazette does not informs us. "The grandmother of this cat adopted a rabbit that she caught in a field, and brought it up. She also made strange companionship with an insane man confined in a room, and would go out at his bidding to catch rats as often as ten times in a day, in a neighboring grist mill. The cat under notice has taken charge of four of her grandchildren born in the house, catching mice and birds for them, and looking after their wants generally."

☞ The Collector of the Customs for York, Jeremiah S. Putnam, has appointed Charles O. Clark Deputy Collector at York; in place of Washington Junkins, removed, and Samuel Webber Deputy Inspector at Cape Neddick, in place of George M. Freeman, removed. There has been but one arrival at the port of Cape Neddick during the month of July.

☞ Arrests of traitors are still frequently made by the government. Among the more recent, are Ellis B. Schnabel, for treasonable speeches in Connecticut; Wm. Patrick, a Wall street banker, for complicity with the rebels; Daniel Decket, editor of the Hagerstown, Md., Mail, a secession organ; and Gen. McCraig, State Senator from Alleghany Co., Md.

☞ The Massachusetts Republican State Committee have invited all persons who are in favor of union for the support of the Government, and for a vigorous prosecution of the war against wicked and unprovoked rebellion, to send delegates to a Convention to be held at Worcester, on the first day of October next.

THE RIGHT KIND OF TALK.—Gen. Fremont telegraphed to Washington for powder recently, and was informed that obstacles were in the way, preventing its immediate shipment. The General replied that, "no matter what obstacles were in the way, the powder must be shipped, and that without delay."

☞ Of the Democratic papers in Maine, the Bath Times, Augusta Age, Rockland Free Press, Belfast Journal and Bangor Times cordially support Col. Jameson, candidate of the loyal wing for Governor, in opposition to John W. Dana, the secesh candidate.

☞ The Canadians are investing considerably in United States bonds—so extensively as to cause the Montreal Commercial Advertiser to state that thereby the solvency of Savings Banks is likely to be compromised. The banks have been obliged to realize funds for withdrawal for such investment at much disadvantage.

☞ Arrangements are making for beginning work on Fort Georges, in Portland harbor, immediately. Work is also immediately to be begun on Fort Knox, in Penobscot. Some other harbors ought to be attended to immediately.

☞ Schooner Ocean Belle, Capt. McIntire, arrived at Portland on the 28th, after an absence of only one week to Seal Island Banks, with a freight of 13,000 lbs. of halibut, caught by her crew of four men. This is said to be the most successful trip of the season. The Ocean Belle is only 36 tons burthen.

The Richmond papers are enthusiastic about a soldier in a Georgia company who is only 27 years old, and whose wife is but 22, yet they have fourteen children, eleven of whom are at school.

WIFE MURDER.—John Riley was arrested in Boston, on the 25th, for a brutal assault on his wife. They had a dispute on the sidewalk, when he dragged her by one of her arms, into the house. He then continued his abuse, and kicked her. She went to a window, and called for help, when he threw her out of the window, where she lay upon the sidewalk, about six feet below the window, until picked up by policemen. It was ascertained that she had a severe wound upon her head, and that her spine was injured, so that she could not use her lower limbs. Thereupon she was sent to the Hospital, where she died on Wednesday. The woman was 38 years old, and leaves two children, one an infant. Riley was committed for trial, on the charge of murder.

☞ The Charleston, S. C., Vigilance Committee have passed a resolution declaring that in future any resident of Charleston or its vicinity who shall go to any of the Northern States, unless with the previous knowledge and assent of the committee, shall not be permitted to return, under pain of such disabilities or punishment as "the law" may decree.

☞ Died at Warren, Me., 17th inst., Col. James W. Head, in the 96th year of his age. He was the oldest pensioner in Maine, drawing his pension for services in the revolution in connection with the coast defense.

☞ David Wilmot, it is feared, is fatally ill at Towanda, Pa. The disease is cancer of the stomach.

"'Tis the last rose of summer," as you remarked when you got up this morning.

☞ The Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, containing a summary of the news of the week, this day published, and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room: price 3 cents $1 per year, in advance.

"Time tries all things," and has proven that Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is the remedy par excellence, for the cure of coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, asthma, phthisic, sore throat, influenza, and "last not least," Consumption. 6t

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combinations with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mixture exists in that

"Combination and a form indeed"

of medicine, known as

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption, is inestimable.

Strong Testimony

From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.

SOUTH ROYALSTON, Jan. 4, 1859.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston:—Gentlemen:—Although unsolicited by you, I cannot refrain from adding my testimony to the many already given in favor of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health, that after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon, through the influence of a neighbor, to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, though with no belief whatever in its wonderful curative properties; and before using two bottles the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor.

Thus has this balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts in this vicinity, literally snatched me from the yawning grave. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted.

Very respectfully yours, BENJ. WHEELER.

WAR.—WAR on Rats, Roaches, and on all kinds of Vermin.

Boonsboro', Md., Mon. 21, '61.

Mr. Henry R. Costar—Dear Sir,—Having occasion to visit a friend in Virginia, whose premises were so badly infested with Rats, that nothing could be kept out of their reach—he was, after trying various other preparations, persuaded to try your Exterminator.

The first test he gave it was in his barn; and to the astonishment of all, in the morning the floor was almost covered with dead rats. After seeing such a destruction of these horrid creatures, I have ever since recommended your invaluable preparation—and must, undoubtedly, announce your exterminator the most effective preparation for the destruction of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and such vermin, which has ever been brought before the public. Yours truly, F. H. EWIN,
(Editor of the Odd Fellow.)

American Women,

America is justly proud of its beautiful women; but how many die annually, or prematurely lose their health and youth for want of a remedy suitable to their peculiar ailments. That remedy is found in SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS. We know hundreds of cases where they have been used with the greatest success.—In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, and all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed,—invigorating exercises and removing obstructions, whether from cold or any other cause. Suffer no more anxiety or low spirits, but try them. For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 Pills, by return mail. my30 3t&w3m

Local.

☞ The U. S. Frigate Sabine has been reported ready, and will probably go into commission at once. The officers ordered to the ship have nearly all reported for duty, and a marine guard of forty-seven men, from Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived here by railroad on Thursday evening. A portion of the complement of sailors have been on board for some days, and the remainder—about three hundred—arrived here on Friday, in the steamer Nelly Baker.

☞ On Thursday afternoon, while assisting in discharging a cargo of coal at Chesley & Call's wharf, John Dwyre fell from the "brow" headlong into the hold of the schooner, striking his head on the keelson. He was conveyed to his house in an insensible state, and it was thought would not survive the injury, but he is now much more comfortable, and some hope is entertained of his recovery.

☞ Rev. Israel W. Putnam, D. D., is expected to preach at the North Church tomorrow. Dr. Putnam was the pastor of that church from 1815 to 1835. Since that time he has been settled over a church in Middleborough, Mass.

Rev. Mr. Bartoll, of Massachusetts, will preach at the Stone Church to-morrow.

Rev. Dr. Burroughs has accepted an invitation to officiate at the Unitarian church on the day of the National Fast, Sept. 26th.

☞ Mr. M. O. Hall, of Newburyport, has been appointed Paymaster's Clerk on board the frigate Sabine. The Herald says it is an excellent appointment, as Mr. Hall has every requisite qualification for the office.

The New York Times' Washington dispatch says that Gen. Scott expressed an opinion that the rebels must soon make an attack on our lines.

Information from the Confederates states that there was much sickness among them owing to the wet weather. Wheat, corn and flour were plenty, and everything else scarce. The rebels are very restless, and demanding to be led on to Washington, and are highly elated at the Bull Run success.

There is dissension in the rebel Congress relative to confiscation, some favoring a sequestration act and others advocating a total confiscation of all Yankee property. Eight hundred thousand dollars have been appropriated for a flotilla for the defense of New Orleans, and $160,000 for two ironclad boats for the defense of Memphis and the Mississippi river.

Jeff. Davis is still confined to his house by fever and ague, and Stephens is sick at Manassas.

An attempt was made to blow up a train eight miles east of Rolla, Mo., on Wednesday, but the explosion only covered the locomotive with dirt, and slightly wounded the engineer. A keg of powder was placed between the rails, and was exploded by the approaching train in some unknown manner when the engine passed over it. The explosion occurred on an embankment 1500 feet high, and if the explosion had been upward instead of lateral, the train would surely have been thrown down the embankment.

Lieut. Pinkley of the 69th Ill. Regiment, reports that some 2500 rebels, under the notorious Martin Green, took possession of Palmyra, on Wednesday morning. There were no U. S. troops to defend it.

Reports show that about 15 were killed and 40 wounded in the late engagement near Somersville, Va. Many of Col. Tyler's Ohio regiment scattered and are now missing.

THE COFFEE CROP.—Accounts from Hayti state that the coffee crop there promises an unusually large yield, and in view of the fact that the demand from the South is cut off by the blockade, it is not probable that present high rates can be maintained for any long period.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says Washington is remarkably healthy for this or for any season of the year. The rumor of the prevalence of typhoid fever in the Indiana regiment is unfounded, the report of the surgeon showing only half a dozen cases.

FALL STATE ELECTIONS. — Vermont elects her State officers the first week in September; Maine the second Monday.—In October Pennsylvania, Ohio and several Western States hold their State elections. New York and Massachusetts cast their votes in November.

Although Ben. McCulloch was "killed" two weeks ago, he was well enough on Thursday to write a proclamation. Dying is not so unhealthy as it used to be. This is a great country. Owing to the immense number of lies forwarded by telegraph, there is an old lady in Bath who don't believe that the war has yet commenced.—Utica Telegraph.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. John Denier, the rope-walker, accomplished a feat that completely eclipsed all his previous performances, in crossing the Schuykill river upon a tight rope, with his head enveloped in a sack.

NEW HAMPSHIRE FLAG.

A number of our citizens who are natives of the Old Granite State, have prepared a magnificent flag to be forwarded by the steamer of the first of August, and presented to the First Regiment of New Hampshire Volunteers, which is now stationed on the banks of the Potomac. The flag is of true regulation size, being about 6 feet 6 inches in length and made of the richest and heaviest silk to be found in the market. The stars, without a single one missing, are richly embroidered in gold upon a brilliant azure field. The staff is of California wood with a battle axe of solid silver and of elegant design and workmanship as head piece, and a silver ferrule at the bottom to fit the silver socket on the belt of the bearer, and silver rings to fasten the flag to the staff. The plate bears the following inscription: "Presented to the First Regiment of New Hampshire Volunteers, by natives of the State now residents of California. San Francisco, July 4th, 1861." In the centre of the blue ground, on either side, is a beautiful painting by Nahl. One side representing a Federal shield with an eagle standing upon it in the attitude of flapping his wings and screaming. On the other side are the united escutcheons of California and New Hampshire, the Golden and the Granite States. The embroidery was done under the superintendence of T. Rogers Johnson, and the sewing by Mrs. Rogers of Grover & Baker's establishment; the workmanship is in the highest style of the art. And the flag, taken altogether, for richness of material, chasteness of design and perfection of workmanship, has never been excelled, if equalled, by any flag which ever battled with the breeze.

It will be presented to the Regiment by Gen. James Wilson, of New-Hampshire. With the flag is an address on parchment. The following is a copy of it:

To the Officers and Soldiers of the 1st New Hampshire Regiment—Brothers: The sons of the Granite State send you these cheers from the loyal shores of the Pacific. Yours in the peak of danger and of honor, and since we cannot share it with you, we send this flag as a token that our hearts are with you in the glorious cause for which your swords are drawn.

When the country's call for help sounded through the land, we expected to hear that you were on the march to the field—and we did. We know well the spirit of patriotism that dwells among our hills, and the nation knows it. It was a son of New Hampshire—the country will never forget—who met the traitorous doctrine of secession on the floor of the Senate and vanquished it there. But now the advocates of that atrocious heresy, having abandoned reason, appeal to the sword. Let them be met by the sword; and we adjure you, let it be settled now that the American Republic is one and indivisible forever.

Herewith we transmit you this flag, procured and made amongst us. Accept it as a pledge of our respect and admiration. The stripes are all there, and it is ours to claim one of them for the good old Granite State. The stars are all there, and we trust to you that they will all remain.

Brothers, it is the symbol of our nation's sovereignty; bear it aloft till it is acknowledged everywhere by our utmost borders. Bear it aloft, and may the God of our fathers bless you evermore.

THE CITY GOVERNMENT ABROAD.—The members of the City Council, leaving the machinery of the City Government in charge of the Mayor, Clerk, and Deputy Marshal, went a-cruising down the harbor last Wednesday, in the yacht Magnolia, with a few invited guests, making a party of twenty, and had one of the pleasantest affairs of the season. The company was properly organized on the river, the modesty of the City Treasurer, Alderman Rider, and others, rendering the names of the officers unmentionable. The City Marshal was in attendance, but, though his services were frequently called for, only one important arrest was made, that of "Dull Care." Landing at Gerrish's Island, after fishing, a chowder dinner was served, and under the appetizing influence of the sea air bountifully partaken. There well nigh happened an extra item for the papers, when the dignified City Fathers barely escaped being upset into the surf as they were about embarking in the small boat to go aboard the yacht, — but as they were not upset we will say nothing of it, especially as the trip terminated very happily by a glorious sail homeward.

The General Association of the Congregational Churches in this State, held in Portsmouth the present week, was very fully attended by ministers and laymen from various parts of the State, and by delegates from other States. The report of the proceedings will be published in the Congregational Journal, of Concord. No little attention was given to the duty of churches in the present state of our National affairs. There was but one opinion expressed on the righteousness and justice of the course of the North, and the importance of imploring the aid of the God of armies to lead the right on to victory.

RECRUITING AT NEW MARKET.—Messrs. George E. Hodgdon and James K. Medbury, of this city, have received permission from Gov. Berry to open a Recruiting Office at New Market, for that and adjoining towns. Both of these gentlemen have received college educations, and are well posted in military affairs, the former having been for some time a Cadet at Norwich university. We understand it is their intention to raise a company of picked men, probably for the Fifth Regiment.

THE PENOBSCOT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—Bangor, Me. Aug. 29.—The Penobscot Democratic Convention assembled here to-day, and ratified the nomination of Col. Charles D. Jameson for Governor, with only two dissenting votes, and passed strong and patriotic resolutions in favor of sustaining the government and prosecuting the war for the suppression of the rebellion. The Dana Democrats had previously put a ticket in nomination.

We are informed that Mr. Charles C. Salter, of this city, a graduate of the Class of 1861 at Harvard College, will assume the charge of an academy at Dighton, Mass., early in September.

ATWOOD'S

QUININE TONIC

BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

AYER'S

CATHARTIC

PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are your bowels deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some kind of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. The Ayer's Pills will cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the functions move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and it obstructs its natural functions. These, if not removed, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disorder. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and how speedily the old feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic with which I am familiar, yet they are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR SIR, AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that is ever cured with a purgative medicine. I have the confidence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache and my body run down by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PRENDE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more efficient for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I am acquainted with, a result which we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D.C., 7th Feb., 1859.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I add them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses to bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 22, 1853.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them to be excellent pills. They cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. Hitherto, with all the means found therein as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint which is productive of so much misery in itself is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural evacuation when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to change the course much and long overdue. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawker, of the Methodist Episc. Church

PLEASANT HILL, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on extreme rheumatism, which could be cured by no other medicine. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Savannah, Mr. Lafayette, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilled hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These Pills do not contain a particle of mercury or any deleterious substance.

☞ One, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

REAL ESTATE IN NEW CASTLE

FOR SALE.

The TAVERN STAND in Newcastle near the road leading from Newcastle Bridge to Fort Constitution, is offered for sale on reasonable terms. The house has been recently put in a perfect state of repair, roof shingled, and house painted and papered throughout the interior, and is in every way fit for immediate occupation. It contains fifteen rooms, and is convenient for the business of hotel keeping and boarding. The House is within a few rods of Fort Constitution, and ample opportunities for fishing, bathing, boating, &c., are at hand.

The occupation of the Forts at the mouth of Portsmouth harbor, and the contemplated repairs of Fort Constitution promise here to an active and energetic landlord "who can keep a hotel," a handsome remuneration for a very small outlay.

CITY MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Portsmouth, June 14, 1861.

Having received directions from the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to strictly enforce Ordinance No. 39, which is as follows:

Be it Ordained, &c. SEC. 1. If any owner or keeper of any dog shall suffer such dog to be at large within the limits of Portsmouth, without a wire muzzle well secured, he shall forfeit and pay therefor a fine of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the city, to be recovered before the Police Court upon due complaint, which it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal, to make or cause to be made.

SEC. 2. And it is hereby made the duty of the City Marshal and the Assistant Marshals to kill or cause to be killed, any dog found within the limits of the city, and to sue for the promises of the owner or keeper thereof.

SEC. 3. Any person may lawfully kill any dog, found within the limits of this city, going at large in violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

The same will be enforced as directed, on and after Monday, June 24, 1861.

—FOR THE—
MAGNOLIA BALM.
For when the face is covered with unsightly pimples or Blotches, the sufferer cares only to be directed to use some safe and reliable remedy.
THE MAGNOLIA BALM WILL CURE
THE WORST CASE OF PIMPLES
IN A SINGLE WEEK.
It is so safe a remedy, that the contents of a bottle might be drank without harm. Physicians look with wonder upon its speedy cures, for it has heretofore been thought absolutely necessary to use preparations of lead or mercury to cure immediately; but the MAGNOLIA BALM contains neither. It is the most elegant and neatly put up article for sale anywhere, and may be obtained of all our Apothecaries and Fancy Goods dealers.
☞ Price 50 cts. a bottle.

HUTCHINS' HAIR DYE,
THE VERY BEST NOW IN USE, as many thousands who have tried it will testify.
The great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.
A large lot just received, and for sale by the dozen or single box, by BRACKETT HUTCHINGS, 4 Market street. apr24

"EVERYBODY"
WHO USES
HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE
HAIR RESTORATIVE
Is convinced of the fact that
It Will Restore the Natural Color of the Hair,
Where age or sickness has turned it gray, and that it will render it soft and glossy.
"ANYBODY"
Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much safety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article of the toilet has no equal.

ST. LOUIS, MO., June 1, 1859.
Messrs. W. E. Hagan & Co.—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, and my head partially bald, I bought from Henry Reynolds, Druggist, one fourth bottle of HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. By its use, my hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it removed all dandruff, arrested its falling, and gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any hair preparation I ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who all speak of the "inimitable" as being the very best, and cheapest hair preparation in our market. I can fully recommend it, and will refer any one to Henry Reynolds, Druggist, for the truth of my statements. WM. DOBYRALL.
